Jim Stratigos Represents Central at National Bellamy Award Presentation

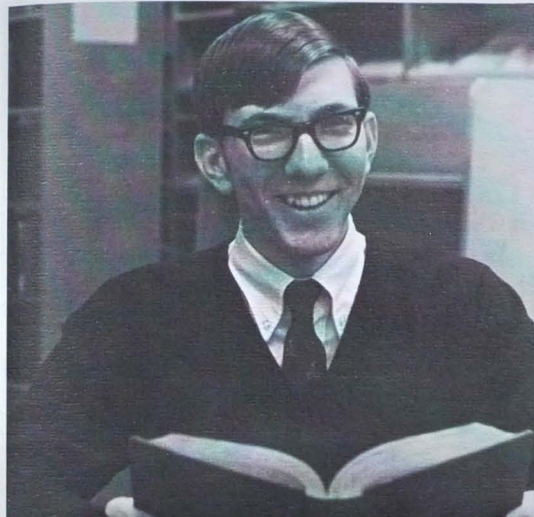

In 1963-64 Central became the proud recipient of the National Bellamy Award. This award, created by Miss Margarette S. Miller of Portsmouth, Virginia, is to acclaim Francis Bellamy as the author of the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America. The bestowing of this honor upon Central was due to these ten qualifications: principal's proficiency, alumni participation, ROTC and Girls' Battalion, Bible classes, faculty, public relations, administration's attitude, and the Honor Code. This year, 1969-70, Holyoke High School, in Holyoke, Massachusetts, was the recipient. Senior Jim Stratigos represented Central at the presentation where he presented Holyoke High with a 1968-69 CHAMPION, a picture of the new school, and a coon skin hat.

On November 9, Dedication Day for the new Central, Miss Miller, director of the National Bellamy Award, presented to Jim the first annual Bellamy Award emblem for outstanding participation at the Holyoke Bellamy presentation.

'69 Football Season Brings 8-3 Record To Pounder Gridmen

A strong offensive line helped give Central the passing it needed to balance its good rushing offense.

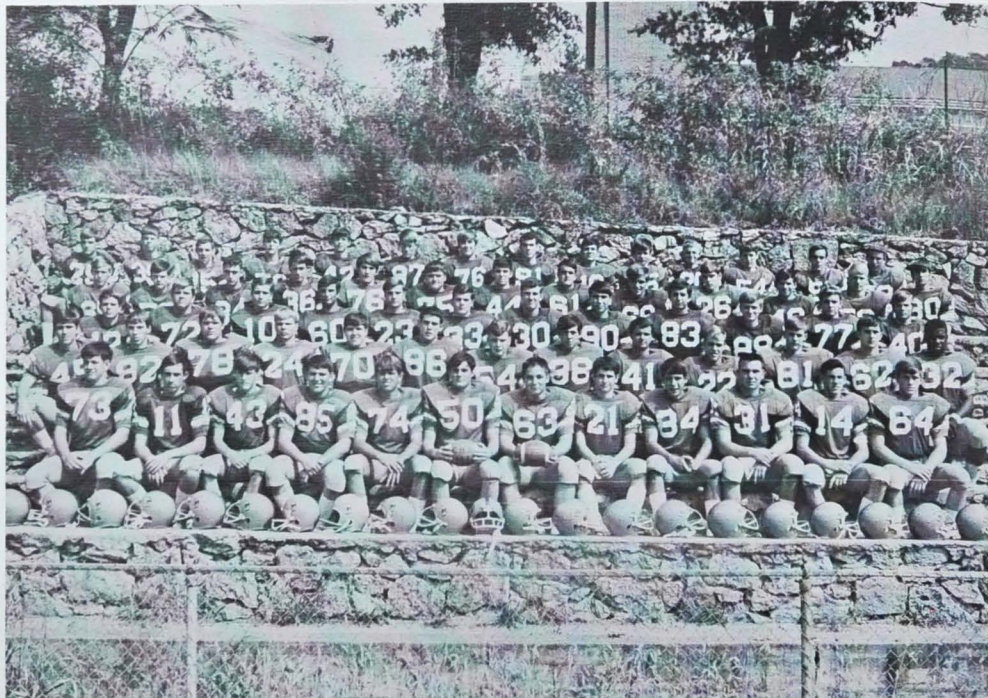

Exciting football and loyal fan support characterized a season which was brought to a close with the Civic Bowl game in Tullahoma.

The strong Pounder bench was called upon on this cold night as a hot Central team walloped Notre Dame 37-0.

Although the season saw many combinations in the Pounder backfield,⁴³ Goins, Radford, and Hunt teamed to provide vital yardage throughout the season.

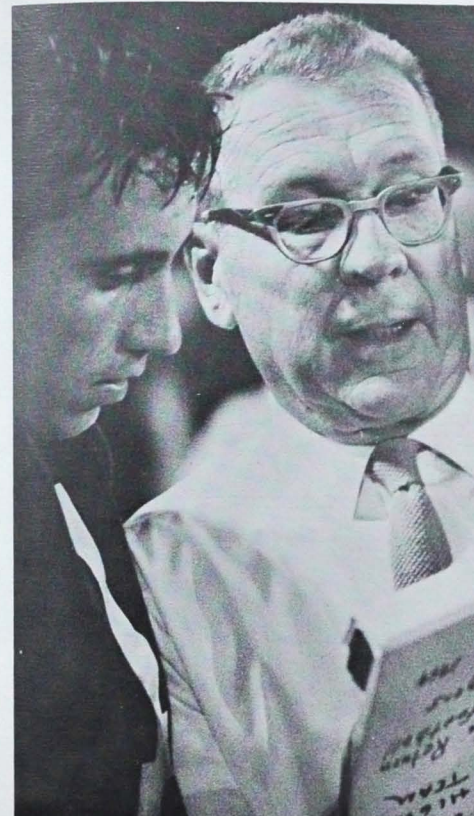

Gridiron Squad: First Row: Moore, Goins, Turner, Carroll, Ewton, Downs, Barclay, Oglesby, Sterchi, Young, Cagle, Houts. Second Row: Stevenson, Fennell, Underhill, Few, Stone, McHarge, Actkinson, Gibson, Helton, Williams, Killgore, Stewart, Radford. Third Row: Hollerbach, Hicks, Youngblood, Gulas, Luttrell, Cooper, Mullican, Bowman,

Captains for the 1969 football season were Bobby Downs and Jim Barclay shown here with head coach E. B. "Red" Etter.

Pounders Down City 29-6

Coach Etter calls the plays to quarterback Randy Goins as Central beats City, 29-6.

Gene Pratt attempts an extra point with Joe Hollerbach holding. Pratt took over kicking duties when Barclay, the regular kicker, was injured.

Central 29

White Station 14

Central started the '69 season by downing Memphis White Station 29-14. Henry Radford, Jim Hunt, T. L. Young, and Steve Sterchi each scored once as the Pounders unveiled a balanced offense. Meanwhile, the Pounder defense, led by Underhill, Downs, and Few, limited White Station to two touchdowns.

Central 29

City 6

After two years of one point victories the Pounders buried arch-rival City 29-6. Quarterback Randy Goins found receiver Johnny Turner with touchdown passes of 5 and 13 yards, while fullback Henry Radford scored twice in gaining over 100 yards for the second straight game. Defensively the Pounders held City until the fourth quarter with outstanding work from Underhill, Downs, McHarge, and Cagle.

Central 20

Riverside 0

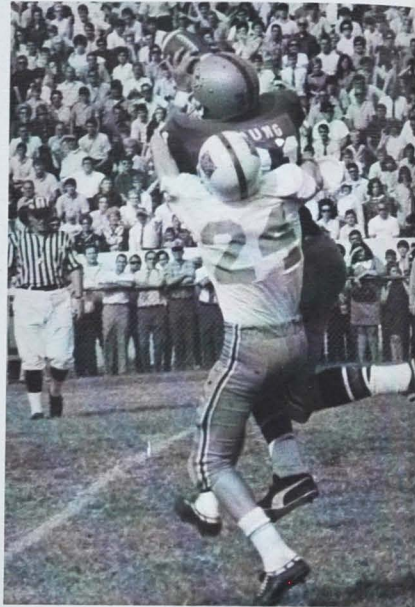

Mike Cagle starred both offensively and defensively as Central shut out Riverside 20-0. The 145-pound senior gained 62 yards in three carries, and intercepted two Trojan aeriels and scored twice. Jim Hunt had the other touchdown, as the Trojans were keying on fullback Radford. Stone, Barclay, Carroll, and McHarge were star Pounder defenders.

Central 38

Howard 6

Central's defense held Howard to a mere 13 yards total offense as the Pounders clouted the Tigers 38-6. Jim Hunt scored three touchdowns as Central capitalized on Howard's mistakes. Henry Radford and Johnny Turner added a touchdown each. Howard's score came in the fourth quarter on a fumble recovery which was returned 78 yards.

The band's concern for the Pounders is shown in the face of Karen Askew, majorette, as the band members proved to be some of the most enthusiastic supporters of the Central football team.

T. L. Young snares a pass for valuable yardage, despite tight coverage by the Rebel defender.

Central 0

Brainerd 14

The Brainerd Rebels ended Central's winning streak, upsetting the Pounders 14-0. Joe Collins scored both touchdowns for the Rebels as the Pounder offense was held in check by the strong defense of Brainerd.

Central 20

Red Bank 28

Red Bank used two long runs to upset Central for the second straight year, 28-20. Tom Patrick returned a kick-off 89 yards and Sam Gortney took a pass interception 65 yards for the Lion tallies. Henry Radford punched in for two touchdowns and Jim Hunt scored once for Central.

Central 38

Bradley County 20

Henry Radford paced the Pounders with 196 yards and three touchdowns as Central walloped Bradley County 38-20. Jim Hunt, T. L. Young, and Johnny Turner each added 6 points in an offensive display, Turner's coming on a 71 yard punt return. Downs, Houts, Sterchi, Stone, and Underhill were defensive standouts for the Pounders.

Central 7

East Ridge 0

Central slipped by East Ridge 7-0 in a rain-soaked Homecoming contest. Following a fumble recovery by Bob Few, T. L. Young posted the game's only score on a pass from Randy Goins. Both teams were troubled by turnovers on the muddy field.

Central 18

Kirkman 12

Central turned back a surprising Kirkman team 18-12 by fine defensive play. Jim Hunt scored first on a 2-yard plunge. Central increased this lead to 12-0 as Alan Houts rambled 36 yards with a fumble recovery. After a Hawk score, Randy Goins found Johnny Turner for the final Pounder touchdown and a 18-6 lead. Defensive play paced by Houts, Gulas, Underhill, and Carroll stood out as Central held Kirkman to one more touchdown and an 18-12 victory.

Central 37

Notre Dame 0

Central defeated Notre Dame on a freezing night as the Pounders clobbered the Irish 37-0. Mike Cagle intercepted 4 passes and scored twice as Radford scored once and gained enough yardage to total over 1000 yards for the season. Two more touchdowns were posted while Lewis Williams went 20 yards to close the scoring. The Pounder defense led by Cagle, Gulas, Stewart, and Underhill held on to shut out the Irish.

Central 6

Madison 7

Brilliant defenses by both teams brought about a score of 7-6 as Central lost to Madison in the Civic Bowl at Tullahoma. The Pounders scored first with Cagle going 13 yards and the extra point failing. Madison scored in the second quarter after a Pounder fumble. The game went on to be the defensive slugfest as a Pounder field goal went awry with seconds left in the game.

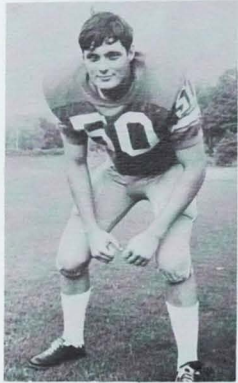

Mike Cagle, operating from one of three positions he filled at various times, speeded around the left end, looking for an opening to gain Pounder yardage.

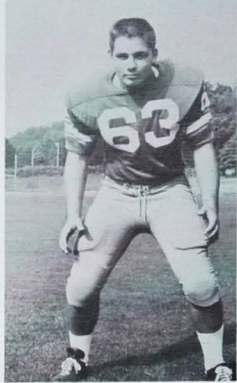

Jim Hunt, following his blocking, tries for a first down against a rousing Kirkman team which fell to Central 18-12.

E. B. "Red" Etter Leaves Central After Twenty-eight Years of Coaching

On February 19, 1970, the Central High School faculty and students made their farewells to Coach E. B. "Red" Etter. He resigned after 28 years of teaching and coaching to accept a position at Baylor as athletic director.

While head football coach at Central, Coach Etter compiled a record matched by few coaches anywhere. In 27 years as head coach his teams won over 200 games while never suffering a losing season. He also served Central well in the classroom by teaching several varied courses such as Latin and applied math. Through his coaching and teaching Coach Etter helped hundreds of young people to prepare for the future. These people, at Central now and those who have already graduated, will remember Coach Etter as a driving force behind the Central Spirit.

Outdoor pep meetings, new this year, proved to be more lively than ever.

Julia Massey, serving as head cheerleader, captained the Pounder cheering squad.

The cheerleaders often gathered for a few quiet moments before an exciting Pounder grid-iron clash.

Basketball Team Compiles 5-18 Record in Modern Gymnasium

Plagued by ineligible players and fielding an inexperienced team, the Central Basketball squad managed a 5-18 record in Central's first year in a modern, spacious gymnasium.

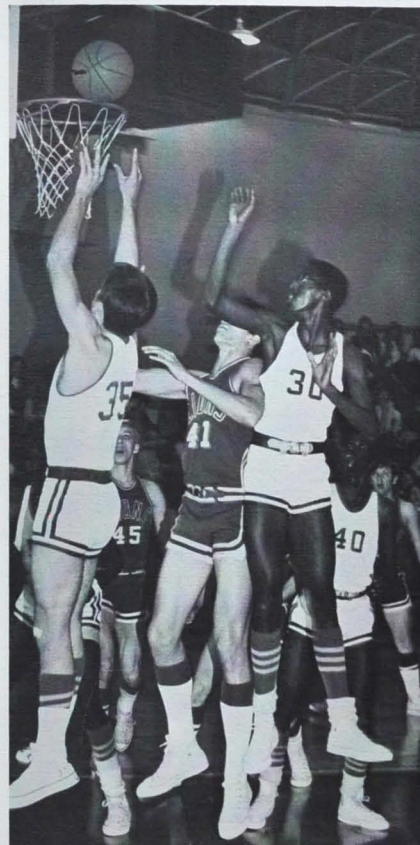

Seeing action at guard for the Pounders were Wallace Massengill, Jesse Murphy, George Lane and Rick Duncan, who finished the season as leading scorer. At the center position were Isaac Jones and Norman Mosely, while forwards were Jim Barger, Ronald Milton, Larry Luster, Jerry Mackey, and Nathaniel Hunter.

Pounder basketball improved in the late stages of the season, with the team winning four straight games before luck changed and Central dropped the last five contests, including a loss to District 11 Champs, Riverside.

Junior Rick Duncan Paces Pounder Scoring

Junior Rick Duncan made this layup after a steal from the Howard Tigers.

Everyone reached for the ball as Central played Notre Dame, a team the Pounders downed twice in the regular season.

With Barger and Jones underneath the basket to rebound, Larry Luster attempted a jumpshot against Howard in the district tournament play.

Sophomore Isaac Jones went high above the Tyner Rams to put two on the scoreboard for Central.

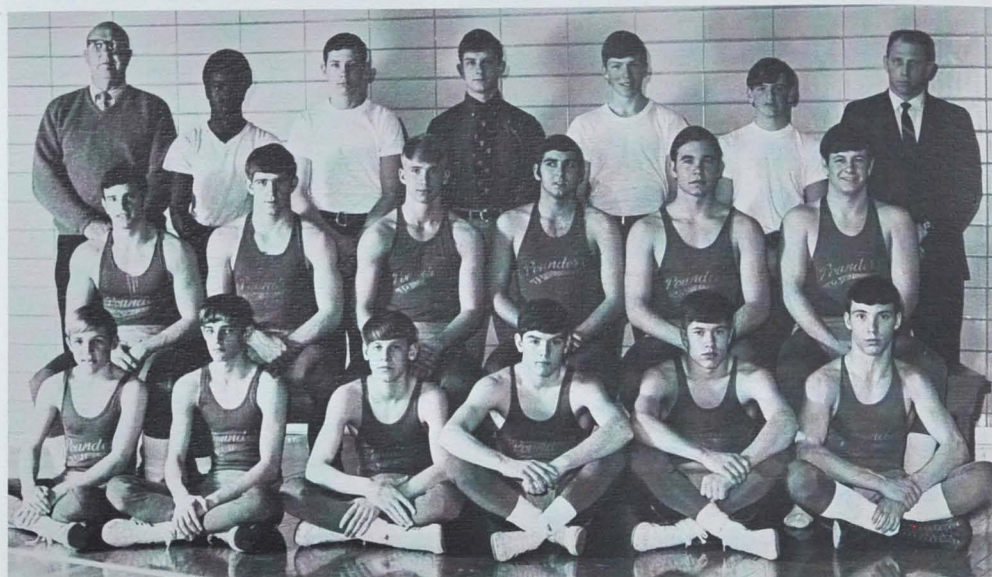

Forward Jim Barger shot from the side against the tough Red Bank Lions.

Ronald Milton put the ball in for two points from the baseline as the Pounders battled Red Bank.

Third Row: Coach Farmer, Shedrick Coleman, Gene Hilton, Terry McBey, manager; Ray Painter, Robert Gayle, Head Coach John Farr.

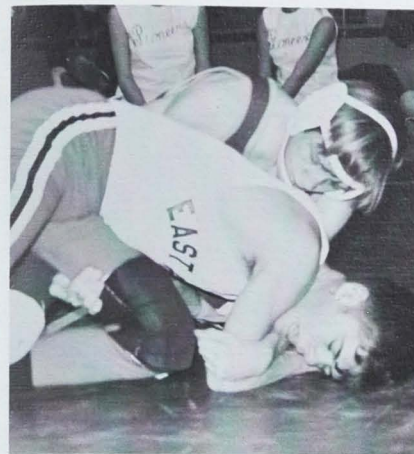

Directed for the first year by Coach John Farr and led by captain Jim Holman, Central's matmen compiled a 6-8-1 dual meet record.

Bringing with him a new system of wrestling and the Central Invitational Tournament, Coach Farr came to Central from a successful career at Red Bank.

Jim Holman, on his way to a successful season, muscled this Brainerd Rebel in a match.

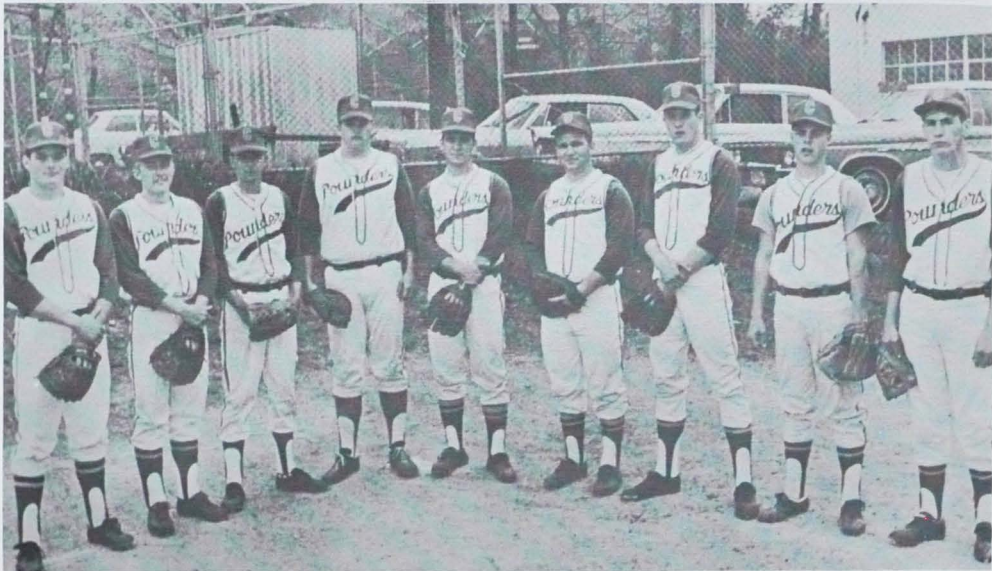

Heavyweight Jack Moore went for the pin in this match at the Central Invitational Tournament.

Here Coach Farr concentrated on the action as he tried to aid the Purple matmen to a victory.

1969 Diamondmen Capture District Crown

The Starters for 1969: Bobby Downs, Larry McGill, Tommy Hyler, Tim Thornhill, Ronnie Holder, Ricky Holder, Jim Nelson, Kyle Askew and Stan Cox.

Under the direction of Coach Archer the Pounder baseball team for 1969 compiled an 11-1 regular season record and went on to win the district title. The Central team sported a powerful hitting attack with three regulars, Ricky Holder, Ronnie Holder and Bobby Downs batting over 400 and first baseman Tim Thornhill blasting eleven homeruns. Central's pitching staff, paced by Stan Cox and Steve Wehmeyer, came through with sharp hurling when needed. Also seeing action were pitchers Mike Wyly, Mike Stevenson, Steve Guinn, and Doug McDonough. Central had to share the HIL Championship with City due to an early season loss, but went on to win the district tournament. The Pounders were eliminated from the Regional Tournament by a close loss to Shelbyville. Central's defense, along with its hitting, helped the Pounders down six teams in the district tournament.

Central Cindermen to Have Home Track

For the first year since Central renewed track competition the Pounder trackmen have a home track. With more men trying for positions than in previous years and with Coach Farr assisting Coach Smith, the Central cindermen were well-represented in competition. The season opened April 3 in a meet with all five of the Division A teams. The regular season ran four weeks in April. Returning from last year to lead this year's team were Anthony Crutcher, Ronald Moser, Bill Kimbro, Larry Ramsey, Jim Hunt, Steve Cantrell, Hunt Cooper, and Jack Moore.

This was the scene before the track was laid. Even so, in preparing for the season, the team managed to hold practice.

Central Linksmen to Have Only One Returnee

New faces will dominate the 1970 golf team as only one member returns from the 1969 team. Joe Hollerbach, a junior, is the only letterman on this year's Pounder linksmen.

Directed by Coach Archer, the team will also consist of a junior, Steve Shelton, and a sophomore, Buddy Nethery. The fourth spot is open to several candidates competing to round out the squad.

Joe Hollerbach returned as the only letterman from the 1969 golf squad.

1970 Golf Squad: Buddy Nethery, Joe Hollerbach, Steve Shelton, Coach Jack Archer.

Coach Jack Archer Attains Position of Head Football Coach

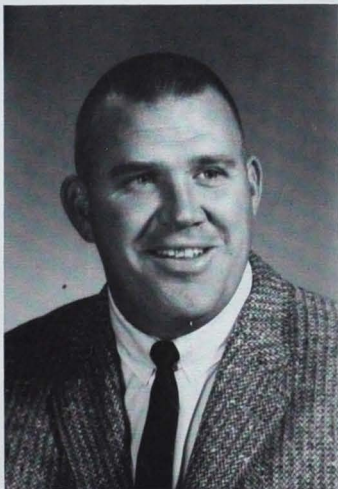

Since 1960 no one has had a part in coaching as many sports at Central as Coach Jack Archer.

Starting his career as an assistant coach, he was soon called upon to take over the golf reins. In 1964, when Central started a wrestling program, he again answered the call. Up until it was discontinued in 1967, the Central Junior High basketball team was led by Coach Archer. He then took over the position of Pounder baseball coach.

Coach Archer's most recent position for service came this year when he was selected to replace E. B.

"Red" Etter as head football coach.

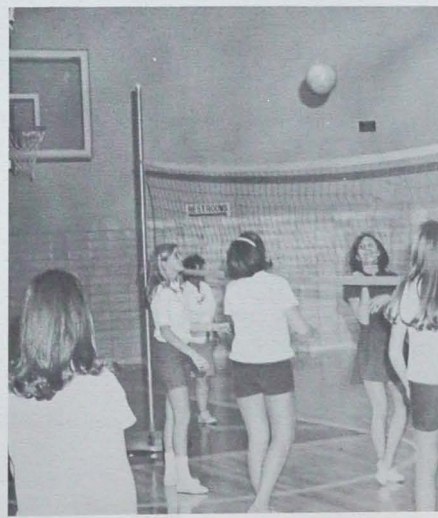

Becky Burns and Vicki Harris Head 1970 Volleyball Team

Volleyball Team Members: Bertha McDonald, Marcea Black, Gail Womack, Pam Rogers, Mary Snyder, Deborah Wiley, Martha Snyder, Pam Cain, Becky Burns, captain; Janet Barger, Vicki Harris, co-captain.

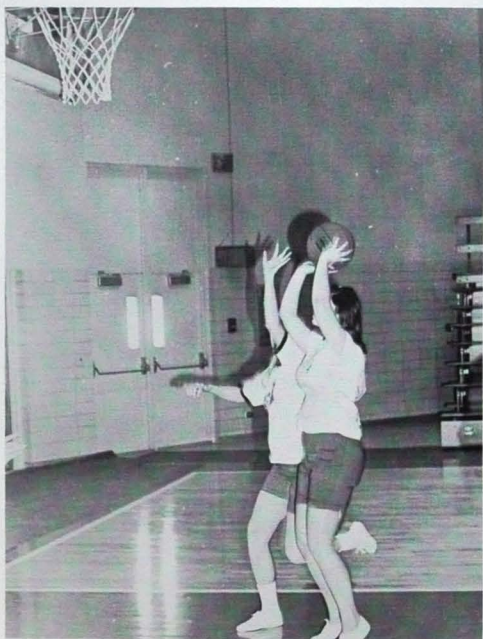

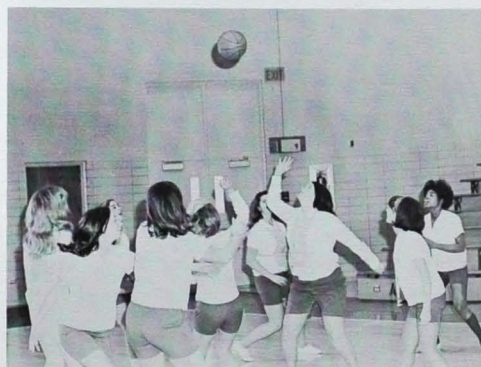

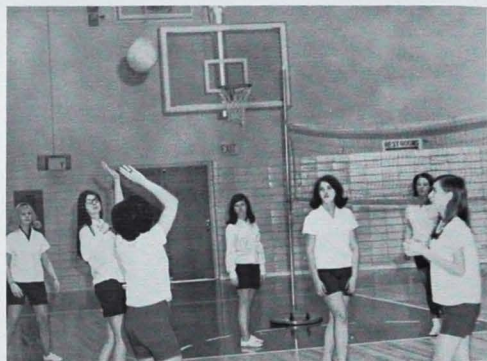

Vicki Harris and Mary Snyder energetically jumped to send the ball back over the net.

Waiting patiently for a chance to use a spike, Janet Barger and Becky Burns helped their team win the game.

National Association of Secondary School Principals Elects Mr. Millsaps As President-Elect

Dear Seniors,
I extend my congratulations to you—the first graduating class from the new Central High School. With such a distinct honor comes a particular responsibility not only of continuing the traditions that are dear to the great Central family but also of accepting the challenge of entering an era of greater opportunities provided by our new physical facilities. In this age of involvement, I have faith that you will exert your influence in a positive way. I appreciate the honors you have given me, and I wish for you a happy, rewarding, and successful life.

Sincerely,
W. Hobart Millsaps

Elected to the NASSP Executive Committee in 1965 and to the Board of Directors in 1967, Mr. Millsaps, through his record of distinguished service and achievement, has been chosen President-Elect for 1970.

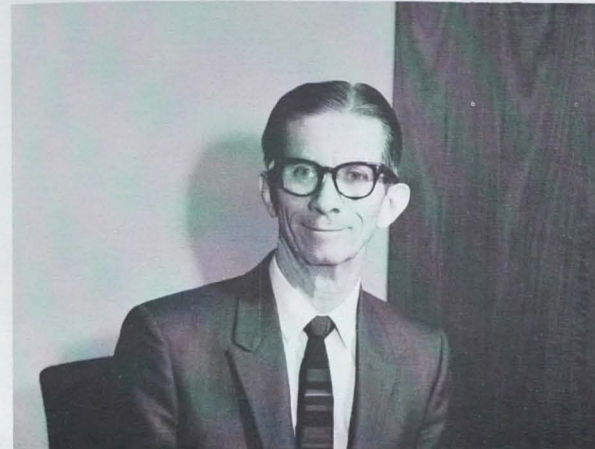

Leaving for Washington, D. C. to attend the NASSP Convention, Mr. and Mrs. Millsaps were given a "send off" by faculty and students.

Senator Gore, Mrs. Millsaps, faculty, and students greeted Mr. Millsaps on his return from the NASSP Convention.

Mr. O'Neal Serves As Efficient Assistant Principal in Changed Environment

As assistant principal, Mr. O'Neal performed various services during CHS' first year as a community school.

Meticulous tasks, such as keeping the clocks in working condition, numbered among Mr. O'Neal's responsibilities.

During a school power failure, students and faculty relied on Mr. O'Neal to provide a signal for changing classes.

Seniors Dedicate 1970 Champion to Mr. W. Hobart Millsaps

Because you have given your life so willingly to Central High School, because you stand for everything this school stands for—honesty, integrity, spirit, and knowledge, and because you are, in every sense of the word, an unselfish principal, we, the 1970 senior class, dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Millsaps.

Various Central functions have been enhanced by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Millsaps. Among their school-related activities this year was a faculty reception at the Millsaps' home.

Mr. Millsaps has been instrumental in helping Central to achieve many honors.

Our Champion photographer caught Mr. Millsaps en route to Hardee's!

CHS Loses Several Teachers To Retirement

To Central High School Mrs. Rebecca Haskins devoted sixteen years of her life as a math teacher. Although she has retired from the county school system, Mrs. Haskins has not retired from teaching. She has become an instructor in eighth grade math at Girls' Preparatory School. Mrs. Haskins has been an active Red Cross worker at Memorial Hospital for numerous years. In her school work and community service Mrs. Haskins willingness to serve others has always been evident.

Miss Mary Ellen Rice served as Head of the Foreign Language Department at Central for forty-one years. Since her retirement, she has traversed five New England states and her plans include more traveling. She has been invited to join a world tour in July which encompasses Japan, Brazil, and China. Miss Rice's leisure time has been spent reading, and visiting friends and relatives.

Upon leaving Central, Mr. C. G. Towery moved to Highland City, Florida, where he has acquired new hobbies such as growing oranges and grapefruits. He has also been using his free time to visit friends. Mr. Towery taught at Central High for twenty-six years. His many services as photography advisor of the CHAMPION and DIGEST staffs and as a professor of science will be remembered well by his associates and students.

After teaching Bible at Central for twelve years, Miss Margaret Winslett retired. Having moved to a new location, Miss Winslett became more active in her community. She said, "I spend a great deal of time in church work as a teacher."

Miss Winslett stated that she has had three lives: the first as a missionary in China, the second as a teacher at Central, and the third in freedom through retirement. She said, "I am generally having a good time, enjoying life, and getting younger every day."

In Memoriam

With the passing of Mrs. Anna Dyer on February 16, 1969, Central High School lost a noteworthy member of the Central family. She began her career as a Centralite student and later returned as secretary and assistant registrar. In the intervening years from student to secretary, she also became Mrs. J. Pope Dyer, wife of Mr. J. Pope Dyer, Sr., Central's social science department head. Mrs. Dyer attended Middle Tennessee State University. She was a charter member of Signal Mountain Presbyterian Church. She devoted a great deal of time, effort, and love to Central. "She worked patiently and quietly—not seeking recognition for her contributions," one faculty member recalled. Another faculty friend reflected, "Mrs. Dyer was quiet and unassuming—a lovely, gracious person." Mrs. Dyer's death was a tremendous loss to her family, her church, and to Central.

Mrs. Castle Retires After Fifteen Years As Central's Dietician

From the time she first came to Central in 1954 until 1969, when she retired, Mrs. Lorene Castle was known to all Central students for her smiling face, cheerful personality, and good food. In expressing her feelings about Central, Mrs. Castle said, "My work at Central was most pleasant and I enjoyed every minute of it." The friends she made here mean very much to her. "It's wonderful," she said, "to run into men and women years later and have them compliment the food that was served at Central when they were students. A compliment like that makes all the hard work seem worthwhile."

TO THE GRADUATES OF THE CLASS OF 1970:

The officers of the Central High School Alumni Association are happy to extend greetings to the graduates of the Class of 1970. They are aware of your attainments and your ambitions. They wish for you success in proportion to your ability, ambition, and application. These are crucial days and we urge you to continue your progress in education by attending the college of your choice.

The Alumni Association seeks to serve Central High School. Our projects are too many to list here. We constantly are looking for ways to improve our school. In order to serve the maximum, we need each graduate to join our association. When you are in a position to assist us, we ask you to join in this cooperative movement for the assistance of our school.

We wish for you the best in the future and we ask you to, at all times, elevate the name of our school, community, and nation.

OFFICERS OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

OBJECTIVES OF THE P. T. S. A.

To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community.

To raise the standards of home life.

To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.

To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may co-operate intelligently in the training of the child.

To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

A year of transition, becoming accustomed to a different environment . . . strange surroundings bringing problems with change, failure, change again, and perhaps, success . . . protest, argument, and understanding . . .

A year of several "firsts . . ."

Mr. Millsaps becoming president-elect of the National Association of Secondary School Principals . . . limiting the senior honors . . . zero degree weather causing the administration to allow girls to wear slacks . . . the addition of sixteen court attendants in Senior Day . . . entering classrooms from the outside walkways . . . parking permits on cars . . .

And yet, in spite of change, there is continuity . . . winning and losing . . . college entrance tests . . . homecoming and the prom . . . traditional Central spirit at pep meetings . . . the first day for scared sophomores . . . graduation . . . sheltered seniors watching the security of high school slip through their fingers . . .

A year older and, hopefully, a year wiser

good yearbooks deserve . . .
