A newly formed Booster Club along with the P.T.A., faculty, principal, and students aided in the completion of Central's stadium . . . A vital part of all fund-raising projects was the spirit of the faculty, Assistant Principal Stanley Farmer and Principal W. Hobart Millsaps . . . Students Beth Itinger and Carla Minnick sold '71 Pinto raffle tickets sponsored by the Booster Club . . . 100 alumni attended a $2.25 plate dinner to help the Pounders finish their new home . . .

Tradition and Progress Inspire Alumni and Students to Complete a Home for the Purple Pounders

285 Seniors Strive to Create an Atmosphere of Enthusiasm and Vitality for Future Centralites

Seniors boosted the "new" Central spirit until it far surpassed the "old" . . . Senior majorettes, Karen Askew and Teresa Railey, set an example to underclassmen majorettes of a revived enthusiasm for the Purple Pounders . . . In Mrs. Clarone Hughes' bookkeeping class, Senior John McQueen illustrated to underclassmen that cleanliness is a part of one's enthusiastic support of his school . . . In the commons the class of '71 with such members as Ken Johnson, Randy Green, and John gathered to order graduation invitations which marked the beginning of a transfer of their energetic spirit to the class of '72 . . . Cheerleaders Karen Weaks, Aileen Bradford, and Ann Legg, along with other senior cheerleaders, inspired Centralites with their introduction of "Spirit Week"

. . . Ann Helton, Pat Jolley, Kathy Langley, and Wanda Rogers' shouts of the senior class yell, "Pounders, Pounders, best to come, we're the class of '71," brought an eager response by the classes of '72 and '73 . . .

Central's Constituents Continue to Uphold the Honored Reputation of Central High School

Additional honors brought continued recognition to Central's honored reputation . . . Danny Sharp's speech, as CHS representative to National Bellamy Award Presentation received praise from Tennessee's Governor Buford Ellington . . . K. Askeu, in addition to reigning as Homecoming Queen, was also a semi-finalist in Junior Miss Pageant . . . Ten peppy cheerleaders won Central's first "Spirit Stick" as a result of winning "Superior" at National Cheerleading Association held in Spartanburg, S.C. . . Constant support of school activities helped win the additional honors . . . Mike Wyly, representing summer baseball team, added first-place trophy to the large collection of Pounder trophies . . . Becoming President of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, Mr. Millsaps attained another unique distinction for Central's honored reputation . . .

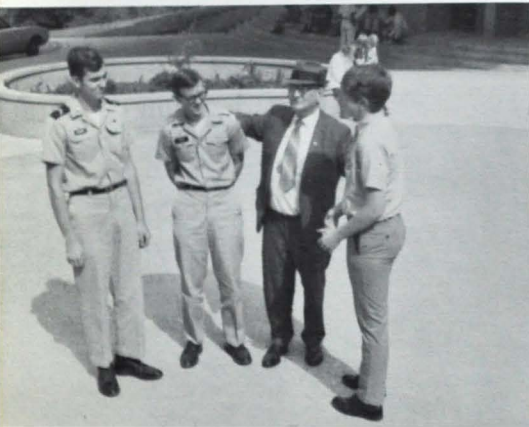

Her Sons and Daughters Seek to Learn by Various Methods

Various teaching methods motivated students . . . Mrs. Frank Robbins brought the Elizabethan Age to life by leading classroom discussions and by assigning projects . . . Earphones and tape recorders enabled students to know not only Bach, but also Steppenwolf . . . Student teachers such as Mr. Dale Cross motivated classroom participation on such controversial issues as drugs, alcohol and crime . . . Continuous research into back issues of the DIGEST aided staff members, Nolan Nerren, Ken Johnson, Monica Partin, Janet Kropff and Steve Horten, in their knowledge of newspaper composition . . . For sewing skills, Judy Trivett found learning by doing to be the best of all the learning methods . . .

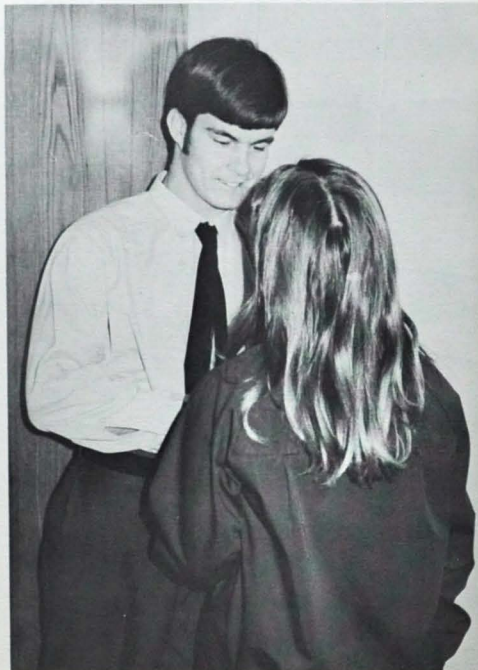

At Central 1021 Individuals Unite to Form a Lasting Partnership

Among the individuals who held a joint interest in Central were the faculty . . . Mr. J. Pope Dyer impressed himself in the hearts and minds of Central students by his wise counsel and relevant instruction . . . Other instructors such as Mrs. Frank Robbins, Mrs. Dorothy Stone, Miss Marjorie Ogle, and Mrs. Louise Caudle exhibited faculty unity . . . Students also joined in cementing the Central bond . . . Seniors Darryl Steadman and Becky Tankersley found Central a place for uniting common goals and ideas . . . Junior Gwen Brundridge, along with others, proved at Friday pep meetings that she had an interest in CHS . . . Sophomores Michelle Georgeson and Ann Hurt formed a friendship bond with seniors such as Starr Ivester

. . . Sophomore Carol Satterfield, Senior Pauletta Burney and Senior Diana Chavis discovered a "meeting ground" for a friendship foundation . . . Individuals—teacher and student, teacher and teacher, student and student—united in '71 to form a lasting partnership . . .

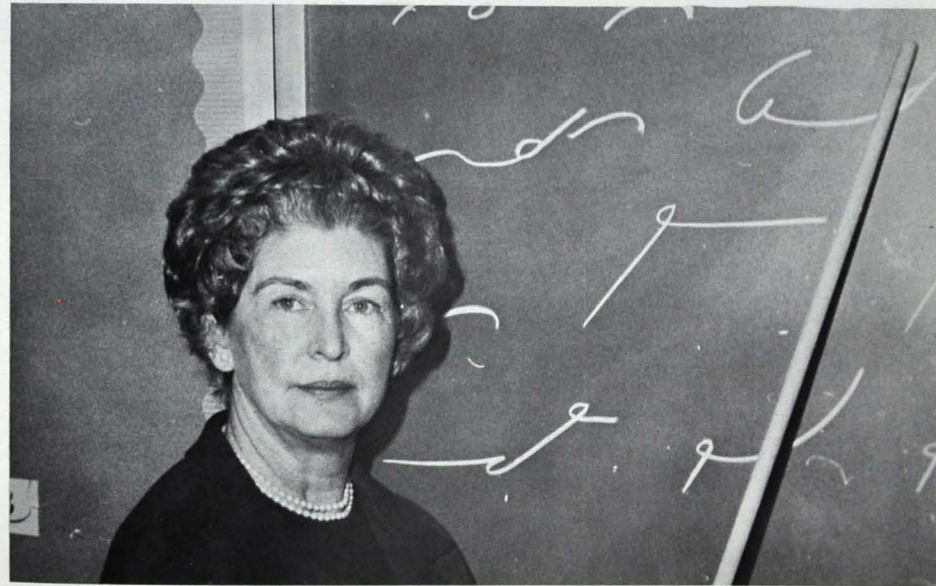

*Mrs. Louise Caudle Receives 1971
Champion Dedicatory from Seniors*

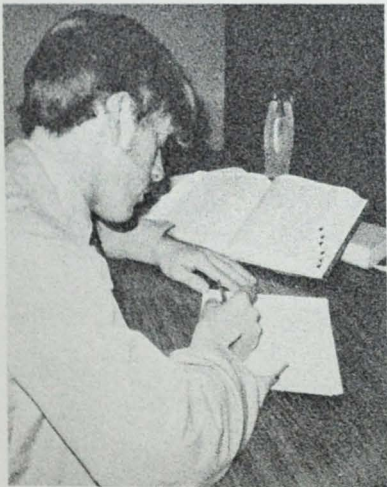

Making known school activities is one of the functions performed by Mrs. Caudle's Publicity Staff whose members included Pat Jolley and Rita Wilhite.

We, the Senior Class of '71, dedicate this CHAMPION to Mrs. Louise Caudle. She has been identified with the Business Department of Central for seventeen years and has contributed much to the advancement of Central and to the enjoyment of her students through her active interest, genteel manner, and enthusiastic loyalty. Mrs. Caudle's active interest in education began when she was a student at Chattanooga High School, McKenzie Business College, and the University of Chattanooga. At UC she majored in business administration and received a B.B.A. degree. Following her graduation from UC, she began her teaching career at Hixson High School. Then in 1953 she transferred to Central's Business Education Department. Since that time she has proven her active interest in and her enthusiastic loyalty for Central High School. In addition to her services as a teacher for Shorthand I and Typing I, II, she has served as secretary of the National Honor Council and sponsor of the Publicity Staff.

In each capacity of service, Mrs. Caudle's soft-spoken and kind approach has brought her recognition and respect from faculty and students. As a symbol of this recognition and respect the Senior Class chose her to be the 1971 CHAMPION Dedicatory.

In teaching Shorthand I, Mrs. Caudle illustrated the shorthand characters to her class.

These were the accomplishments of Central's family . . . Danny Sharp came to a close second for the office of Boy's State Governor . . . Senator George McGovern praised Danny's speech to the Bellamy Award Presentation held at Lead High School, South Dakota . . . Karen Askew received the coveted honor of Homecoming Queen . . . Ted Moon represented Central as Merit Scholarship finalist . . . Mark Gaynor and Becky Watson were chosen Mr. and Miss Spirit . . . and these were only a few . . .

Seven Boys and Three Girls Represent Central at State Conferences

Central delegates who attended Girls' State held at Murfreesboro and Boys' State held at Cookeville were chosen by Mrs. Fults, Mrs. Stone, and Miss Ogle. Recognition won by Central's representatives to the state meetings included Danny Sharp's second place in the race for Governor of Boys' State and Joe Hollerbach's election to the office of mayor. At Girls' State Karen Askew received membership on the Supreme Court, Mary Alice Barnett in the House of Representatives, and Becky Watson on the City Council. The remaining delegates were also instrumental in bringing honor to Central during the state meetings.

Ann Helton and Cathy Perry were alternates to Girls' State.

Mary Alice Barnett, Becky Watson, and Karen Askew all received honors at Girls' State.

As a result of generous sponsors, John McQueen, John Morgan, Rick Duncan, Clyde Moore, Chuck Flora, Joe Hollerbach, and Ted Moon attended Boys' State.

Faculty Selects Nineteen Seniors as Departmental Honor Students

First Row: Aileen Bradford—Girls' Physical Education; Pam Shipley—Art and Home Economics; Bobby Dyer—Printing; Karen Askew—Mechanical Drawing; and Rita Wilhite—Business. Joe Hollerbach—ROTC; Jim Hunt—Boys' Physical Education; and Ted Moon—Social Science.

Danny Represents Central at the 1970 Bellamy Presentation

In 1963-64 Central was the proud recipient of the National Bellamy Award. The award, created by Miss Margarette S. Miller of Portsmouth, Virginia, is to acclaim Francis Bellamy as the author of America's Pledge of Allegiance. This year Lead High School in Lead, South Dakota, received the award. Danny Sharp represented Central at the presentation where he attended Lead High School's classes, luncheons, banquets, and tours. He presented a copy of the 1969-70 CHAMPION to Lead High School. Danny also attended a patriotic program and delivered a speech on involvement by youth in society. Among those who responded to his speech was Senator George McGovern who said, "... One of the best speeches I've ever heard a young adult make." Danny's response to his attendance at the Bellamy Presentation was that it was an honest attempt of adults and young people to find ways to achieve constructive changes in the American system.

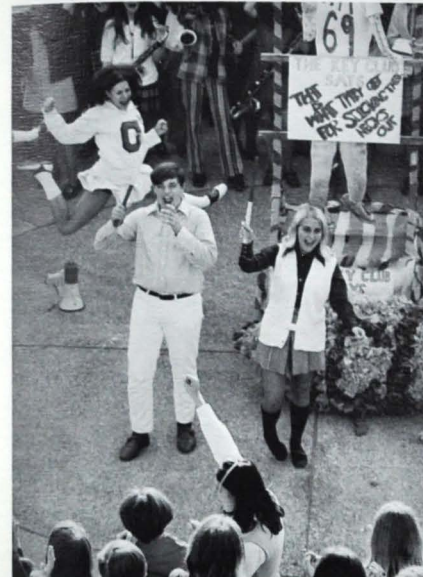

Interested underclassmen listened to Danny's description of his experiences at Lead High School.

Presentations made to Central as a Bellamy Award recipient were placed in a display case in Pod A.

Cheerleaders Choose Mark and Becky as Mr. and Miss Spirit

How did Senior Becky Watson and Junior Mark Gaynor earn this honor ... by yelling at the games? ... by wearing purple and gold the day of the Brainerd game ... by rooting for a 32nd victory over City after all hope was gone ... Mr. and Miss Spirit won their honor by leading the student body in enthusiasm for the Purple Pounder's cause ... Other seniors were also honored ... Ted Moon made the Merit Scholarship Semifinals through his superior score on the test ... Pam Shipley won the Betty Crocker Award by scoring the highest on the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow test ... Becky, Mark, Ted, and Pam brought honor to CHS ...

After their announcement as Mr. and Miss Spirit, Mark Gaynor and Becky Watson led the student body in a rousing cheer, "Two Bits".

Senior Ted Moon had a variety of colleges from which to choose because of his excellent school record and high score on the Merit Scholarship test.

Betty Crocker Award winner Pam Shipley demonstrated proper arrangement for table setting.

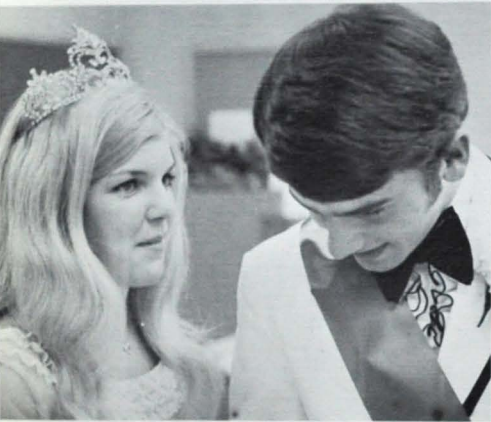

Danny discussed various problems facing society with students from other states.

Rick and Karen Sue Are Chosen Mr. and Miss Central

Why was Karen Sue Askew chosen to be Miss Central? . . . Because she gave service to her school. . . In academics—She was a four-year honor student and a member of the National Honor Society. . . In organizations—She was president of the Tri-Hi-Y, associate editor of the CHAMPION, and a majorette for three years. . . In other areas—She was Torchbearer, Homecoming Queen, a calendar girl, military sponsor, and a delegate to Girls' State. . . Karen Sue excelled in many achievements but her goal was always, "Service to Central High . . ."

At the thirty-ninth annual Senior Day, Karen received the crown of Miss Central.

Karen and Rick spoke words of congratulations to each other.

After three years of dedication to work for Central, Karen and Rick received the highest acclaim of the student body.

Why was Rick Duncan selected as Mr. Central? . . . Because he too served Central well . . . In academics—He was the first semester president of the National Honor Society. . . In athletics—He was captain of the basketball team, a member of the baseball team for three years, cross-country track team member, president of the F.C.A., and a member of the C-Club. . . In organizations—He was a member of the Key Club, Student Council, Student Advisory Committee, Disc and Diamond, and the Senate. . . In other areas—He was Torchbearer, Senior Class President, and a delegate to Boys' State. . . In addition to these honors, Rick was a devout Christian. . . He characterized himself as others would when he said, "God is first in my life, but Central is not far behind. . ."

Good grooming was not neglected before the Senior Day program.

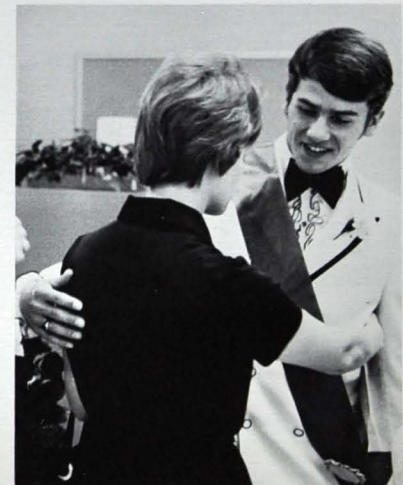

Faculty member Miss Ogle congratulated Karen at the reception following the program.

Following the announcement of Rick as Mr. Central, Karen responded with approval and admiration.

Crowned as Mr. and Miss Central, Karen and Rick led the program's recessional.

Costume chairman Mrs. Stone offered her felicitations to Mr. Central.

Senior Day is Never-To-Be-Forgotten Event for 280 Seniors

What was Senior Day? . . . It was the day students, faculty, and alumni gathered to admire dignified seniors march past them. . . A day the art department prepared for weeks in advance in order to create scenes from "Camelot" . . . A time when seniors reflected on the thoughts presented in the speeches of Jay Garrett, Mark Thornhill, and Paul Luttrell, class representatives; Mrs. Caudle, CHAMPION dedicatory; and Mr. Milliaps, principal; . . . A day when they felt pride in having Rick Duncan and Karen Sue Askew to represent the class of '71 as Mr. and Miss Central. . . A moment when emotional expressions of "Thank you" and "Congratulations" meant so much. . . Senior Day was an event where seniors reflected, felt, and expressed a warmth, unity, and gratitude for Central High School. . .

Chosen also as Mr. and Miss Central candidates were Danny Sharp, Starr Ivester, Tommy Rawls, and Karen Weeks.

Honor attendants were Sherry Thompson, David Townley; Cathy Button, Henry Claxton; Mary Alice Barnett, Bob Pichon; Lana Clark, Ray Painter; Bertha McDonald, Tim Kellar; Sherry Holder, Ted Moon; Debby Tatum, Chuck Flora; Cathy Perry, Hunt Cooper.

Other court members were Danny Creswell, Diane Burke, Joe Hollerbach, and Gail Womack.

Paul Luttrell, senior class vice-president, gave the senior class welcoming speech.

Bunzie Davis was selected to sing the solo, "The Sweetheart of Central High," to Miss Central.

Candidate Genee Lawson and escort Danny Sharp stood motionless on the field while awaiting the announcement of the queen.

Karen Sue Is Pounder Homecoming Queen

As president of the Tri-Hi-Y, Karen Sue led the organization in its many service activities.

With the announcement of Homecoming Queen, Karen Sue responded.

Ann Legg sat atop a beautiful convertible as she, along with the other candidates, began to circle the field.

Starr Ivester, following the game, became a lively participant in the Homecoming Dance.

Greeted by well-wishers, Karen Sue became the traditional tearful queen.

Karen Sue's warm smile won her many friends in her three years at Central.

How did Karen Sue become a Pounder Homecoming Queen? . . . The Senior Class nominated 5 girls . . . The entire student body then voted on their choice and the girl with the highest number of votes became queen . . . Composing the queen's court were the four other candidates, Genee, Karen, Starr, and Ann . . . Before an audience of Central fans at the Soddy-Daisy-Central game, Karen Sue Askew received a crown of orchids signifying her as Homecoming Queen . . .

Five Become Members of All-State Chorus

Lewis Austin, who played clarinet, and Rose Ann Gentry, alto, were alternates to the All-State Band and Chorus.

Debbie Quarles, Bunzie Davis, Joel Howard, Gary Taylor, and Frances Tribble prepared three weeks for the Knoxville presentation.

How were the All-State Band and Chorus chosen? . . . The chorus members auditioned for the honor at Brainerd before three judges while the band auditioned at Bearden High School in Knoxville . . . The students were then notified of the selection . . . In what did the select students participate? . . . The All-State Band and Chorus members converged in Knoxville on March 24th . . . On the 24th and 25th all members practiced together . . . On March 26th they combined their talents to present a superior program of music and song during the Tennessee Education Association meeting . . .

Joe Hollerbach Heads Student Advisory Committee

Chairman Joe Hollerbach spoke with Mr. Millsaps about issues discussed by the Student Advisory Committee.

Committee members were Taylor Underwood, Alvin Custer, Ray Henry, Paul Luttrell, Tommy Gulas, Joe Hollerbach, chairman; Rick Duncan, Jay Garrett, Mark Thornhill, Lee Ann Tate, Bertha McDonald, recording secretary; and Debbie Hunt.

Queen Patti and King Steve

Grace "Winter Wonderland" Prom

Bank Staff member Patti Sheley and Senate President Steve Hart received their coronation as prom royalty.

How were the candidates for Christmas royalty selected? . . . Student Council nominated 5 girls and 5 boys . . . Announcement of nominations came two weeks before the prom . . . Each person attending the prom voted for his favorite nominees . . . Then amid the sounds of the Soul Benders and the scenes of a "Winter Wonderland," Patti Sheley and Steve Hart became queen and king . . .

Candidates for the honors of the evening were David Cain, Patti Sheley, Lana Clark, Tim Kellar, Starr Ivester, Tommy Gulas, Karen Weaks, Paul Luttrell, Aileen Bradford, and Steve Hart.

Following the announcement of king and queen, the other candidates became members of the royal court.

Karen and Jim Reign at May Day Pagentry

Two members of the court were Debby Tatum and Buddy Mullican.

May Queen and King were Karen Weeks and Jim Hunt.

Also in the court were Taylor Underwood and Joe Hollerbach.

Chuck Flora and Starr Ivester were members of the May Day court.

Ray Henry and Aileen Bradford were also in the court.

Starr Represents Seniors On Key Club Calendar

How did 15 girls become features of the Key Club Calendar? . . . Nominations were made from the floor during a Key Club meeting . . . Votes were tabulated . . . The senior girl with the most votes was senior sweetheart . . . The twelve girls with remaining top vote represented the months of the year . . . Junior and sophomore sweethearts also appeared on the calendar . . .

Kathy Lehman, sophomore; Starr Ivester, senior; and Susan McNamara, junior on December 15th received the title of Key Club Class Sweethearts.

Debby Tatum—January

Mary Alice Barnett—February

Patti Sheley—March

Karen Weaks—April

Cathy Perry—May

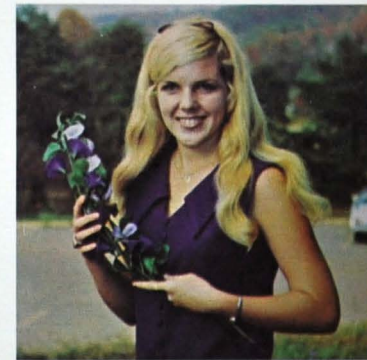

Aileen Bradford—June

Gail Womack—July

Magical Moments of Life On the Hill Reflected

At the end of each school day weary scholars and relieved loafers scurried to find transportation home.

Testing new recipes and implementing old ones were tasty tasks performed by Tina Nerb, Taylor Underwood, and Linda Maxey.

Lowering the flag, Tim Kellar and David Young signaled the ending of another day of life on the hill.

The Happenings of '71

Receiving her report card proved to be one of Pam Halfacre's magical moments.

Projects such as a cornucopia arranged by Ronald Taylor added interest to the study of art.

What magic created Central happenings? . . . Individual and group action produced the magic . . . Action came in an experimental cooking class; a 3:45 bell; an ROTC officer "retiring the colors;" the silent beauty of a "still life" form; an A report card; a chemical mixture;—creations marking magical moments . . .

One phase of chemistry studies experimented by Jan Shields, Ellen Legg, Walter Baker, and Robert Gayle was the reaction caused by various chemical mixtures.

Service to School is a Contribution Made by CHS Clubs and Staffs

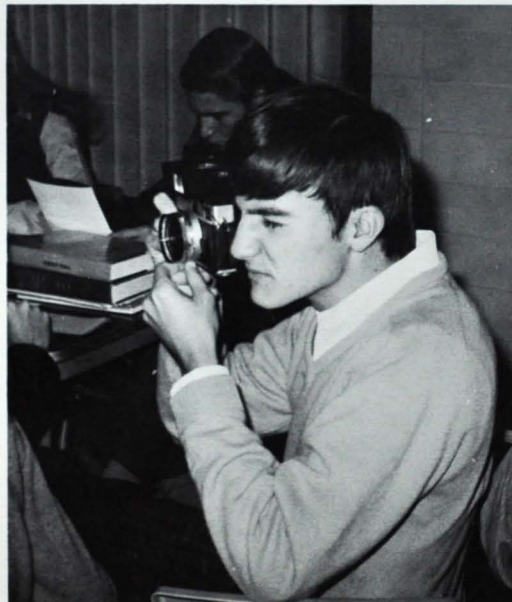

DIGEST Editor Cathy Button pointed out a good news story to her senior staff.

Karen Schmidt and Jenny Jenkins, Gym Staff representatives, checked class attendance.

Club members Debbie Cloud and Susan Bankston counted proceeds from the Red Cross Drive.

Photographer Jamie Wyse gave constant service to school publications.

Helping to maintain the proper arrangement of library materials were Lillie McDonald and Tina Neeb.

Ushers Taylor Underwood and Dottie Wheeler kept morning duty and enforced school rules without exception.

Property of Chattanooga Central High School Library
 Announcements, Randy Edgemon, and Charlotte Woy prepared announcements of faculty pictures for the CHAMPION.

Devoting available free time, many club and staff members gave service to their school . . . Editing the school newspaper, staff members spent two periods . . . Enforcing the rule of no entrance to front corridors before the pre-school period, the Usher Staff relinquished sleep . . . Collecting funds for Red Cross Week demanded the use of homeroom period by staff workers . . . Calling the roll was a duty of each Gym Staff member . . . Serving the DIGEST, CHAMPION, and Publicity Staffs, photographers worked overtime . . . Shelving books consumed much of the Library Staff's time . . . Selling bookstore supplies was a service performed by the Bank Staff . . . Editing the CHAMPION required manual as well as mental skills . . .

Cashiering in the bookstore was one of many services Nicki Bostic performed as a Bank Staff member.

Old and New Traditions Combine to

Cheerleaders, majorettes, flag girls, band, and students observed Central's traditional "Alma Mater."

Lt. Col. Chuck Flora and his sponsor Becky Watson led the Second Battalion in the annual ROTC ceremony.

Make '71 a Unique Experience

After recognition of their title, sponsors and officers waited to begin the presentation parade.

Old traditions—ending pep meetings with the "Alma Mater," cheering the Pounders to victory, filling food baskets for needy families at Christmas and recognizing military sponsors—remained intact . . .

Kurt Reiffenstein added his part in promoting school spirit by purchasing a Pounder hat sold by the Gym Staff.

New traditions—high-stepping flag girls, the Pounder hat, and "Spirit Week"—gained a firm hold . . . Old traditions and new traditions joined to make 1971 a valued remembrance . . .

Cheerleaders with purple and gold pompons created a flurry of color as students gathered to the beat of "The Horse."

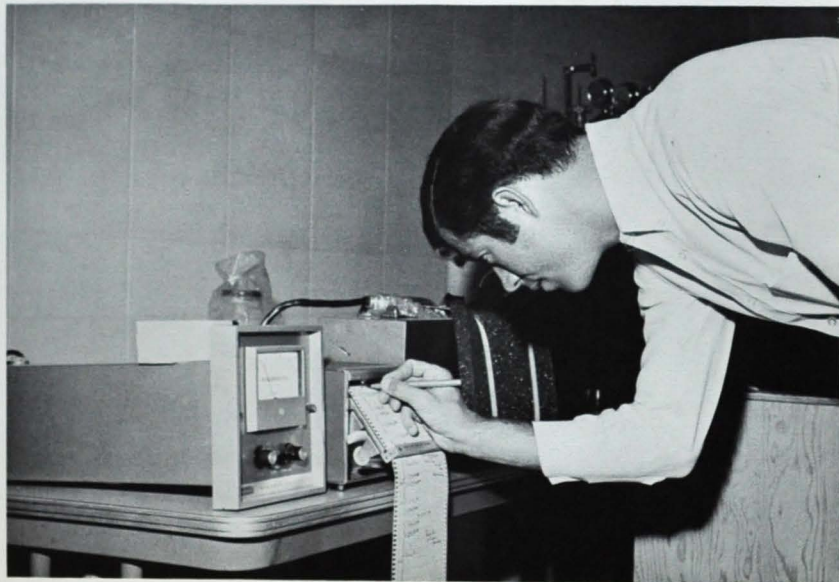

Beth Houghton, Gloria Finley and Buddy Mullican contributed to Central's successful Christmas food basket drive.

Awareness of Social and Community Problems Brings Reaction from Centralites

Mrs. Betty Smith, counselor, and Mr. Sam Stoner, social studies teacher, gave Hunt Cooper counsel before he took his college entrance exams.

Janet Crumme found amusing Rick Duncan's opinion of the draft.

Mr. Robert W. Murdoch, electronics engineer, checked analysis of breathing tests taken by Central parents and teachers.

Blood donors Danny Sharp, John Morgan, Richard Metcalf, Bill Kimbro, and Phil Chadwick clowned after making donations. Arlien Hyde, Isaac Jones, Sidney Montgomery, and Reginald Ruff worked toward a common objective—doing well on the PSAT exam.

Mr. Robert Dugan and Frances Wilson exchanged ideas on problems facing youth.

Action by Centralites reflected their concern for social and community problems . . . Parents of CHS students took breathing tests for air pollution survey . . . Seniors sought advice on proper college curriculum choices . . . Illness of faculty member, Mrs. Reba Fults, brought response of student blood donors . . . Scholastic tests caused minds to struggle for common goals . . . Faculty and students strived to create solutions for social and community problems . . .

This was the recreation of Central's family . . . 1971 football squad, under the determined charge of Coach Joe Dunn, pounded the opposition . . . Enthusiastic cheerleaders sponsored the unforgettable Super Spirit Week before the Central and City clash . . . Pounder cagemen opened the 1970-71 season under the leadership of Captain Rick Duncan . . . Central wrestlers faced a promising season with senior returnees Victor Rowe, Ray Painter, and Keith Rievley . . . The "Purple 9" challenged last year's baseball team record of 3 wins and 5 losses . . . Volleyball team showed determination and skill in spring regional tournament . . . Captain Joe Hollerbach, along with senior Steve Shelton, led the favored Pounder linksmen . . . Track members strived for first win on new asphalt track . . .

Trainer Kirk Salter gave valuable assistance to team players such as Tommy Gulas.

With new coaches Dunn and Thompson at the reins, along with Coach Seaton, the Pounders had a very disappointing season with a 1-8-1 record but there were bright spots. The 14-14 tie with state-ranked Red Bank throwing them out of the play-offs, and the impressive 48-8 rout of Notre Dame proved the Pounders were no push-overs. With Tommy Gulas named to All-City and Randy Harris named as "Back of the Week" the Pounders also showed they could keep up with the best of them. Despite this year's record, with 15 lettermen returning the future looks bright for Central football.

On the sidelines and in the locker room, Ray Henry, despite his injury, kept up the Pounder Spirit.

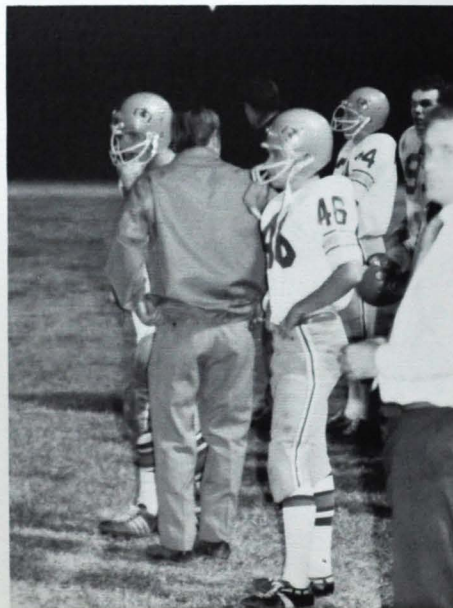

Central..... 8 Kirkman32
Facing a top-rated team, Central opened its season with two new coaches and a young team. In the first play of the game a faulty Pounder kick enabled Kirkman to score. The Pounders came back and led as Bobby Kimbro intercepted a pass and ran 55 yards for the touchdown. Randy Harris added the two-point conversion. But Central lost its lead as the Hawks scored heavily during the second half. Turnovers by Central led to a Pounder defeat.

Central..... 6 Bradley12
In the second game of the season, the Pounders met the Bradley Bears. In the second period of play the real action started. Bradley opened the scoring on a touchdown. Retaliation by the Pounders began with a scoring drive erupting after Randy Harris returned to the Bradley 38 yard line. Three plays later quarterback Randy Harris, under heavy rushing, hit end Bill Robbs for a 28 yard scoring pass. All through the third period the score was 6 all. Then in the fourth quarter Bradley made a short but scoring pass which gave them the game.

Tommy Youngblood sought daylight on a pass from Randy Harris.

Chuck Burkhalter and Bobby Kimbro raced to end the Irish Drive.

Before sending him into the game, Coach Dunn gave instructions to offensive end Bill Robbs.

With Joe Hollerbach holding, Tommy Youngblood added the extra point against Notre Dame.

Central.....48 Notre Dame 8
Playing in the shadows of the old school, Central came to prove that the "Purple Pack" was back. After an Irish fumble Randy Harris connected with Bill Robbs for a 38 yard touchdown. Later in the quarter Central again scored on a 17 yard run by Jim Hunt. Early in the second quarter a Harris-Robb duo connected again for a 17 yard scoring play. Later in the same quarter Harris threw his third touchdown pass of the game with Tommy Youngblood running for 57 yards. Any spark of the Notre Dame comeback was quickly extinguished as Steve Arnold returned the second half kick-off 86 yards for another Pounder score. Another fumble by the Irish led to Hunt's second touchdown. With the score 40-0 reserve fullback David Martin carried three Irish defenders past the goal line from two yards out for the final Pounder score. Late in the game the Irish finally scored against a rugged second team. Outstanding defensive stars included Kilgore, Odmann, Gulas, Harris, and Hicks.

Central..... 7 East Ridge 22
On October 30, the Pounders met with the East Ridge Pioneers. Central fans were kept on their feet as the Pounders were defeated. Nevertheless, it was an explosive game. First to score on a 40 yard run were the Pioneers. Then on a Pioneer kick-off the Pounder offensive started a touchdown drive that could not be stopped. Jim Hunt's run in the end zone put Central on the board. Tommy Youngblood's kick was good and Central was ahead 7-6. Late in the first half, the Pounders were stopped one yard short of the goal. Still, they held the lead until the fourth period. A safety and two touchdowns put the Pioneers way out in front in the last quarter. With the Pioneers 22 and the Pounders 7, the game ended.

The Pounders' offensive line charged out against Bradley's defensive line.

Central.....13 Brainerd14
Ball control was the name of the game as the Pounders, having two sustained drives, rolled up over 200 yards. A Randy Harris to Bill Robbs pass covering ten yards opened the scoring. Tommy Youngblood added the extra point. After tying the score in the first half, Brainerd scored again in the third quarter. The game seemed out-of-reach for the Pounders as they had a fourth down with forty-three yards to go and 50 seconds left on the clock. Then from a 32 yard pass Tommy Youngblood's catch made the touchdown bringing the score to 14-13 with 17 seconds remaining. Going for two, the Pounders failed. Outstanding players were Youngblood, Harris, Cain, and Bowman.

Central.....14 Red Bank14
Going for their first victory against the state-ranked Red Bank Lions, a fired-up Pounder team ran the Lions up and down the field but had to settle for a tie. The Pounder defense held star quarterback Tom Baggett from starting the momentum as they did the other Lion backs. Junior quarterback Randy Harris scored twice on runs of 73 and 3 yards. His performance gave him the honor of TIMES "Back of the Week." Phillips, Harris, Hunt, and Youngblood led the offensive charge while Harris, Thornhill, Kimbro, and Hicks were the defensive standouts.

Defensive men, Burkhalter, Odmann, and Thornhill, rest before launching another assault on the opponent.

Central..... 0 Hixon13
A tough Central defense was not enough as the Pounders met their third straight defeat at the hands of the Hixon Wildcats. With little time remaining in the first half the Wildcats' first touchdown was set up by a short punt to the Pounders' 30 yard line. With the score 6-0 neither offense could start rolling toward the goal lines. Until, in the fourth quarter Hixon scored their final points of the game on a 13 yard pass play. Although the Pounders tried to come back time was against them. With the Pounders driving the game ended. Thornhill, Kilgore, and Gulas led the defensive charge.

Central..... 0 Tyner 8
For the first time in 17 years, the Pounders met the Tyner Rams in a grueling gridiron engagement. Hurt by the loss of their running back, the Rams had a hard time getting through the "Purple Pack's" defense with such standouts as Rodney Bowman, David Cain and Chuck Burkhalter. Scoring by the Rams started on a safety when Tommy Youngblood was downed in the end zone. Early in the third quarter, Tyner made the only touchdown of the game.

Central.....20 Soddy-Daisy32
Central met defeat at the hands of the Soddy-Daisy Trojans for the first time in the Pounder's history. After receiving the opening kick-off, Central marched 63 yards in four plays with Randy Harris hitting Bill Robbs for the first 12. With the Trojans leading 20-6, the Harris-Jim Hunt combination led the Pounders 69 yards for a touchdown. After running into the end zone from the three, Harris tossed to Joe Hollerbach for the two-point conversion. A few minutes later Hunt plunged into the end zone from the 1 yard line and tied the score at 20-20. The Trojans, tallying 12 more points to the scoreboard, put a Pounder win out-of-reach.

Central..... 6 City28
8,000 gridiron fans watched while the mighty Pounders were defeated by City's Dynamos whom Central had dominated for the past 31 years. City took the opening kick but the immovable Pounder defense stood fast so that the Dynamos could not score. Some time later, the Dynamos fumbled on their own 11 which Central used to advantage. Jim Hunt carried to the 6 and Randy Harris finished off the other five for a Pounder TD. Although the try for the extra point was no good, Central led 6-0. City, now scared, roared back to score and the board read City 7, Central 6. Time after time through the rest of the game, Central tried to score but the Dynamos held fast. City then established a running and passing game which led to three more touchdowns. City finished on top.

'70 season coaches were Jake Seaton, Bob Thompson, and Joe Dunn.

Another new face in the Pounders' locker room was Coach Bobby Thompson who replaced Stan Farmer, new assistant principal, as line coach. He also served as assistant coach in wrestling and track and taught health and physical education. Coach Thompson was an all-star quarterback for Glynn Academy in Brunswick, Georgia. He also played college ball for Wake Forest, Tennessee Wesleyan, and the University of Tennessee at Martin while majoring in physical education. Before coaching at Central he held positions at Grove High School and Savannah High School in Savannah, Georgia; Richmond Academy in Augusta, Georgia; and Lanier High School and Willingham High School in Macon, Georgia.

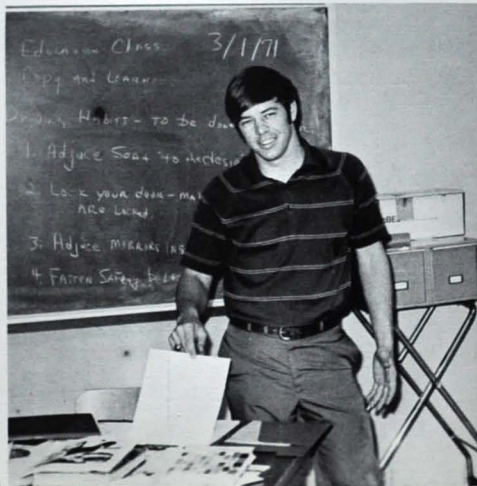

Managers Jim Wheeler and Daryl Brown contributed much of their time and energy in preparation for the season's engagements.

Filling the position of Central's Head Football Coach was Coach Joe Dunn. In addition to football, he trained the baseball team and assisted Coach Gordon Smith with basketball. Coach Dunn also filled a teaching vacancy in driver's education and applied math. His previous coaching positions were at Columbus High School in Columbus, Georgia; Thomasville High School in Thomasville, Georgia; and at the University of Chattanooga. In Columbus, Georgia, where he attended high school, he was named as an All-American in football. While majoring in mathematics at the University of Chattanooga his honors received included Honorable Mention, Little All-American; and the title of Bachelor of Ugliness.

Despite 1-18 Season, Team

Playing with no starter over 6'1" tall, the Pounders were held back all season by their lack of height. Although they won only one of nineteen games they never lost their pride and because of their hustling effort were never really out of any games. With only Rick Duncan and Chuck Flora graduating, the Pounders can look forward to a better season next year.

Wayne Brundidge and George Lane before a game clowned in the dressing room with manager Walter Goldston.

More on the serious side was Isaac Jones' tip against Red Bank in the season opener.

Pounders Realize the Importance of Scoring

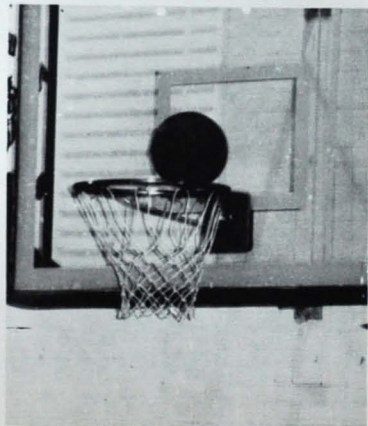

Guard George Lane brought the ball up court against Brainerd.

Lane looked for an opening while being guarded.

Junior Charlie Morris, in his drive for the basket, shot.

What the game was all about.

Robert Long stopped the East Ridge man as he tried to drive for the basket.

Wrestling Team Sends Two to State Tournament

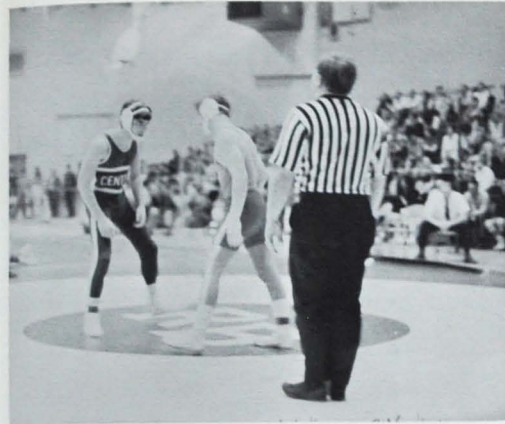

Coach John Farr, assisted by Coach Bobby Thompson, led the Pounder matmen to a three-win and twelve-lost record. Season highlights were the team's acquisition of uniform robes, an invitational tournament hosted by Central during the Christmas holidays, the team's placing sixth in the district, and two wrestlers, Ray Painter and Johnny Stansell; winning berths in the state tournament.

Dwight Polivka struggled for a take down and two points in the Central-Tyner match.

Jo Pair fought to gain control of opposing St. Andrews' wrestler.

Coach John Farr administered first-aid to wrestler Keith Rievley.

Facing a match with tough Tyner, Ray Painter practiced hard.

Returnees Mike Wylly, Rick Duncan, and Tommy Youngblood exchanged predictions on the upcoming season.

After tallying a record of two wins and six losses and losing the H.I.L. district crown, the Pounder 9 will strive to improve their record with the help of returnees Rick Duncan, Tommy Youngblood, Steve Long, and Mike Wylly. Losing Bob Few and Tommy Hylar, the team's leading batters, will create a need for a new power-hitter on the team. The 1971 Pounder 9 will be under the direction of Coach Joe Dunn, who hopes to polish it into a winning team.

1970 Top Three Linksmen Return to '71 Squad

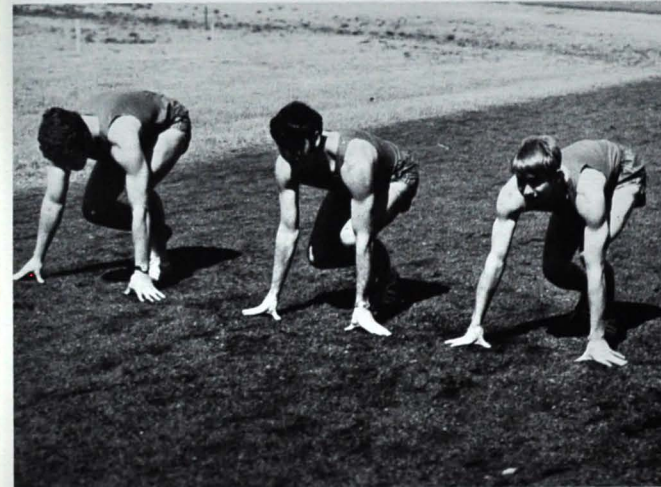

Returnees Joe Hollerbach, Steve Shelton, and Cliff Barr prepared to tee off the 1971 golf season.

Last year Joe Hollerbach led the Pounder Linksmen to a 9 win and 2 loss record. With last year's top three, Joe Hollerbach, Cliff Barr, and Steve Shelton; returning this year, Coach Joe Dunn hopes to produce a winning team. Other aspirants for the team are seniors, Chuck Flora, John McQueen, and Bill Leon; and sophomores Jay Garrett, Tom Shelton, and Mark Keller.

Cindermen Strive for First County Championship

1971 Track Team—First Row: E. Koger, G. Lane, B. Brannan, S. Arnold, M. (The Thinker) Odmann, B. Cole, J. Hunt, D. Mullican, H. Spence. Second Row: W. Brundidge, U. Rivers, L. Luster, R. Cuzzort, J. Diegel, L. Earl, S. Coleman, J. Eatherly. Third Row: I. Jones, J. Long, M. Halter, B. Kimbro, T. Page, B. Mullican, P. Sons.

Ready to run are seniors Buddy Mullican and Jim Hunt, and junior Steve Arnold.

With Captain Jim Hunt and Digest All-Star Steve Arnold leading the way, the 1971 cindermen look for a successful season. Last year Arnold led the team in points as a sophomore and finished fifth in the district 100-yard dash while Hunt excelled in the 180-low hurdles. Returning lettermen who will be depended on for a winning team are Buddy Mullican, Bob Brannan, George Lane, Larry Luster, and Isaac Jones. Last year Central was held back by lack of support and lack of team members, but this year they will have every event filled and if they perform up to their potential Central could very well be a contender for the newly organized Hamilton County League Track Championship.

Girls' Physical Education Tests Skill in Sports

Liz Burns prepared to return the ball for a winning point.

Mrs. Hammack demonstrated a dance step as her seventh period class watched and imitated.

What does a girl learn in physical education? . . . A girl learns alot in p.e. . . .

Third period sophomores learned to express themselves in dancing.

Ginger Olesby and Susan McNamara's preparedness to volley the ball indicated their teamwork ability.

Teammates cheered as Jan Wyant made a successful "hook" shot.

Members of the 1970-71 Gym Staff assisted gym instructors, Mrs. Hammack and Mrs. Grier. First Row: L. Bonine, B. Watson, C. Button, A. Bradford, President: S. Ivester, Vice-President: and K. Cheerleaders' Calender Is Complete With School Activities

As captain of the 1970-71 squad, Karen Weaks proved Central spirit wasn't dead.

Aileen Bradford gave constant Pounder support as Co-Head Cheerleader.

How does a Central cheerleader spend her time? . . . selling "Go Pounder" hats to boost school spirit . . . organizing motorcades from school to football games . . . practicing Thursday after school during football season . . . electing Becky Watson and Mark Gaynor as Mr. and Miss Spirit . . . planning Spirit Week and Super Spirit Week . . . learning new stunts, acquiring sore muscles . . . Cheerleaders—twelve enthusiastic girls giving their best to CHS . . .

At the annual Christmas Program, cheerleaders expressed their skill in dramatics.

Members of the '70-'71 pep squad, with the awards won at camp, were
First Row: Aileen Bradford, Karen Weaks
Second Row: Michelle Georgeson, Michelle Butler, Genee Lawson, Starr Ivester, Ann Legg, Janet Kropff, Lynda Bonine, Vickie Thacker, Roxanne Moore and Ann Hurt.

Cheerleaders made attempt at cheer, "Tip Top Team."

M Georgeson, R. Moore, A. Bradford, J. Kropff and M. Butler led "Victory" before half-time festivities at homecoming game.

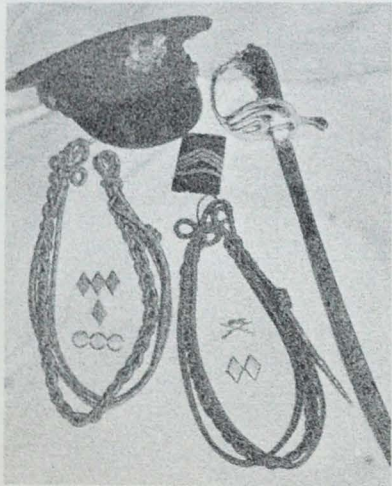

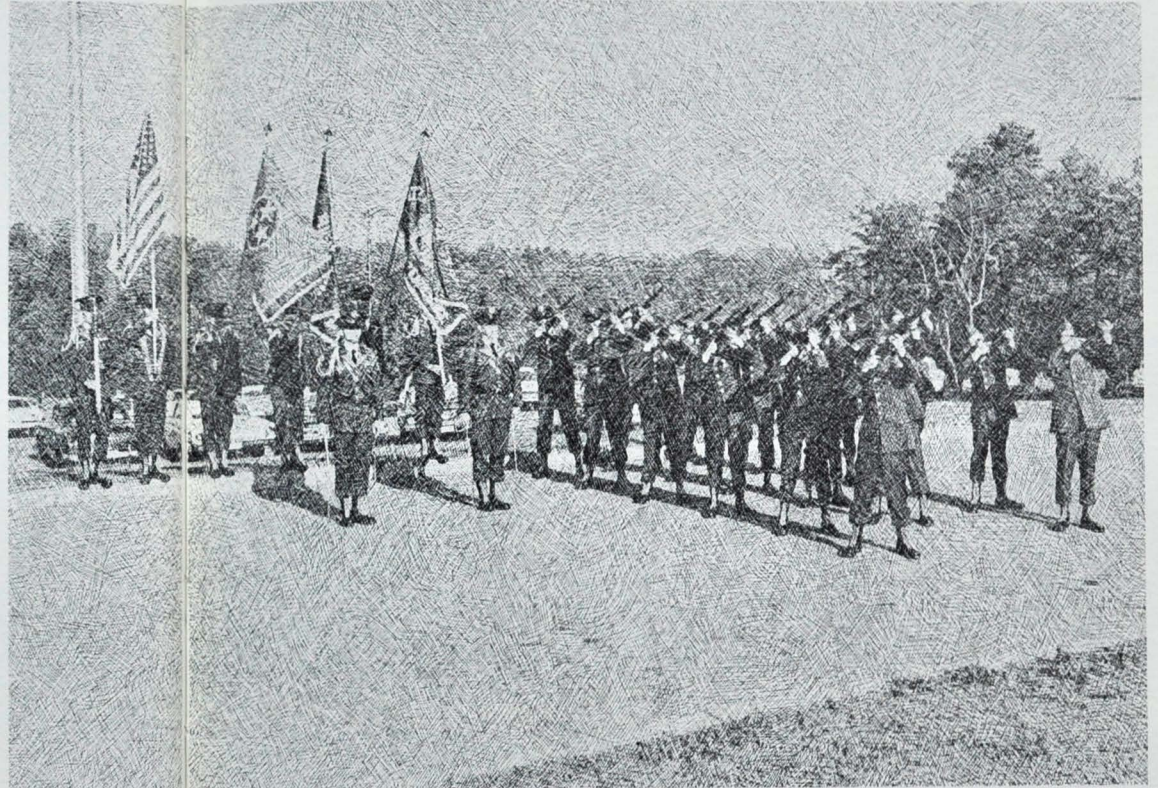

Pompon routine to "Horse" became a lively cheer.

Seniors A. Bradford and J. Kropff tried hard to raise school spirit at Central vs. City basketball game.

Seven seniors joined together to exemplify school spirit.

Mr. Fletcher Retires But Remains Active at Central

Mr. Fletcher retired from teaching in 1970 after forty-nine years at Central. However, he substituted during the first semester of 1970-71 until a replacement could be found. As past head of the Industrial Arts Department, Mr. Fletcher left his mark at Central. He had taught auto mechanics since first coming to CHS. Mr. Fletcher was and is a valued part of Central High School.

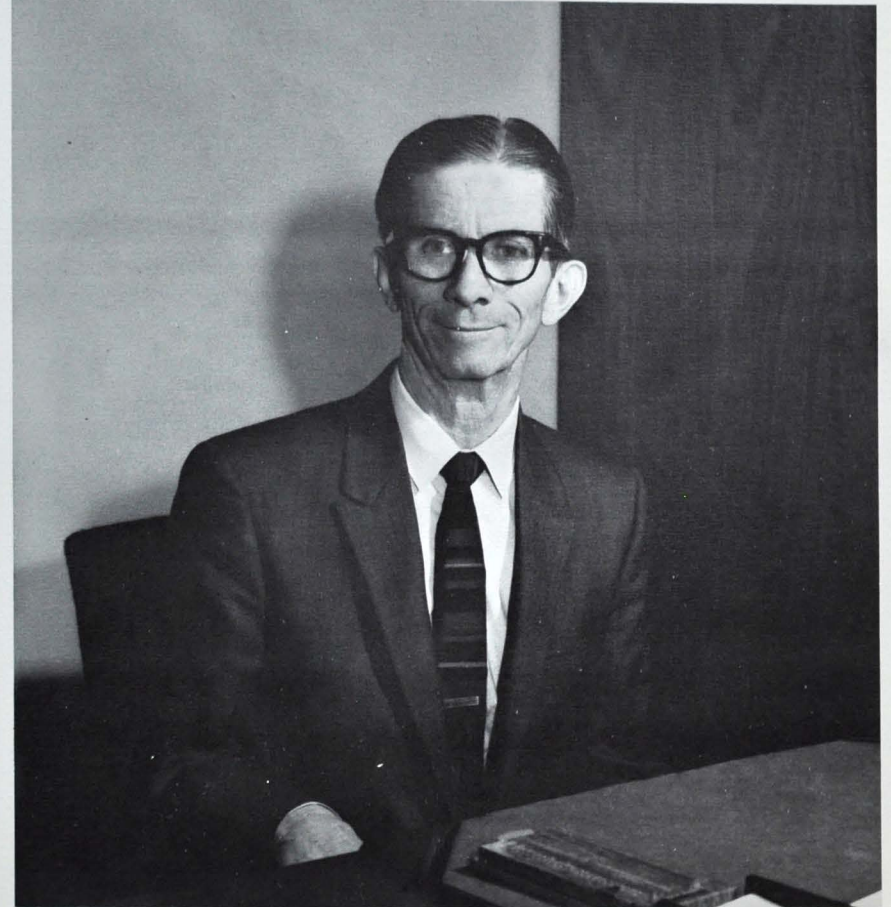

Reception Welcomes Mr. Millsaps Home After Houston Installation

Installed as President of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, Mr. Millsaps upon his return was honored with a reception hosted by the CHS faculty and class officers. With Mr. and Mrs. Millsaps, displaying the faculty gift, were Student Council President Tommy Gulas; Assistant Principal Stanley Farmer; Language Arts Department Head Miss Minnie Lee Morgan; and Senior Class President Rick Duncan.

IN MEMORY OF MR. EVERETT O'NEAL

Mr. Millsaps Begins Year as President of National Association of Secondary School Principals

Having been elected to the NASSP Executive Committee in 1965 and to the Board of Directors in 1967, Mr. Millsaps became president-elect for 1970. At the NASSP convention in Houston he was installed as president for the year 1971. In addition to election to the NASSP office, Mr. Millsaps has been named as a member of the board of directors for the National Merit Scholarship Program. Mr. Millsaps, through his achievements, has brought distinction to Central High School. At home or away his allegiance to the school has always been evident.

In 1970 Mr. W. Hobart Millsaps was chosen president-elect of the NASSP. On January 27, 1971, at Houston, Texas, Mr. Millsaps became the association's president.

Accompanying Mr. Millsaps to Houston were faculty representatives, Mrs. Virginia Summerour and Miss Marjorie Ogle.

At CHS football games Mr. Millsaps showed his support for the Purple Pounders by attending the games and cheering from the sidelines.

Mr. Farmer Receives Promotion from Head of the Physical Education Department to Assistant Principal

Mr. Stanley Farmer served as Head of the Physical Education Department for thirteen years. He coached linemen for twenty-four. Having been appointed assistant principal this year, he was responsible for the school in the absence of Mr. Millsaps. His rapport with students and faculty enabled him to fulfill well his responsibilities.

With his appointment Mr. Farmer became Central's fifth assistant principal.

As assistant principal, Mr. Farmer remained in charge of Central during Mr. Millsaps' absence.

Mr. Farmer emphasized a point to Bill Robbs.

EDITOR: TIM KELLAR

Assistant: Susan Bankston

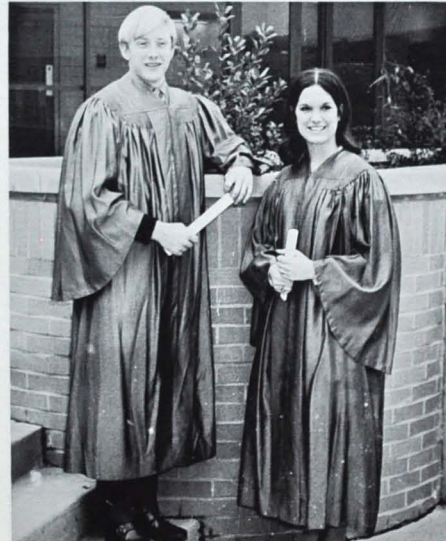

Senior Class Selects Karen Askew and Rick Duncan as 1971 Torchbearers

Elected as Torchbearers, Karen Askew, Tri-Hi-Y president; and Rick Duncan, senior class president; represented vast qualities of leadership, service, and dependability.

Leadership Superlatives Karen Weaks and Paul Luttrell gained their honors through such achievements as head cheerleader and senior class vice-president, respectively.

First semester National Honor Society Secretary, Debby Tatum; and Scholastic Delegate, John McQueen; earned the superlative of Scholarship by maintaining the highest averages of the senior class.

How were the honors of superlatives determined? . . . Senior English teachers distributed ballots in their classes . . . Seniors selected those whom they felt had the best qualifications for each honor . . . Announcement of the '71 Superlatives came in the January 22 issue of the DIGEST . . .

Such honors as editor of the DIGEST and Merit Scholarship finalist influenced the selection of Cathy Button and Ted Moon for Most Likely To Succeed.

Seniors chose Patti Sholey, Christmas Prom queen; and Steve Hart, Senate president; to be the Dependability Superlatives.

24 Seniors Represent the Qualities of Superlatives

Good grooming by Renée Hall, Bank Staff secretary; and Dwight Hines, football team guard; led to their securing the honor of Neatest In Appearance.

Possessing a combination of superlative qualities, the Best-All-Around superlatives were Y-Teen President Starr Ivester and Cadet Colonel Joe Hollerbach.

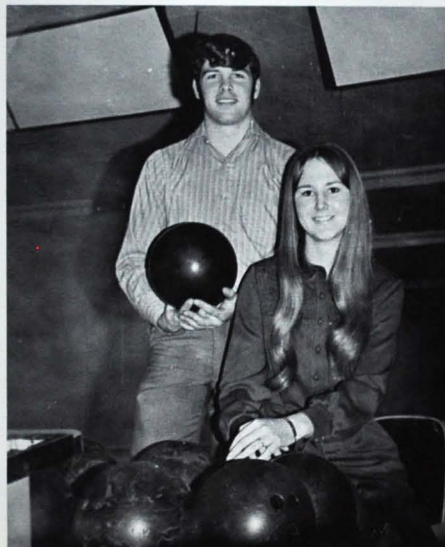

Acts of politeness and kindness won for Cathy Perry, Disc and Diamond secretary; and Chuck Burkhalter, C-Club vice-president; the superlative of Most Courteous.

Friendliest votes tallied highest for Gym Staff President Aileen Bradford and Student Council President Tommy Gulas, because of their frequent, friendly "Hello's."

Accomplished Art Club Vice-President Pam Shipley and Band Captain Steve Leamon were elected Most Talented.

Chosen for Wittiest were 1969 Miss Spirit Bonnie Wingo and Senior Class Marshal David Cain.

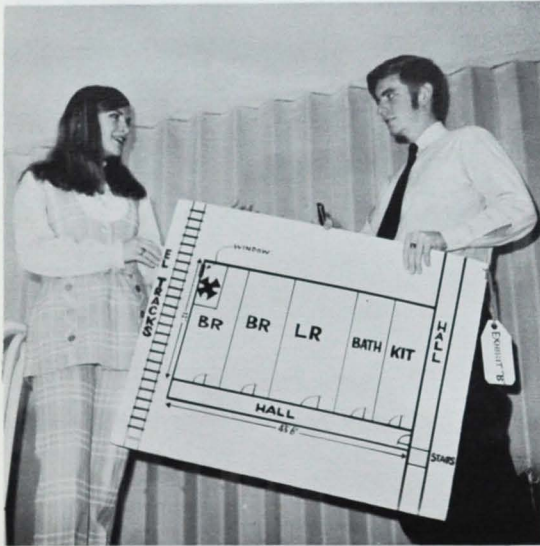

Girls' State Delegate Mary Alice Barnett and National Bellamy Award Representative Danny Sharp received the superlative of Service.

Property of Participation in various sports by Pam Cain, volleyball team captain; and Chuck Burkhalter, C-Club vice-president; brought recognition to them as Most Athletic.

"Twelve Angry Men" Returns for Second Consecutive Year

In the senior play, the jury consisted of Danny Creswell, Karen Weaks, Richard Metcalf, Steve Horten, Janet Crumme, Ted Moon, Becky Watson, Sherry Ritchie, Jigger Moore, Steve Hart, Starr Ivester, and Diane Taub.

Guard Roger Ledford supplied Juror D. Taub with needed evidence.

D. Creswell, J. Crumme, and T. Moon displayed the concentration necessary to develop acting techniques.

Play rehearsals cut into Seniors S. Ivester and R. Metcalf's heavy schedules.

Mrs. Frank Robbins, cast director, was an inspiration to the cast.

A tense encounter occurred as J. Moore's anger rose.

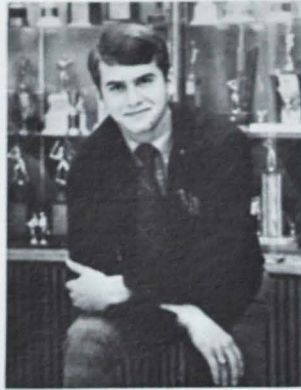

Due to T. Moon's persistence, a verdict of "Not Guilty" was finally submitted.

For a short time, students became actors . . . memorizing lines . . . rehearsing daily . . . viewing the outstanding representation of J. Moore . . . enacting two performances for the first time . . . increasing play attendance to 400 . . . acquainting student body with a dramatic art . . .

Class Officers Guide Seniors Through Year Of Tradition And Change

What were the projects and duties of class officers? . . . selling pocket calendars and notecards . . . selecting graduation announcements for the class . . . breaking with tradition in the decision to change color of graduation gowns to purple and gold . . . leading of senior class by marshals on June 8, 1971—Graduation Day . . .

President: Rick Duncan

Vice-President: Paul Luttrell

Secretary: Karen Weaks

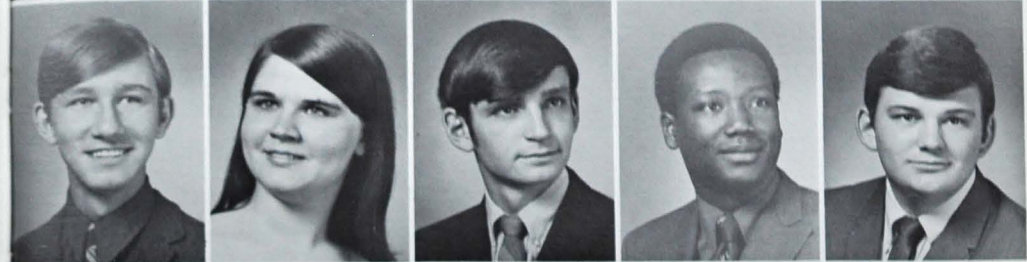

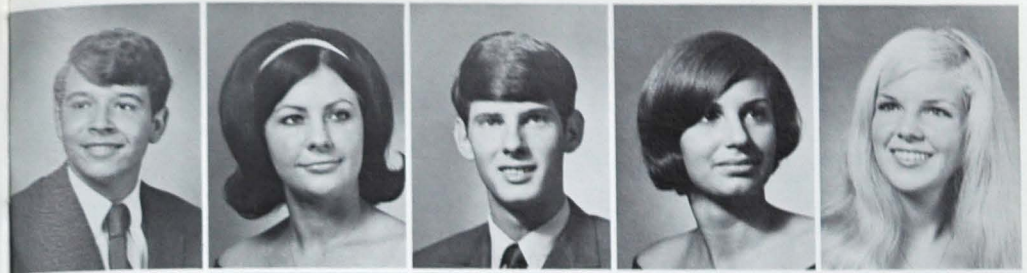

Treasurer: Starr Ivester

Class of '71

Leading activities on Senior Day were Dr. Owens, Parliamentarian; Miss Morgan, Sponsor; David Cain, Marshal; Jim Hunt, Marshal; Buddy Mullican, Alternate;

Juniors Express Their School Spirit By Participation

Lee Ann Tate practiced many hours with the other majorettes to perfect the routines used at the pep rallies and the football games.

In her lively role, majorette Susan McNamara also encouraged school spirit.

Competing in class yells with the classes of '71 and '72, shouting members of the class of '73 descended the bleachers.

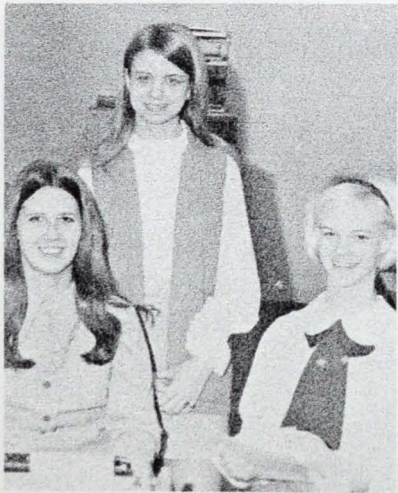

These were the patrons of Central's family—merchants, businessmen, alumni, and parents— . . . In support of CHS they bought ads . . . Their contributions brought the total sales to the goal set by Mrs. Guthrie, business sponsor . . . They gave because of such ad-sellers as Mary Alice Barnett and Renee Hall who won the competition of the top ad-selling team . . . Patrons showed their interest in Central's family . . .

TO THE GRADUATES OF THE CLASS OF 1971:

The officers of the Central High School Alumni Association are happy to extend greetings to the graduates of the Class of 1971. They are aware of your attainments and your ambitions. They wish for you success in proportion to your ability, ambition, and application. These are crucial days and we urge you to continue your progress in education by attending the college of your choice.

The Alumni Association seeks to serve Central High School. Our projects are too many to list here. We constantly are looking for ways to improve our school. In order to serve the maximum, we need each graduate to join our association. When you are in a position to assist us, we ask you to join in this cooperative movement for the assistance of our school.

We wish for you the best in the future and we ask you to, at all times, elevate the name of our school, community, and nation.

Students, Administration, Personnel, Faculty, and Alumni Help to Unify the Central of 1971

We, the '71 CHAMPION Staff, salute the following who by their constant support represent unifying forces in the effort to maintain the honored reputation of Central High School . . .

Mr. W. Hobart Millsaps, Principal, — From Chattanooga to Houston he proclaimed the greatness of CHS . . .

Mr. Stanley Farmer, Assistant Principal, — He disciplined, encouraged, reformed and praised Central's youth . . .

Mrs. Pauline Ellis, Registrar, — She was never too busy to offer kind words of assistance to student, teacher, or administrator . . .

Mr. J. Pope Dyer, Teacher, — Who but he wrote countless editorials to praise Central's students and faculty and who except he inspired the social studies department to win fifteen Freedom Foundation awards? . . .

Mr. Jack Moore, and Mr. Harry Arnold, — Presidents of the P.T.A. and Booster Club, respectively, — They and the organizations they represent braved rain and cold to sell Christmas trees to benefit the stadium fund drive . . .

Mr. Bill Bishop, Custodian, — He answered calls from the office to bring his ladder and kept vigil on the care needed for a beautiful school building . . .

Tommy Gulas, President of the Student Council, — He led the organization which planned many of the school's social events and sponsored the Christmas Food Basket Drive . . .

Karen Askew, Tri-Hi-Y President, — She presided over the organization which participated in many service projects and which renewed the practice of morning devotions in homeroom . . .

Karen Weaks and Aileen Bradford, Head and Co-Head Cheerleaders, respectively, — They led other cheerleaders and the student body in boosting the spirit in the "land of purple and gold" . . .

The Purple Gridiron captained by Ray Henry—They "kept the faith" throughout the football season despite many disappointments . . .

The Student Advisory Committee whose recording secretary was Bertha McDonald, — They kept open lines of communication between students and faculty . . .

The Purple 9 represented by Tommy Youngblood and Mike

Wyly — An underrated Central group who, nevertheless, had many representatives on a summer baseball team who tied for first place in the Optimist League . . .

Steve Hart, Senate President, — He guided the organization that worked to make "Pounder Country" known to the community . . .

Susan McNeely, Bank Staff President, — She led the staff whose responsibility was the handling of school funds . . .

Sophomores Chris Jolley and Bill Mason, — She contributed the most clothing for an underclassman to CHS' annual Clothing Drive . . . He won first place in the Lakeside Optimist Speech Contest with his speech on the topic, "This I Believe" . . .

Pam Shipley, Art Club Vice-President, — Her painting of the startling "Pounder Man," inspired Central supporters and owed City fans . . .

Mary Alice Barnett, Business Manager of the CHAMPION, — Because of her determination and leadership, the goal of $3,500 for selling yearbook ads was surpassed . . .

R.O.T.C., led by Cadet Colonel Joe Hollerback, — They gained recognition through victorious Rifle Team matches and continuous service at school functions . . .

Cathy Button, Editor-in-Chief of the "Digest", — She and her staff by tireless efforts to give excellent coverage to school events and student views received a first-place rating from Columbia Scholastic Press Association . . .

Mark Thornhill, President of the Junior Class, — He encouraged juniors to sell $1,270 worth of calendars and note cards to sponsor the Junior-Senior Prom . . .

The Senior Class of '71 led by President Rick Duncan and Vice-President Paul Lattrell—They set an example of enthusiasm and responsibility for underclassmen . . .

And the CHAMPION Staff pays tribute to Our Editor-in-Chief, Becky Watson—She walked, ran, questioned, wrote, and typed to make the '71 CHAMPION possible . . .

And countless other CHS supporters have unselfishly served their school . . . The 27 individuals recognized were only a few of the many who helped to make . . .
