CENTRAL POWER BOARD

Power filled the air. The upper-classmen fell back into the system while the freshmen were electrified by their new surroundings. There were numerous changes for the school. One of the most pleasant seemed to be the addition of students from the Dawn School. They added a spark of enthusiasm to Central because of their interests in a new school.

Changes in the administration included a new Vice-Principal, John Jolliffe, and a new football coach, Mike Collier. These men both showed their power boards with Mr. Jolliffe becoming the school disciplinarian and Coach Collier putting the football team through many rigorous trainings.

The "Central Sound of Chattanooga" anxiously awaits drum major Tammy Cobb's signal to blast out the Pounder fight song on registration day.

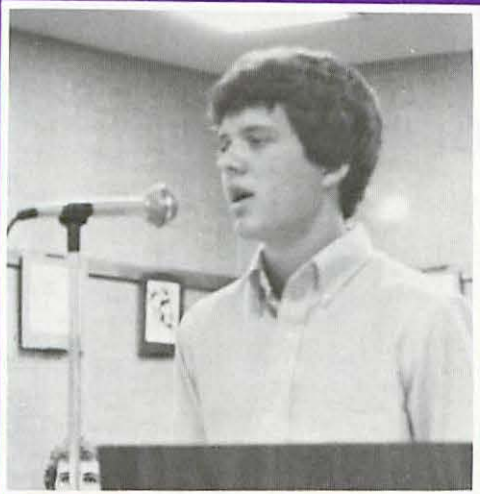

Drumming up spirit along Highway 58, Lee Ann Hall and Tracy West spend an afternoon borrowing sign space at some local businesses before the Central-East Ridge football game.

Cheerleaders Tracy Kille, Traci Hawkins, and Dottie Mockbee lead the Pounder fans in "Big-C" at the Soddy-Daisy bon-fire.

With the eminent arrival of the underclassmen pictures, Gaye Jeffers and Kathy Lowe begin their search for certain Freshmen, Sophomores, or Juniors.

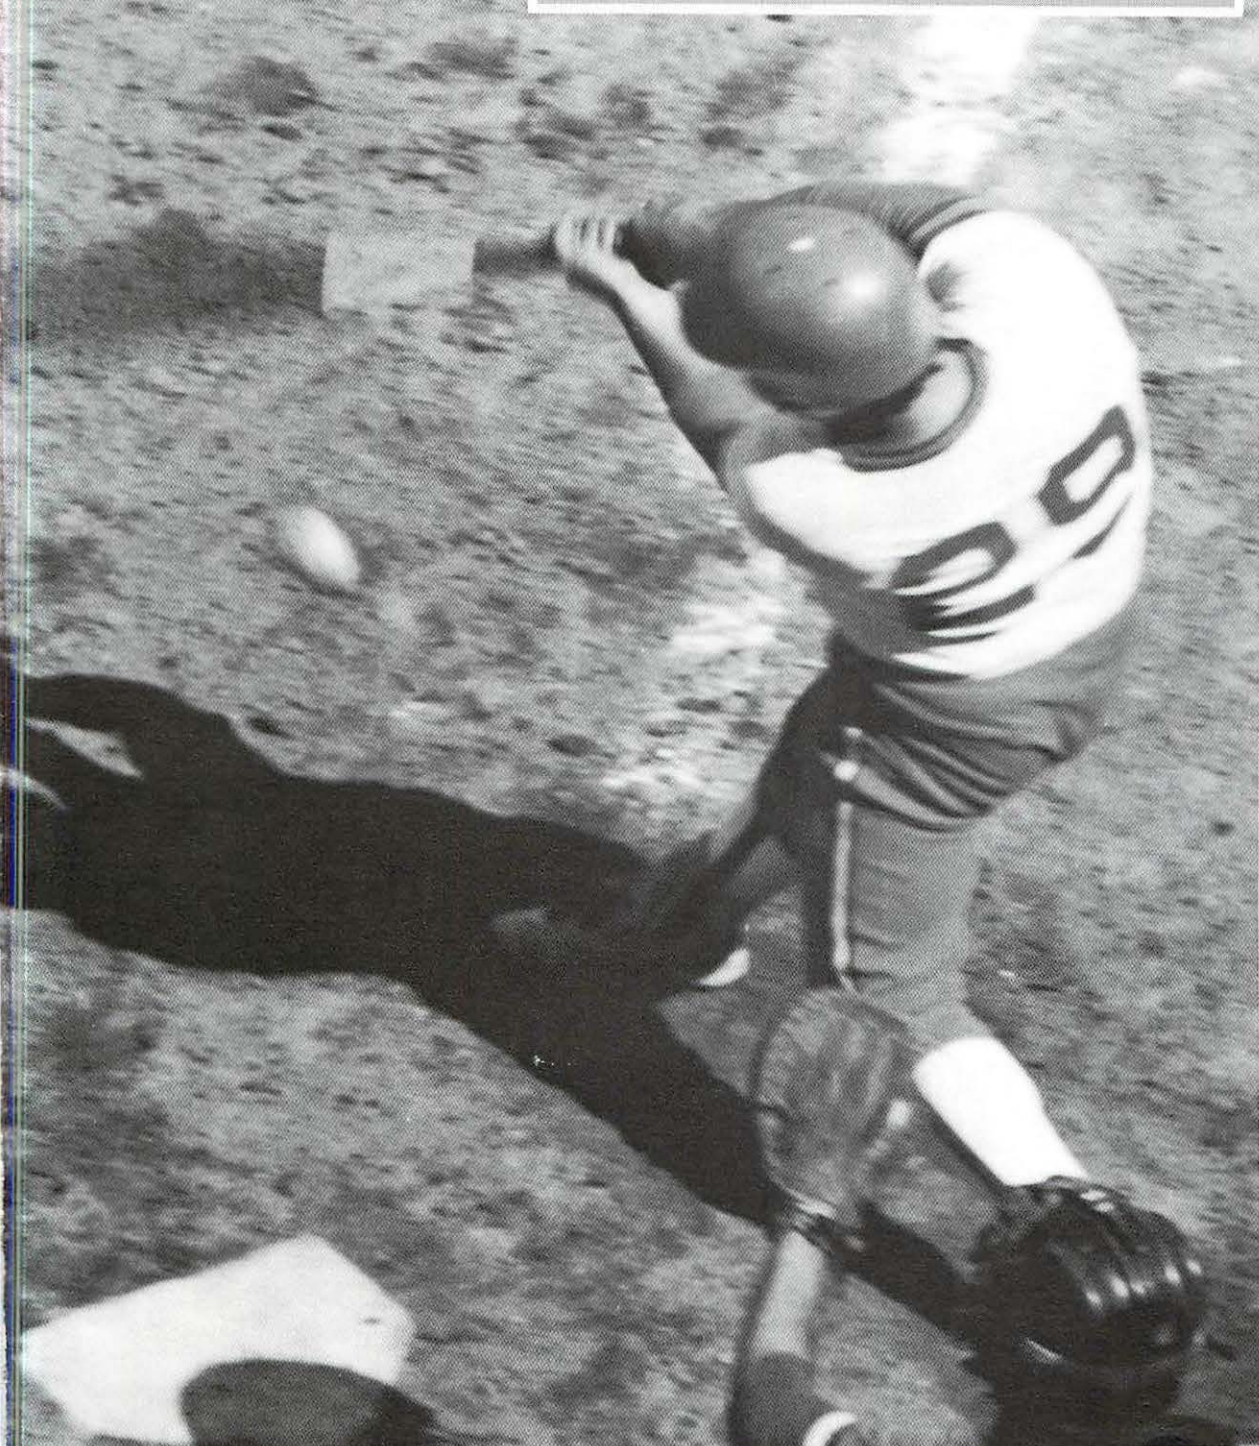

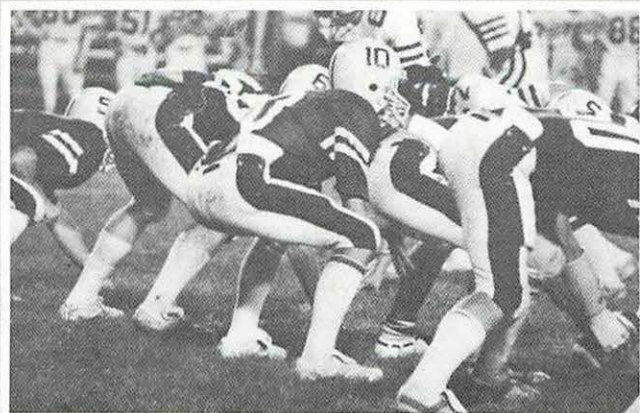

While making his speech for Senior class president, Joe McNuff, vows to work hard and do his best for the Class of '81.

Nancy Lonas, Junior class president, announces the top sellers and the high homeroom at the conclusion of the Junior-Senior magazine sale.

During the Lookout Classic, in which the Pounders defeated Notre Dame, senior third baseman John Picklesimer takes a big swing, but comes up short. Senior Darryl Oliver looks over the defense as he prepares to take the snap in the victory over Soddy Daisy.

CIRCUIT BREAKERS

Darryl Oliver fires a long pass as running back Lamar Jones gives him added protection.

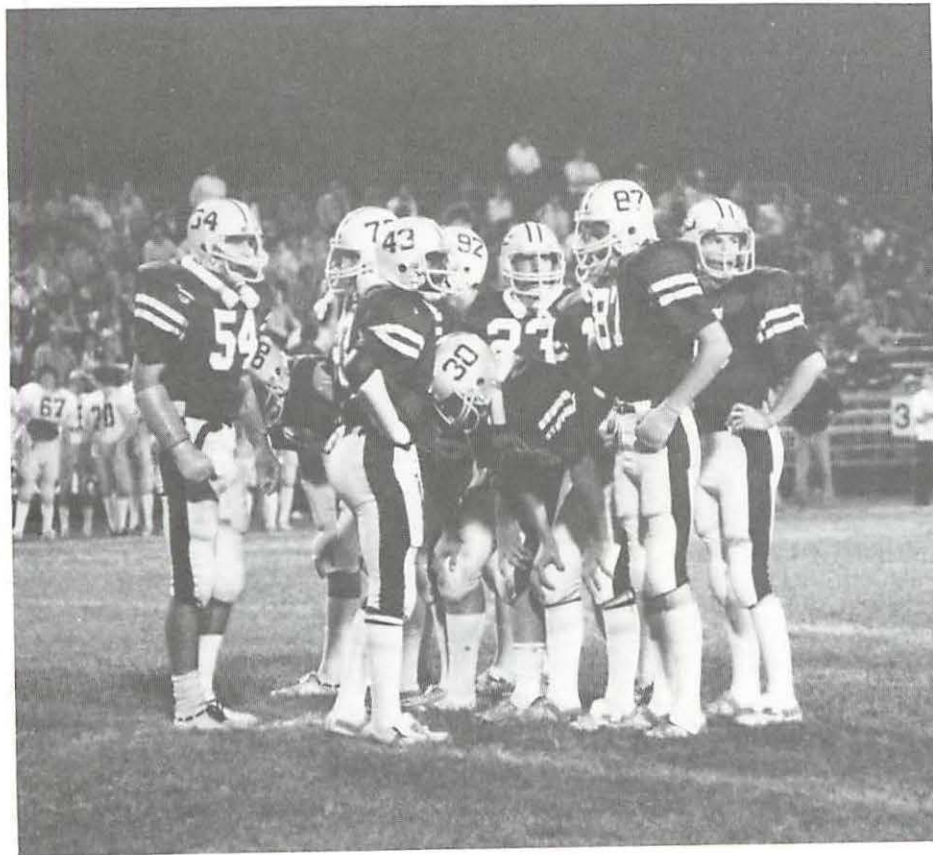

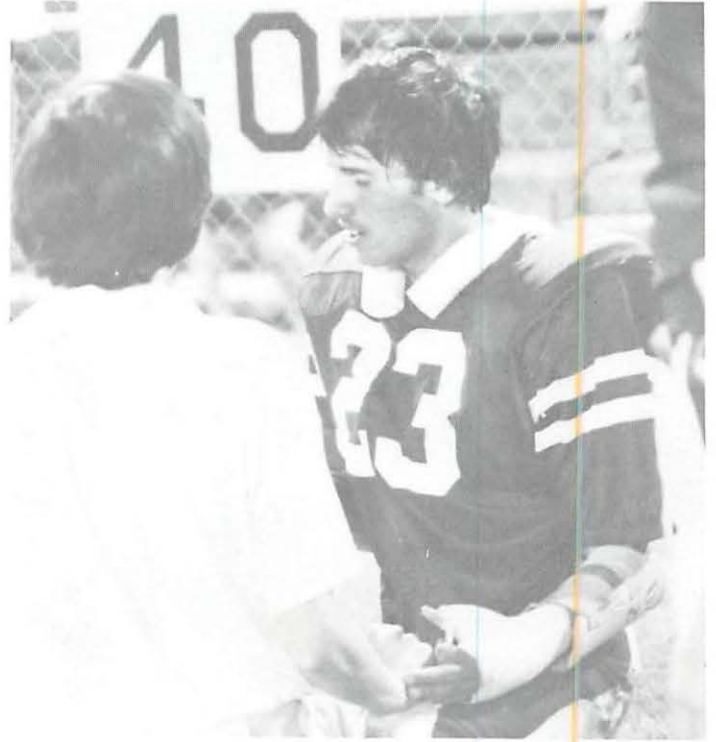

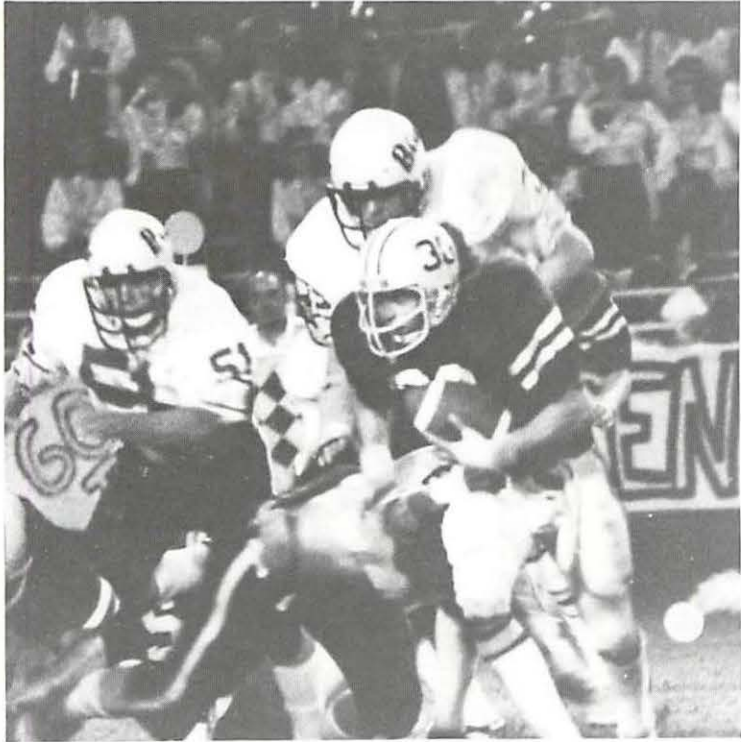

The Pounders, with new coach Mike Collier had hoped for a record breaking year. Unfortunately, luck was not on their side as they lost their season opener to Ooltewah in a heartbreaker 14 to 7. After the loss to Ooltewah, the Pounders never seemed to regain confidence. They lost four straight games. The beginning of the season was especially disappointing because of all the practice, particularly a strenuous week of football camp at Carson-Newson College. The main problems seemed to be inexperience and adapting to coach Collier's new system. Senior Mike Maxey said, "There was too much conflict between the teammates and we were overconfident at the beginning of the season." In the first five games, the Pounders could not seem to connect their circuit.

Senior Mike Maxey follows his blockers on a kick return against Red Bank. Co-Captains for the Bradley County game, Junior Kevin Dodson and Senior Eddle Hourigan, meet with Bradley's Captains and the referee for the toss of the coin. Mike Maxey tries to turn it upfield in the loss to Bradley County.

Manager Steve Martin tends to Junior defensive lineman, Kevin Dobson, after he was shaken up on the previous play. Coach Collier instructs wide receiver David Massengill on where he was supposed to be on the third play. The Pounder defense waits in anticipation for the coach's signal for the formation.

FINAL CHARGE

Darryl Oliver takes the snap in a loss to Tyner 29-0.

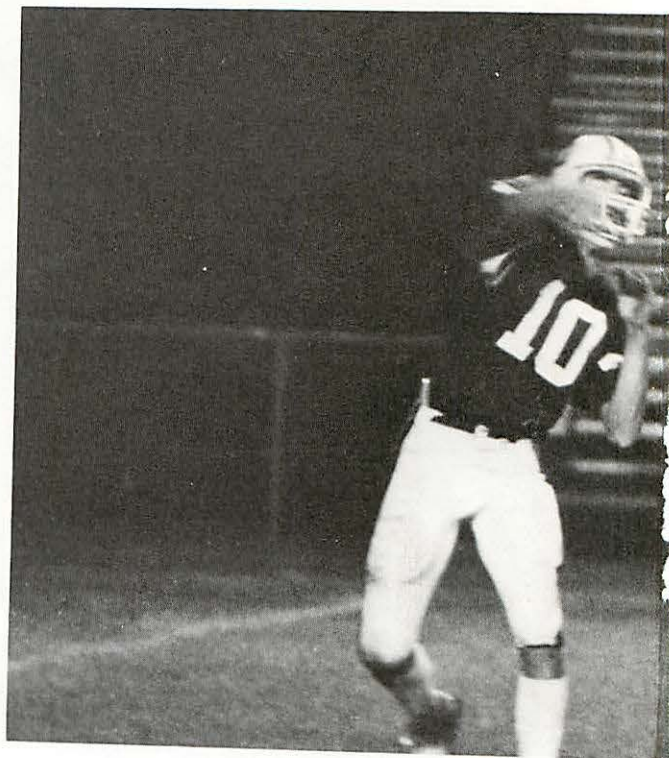

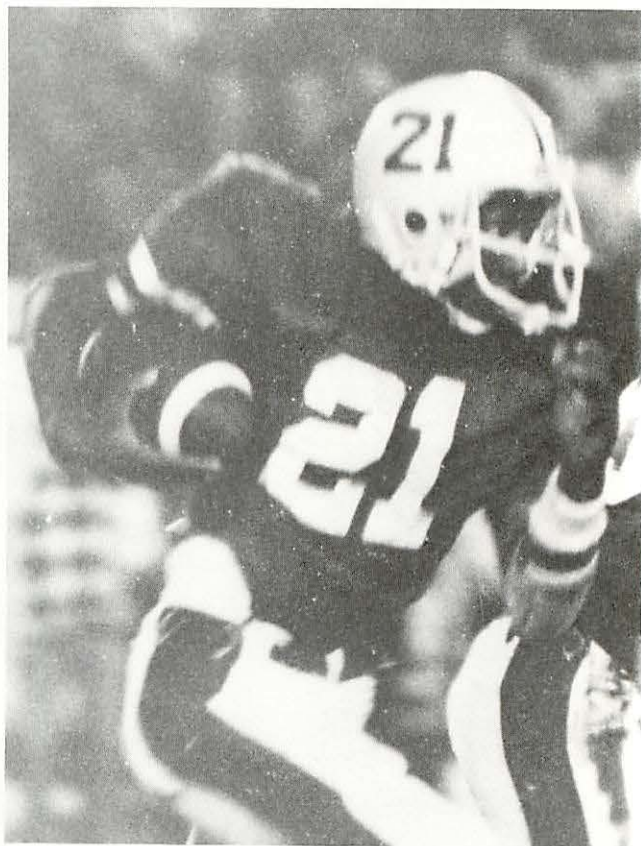

The final games of the season were disappointing for the Pounders. Against Tyner, Reginald Tisdale, David Welch and Eddie Daniel were the standouts. Chip Carnes was impressive with his punting averaging of 39 yards on four attempts. Central suffered a 29-0 defeat.

The Pounders used two brilliant pass receptions by David Massengill, and the kicking of Van Shumaker combined offensively with a stingy defense and punting of Chip Carnes to pull out a 17-13 triumph over Soddy-Daisy.

Mike Maxey's running 54 yards on 11 carries against East Ridge with Central's total net rushing at 124 could not pull out a win. Central fell to a 28-7 defeat.

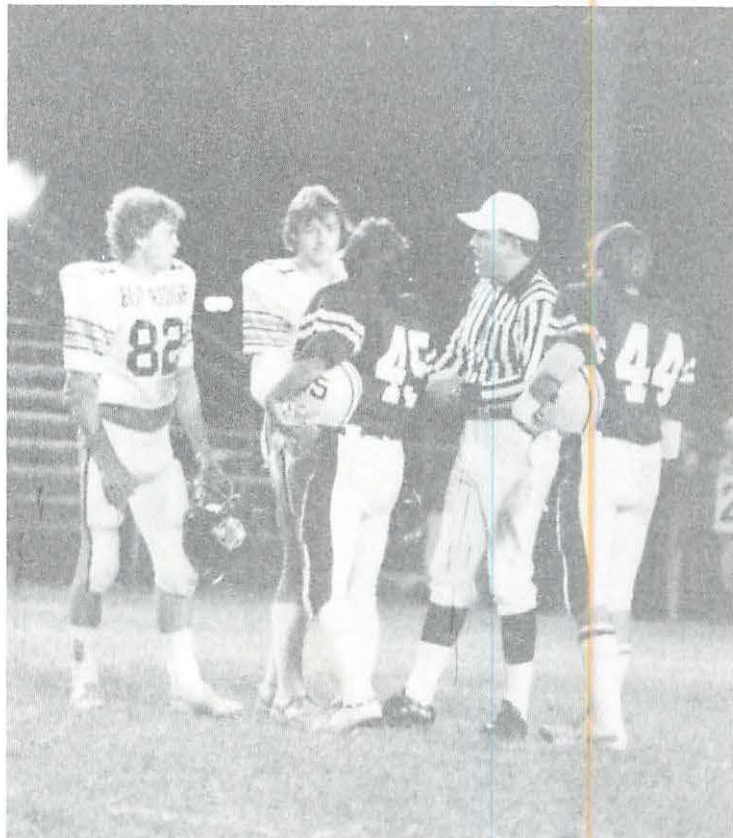

Combining their efforts against Rhea County, quarterbacks Darryl Oliver and Chip Carnes had a good passing game with a net total of 122 yards. However, the Pounders dropped to a 28-7 loss. Central completed its final charged AAA season with a 1-9 record.

David Massengill returns a kick-off against Soddy-Daisy. A look of defeat shows in Johnny Moore and Derrick Holder at the Rhea County game. Chuck Davis and Rick Hoge await the coin toss before the East Ridge game which ended in a loss, 28-7.

Mike Maxey turns it upfield against East Ridge with tightend Van Shumaker blocking. Darryl Oliver attempts a pass against Soddy-Daisy. Lamar Jones runs for yardage against Soddy-Daisy.

CHARGED UP AND READY

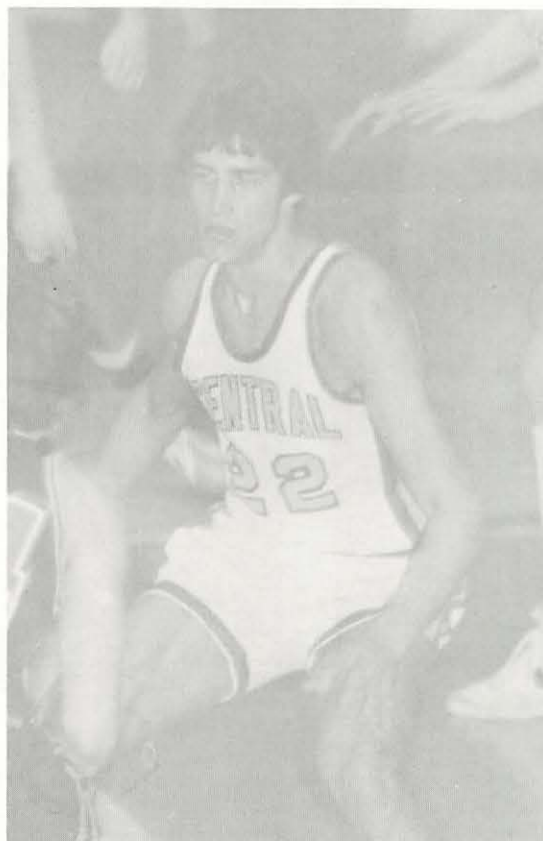

Barry Turner takes a shot from the top of the key against a Soddy-Daisy defender.

When the Purple Pounder cagers opened up their season, they were truly fired up and ready. In their opening game at Rhea County, the Pounders took the contest handily 65-50. The team was directed by David Massengill who fired in 19 points and also "slammed one home." The second game of the year was a heart-breaker for the hoopsters as they were dropped 66-61 at McMinn County. One bright spot in the game though was Tom Bradshaw's 32 points. In the first home game against Red Bank, the crowd came to life when David Massengill and Bob Byerly both slam dunked in the first quarter. The rest of the game was smooth sailing for the Pounders who won 70-52. They ended the first half of the season 6-5.

After the Christmas break, the Pounders went up against Tyner and defeated them 87-67. The leading scorer of the game was Tom Bradshaw with 23 points while David Massengill and Bobby Byerly agained showed their slam dunking abilities. The next two games were defeats by Hixson and Ooltewah. The cagers then started a 3 game winning streak by defeating East Ridge, Cleveland and McMinn Central consecutively and sophomore Vincent McKenzie tossed in 16, 18, and 10 points respectively. In the final regular season game against Tyner, Bobby Byerly popped in 17 points to lead the Pounders to a close 74-72 victory. The Pounders lost out to Cleveland in the first round of the District Tournament by a 65-53 score. Tom Bradshaw and David Massengill were honored in the post-season by being named to the All-County team.

Senior forward Tom Bradshaw "skies" and "yanks" down a rebound in a home game against Cleveland.

The bench, consisting of Larry Mowery, Jeff Smith, Stacy Brogden, Barry Turner, Coach Torbett and Coach Woosely, look on as the Pounders set their offense.

HIGH ENERGY

The 1980-81 girls got off to an exciting start with their energy at its peak. With the loss of only one starter from the previous year and Coach Patty Lane in her second year, the team had very high goals set for themselves. The team consisted of only one senior, Captain Kim Chilton, Juniors, Lisa Burns, Charl Cross, Debbie Galloway, Joanie McCoy, Mary Slifco and sophomores, Emily Boyd and Kelly Daniels. The team has thus secured a solid base for the future. As Coach Lane stated, "We were hoping to get off to a good start and keep consistent through the year and reach our peak at the time of the tournament." Several Lady Pounders were honored after the season. Mary Slifco was named to the Chattanooga Times second team and Leigh Shumaker received an honorable mention. Slifco, Shumaker, and Chilton all received honorable mention on the News Free Press "AAA" All-star team.

Junior Mary Slifko shoots a short jumper for 2 of her 19 points in the loss to Cleveland.

Listening closely, Kim Chilton, Kelly Daniels and Leigh Shumaker receive instructions for the next play from Coach Patty Lane. Mary Slifko, NF Press Honorable Mention and Times Second Team, shows perfect form from the foul line.

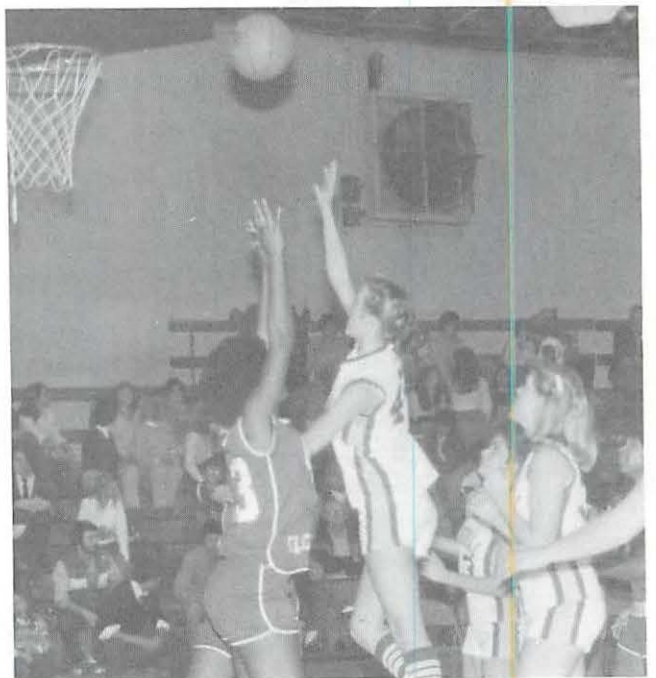

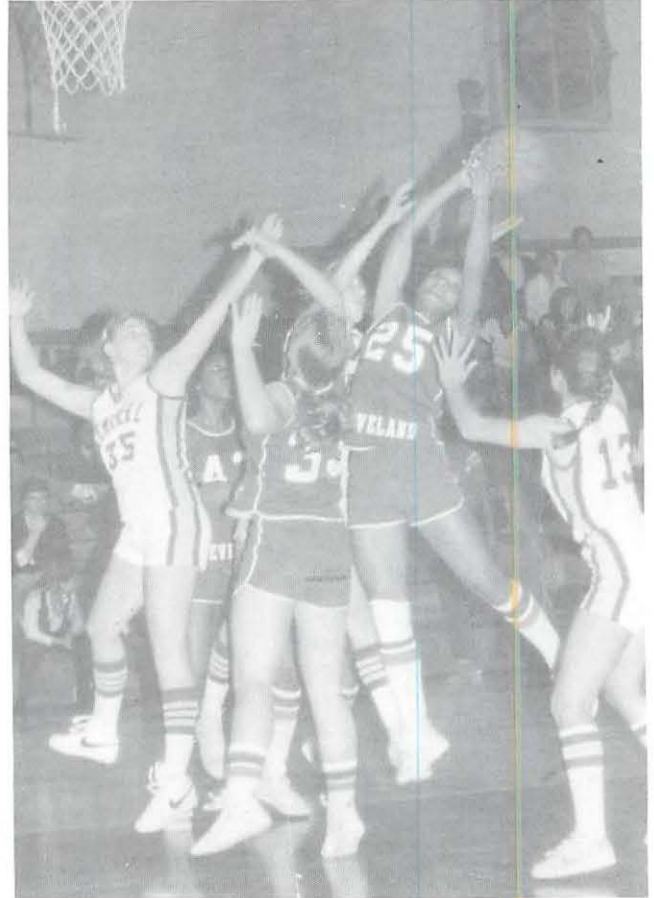

Freshmen Team-Debbie Scalf, Mari Kay Bridges, Diana Beckner, Karen Fann, Michelle Poteet, Becky Slifko, Lisa Waters, Angie Rucker, Manager; Melaney Rogers, Terri Johnson, Pam Chilton, Eva Franklin, Teresa Hardin, Tammye Yarbrough.

Varsity Team-Coach Patty Lane, Statistician Suzanne Mossburg, Lisa Burns, Charl Cross, Leigh Shumaker, Mary Slifko, Debbie Galloway, Kim Chilton, Emily Boyd, Kelly Daniels, and Joanie McCoy.

In the loss to Cleveland, Emily Boyd and Debbie Galloway fight for a rebound.

Shooting her hook, Mary Slifko adds to the Pounder's total score.

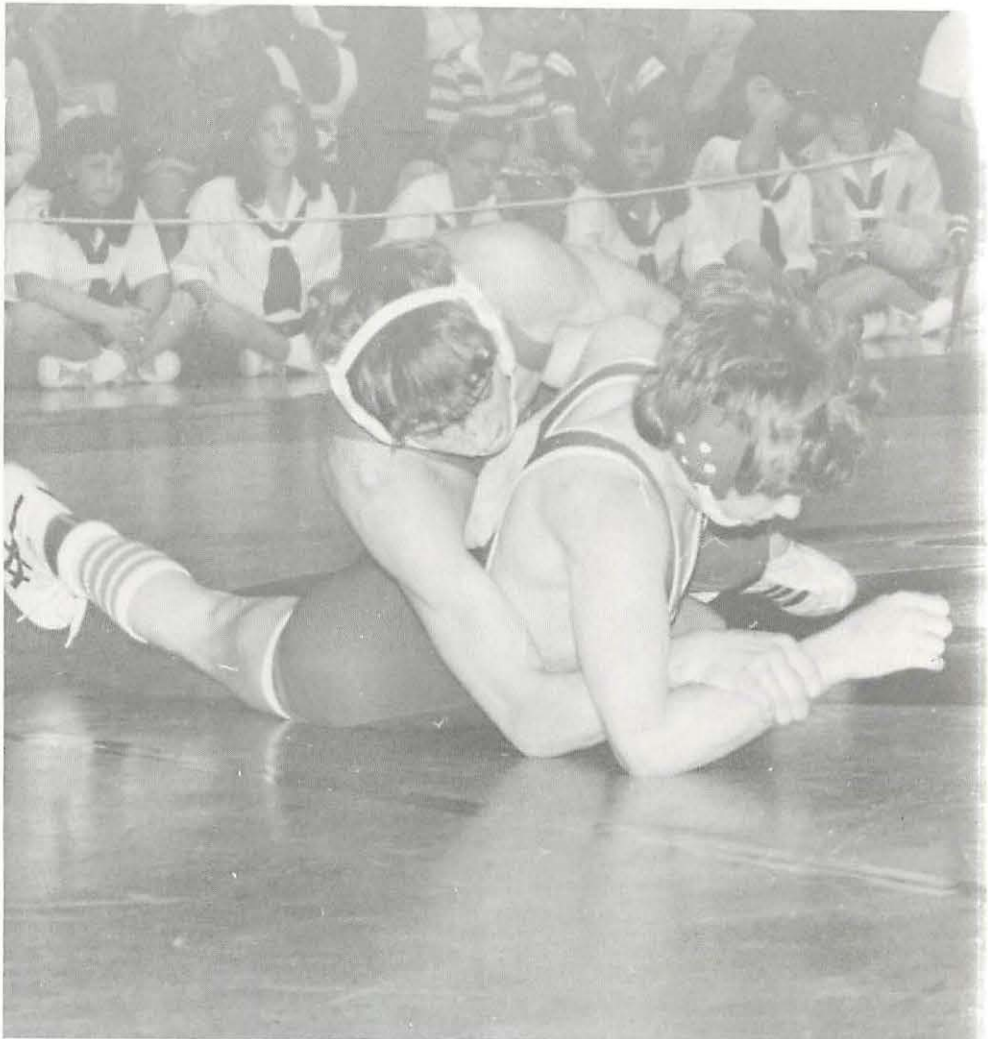

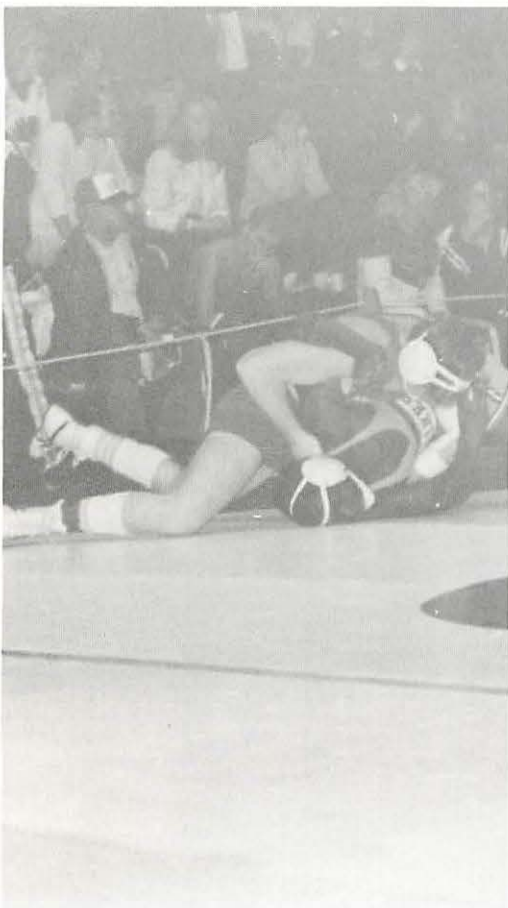

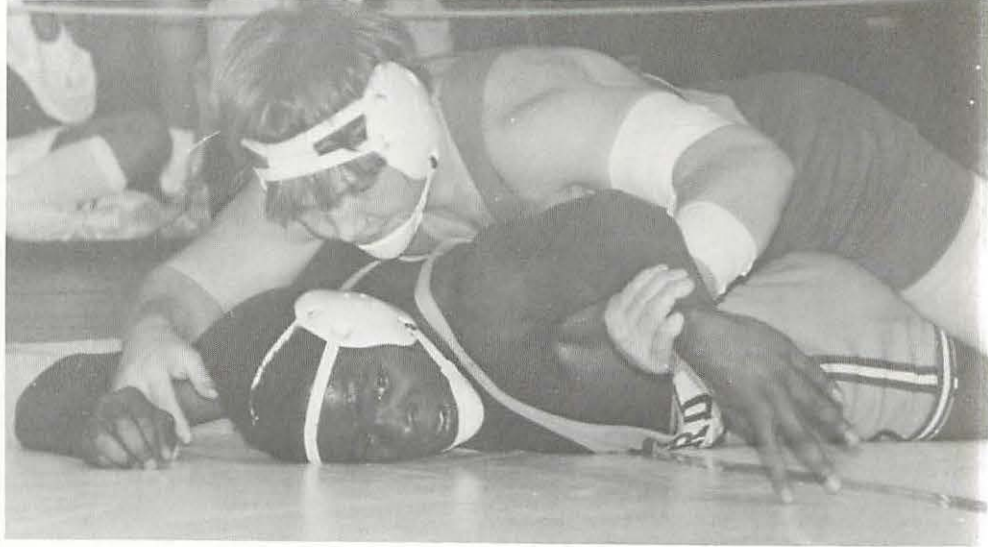

In the victory over Notre Dame, Lisa Burns prepares to shoot a foul shot while Kelly Daniels takes advantage in the break of action.

ELECTRIC SUCCESS

Wrestling was an Electric Success. The team grappled from October until the State Wrestling Tournament in February. Central's Troy Williams came out a top finisher. Bruce Elliott also finished Third in the State for an Electric Success. Central ended the season with a 10-5 record. Junior wrestler Mike Higney commented, "Practice was the secret to our winning season." The student body provided the support at the matches and the rallies. The Central grapplers made this season electrically charged.

Senior Bruce Elliott looks toward the sidelines to Coach Highlander for advice against Bradley County.
Bruce Elliott needs this pin to beat his Red Bank opponent.
Struggling to turn his Brainerd opponent, Bob Richardson works for a pin.

Using an Oklahoma hold, David Champion pins his opponent. Bob Richardson receives two points for a takedown during the Central Invitational.

Noland Sharp works for points against Hixson wrestler. Bob Richardson receives his victory after beating a tough Tyner opponent.

HIGH VOLTAGE

The wrestling team showed its voltage on the mat. Workouts were hard and heavy with emphasis on weights for strength and endurance. The volleyball team was successful with a 10-8 record. Kim Chilton received Best All-Round player as Cathy Russell received Best Offense and Leigh Shumaker, Best Defense. Spring sports were tennis and golf. The boys' tennis team swung a record of 6-3, the girls', 1-8 records. The golf team went 6-6 for the year and placed second in the City Prep, fourth in the Coca Cola Tournament and second in the District Tournament. Signs posted around spring sports read-Caution, High Voltage.

SPRING POWER

As spring approached, athletics began to have power and everyone had a chance to participate. The choices ranged from baseball to tennis and from softball to track. All of Central's powerful teams enjoyed a certain sweet smell of success. The most successful of teams was the track squad. The cinderman posted a 10 to 3 record and received some post-season achievements. The 400-meter relay team finished 6th in the state track meet and David Massengill placed 5th in the long jump. With many hours of hard work and strict dedication, the spring season turned out to be powerful.

A CHARGE OF PURPLE POWER

The Purple Pounders took charge early in the season with victories over Tyner 8-6; Chattanooga Valley 12-3; City 14-0; Crossville 7-2; Cleveland 8-7; and Boyd Buchanan 16-0. The Pounders fell to McCalle 2-3 and Red Bank 9-11. They soon took charge again by defeating McMinn Co., Sevier Co., Charleston, Rhea Co., Soddy Dalsy, Riverside; and after executing a perfect warm-up with an imaginary ball, they downed Red Bank 5-3. At the end of the season the Pounders had an overall record of 16-9.

After the season was over, Coach Gary Rundles commented, "This has been the best season since I've been at Central. We had a good year except tournament misfortunes of playing the worst game in the first round of the district. The team showed class and had a good attitude on and off the field."

John Picklesimer, with a perfect cut, sends one of his six homeruns sailing over the fence.

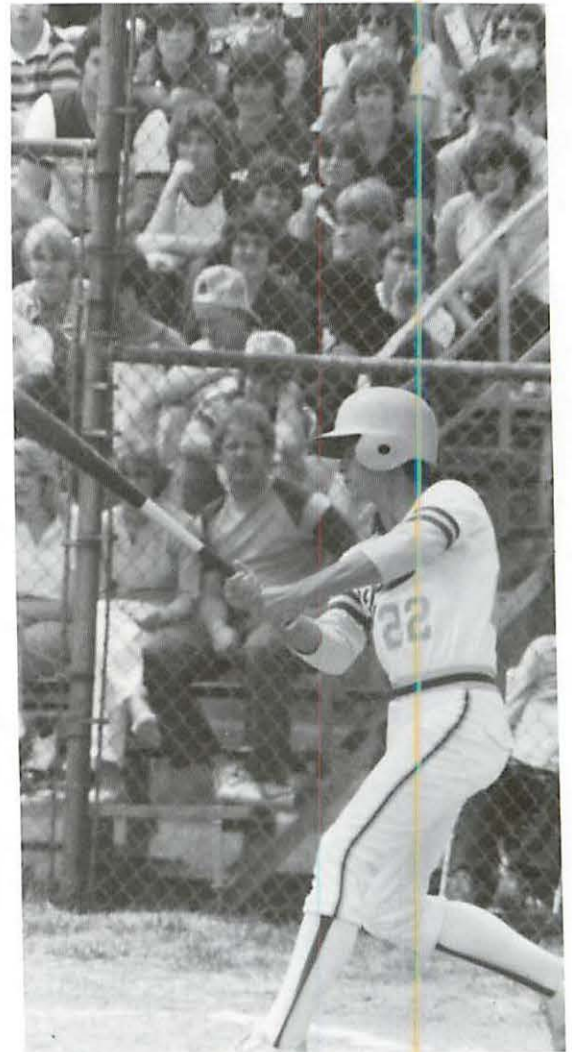

One of the Pounders top pitchers, David Massengil, collects another victory against Notre Dame in the Lookout Classic.

The Central Pounders look with disgust as the umpire calls the batter out, but the Pounders win 4-0.

Before the Pounder fans, Darryl Oliver lines one over the shortstop to score a run against McMinn Co.

Junior Marty McDaniel awaits the opening pitch against Baylor in the Lookout Classic.

HIGH EFFICIENCY

The Senior class officers served the senior class efficiently and enthusiastically.

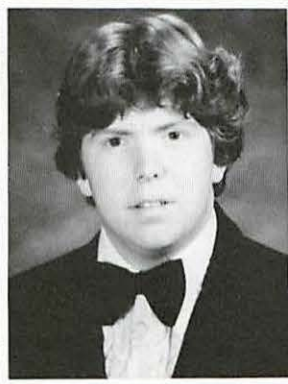

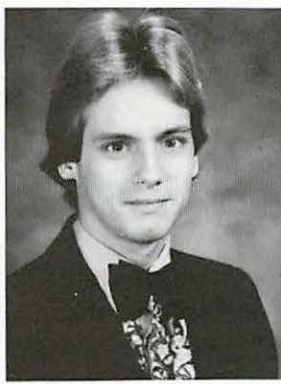

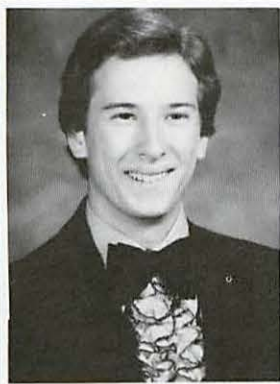

Joey McNutt served as president of the class with Bob Byerley, vice-president; Lee Ann Hall, Secretary; Glen Wood, treasurer.

Among the many responsibilities of the officers was organizing the junior-senior magazine sale. This sale funded Senior Day and Graduation.

These officers also organized a coffee break to aid the family of Paul Horien.

The senior officers spent many long hours planning and preparing for events involving the senior class. Their work was well organized and efficiently planned. Their hard work was gladly received and much appreciated by the senior class.

SHOCKING RESULTS

The year's events which led to the names on the Most Wanted List were shocking. Wes Skyles headed up the list with his artistic abilities. All of Harrison admired his talent shown on the water tower. Then other artists were Jim Bankston, Johnny Moore, and Greg Cameron, who chose to display their artwork on the gym dome. Wanted for her driving skills, Marcy Scott ranked high on the list. An anonymous Senior exclaimed, "Darryl Oliver should be on the list because it's a crime to have such good looks!" Finishing the year with some shocking results, the Class of 1981's Most Wanted List was a lengthy one.

LIGHTENING FORCE

With Lightening Force, the senior class set a fashion trend. Their clothes ranged from preppy to surgical attire to jungle fatigues. Accessories to their preppy wardrobe were docksides, whizles, and ballet slippers. The dickles, Izod shirts, and button downs were carried over from their junior year. The trend in wearing surgical pants and surgical shirts was never to wear them together. Accessories for the surgical wear were flops and a dip. The girls wore charms' holders on a necklace, add-a-bead necklace, and bow earrings. Their styles varied, but lightening force personality showed through.

FUSION FLASHES

Flash! Flash! Flash! The thoughts of the Seniors returned to the memories of their first years at Central. Many students remembered the laughter that was present when they were initiated into clubs. Susan Greer remembered dressing up like a clown for a Pi-Delta-Sigma initiation. But initiations were only a small part of the seniors' memories. Tammy Evans' best memory was the day she came late and the heat didn't work. Needless to say, no one was at school. Chorus members reminisced about past musicals such as Showboat and Anything Goes. The football team got caught up in the spirit of the upcoming season. Mike Maxey and Rick Mansfield shaved their heads to display their senior spirit. Overall, the Class of 1981's memories flashed with fun and school spirit.

Helen Murphy has a laugh as she remembers the shopping malls in Washington, D.C.

ELECTRICAL CHARGES

Vacations were true electrical charges for the seniors during the past year. There were many places from which to choose. Florida and Gatlinburg were two of the more popular places for Seniors during Spring Break. Although a lot of seniors went away during their time off, some did stay in town. Many took simple, short trips to places such as Chickamauga Dam, Burger King, Brainerd and Edsls just to name a few. Others spent their hours working, sleeping, lying in the sun, and watching television. It was a time in which many took advantage of the freedom from bells and books. For the most, spring break gave real electrical charges.

ELECTRICAL CHARGERS

Electricity and excitement flowed from the senior class, not only from sports but also from the classroom. The seniors were voted The Most Spirited Class two years in a row. The seniors voted that Mrs. Dorothy Stone should be recognized as the favorite teacher. Her psychology and sociology classes both were favorites of the seniors. Miss Marge Ogle was a runner-up in the voting along with Mr. Sam Stoner, Miss Patty Lane and Mr. Hillman Mayfield. The senior class was charged with electricity and spirit throughout the school shouting "Seniors!" "It Just Doesn't Matter!" "Seniors!"

Miss Ogle emphasizes STUDY MACBETH!

INSTANT STEAM

Instant steam was no problem for the R.O.T.C. Department as they started off the year by selecting outstanding officers. The officers were selected by the R.O.T.C. Instructors based on demonstrated leadership, grade point average, conduct, and the students desire to perform in the roll of leadership. Among these officers were: Susan Baxter, Buster Sanders, Donna Chandler, Roger Williamson, Dewayne Waters, Greg Shelton, Bobby Bridges, Tim Hobbs, Burt Shaerer, Chris Caldwell, Bruce Elliot, Tom Hobbs, Tracy Norrell, Vince Brannon, Cole Mullis, Dale Jones, Glen Wood, Rick Mansfield, Chuck Davis, Brad Gardner, and Tim Basham.

Dedicated to their instructions, Second Platoon, E Company practices marching on the football field.

POWERS OF PERSUASION

When it came to best excuses, we seniors really knew how to project our powers of persuasion. Some of our best excuses were: "My wife kept me up all night," from Mac Campbell. Tom Bradshaw used the excuse, "The lights on my car wouldn't work and I couldn't drive to school in the dark." Bobby Standifer's was the darkroom, and Cecilia Ekmark's, "I was expecting an important call from Europe." Ann Knox Rogers confessed, "I had to go to court." So much for oral communication. When we needed a note we used other sources. Many of us became surrogate mothers and fathers. Melanie Blankenship was Jim Breeden's mom countless times. Our powers of persuasion released us from study halls, English tests, basketball games, and term paper deadlines. Each excuse was authentic, now really, a class having 188 dismissals, one-fourth of the the dismissals in March, has to be an original.

Class of 1981

The best excuse for missing class is to have a continental picnic and invite the teacher and principal. French II class enjoys a picnic of fruits, cheese, pastries and sandwiches.

Candidate Dawn Osborn and escort Tracy Norrell.

Candidate Suzy Harris and escort Buster Sanders.

Candidate Julie DeShields and escort Tim Hobbs.

AN ELECTRIC EVENT

Homecoming was an electric event not only during the game and the dance, but also earlier that day. The excitement built as preparations were made for the game and dance. The candidates for Queen were Dee Denham, Julie DeShields, Suzy Harris, Dawn Osborn and Cathy Russell. The highlight of the night was an electric moment for everyone as Cathy Russell was crowned Queen. With a 17-13 victory over Soddy-Daisy and a successful dance after the game, the night was electrifying!

1981 Homecoming Queen candidates are Cathy, Dee, Suzy, Julie and Dawn.

EVERREADY ENERGIZERS

Specializing in their individual fields, the Senior Superlatives proudly proclaimed their titles as EverReady Energizers. For the superlatives of Torchbearer, Leadership, Service, and Dependability the senior received the superlative for which he gained the top number of votes according to the order of the four.

For the superlative of Most Likely to Succeed, Most Courteous, Wildest, Most Talented, Neatest in Appearance, and Friendliest, the senior won the Superlative for which he obtained the most votes. They carried away most of the academic and athletic awards and were EverReady to pick up their superlative title.

Torchbearer and Scholarship: Lee Ann Hall and Eddie Daniel.

Leadership: Susan Baxter (not pictured) and Rick Mansfield.

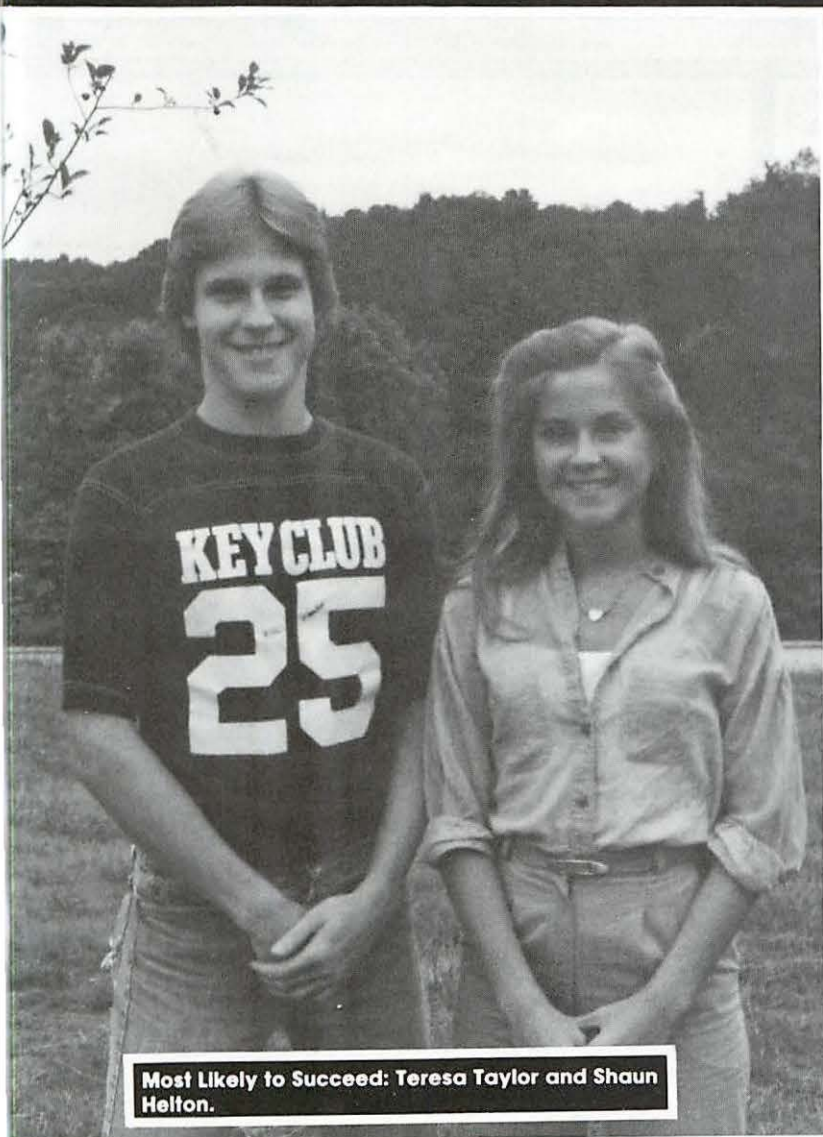

Service: Tammy McDaniel and Joey McNutt.

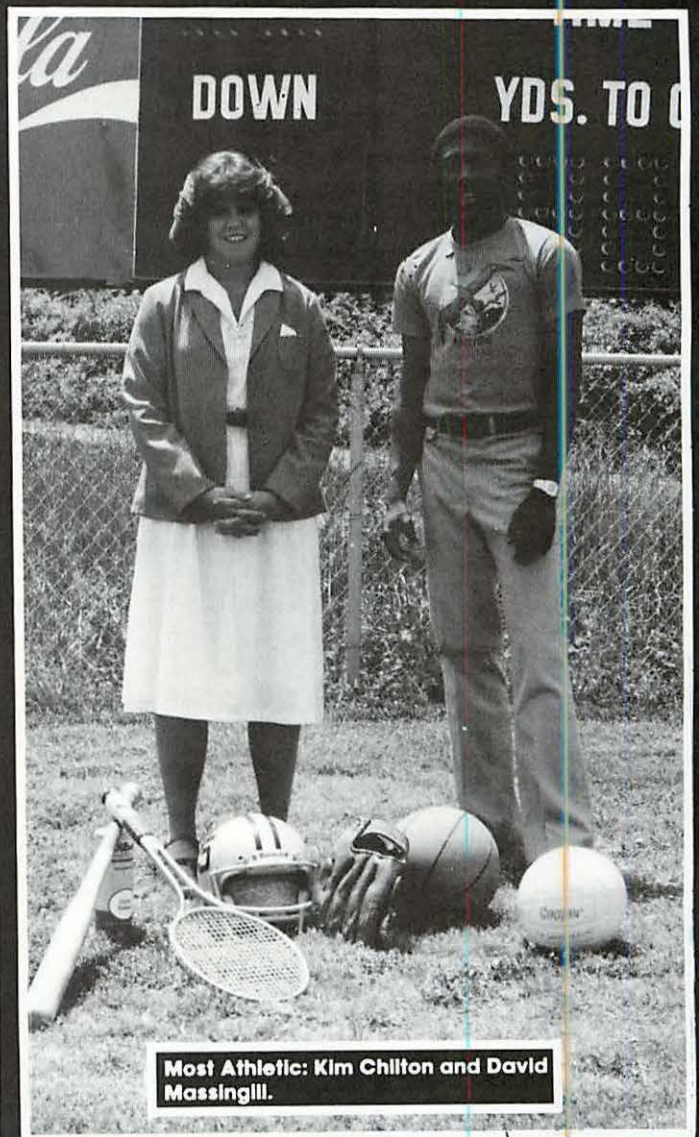

Dependability: Connie Roark and Cole Mullis.

SPIRITS FLOWN

Though our Spirits having flown
we will never be alone,
For as mountains
may rise and mountains
may fall,
The Class of '84
will live
through it all.

Most Likely to Succeed: Teresa Taylor and Shaun Helton.

Most Athletic: Kim Chilton and David Massingill.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

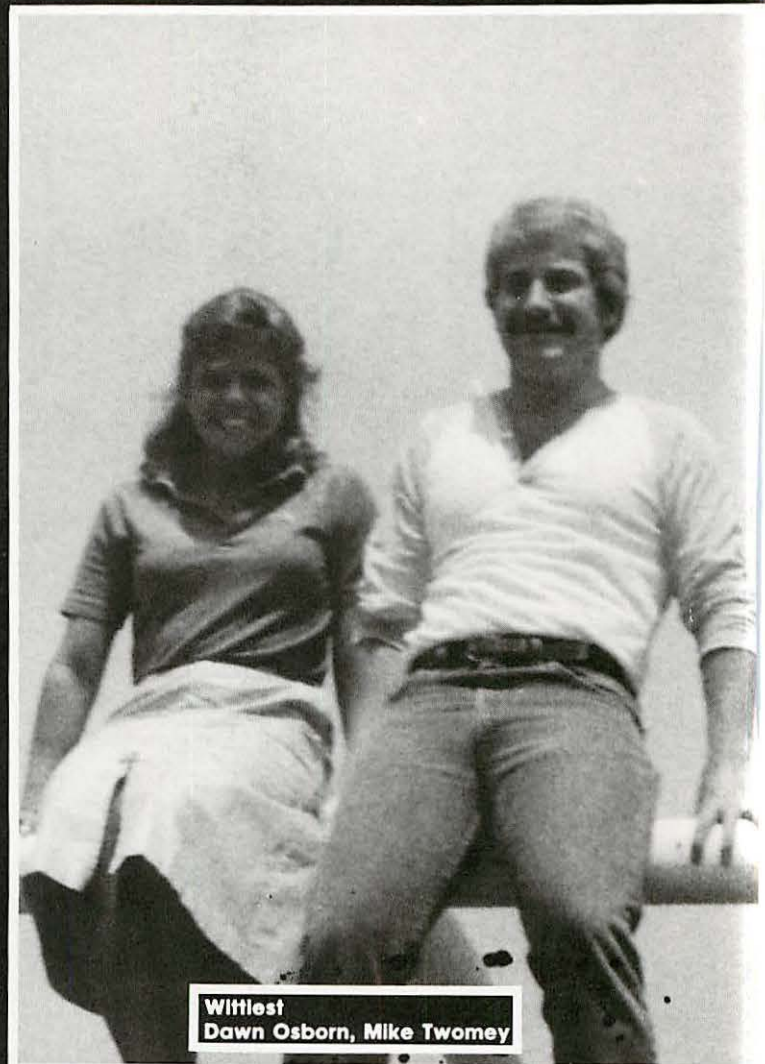

In the spotlight of Senior Superlatives Darryl Oliver and Cathy Russell were chosen to be the Best All-Round in the Senior class. On the basis of their friendly smiles and good attitudes, Suzanne Mossburg and Rick Hoge were chosen Friendliest in the class. Because of their never ending wit, Dawn Osborn and Mike Twomey were selected Wittlest. Jody Brown and Trinka Daniels were picked Most Talented, and Tracy West and Ladell Peoples were chosen to be the Neatest in Appearance. Because of their display of politeness Janet Hay and Chris Caldwell were picked Most Courteous.

What in the World is the Future Holding? By: Joe McNutt

I'm glad to see everyone here at our 20th reunion-the year 2001 (a space odyssey). I couldn't mail invitations with the paper shortage, and with long distance bills I couldn't afford to use the phone; so I had it broadcast naturally by word of mouth by one of our classmates- Bonnie Sinclair Helton.

I bought some hiking boots the other day at Chuck's Outdoor Shop; Burt Schaerer owns it, but he named it after Chuck because he needed a name everyone could look up to. Chuck Davis still hasn't got his jeep painted. Tony Kendall won the Nobel Prize for the first solar powered jeep. Phil Kelley sold his jeep because he heard they weren't popular anymore. Oh, Tamm Benton lost her WBC middleweight title last month when Diane Lowe struck her over the head with a sterling silver bowling ball. After being expelled from BYU, Brigham Bob Byerley and Tom Petty Bradshaw were cut from the Knicks last week and replaced by 7'5" center Trinka Daniels. After the booting, Tom could only say "Where's Tracy, I mean Stacy?" Dee Denham is in traction at Memorial Hospital after dislocating several bones in a disco contest. Julie DeShields-a top model for VOGUE magazine, still receives fan mail every day from her two fans, Paul Downey and Chris Caldwell. Suzy Harris Manis quit her marriage with Tony and became a nun. She is now known as Praying Manis. Joy Walker married a nine-year-old last month.

So, there you have a brief prediction of some of you good-for-nothing heathens. If you disagree with me, there's not a lot you can do about it now . . . my predictions are probably wrong, but I'm sure yours would be also.

The History of the Class of '81-by Cole Mullis

In September, 1977, as we walked into Central High School for the first time, it was scary, but we soon over came this fear to become one of the best classes to graduate from Central, The Class of '81.

When class elections were held, the class elected Teresa Taylor, President; Our Vice-President was Sylvia Untalan; Suzy Harris was named Secretary and Mike Maxey, Treasurer. These four did a fine job in leading us through our Freshman year.

In football, the freshman team, lead by Coach John Crawford went undefeated in six games winning the county championship.

In our sophomore year the class elected Cole Mullis, President; Dawn Osborn, Vice-President; Suzy Harris, Secretary; and Trinka Daniels, Treasurer.

As Juniors we elected Rick Mansfield as President; Dawn Osborn, Vice-President; Lee Ann Hall as Secretary; and Andy Powell as Treasurer.

The Junior Play "Good-Bye My Fancy" put on by the junior members of the Drama Club was one of the highlights of the year.

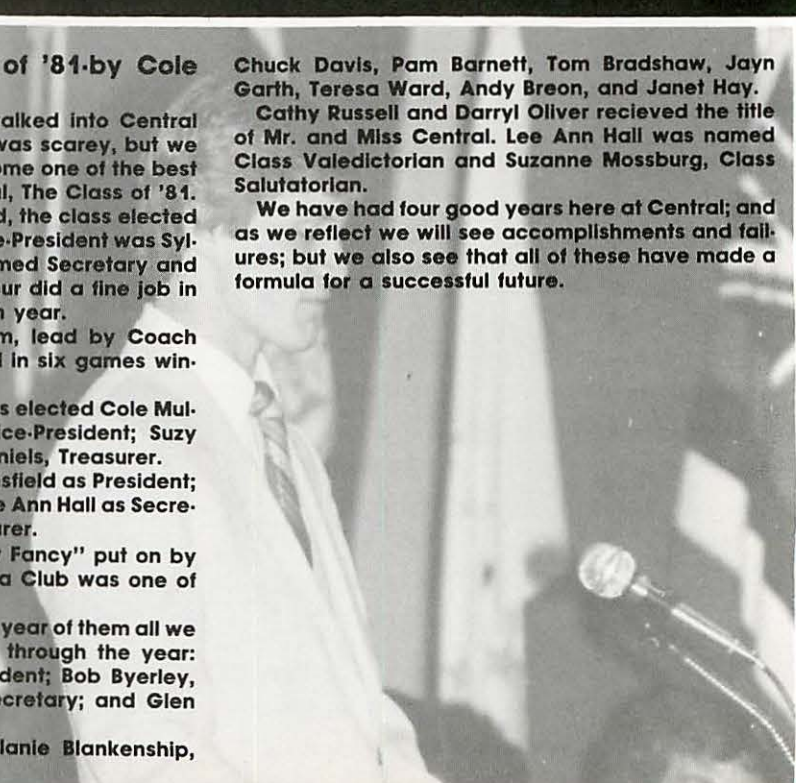

In our last and the most special year of them all we picked four officers who led us through the year: Joey McNutt, Senior Class President; Bob Byerley, Vice-President; Lee Ann Hall, Secretary; and Glen Wood, Treasurer.

The class marshalls were Melanie Blankenship,

Chuck Davis, Pam Barnett, Tom Bradshaw, Jayn Garth, Teresa Ward, Andy Breon, and Janet Hay.

Cathy Russell and Darryl Oliver recieved the title of Mr. and Miss Central. Lee Ann Hall was named Class Valedictorian and Suzanne Mossburg, Class Salutatorian.

We have had four good years here at Central; and as we reflect we will see accomplishments and failures; but we also see that all of these have made a formula for a successful future.

TRANSITIONS

*Soon you and I must break the tie, the feeling that has bound us.
You and I must leave behind these walls that now surround us.*

*When we part we'll take our dreams and turn them into truth;
we will make adult realities from the fantasies of our youth.*

*But we'll have no magic success ...
no miracle to fight our fears,
to defend us from distress.*

The only things we will possess are the things that we have learned from our teachers, from each other, from the experience we've earned.

*This is the formula we'll follow in this life of "helloes" and "goodbyes:"
to teach our hearts to be loving and to train our minds to be wise.*

So perhaps the smiles we've shared and the friendships we have kept will help us when the memories are all that we have left.

*But of all the moments and memories
I shall cherish there will be none greater than to graduate with you, my Friends, the class of 1981.*

-by Elle Gordon

1981 Class Will-by Bobby Byerley

We the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and eighty-one, being of inferior minds and voluptuous bodies, will the following to those we leave behind:

I, Angela Williams, will Chuck Davis to Bonnie Sinclair because she has always wanted him anyway.

I, Cecilia Ekmark, will my Swedish-English dictionary to Kelly Daniels who wants to know a good word for Miss Lane's hard practices.

I, Tina Curtis, will my spring break suntan to Miss Ogle.

I, Cole Mullis, will my ability to swing a baseball bat to next year's baseball team.

I, Dale Jones, will 456 skoal cans to Charlie Hatler.

We, Robin Cannon and Lisa Combs, will our ability to turn ourselves into the "Warden" for skipping to any juniors willing to leave during lunch.

I, Tammy McDaniel, will my ability to go on a starvation diet two weeks before the first football game in order to fit into my majorette uniform to Angela Pope, next year.

We, Suzanne Mossburg, Cathy Russell, Karla Dove, Suzie Harris, Mary Horton, and Marcy Scott will Wendy Buck some houses to go with the signs she acquired over spring break.

I, Tom Bradshaw, will Van Shumaker my incredible ability to dunk the basketball.

I, Collin Wright, being of somewhat sound mind and body, leave the "Balmobile" to my brother Kevin so that he may continue the taxi service in the afternoon.

I, Tony Kendall, will not be undersold.

I, Jim Ball, will my ability at missile command to Charlie Hatler.

I, Julie DeShields, will my ability to avoid black eyes to Chari Cross and my ability to give them to Rusty Lowe.

I, Dee Denham, will all my driving skill to anyone daring enough to accept them.

I, Matt Bryant, will Karl Sodergren my Yamaha Motorcycle and my luck with right-hand turns in hope he can enjoy meeting mailboxes head-on.

I, Todd Totzke, will my younger brother my strong right arm and my Devo record collection.

I, Phil Kelly, will my ability to shave to Patrick Livingston.

We, a few choice members of Tri-Hi-Y, will our ability to get caught rolling yards at 7:15 p.m. on Monday evening to next year's members.

I, Joey McNutt, being of sound mind and half-way presentable body, will my ability to procrastinate.

I, Bob Byerley, will my half-finished Ronco Snoopy paint by number set to Greg Cameron, Jim Bankston, and John Moore.

I, Teresa Ward, will my gorgeous white '63 Lincoln Continental to Rodney Smith, who has been trying to get his hands on it for a long time.

I, Dawn Osborne, will my social gatherings to the F.C.A. members of the Junior class, Charlie, Eddie, Patrick and Kevin.

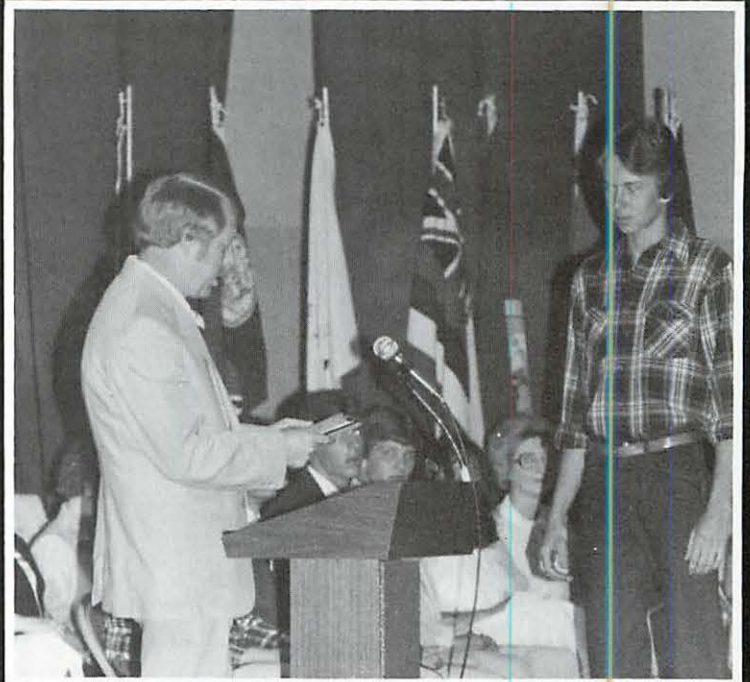

We, Margaret and Joy, will our ability to sell suntan oil in the summer to Vondar and Bridgette.

I, Suzie Harris, will my cheerleading ability to Dotie Mockbee.

I, Gary Womack, will a one-way bus ticket to Atlanta to Vincent Moon.

I, Mike Maxey, will my ability to pick cherries off bushes to Blake Watson.

I, Daryl Oliver, will Coach Rundles a new chili bowl to style his hair.

Bobby Byerley reads the amusing wills submitted for Class Day.

Joey McNutt, supposedly at the 20th reunion, tells of events that happened with the class of '81 in the past twenty years.

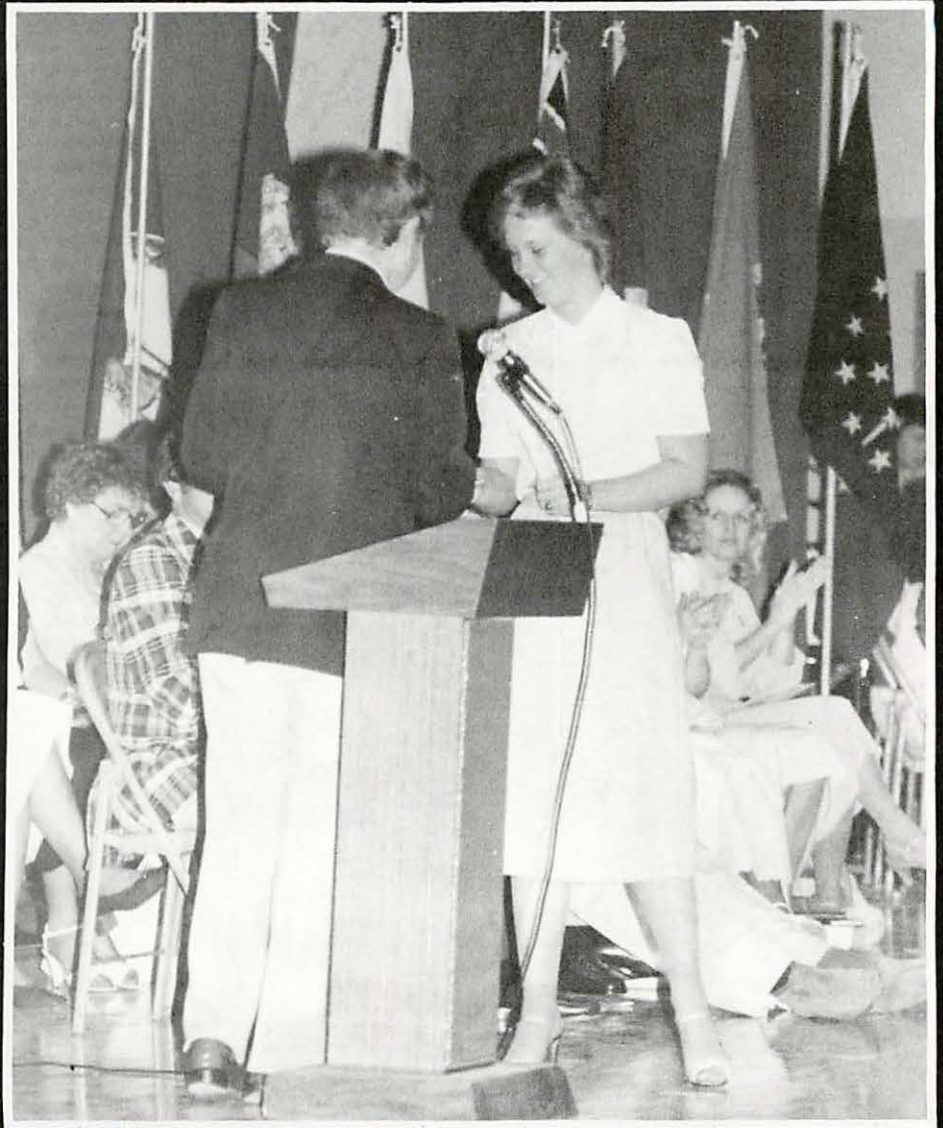

Tim Daniels receives a VICA award presented by the faculty of Harrison Vocational School.

Margaret Sodergren and Eddie Daniel speculate on "What happens after this?"

Graduation speakers, Lee Ann Hall, Suzanne Mossburg, and Susan Baxter wait along with senior homeroom teachers, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Hughes, and Mr. Stoner for the signal by Mr. Carnes to walk out on the stage.

Beth Hundley anxiously awaits the moment to enter the auditorium.

During Senior Day, Buster Sanders, Beth Hundley, Susan Baxter, and Teresa Denton are announced as four year honor students.

Mr. and Miss Central are Darryl Oliver and Cathy Russell.

In the receiving line, Darryl Oliver receives the congratulations of the senior class and guests.

Cathy Russell is celebrating her reign as Miss Central.

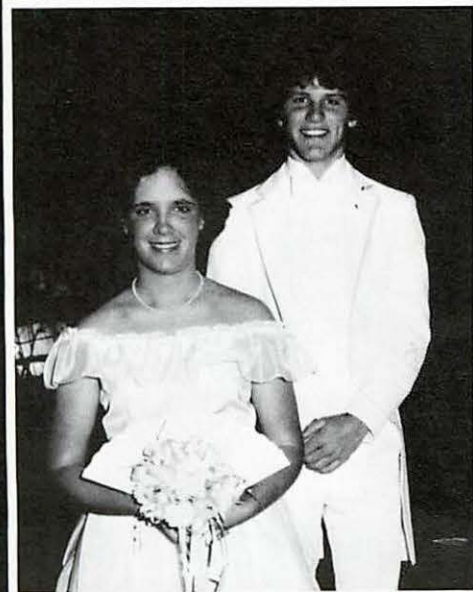

Breaking years of tradition, Mr. J.D. Carnes announces Mr. and Miss Central during the program. The suspense is electrifying.

SPOTLIGHT FESTIVITIES

The festivities of Senior Day were in the spotlight. Typical of this senior class, this day broke tradition. The court was seated on stage and awaited the announcement of Mr. and Miss Central. Previous years Mr. and Miss Central were announced commencing the program. As their names were called, Darryl Oliver and Cathy Russell were spotlighted to their thrones. This day was to begin the festivities for the Class of '81.

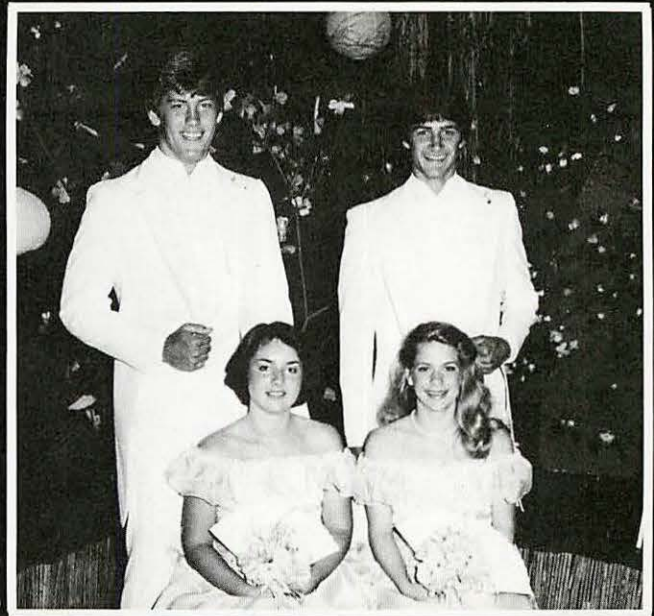

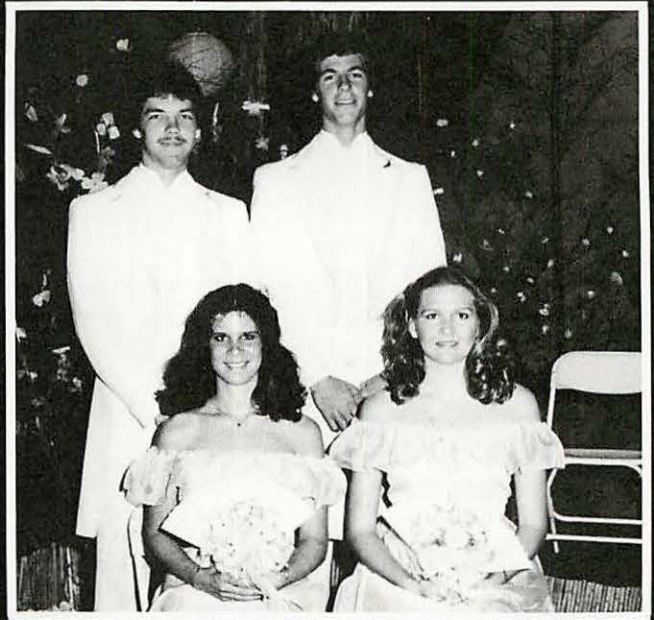

The Court-Front Row: Rick Mansfield, Cathy Russell, Connie Roark, Darryl Oliver. Back Row: Lee Ann Hall, Cole Mullis, Tracey West, Eddie Daniel, Julie DeShields, Joe McNutt.

 Cathy Jean Russell escorted by Marvin Richard Mansfield III.
 Julie Diane DeShields escorted by Joseph David McNutt.
 Lee Ann Hall escorted by Cole Fulton Mullis.
 Connie Ruth Roark escorted by Lewayne Darryl Oliver.

LIGHTNING THE WAY

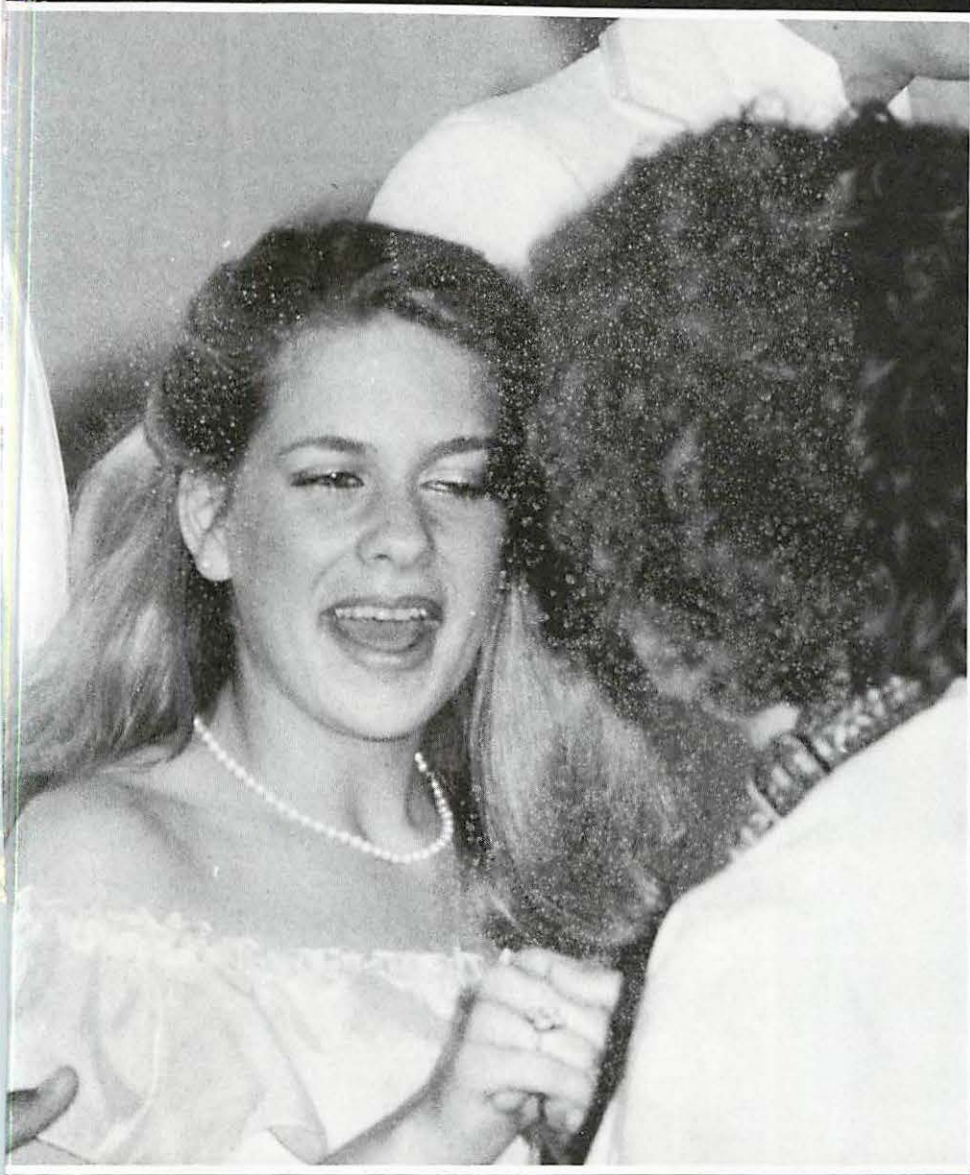

Senior Day was an event that lightened the way to graduation. The theme and backdrop was "In An Oriental Garden." It was prepared by the Art Club. It was a change to see Bobby Byerly, Tim Basham, Shaun Helton, Bobby Bridges, Tony Kendall, Mike Croxall, Van Shumaker and Bobby Standifer in white tuxedos, talle-not t-shirts. The long ruffled baby blue dresses worn by the attendant girls were purchases at the LaDean Shop in Rossville. The girls forming the attendant's honor guard were Trinka Daniels, Risa Carroll, Kim Johnson, Zonya Hulgan, Teresa Taylor, Dawn Osborn, Angela Williams and Teresa Ward.

Senior Day became an unforgettable memory for seniors and guests.

The Senior Day Attendants are Risa Carroll and Tim Basham, Trinka Daniels and Bobby Byerley, Kim Johnson and Shaun Helton, Dawn Osborn and Tony Kendall, Teresa Ward and Bobby Standifer, Angela Williams and Van Shumaker, Zonya Hulgan and Bobby Bridges, Teresa Taylor and Mike Croxall.

Highlighting the program were the speakers. The underclassmen presidents addressed the seniors and thanked them for friendship and guidance. Glen Wood, senior president, responded to their appreciation and spoke the minds of all the seniors when he said that he had discovered that this day was to be only a part of the highlights of his life. Tammy Cobb overcame the public address system and re-announced the names of the program participants. Cyndl Riden sang, "Kiss Today Good-bye," as a send off to the senior class. As memories go, this day will be remembered by students as a highlight to another beginning.

... "I made it!" Angela Williams says in the receiving line following the Senior Day Program.

Trinka Daniels is very happy to receive congratulations and relax from the program.

POWERS

The prom's Romantic Powers broke tradition. The Junior class officers, Nancy Lonas, president, and Debble Galloway, vice-president, organized this event along with the sponsor, Mrs. Sarah Falres. The theme was "Shine on Yesterday." The band, Showcase, played songs like, "Celebration" and "Lady." The greenery was donated by Broadway Feed and Seed. Invitations were used instead of the traditional tickets and the location was changed from Chester Frost Park to the Read House's Silver Ballroom. The new location gave convenience; but in the words of Junior Muriel Dupourque, "The music was great but the dance floor was too small." The Romantic Powers were reflected in the mirrors and in the elegant buffet. The Senior Class will long remember this night.

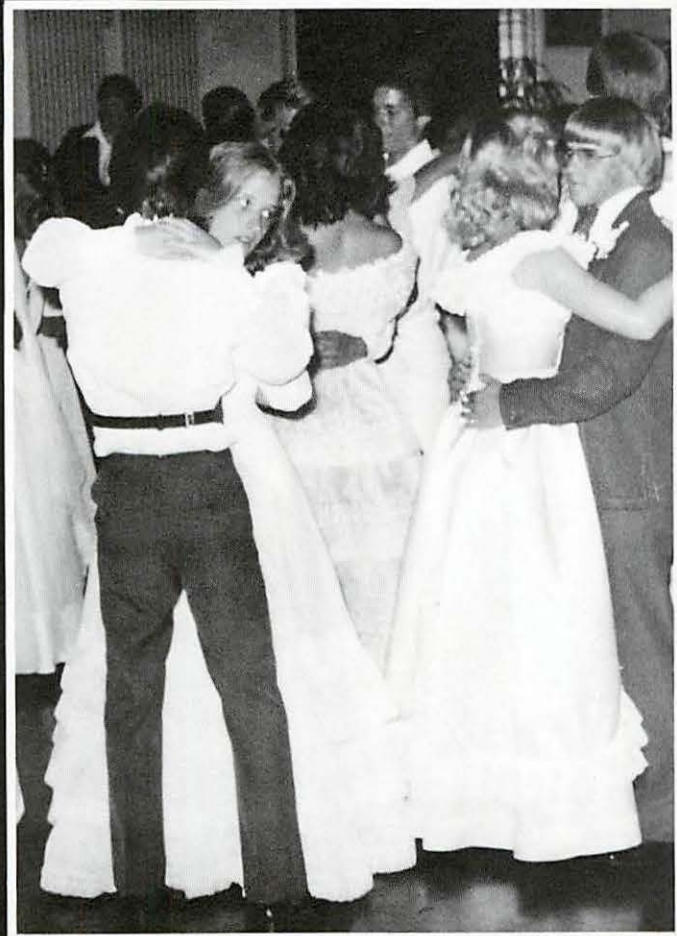

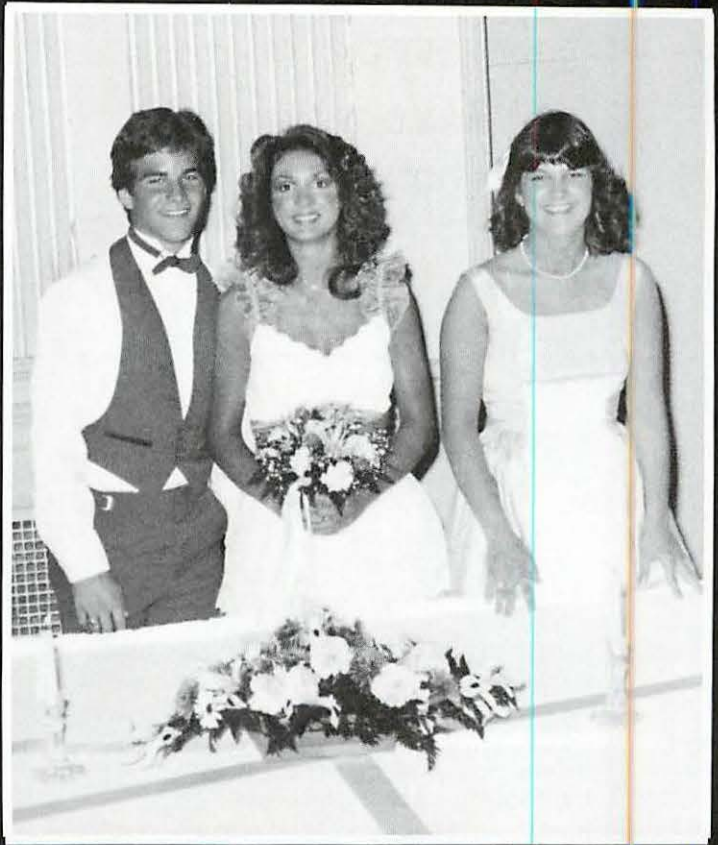

Nancy Lonas and her date can't decide whether to dance, eat, or sit this "prom" out.

Jamie Crawford, Teresa Taylor, Suzy Harris, Tony Manis, and Dawn Osborn create their own romantic atmosphere.

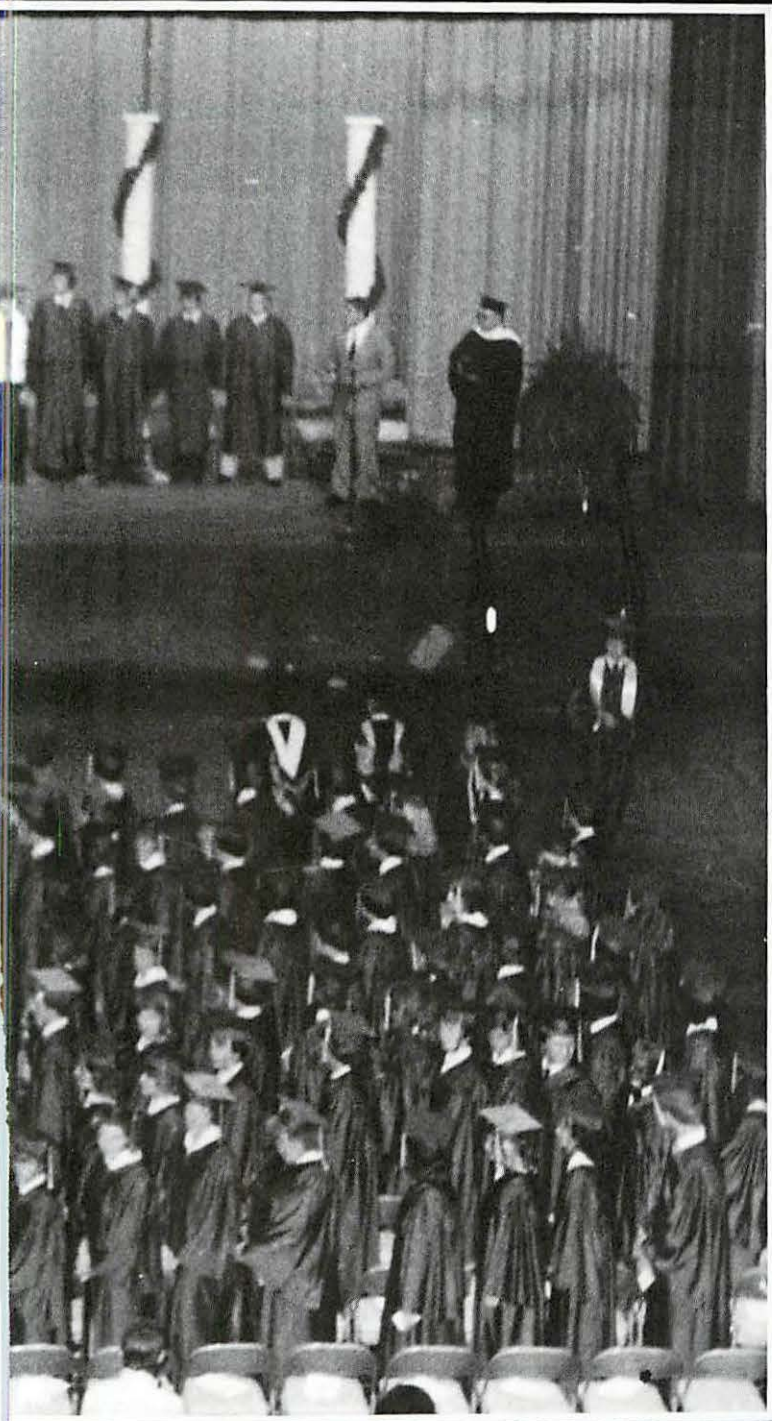

Miss Patty Lane, Mr. Sam Stoner, and Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Carnes enjoy a fashion revue at the Silver Ballroom.

Diane Thorwart and date and Donna Lowery begin the buffet line for the gourmet chicken prepared by the Read House Staff.

Chris Caldwell and Angle Clark and J.C. Hogan and his date take in the magical mood set by Showcase.

Gary Barnett and Janice Pressley are next in line for the flash bulb. Their memories together are captured by Hewett Studios in Maryville.

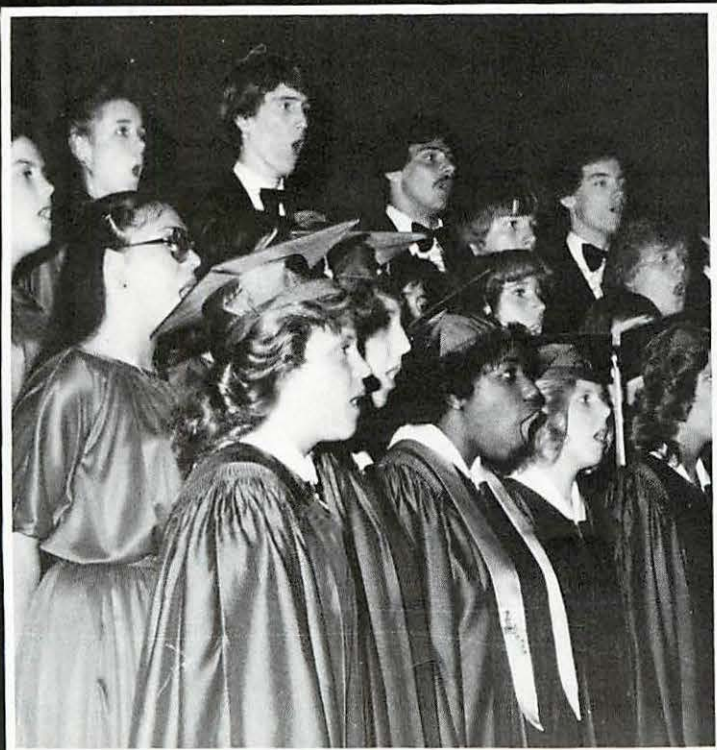

ALL MIGHTY POWERS

The all mighty powerful seniors were all geared up for their final projections. Graduation practice was held at Memorial Auditorium, May 29, at 11:00. First on the circuits was distribution of caps and gowns. Next came the continuous hum of speakers as seniors practiced repeatedly for their procession. Mr. Rick Torbett un-crossed stray wires as he helped seniors line up for the Baccalaureate ceremony. This was held May 24 at First Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Seniors sparkled in their Sunday best. Dr. J. Craig Martindale, pastor of the church, energized optimism for the future; and the chorus sang "No Man Is An Island." These final ceremonies revealed just how all mighty was The Class of '81.

Rick Mansfield

The Central Symphonic Band and Varsity Chorus both add a special touch to the graduation ceremonies of the class of '81.

A hardy traveler, Bill Brown from Marion County receives his diploma from Mr. Carnes personally.

THE NEWEST ALUMNI OF CENTRAL HIGH.

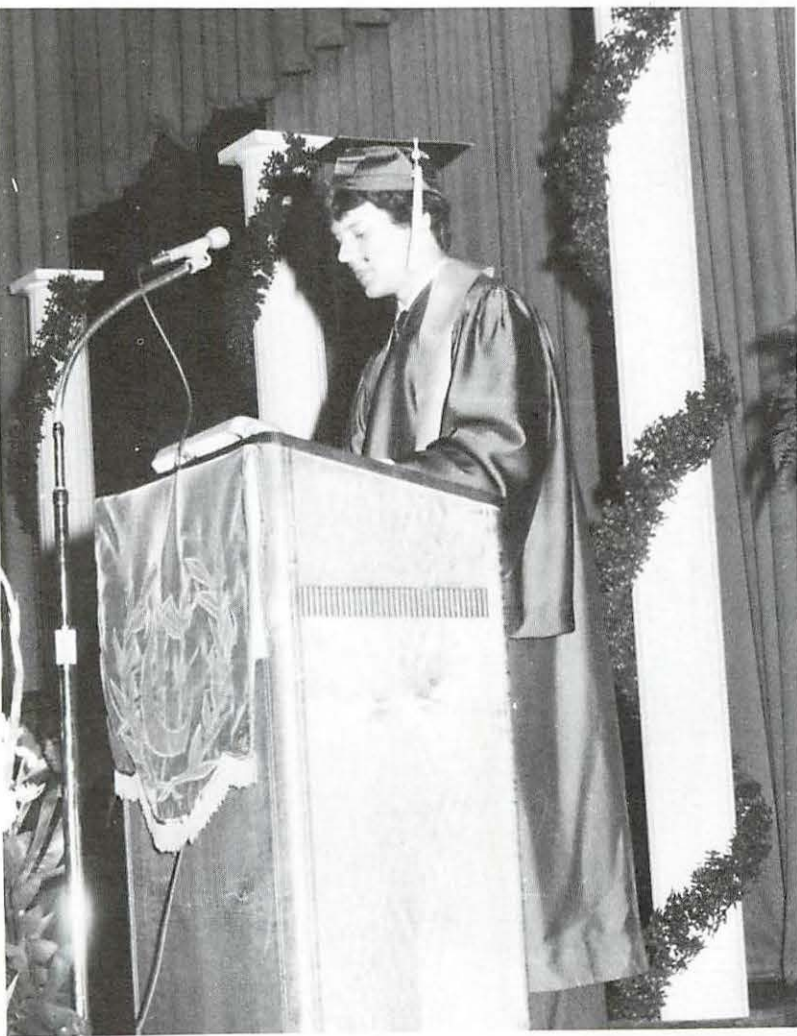

Susan Baxter speaks to the class. "Dedication is necessary for success," says Susan; . . . "and I will get through this speech, Miss Stone!" Mr. Carnes honors those faculty members with gold and diamonds. Those honored for their dedication and service to Central are Mrs. Virginia Summerour, 25 years; SGM Robert Hall, 20 years; Mrs. Margaret Hammack, 35 years; and Mr. Sam Stoner, 30 years. Connie Roark is determined that her graduating class will be the elite of the future society and the perils of the class are to be indicators that this class has the strength and determination to win. The salutatorian Suzanne Mossburg inspires the class to begin its future with strong wills to build foundations of success. She quotes the scriptures which support her theories of common sense planning for successful and happy careers and lifestyles.

LAST BLAST

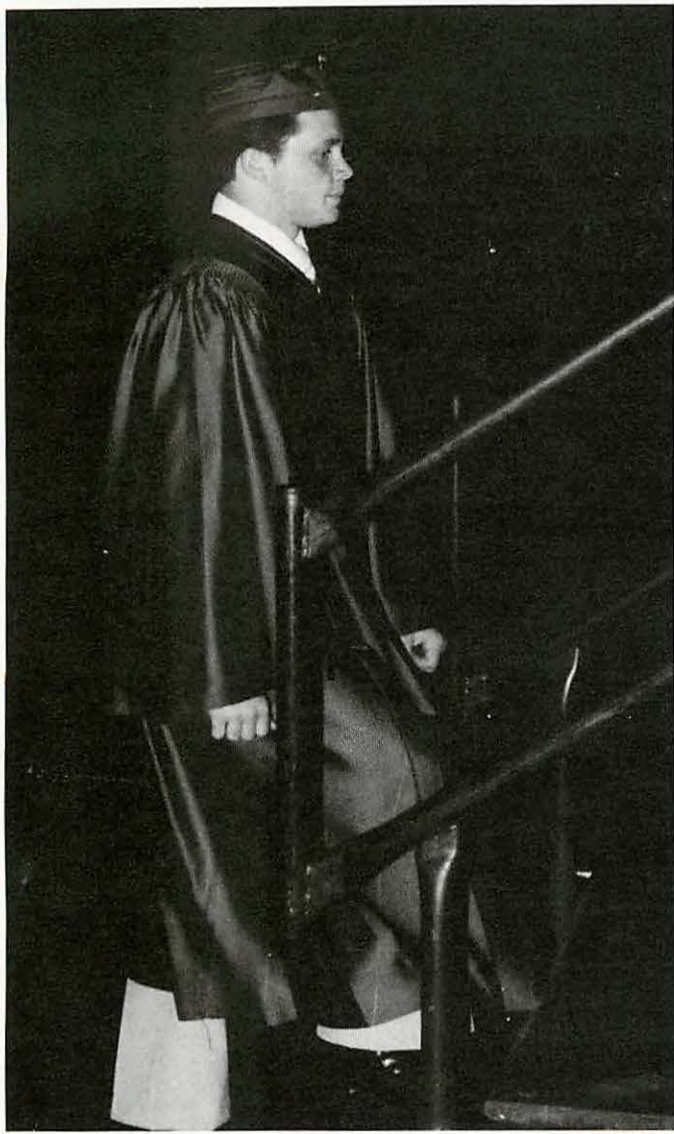

Charged spirits, excitement, and anticipations about the future filled the auditorium. Class speakers transmitted their "Formulas for Success" to classmates, faculty, and guests attending their last blast. Salutatorian Suzanne Mossburg, a 3.769 GPA student, spoke on Inspiration-The Foundation for Success. Connie Roark, Class Representative, spoke on Determination-The Stepping Stones to Success. Susan Baxter, Faculty Representative, spoke on Dedication-The Necessity for Success. Valedictorian Lee Ann Hall, with a 3.868 grade point average, spoke on Victory-The Attainment of Success. The new Central Alumni left this last blast filled with sparkled memories.

Lee Ann Hall stresses in her valedictorian address that the class of '81 will not be held back in reaching whatever goals it chooses.

Senior president Joe McNutt welcomes guests and family to the graduation ceremonies held at the Memorial Auditorium.

Principal J.D. Carnes presents the class of '81 to superintendent Don Loftis.

Miss Ogle gives Mr. Chandler the "Go Ahead" to begin playing "Pomp and Circumstance" for the seniors big entrance.

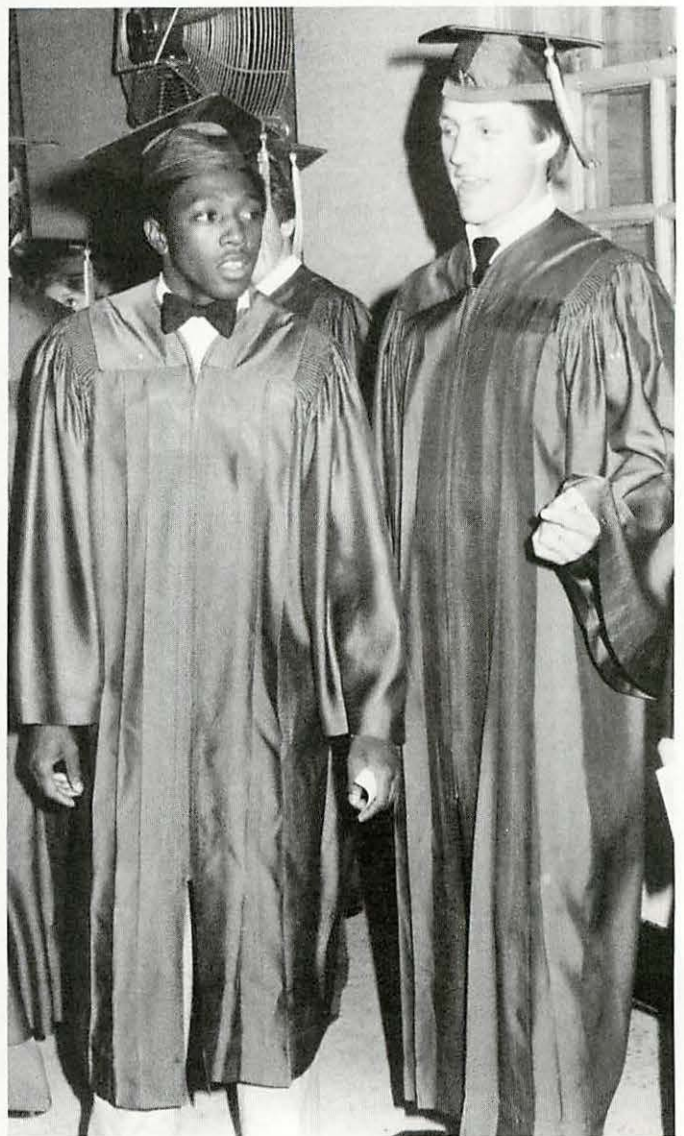

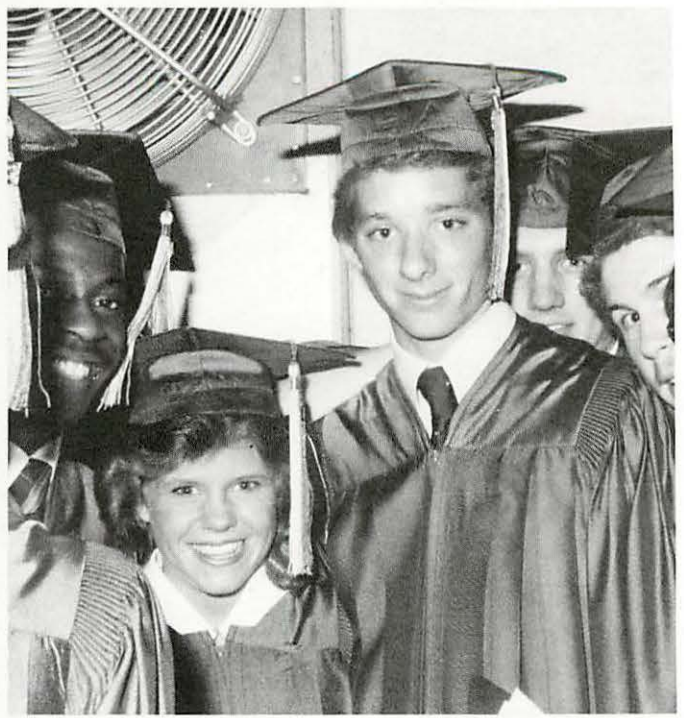

Michele Holder and Connie Howington express their excitement and anticipation for the coming ceremony with sparkling smiles.

Seniors give encouraging support to one another one last time before they become Alumni.

Rick Mansfield finishes the final circuit of his senior year by approaching the stage stairs to receive his diploma.

Dawn Osborn and Don Kilgore reflect the happiness and excitement that all the seniors feel.

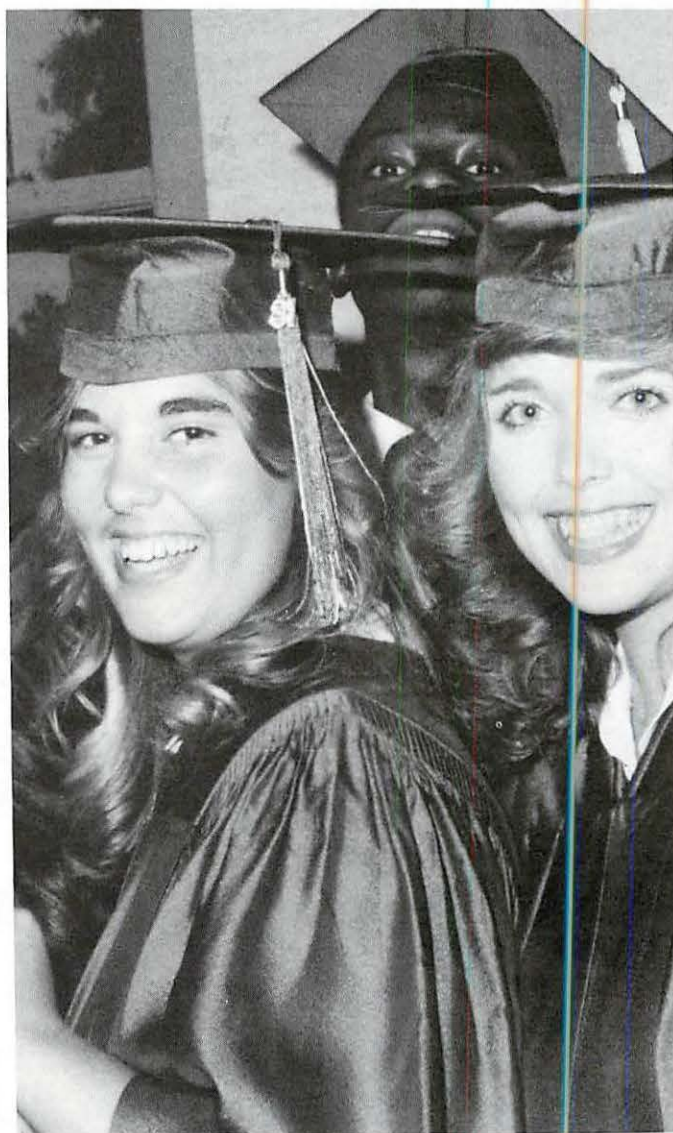

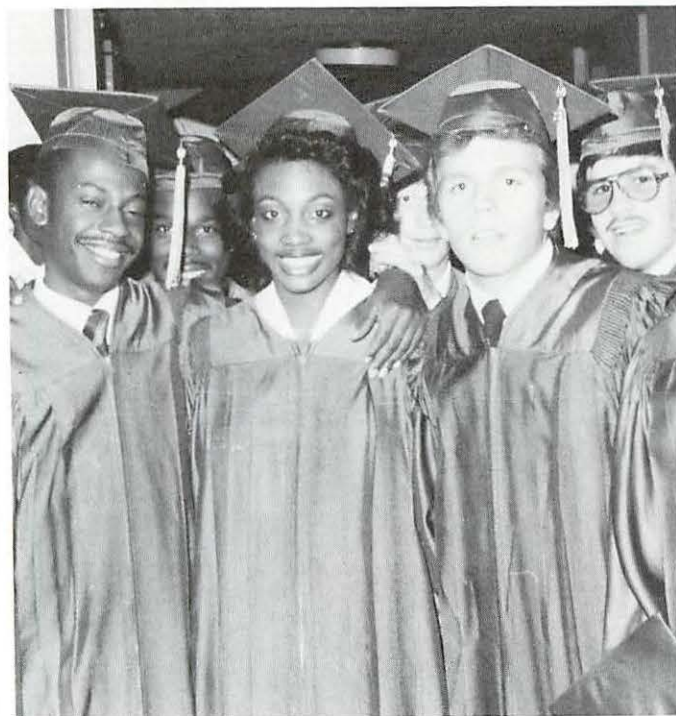

Mike Mead tries to ease David Massengill's fears on the ceremony.

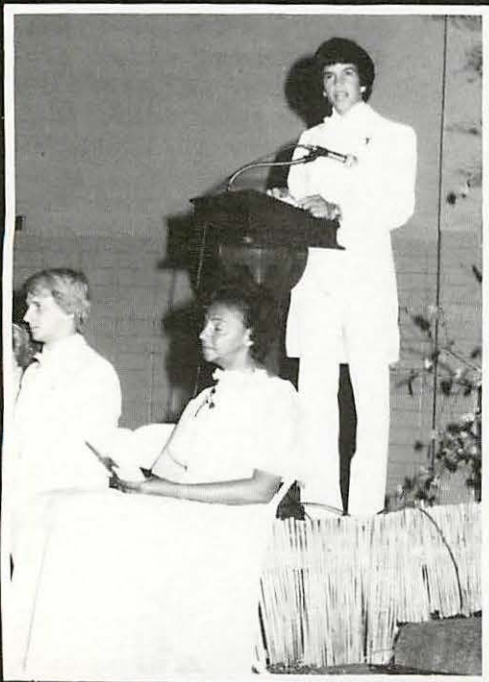

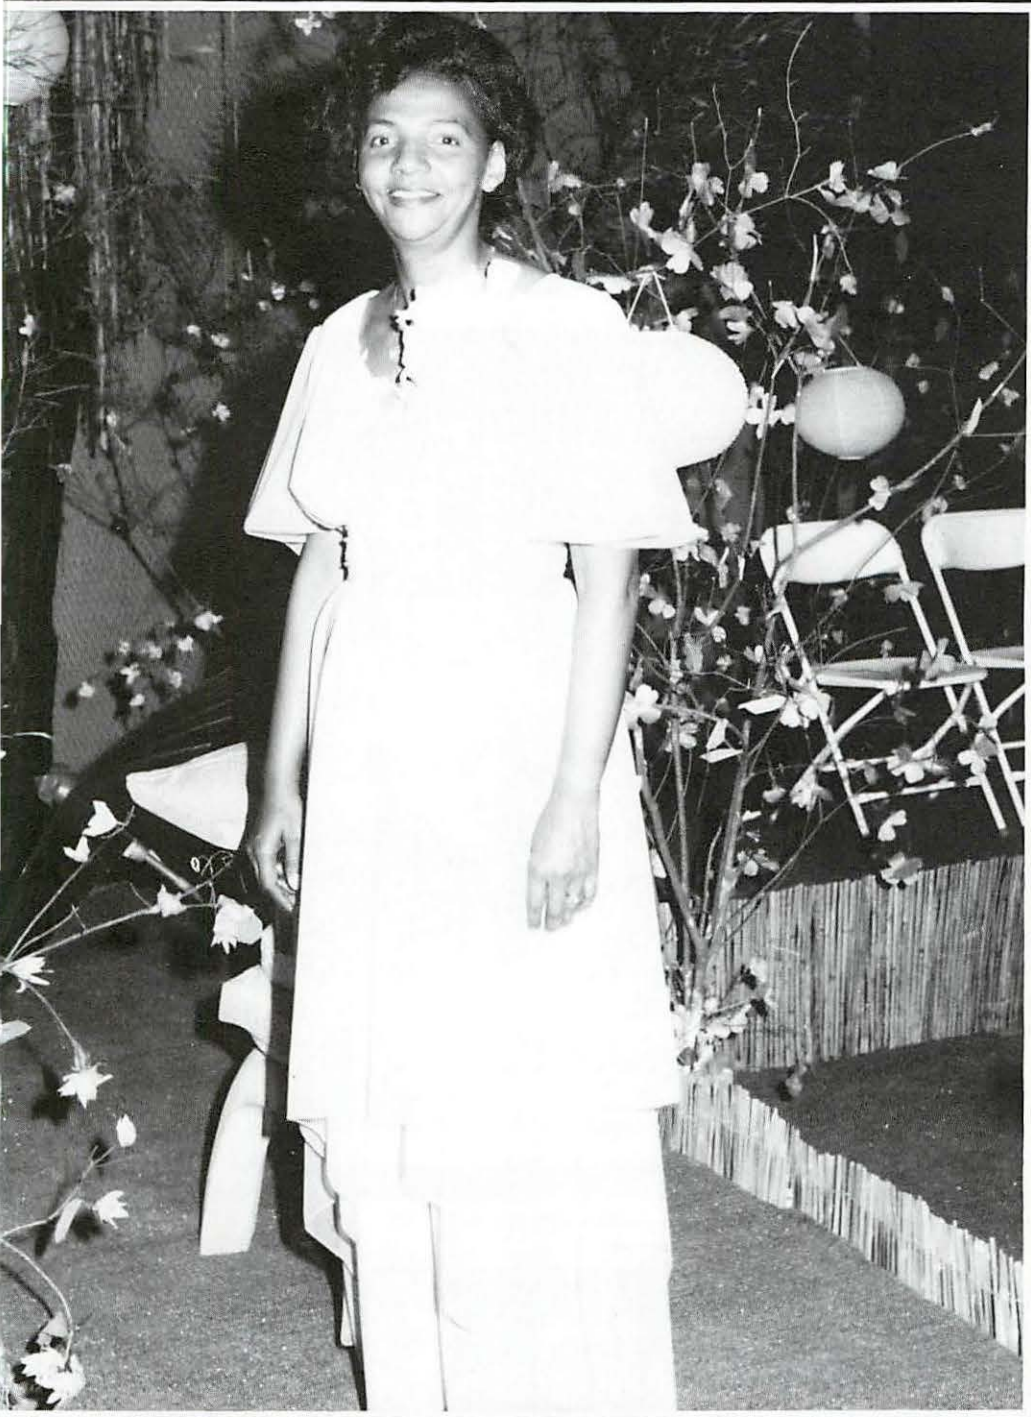

FINAL CIRCUIT

May 29th marked the final circuit of the Seniors' year. The Theme of the Seventy-Fourth Annual Commencement exercise of Central High School was "Formula for a Successful Future". The band played "Processional March" by Wagner as the graduating class of 1984 marched into position to be presented before the faculty and administration. Mr. J.D. Carnes recognized the Honor students and presented the class to Superintendent Loftis. The senior homeroom teachers called out the names of their students to receive their diplomas. After singing the Central Alma Mater, which marked the final circuit of a great year, the new Central High School Alumni marched out of the auditorium with bright dreams for the future. Circuit closed.

Taking the ball from Mrs. Grier, Michele Mann gets ready to serve.
Mrs. Grier, in her acceptance speech, points out that the Senior's tomorrows will prove how special today is.
Sophomore Blake Watson congratulates the Senior Class, and Senlor Glen Wood and Mrs. Grier reflect on their acceptance speeches.
Mrs. Grier shows her emollons as Dedicatory for the 1981 Champion.

CHARGED VICTORY

Mrs. Gloria Grier had a charged victory when the Class of '81 honored her as the yearbook dedicatory. The first ballot proved Mrs. Grier to be a very popular teacher. With the minimum of ten years teaching experiences at Central as a requirement for Dedicatory, she qualified with twelve years. Mrs. Grier remarked that she went through shock and elation at receiving the award, then depression and worry about the speech and finally relief after the victory was completed. Mrs. Grier received a three pearl triangular necklace from the senior class as a memory of her charged victory.

A POSITIVE CHARGE

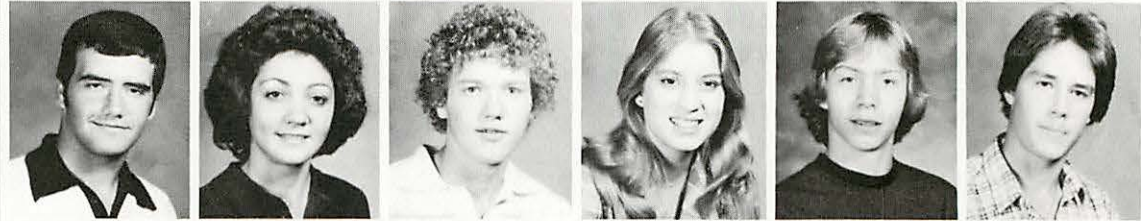

The Juniors started the year with a Positive Charge. September plunged them into class elections. Each candidate wrote, planned and campaigned to convince the Juniors of his leadership. The results were announced and Nancy Lonas was given charge as President; Debble Galloway, Vice-President; Leigh Shumaker, Secretary; and Mike Higney, Treasurer.

These officers charged up the Juniors with the money making activities and led the class in the Junior-Senior Magazine Sale. The projects earned them $1400. These funds paid for the Prom and savings for their Senior Year. These charged up officers worked positively to achieve their goal of Best Class Ever.

ENERGY OUTLET

As the 1982 class rings were ordered, money flowed from Juniors like energy from an outlet. John Williams, representative from the Balfour Company, took orders from excited Juniors on September 23rd. The students were given a choice of six different designs and prices ranged from sixty-nine to $276.00, with all of the extras. Different preferences were shown by these Juniors to the variety of optional molding such as: name, zodiac, athletic figures, organizational or vocational figures, coloramas and mascots. The fireburst stone with the crest was popular with the class. The arrival of the rings in December provided another energy outlet from the Juniors.

SPARKS OF SPIRIT

The Junior girls were sending "sparks of spirit" during the Powder Puff game against the Seniors. The team consisted of about thirty girls coached by Larry Buckles, David Champlon and Larry Mowery. The game was played during Spirit Week and the Junior boys played the part of the cheerleaders. They showed their spirit as much as the girls. With an upset of 18 to 0, the Juniors sparked a victory over the Seniors.

KILOWATTS OF EXCITEMENT

The Sophomore Class had a year with kilowatts of excitement. To insure their success, they elected officers for their reputation as leaders. Among the elected leaders were Blake Watson, President; Fin King, Vice-President; Kim King, Secretary; and Forrest McNair, Treasurer. The officers sponsored the candy sale. This money would be used to preserve their kilowatts of excitement in their junior and senior years.

HIGH VOLTAGE

High voltage was not lacking in the Sophomore class. Sophomores sold decorator serving dishes and sourballs for their future Junior-Senior activities. After five days of sweettalking, the students showed their spirit by raising $4,825.00, from the sales. Among the top sellers were Selena Helton, first place; and Cathy Johnson, second place. Rusty Lowe's team came in first with 124 orders and Sally King's team came in second with 82 orders. Top prizes were $30.00 for highest seller while the top team prize was dinner at Pizza Hut. The top homeroom, Coach Summers, won a party along with any other Sophomore who sold at least ten items. The Sophomores proved that one of their many good traits was a high voltage spirit.

POWER CONDUCTORS

Contributing factors channeling the Sophomore power were found among many different technical sources. Pizza, hamburgers and ice cream were some of the Sophomores' favorite sources of energy. Other outlets for refueling during the weekend consisted of stops at the skating rink, Burger King and McDonalds. To relax from the homework energy drain, many "Number 10's" viewed movies such as the "Blue Lagoon", "Smokey and the Bandit", and "Friday the 13th". These were the conductors that powered the Sophomores.

ENERGY FLOW

Energy flowed in sports as the tenth graders began their Sophomore year. From the survey taken in the homerooms, eighteen percent participated in basketball and baseball; fifteen percent, wrestling; thirteen percent, football; eleven percent, track; six percent, softball and cross-country; four percent, volleyball; and two percent, tennis and golf.

Sophomore Vincent McKenzie stated, "It feels terrific being a Sophomore and starting on the varsity basketball team." Kelly Daniels commented, "Out of all the sports I play, basketball is my favorite. It takes a lot of practice; but when we win, it's worth it."

Even though basketball and baseball are the favorites, the Sophomores' energy flowed in every sport.

POWER PACTS

The Freshmen were packed with power as they led their teams to an exciting year of sports. In a survey given to all freshmen homerooms, over twenty-five percent of the class was involved in some kind of sport. Basketball was chosen as the most popular sport. It won over football which was a close second. As a whole, the athletes agreed that playing a school sport had helped them become more involved at Central. Many said that it helped them to understand the real meaning of school spirit. Because of their involvement in school sports, Freshmen had, in whole, become a energizing part of Central's tradition of power and spirit.

SEMI CONDUCTORS

Proving themselves to be semi-conductors, the Freshmen Class Officers gave every student a run for his money. The winners of the election were: President, Ray Steinmetz; Vice-President, Pam Chilton; Secretary, Karen Fann; Treasurer, Carol Skyles. The Freshmen Class had good luck in wiring Central High School with a year of energy. They were already off to a good start with a money making project for their Junior-Senior Prom. The semi-conductors conducted an energetic year for their classmates.

LIVE CIRCUITS

The live circuits sparked throughout the school year with exciting activities. The newly formed club, the spirit committee, introduced many new activities for the student body. These consisted of twin day, the arrival of Santa Claus and class competition.

The Art Club also contributed by selling hand-painted barrettes, t-shirts, constructing Senior Day and entering art exhibitions. Both groups of live circuits ended the year with high voltage.

POWER BLASTERS

With a powerful blast, the band stepped off on the right foot to start the football season. They marched their way into the souls of the fans with songs such as HAVA NAGILA, BULLY, and SPIRIT OF SPAIN. Central was represented by many outstanding musicians. Four members made Junior All East Tennessee Band and ten made Senior All East. Two went to All State. In April, the band was selected to go to the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington D.C. to perform on the White House lawn. They played such songs as BARBER OF SEVILLE, MARRIAGE OF FIGARO and HAIL TO THE CHIEF.

Meanwhile, the Rifle Corps proved they were power blasters with their outstanding performances. These girls participated in the Christmas concert by acting out to SLEIGH RIDE with band accompaniment. During the basketball season, they often twirled during halftime. The Band and Rifle Corps added a powerful blast to the school year.

A SPARKLING LINE

A sparkling line of eight majorettes dazzled the audiences during performances at pep rallies and halftime shows for football and basketball games. Having an unusually large group with the freshmen "sparklers" proved to be a task for working and perfecting routines for head majorettes Mary Ann Davis and Jowayne Yarbrough. To light the sparklers on their way, car washes were held every weekend to raise money for uniforms and batons. The line dazzled the audiences with twirls and sparkling performances.

FLASH OF POWER

The Flag Corps added a flash of power to the Pounders. They started the year with summer practice to learn routines for half-time shows. Through various fund raising projects, the girls were able to raise money needed to go to the Cherry Blossom Parade in Washington. These girls marched throughout the year at pep rallies, football and basketball games. Participating in the Christmas musical program, the girls twirled to "Sleigh Ride," with the band's accompaniment. Where ever they twirled, they added a Flash of purple and gold power which complemented the Pounders.

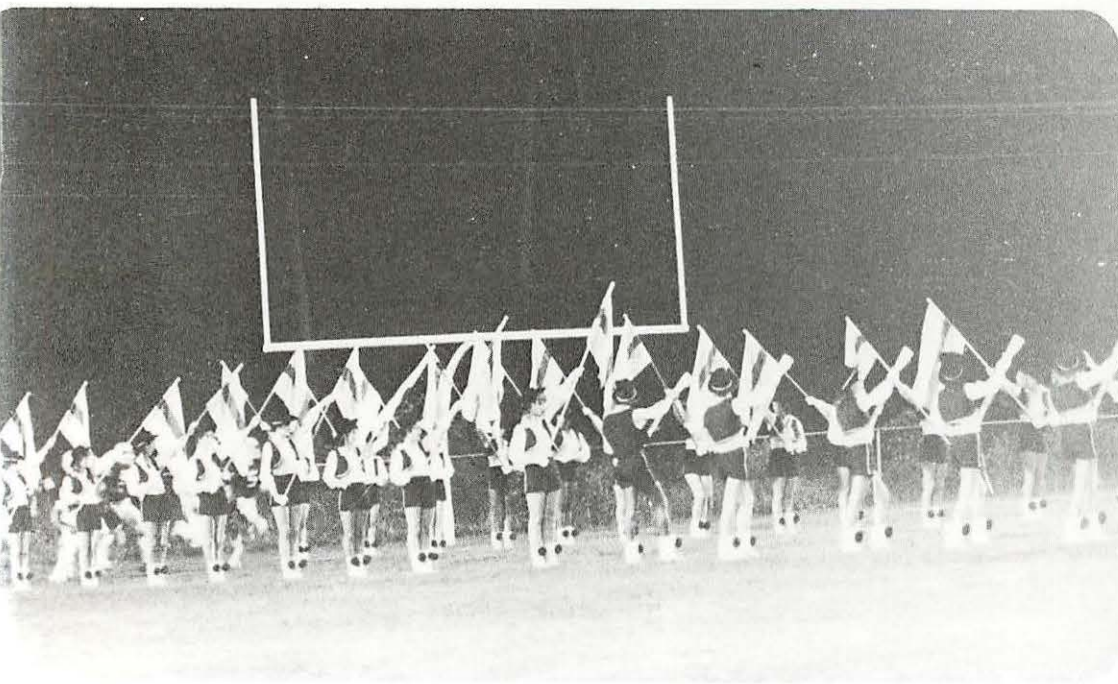

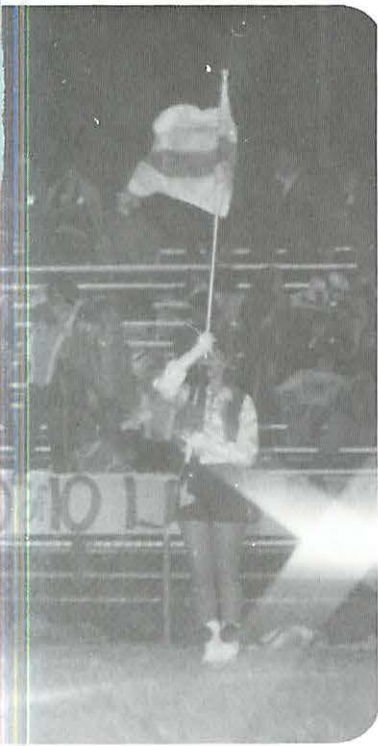

Checking out the foreign grounds of Ooltewah, the girls straighten their line.

FLASH OF TALENT

Flashing purple and gold, the Flag Corp showed their talent at the Chattanooga Soap Box Derby. They also added a lot of color to the band as they performed at the Cherry Blossom Festival.

Flashing their vocal talent, the Barber Shop Quartet won the Beta Club Talent Show. They also gave astounding performances at the Fall Festival and Polk County High School in particular. Flashing their talent, these groups showed spirit both home and away.

Sheryl Wurm and Nancy Lonas discover that several hours of practice are required for a flashy performance.

THE ENERGIZERS

Energetically, the Bank and Office Staffs worked in A-Pod. For the Bank Staff, it was writing receipts, selling tickets to athletic events, and selling school supplies. The Office Staff answered the phones, duplicated tests, and listed tardies and absences. Both staffs found time for parties and banquets when the new officers were inducted. Through the sale of ads and subscriptions, the Digest Staff was able to continue the publication of the National Bellamy Award winning newspaper. "The paper itself cost $5,000 to operate and 250 subscriptions were sold," stated Mrs. Sarah Faries. These staffs showed energy in their work.

THE FLOW OF ENERGY

Energy flowed in the Choral Department. Between first and third periods and during the summer, they shook the gym walls with flowing music. ONE VOICE and AVA MARIA were heard as the Varsity Chorus, Ensemble and Freshman Ensemble rehearsed. Directed by Mrs. Judy Reich, the Chorus received SUPERIOR ratings in the State Ensemble Festival and in Nashville was chosen as one of the top three Chamber Chorus in the State. Trinka Daniels, Shaun Helton, and Marc Malone made All-State. Making All-East were Cyndi Riden, Penny Powell, Debbie Gallaway, Tammy Cobb, Anne Johnson, Stephen Fraley, Mark Lemmon, Shaun Helton, Mike Daugherty, Marc Malone, Trinka Daniels and Greg Neeley. The Choral Department was Central's Flow Of Energy.

ELECTRICAL IMPULSES

An impulse of activity spread over the Choral groups. They participated in the State Choral Festival, the State Solo-Ensemble and attended by invitation a Chamber Choir in Nashville. These songsters performed in musicals and concerts such as the Christmas concert. With the profits from the Christmas Candle Sale, the Chorus planned a new PA system. They could always work on impulse.

SHOCK PROMOTERS

The Shock Promoters were elected April 25, 1980. These fifteen girls attended Cheerleading Camp at UTK for a week of cheers and stunts. They proudly returned to Chattanooga with four excellent ribbons and a NCA spirit stick. As soon as the new year began, the Varsity Cheerleaders went to cheering on the Pounders and supporting the teams. In addition to leading the students in weekly pep rallies, they also treated the football team to fresh watermelon after practices and prepared a breakfast for the wrestling and basketball teams. Several changes were made in the year including a new sponsor, Mrs. Patsy Williamson. To handle the hectic winter sports, the cheerleaders split into two separate divisions-wrestling and basketball squads. Head Cheerleader, Alison Davis, led the wrestling squad and co-head, Jayn Garth, lead the basketball squad. Through their efforts and hours of cheers, the shock promoters completed the season.

FULL OF ENERGY

The Freshmen and B-team cheerleaders, sponsored by Mrs. Williamson and Miss Hopper, along with the Future Teachers of America, sponsored by Mrs. Grier, were full of energy. These Cheerleaders showed a tremendous amount of energy in yells like Yell It-Spell It. The F.T.A. proved their energy by funding the plaque which would have the salutatorians and valedictorians names engraved. These groups supplied energy in forms of spirit and honor.

FOREIGN POWER

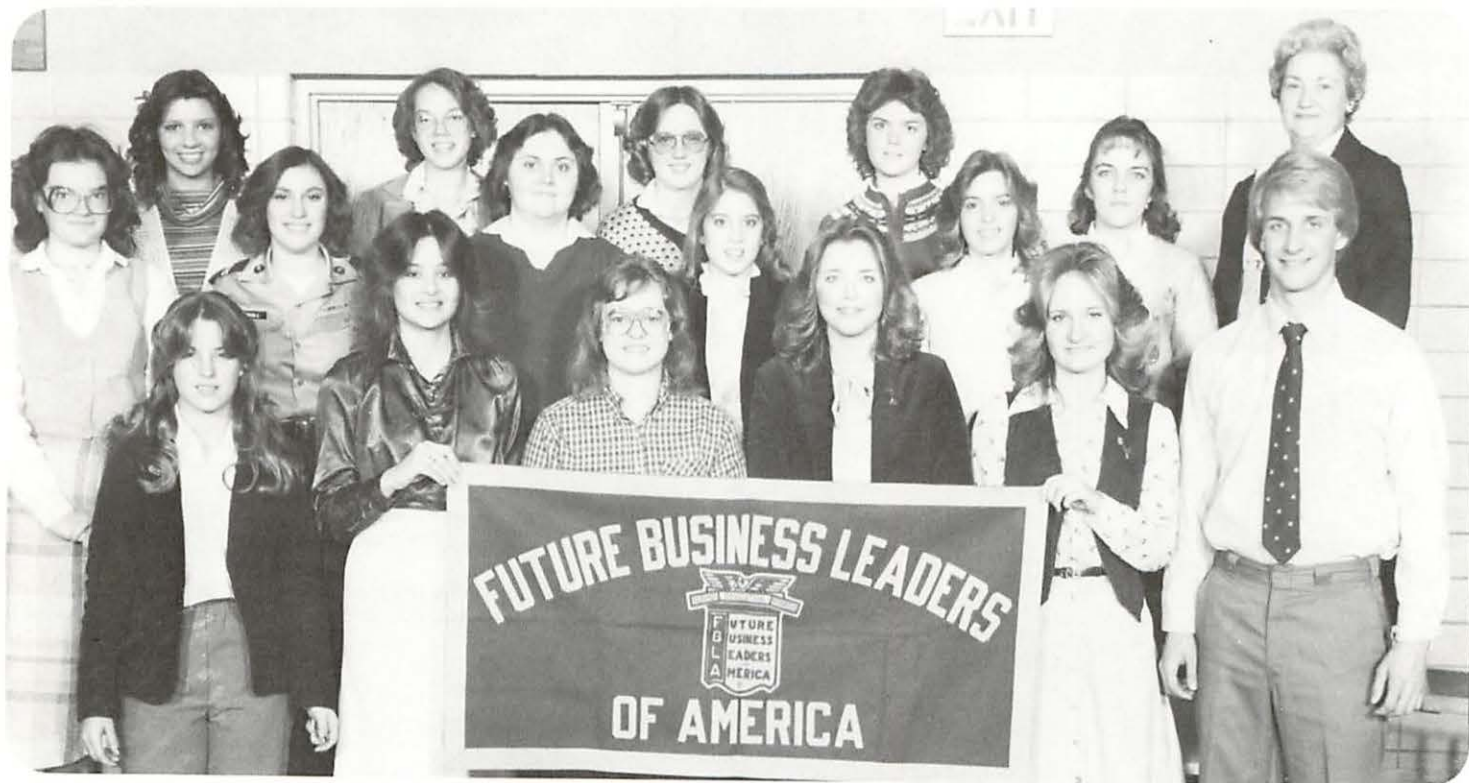

The French Club got the power flowing by starting the year off with a road rally. The road rally was won by Regina Jones with Mike Manceux coming in second and Cla Ekmark placing third.

The music of France came to life through the songs of the Jacques Pistols. Jacques Vicious, Jacques Rotten and Jacques Jagger otherwise known as David Hill, Bret Wood, and Phillip Bendall were present at all French Club functions.

On March 27, fourteen people were inducted into the French National Honor Society.

F.B.L.A. had a productive year. The annual Tom Watt sale enabled the club to do many of their activities this year. F.B.L.A. ended the year with a banquet to honor all senior members. Connie Howington was named Miss F.B.L.A., the most outstanding senior member.

Together, F.B.L.A. and the French Club got the power flowing school wide.

FEEDERS AND MAINS

In preparation for the future, Future Homemakers of America started the year with a cookbook sell. FHA earned $700.00 for the club's activities and summer camp. Here, they were taught leadership training. The calendar sell was another money-making project. April 8 and 9, FHA attended the State Convention in Nashville. March 21, FHA held the Annual Service Banquet to present the traditional Service Award. After learning to be Feeders for their future families, every FHA member will be a Main part of her household.

CURRENT SOURCES

Currents flowed through the air. Fellowship, organization and hard work were the sources. Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Guidance Staff and Gym Staff supplied the energy. FCA hit a record high attendance having ninety-eight interested Christians at one meeting; they cleaned the football bleachers after home games, attended the James Robinson Crusade and a concert by HIS Unlimited. Guidance Staff's energy was absorbed by filling schedule cards and handling schedule changes. Refueling breaks came at their Christmas and End-of-the-Year Parties. Gym Staff currents started early as they sold Homecoming corsages in October. Their Christmas party at John's Hideaway recharged their energy currents. Currents from FCA Gym and Guidance Staffs energized the year.

CANDLES AND FIREWORKS

With bright flashes of light and loud noises, the Latin Club and Key Club carried forward the tradition of "toga" parties and fund raising projects. In the spring of the year, the Latin Club held its Roman Banquet by candlelight. The meal consisted of seven courses of Roman Meal. The Key Club activities were again loud and bright. They sold calendars and coupons. Their sweethearts were featured in the calendars. The year proved that both clubs were the place to be for fun and entertainment.

ELECTRIC HONORS

Responsible for many electric honors gained at Central were the National Honor Society and Beta Club. Sponsored by Mrs. Betty Lee, NHS gave Service Awards to a member of each class. During the February ceremony, eighteen Juniors were inducted. Beta Club began the year with a clothing drive for the needy. There were twenty-five new inductees added to the membership during the November Induction ceremony. For their hard work and dedication, NHS and Beta Clubs earned their electric honors.

BRAIN WAVES

The Spanish club sponsored by Ms. Candace Schooley had an electrifyingly brain waving year. Some of the Spanish club's energy was contributed to an early morning breakfast with foods such as empanada and café con leche. The members really enjoyed it according to Cecilia Ekmark. The club also furnished a monthly magazine for Spanish I and II called Que Tal and El Sol. Another project was the selling of the prom flowers which helped to refuel their funds. Mu-Alpha-Theta sponsored by Mr. Bill Watson helped the teacher's grade proficiency tests. These club members held a powerful average of 3.5 or better. Library Staff sponsored by Mrs. Pansy Allison was an energizer. The largest amount of their energy was contributed to stamping and collecting books. They refueled their funds by selling doughnuts during the year. These were some of the brain waving powers of the year.

FLASH OF EXCITEMENT

The student council, sponsored by Miss Janice Brown, helped bring a flash of excitement to the student body with their activities. They started off the year with the selling of spirit links followed by the Homecoming Dance. As the year wore on, they sponsored two movies and a Christmas Dance. They added more flash with the "Spread a Little Sunshine" theme and, with this, bringing a little more excitement.

SPIRIT CONDUCTORS

Tri-Hi-Y conducted spirit and excitement. They began in the summer by painting winning signs for the football season. They received many "Best Sign" awards for their efforts.

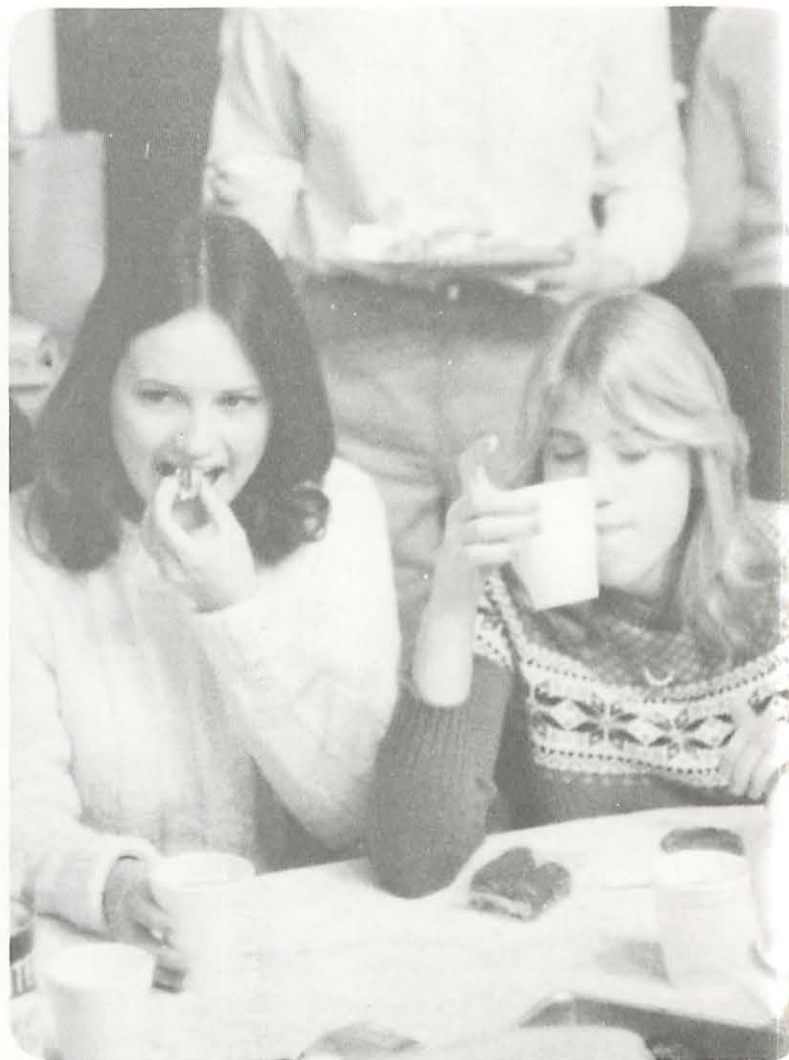

In December, the club got together and updated the Hello Centrals. This provided an accurate directory for the students and helped Tri-Hi-Y raise money for their banquet.

As a community project, Tri-Hi-Y visited the Hamilton County Nursing Home to talk and sing with the patients. They also extended a helping hand to the teachers at the Good Shepherds Fold Day Care Center by playing games with the small children.

Supper meetings were held at the homes of members to discuss business and share Christian experiences.

One of the most popular activities was the backwood Olympics held in January at the Ruitan Club. Mitch Mead was chosen as Miss Backwood USA with Tony Kendall and Greg Neely, second.

Overall, Tri-Hi-Y showed how the spirit of good clean fun was conducted.

Teresa Lundgren and Karla Dove have a snack before discussing the nominee for the Tri-Hi-Y Nice Guy of the Month, Van Shumaker.

Tri-Hi-Y officers for the 1980-1981 school year are: Kim Johnson-Secretary; Janet Hay-Treasurer; Julie DeShields-Chaplin; Karla Dove-Sgt.-at-arms; Lee Ann Hall-President; Margaret Sodergren-Vice-president.

Concentrating on the choice for new officers, Lisa Combs, Cathy Russell, and Connie Roark make their final selections.

Tony Kendall and Margaret Sodergren walk down the runway of the Miss Backwoods Beauty Contest.

Teresa Lundgren, Allison Adcock, Margaret Sodergren, Kim Johnson, Deanna Hilbert, and Lynn Bailey discuss the plans for Slave Day.

Tri-Hi-Y members Lisa Combs and Suzanne Mossburg play games with a little girl at the Good Shepherd's Fold Day Care Center.

Y-Teens' colorful project is to decorate football players' lockers. President Suzy Harris pins Senior Bachelor of Ugliness, Mike Twomey.

SPIRIT BOOSTERS

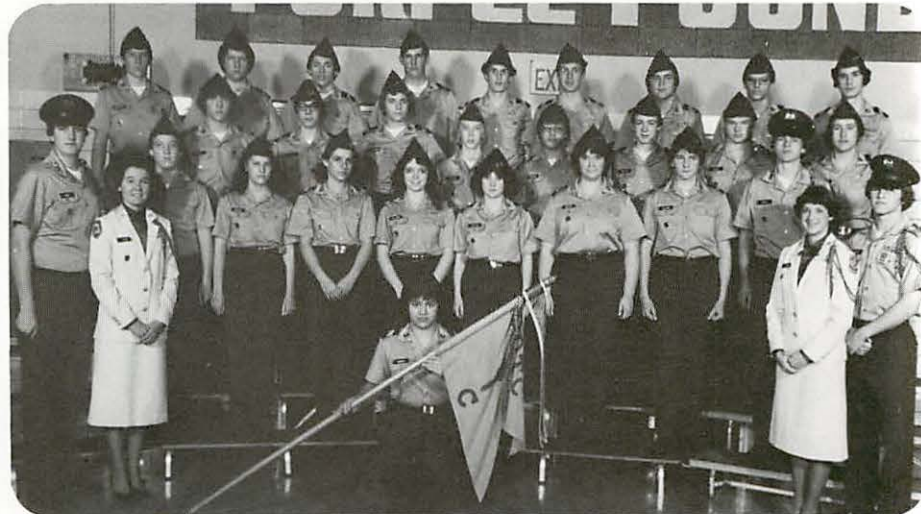

The Spirit Boosters showed their support for the students and the Pounder teams throughout the year. Lamar Jones was named Mr. Football. The boosters also named Bachelors of Ugliness and made sure each football player's locker was colorfully decorated on each game day. The club also held "the coolest teacher contest" at a weekly pep-rally. In February, the club, sponsored by Mrs. Jeanette Crawley, held the Sweetheart Dance, crowning Mr. and Mrs. Cupid, Darryl Oliver and Cathy Russell. They also delivered carnations to students from their lovers and admirers. Junior Mary Silfko said, "The carnation sale is always our best fund-raising project." Throughout the year the spirit boosters boosted the hearts of many, whether through school functions or through love.

Elected Mr. and Miss Cupid at the Sweetheart Dance are Darryl Oliver and Cathy Russell.
Suzy Harris crowns Mr. Football, Lamar Jones, at the pep rally.

ELECTROMOTIVE FORCES

Charged and ready, the new cadets of the 81st First For Freedom Brigade quickly learned every conceivable way to shine brass and shoes. Older cadets assumed new positions in the chain of command. The entire brigade prepared for the annual Presentation of Sponsors, October 29. Visiting guests included Superintendent Don Loftis who names Company D, Best Company. Other activities of the JROTC included shooting rifles and .38 pistols. Cadets experienced leadership training, map reading, rappelling, drill competition among companies and the dreaded Wednesday Inspections. As Senior Army Instructor LTC Morris said, "It's been a super year."

ELECTRIC UNITS

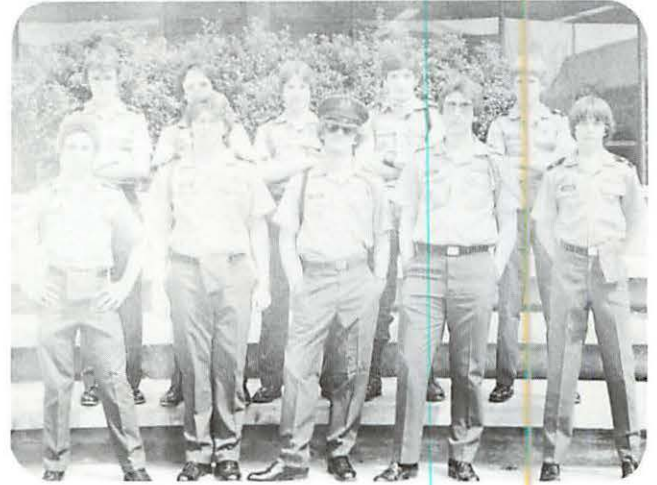

The electric units showed more than their share of power as the Disc and Diamond sponsored a fall festival for Paul Horton. They raised over $2,500 dollars. Both the Rifle and Drill Teams proved to be electrifying by successfully competing in area competitions. Relating to the outdoors, the Recon and Orienteering Platoons were successful in their fields of map reading and physical fitness. Presenting the flags and colors and serving Central were only part of the Colorguard and Honor Platoons many duties. By the end of the year, these electric units showed their share of units.

Lee Ann Hall, Champion editor-in-chief, writes Patron Ad copy for those who supported the book with $5, $6, or $7 contributions. Fara Faust reviews designs and themes in the Juniors' mini-booklet contest. Tricia Smith's Love Boat yearbook wins Best In The Show.

Terry Robinson uses French classtime to complete her dedicatory layout featuring Mrs. Gloria Grier. Bobby Standlfer and Tom Bradshaw sign autographs at Pizza Caesars' where Olan Mills treated the area yearbook staffs to pizza and coke. Tom and Bob will go along with anything promising food and girls.

VOLTAGE REGULATORS

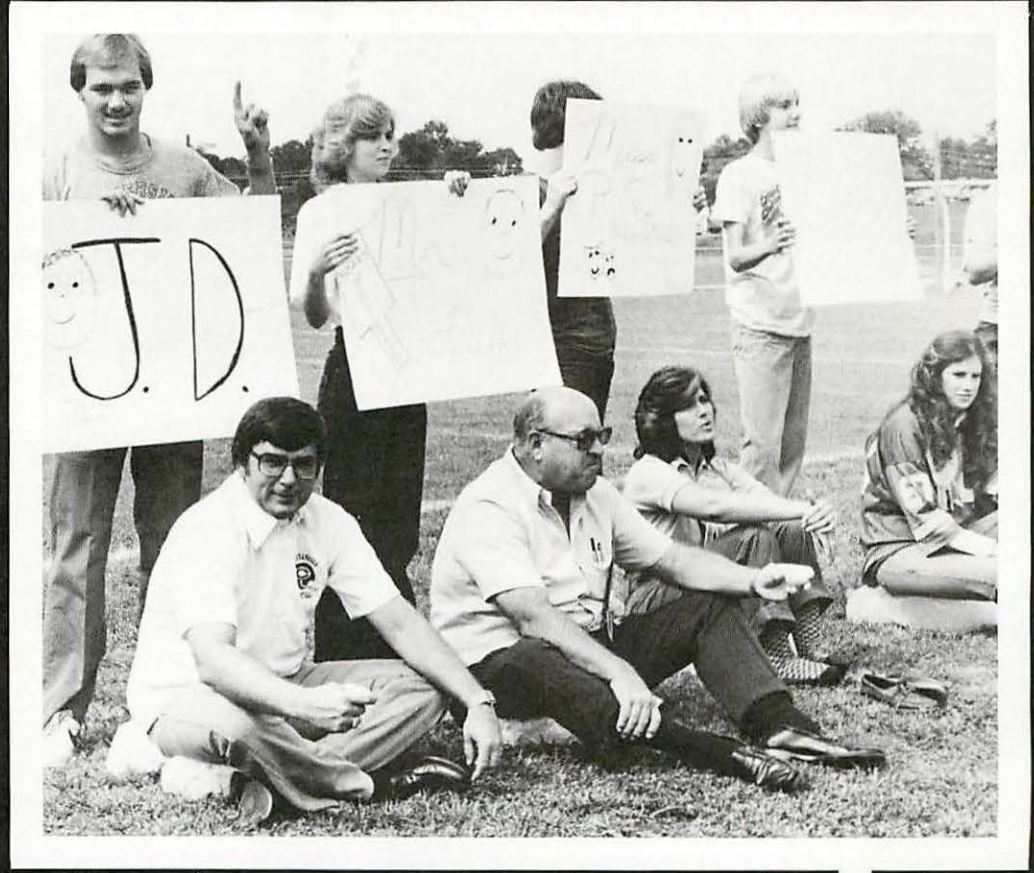

As the voltage regulator stored power, the Champion Staff stored the memories of the year. The price of the yearbook jumped from $10 to $15. Publication costs for the yearbook were $14.00 per book in addition to picture materials for developing. There were other changes for the staff. The class moved from B-Pod to D-Pod to the Gym. There, the Champions were really Caged. The power regulated in the staff would be measured by the seniors' class meeting of 1991.

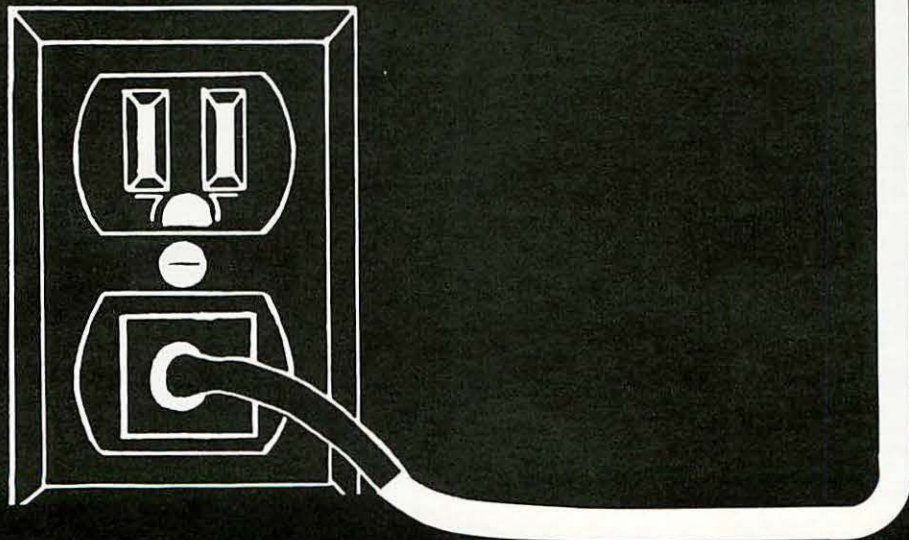

Leigh Shumaker deposits orders and writes yearbook receipts for "I've Got Mine" week. Five hundred and fifty orders are taken by homerooms.

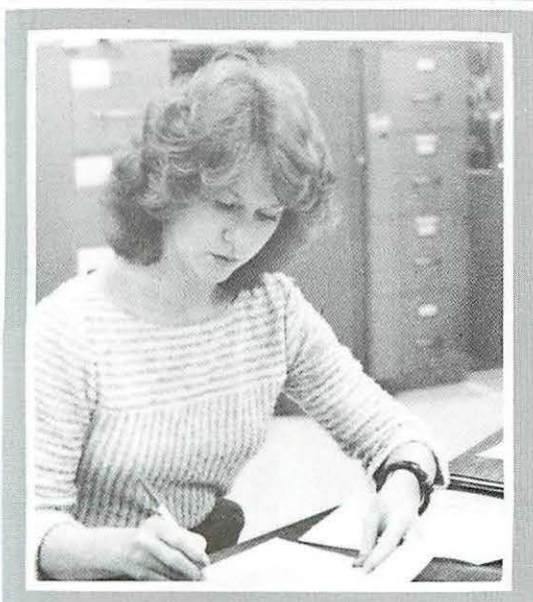

Shella Newby and Muriel Dupourque look for their homeroom section among the 900 underclassmen pictures. Myrna Barton and Gaye Jeffers are lost in the hunt.

During the pep rally against Bradley County, the faculty compete for the "Coolest Teacher," sponsored by Y-Teens. Those vying for the title are Mr. Carnes, Mr. Jolliffe, Miss Stone, and Ms. Brown, who are flanked by their cheerleaders Andy Powell, Deona Murray, Robble Killian, and Eric Farris.

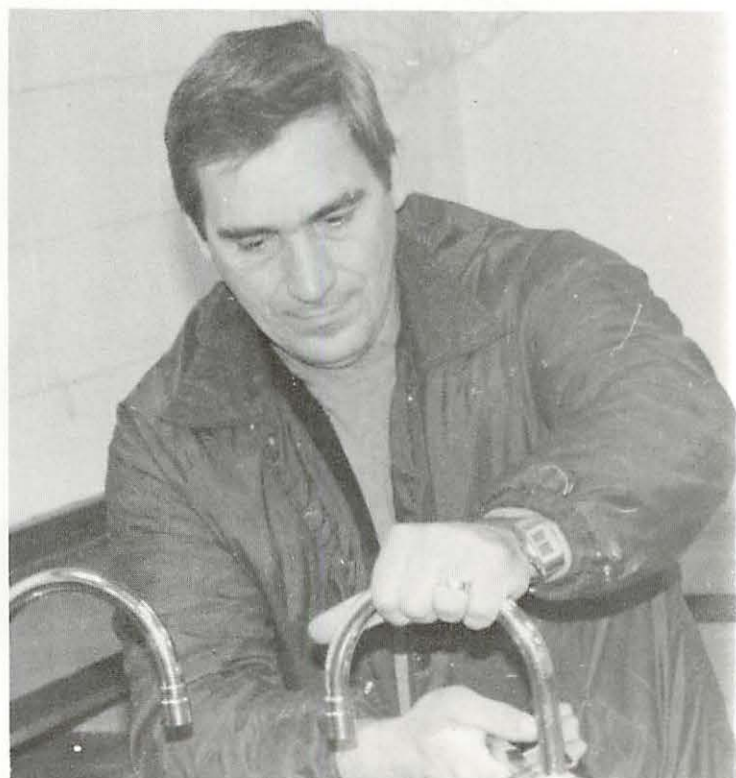

Margorie Ogle, senior class sponsor, takes time out of her MacBeth review to inform the seniors on ordering invitations. Checking copy and layouts is one of Brenda Chauncey's main jobs as advisor for the Champion.

PANSY ALLISON-Western Kentucky University BA. Librarian. "Live and let live."
ALLIE MAE OLIVER-Secretary and Treasurer.
DARA GOUGE-East Tennessee State University; Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. Registered Nurse.

POWER TOOLS

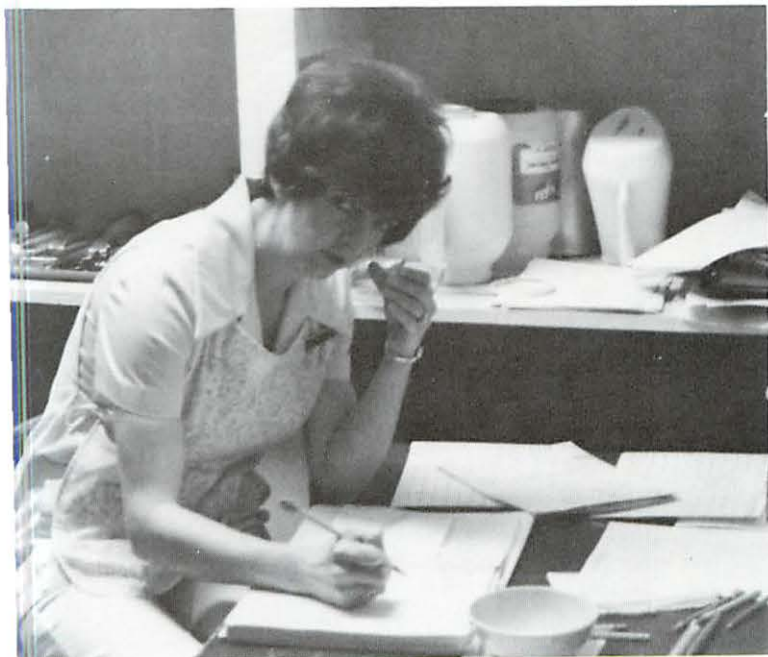

Moving through the year, A-Pod faculty delivered an abundance of power. Mrs. Sue Boatwright kept records of the students and mailed transcripts of graduates to employers and universities. Mrs. Dara Gouge cared for the ill and managed the hundreds of dismissals. Working in the library, Mrs. Pansy Allison selected new books and kept them in order — "or else!" she said. Her motto was Live and Let Live. Mr. Nathaniel Garth Jr. assisted Mrs. Allison in the Audio-Visual Department. In the Cafeteria, the staff enjoyed the convenience of the newly purchased equipment while the custodial staff powered the brooms and brushes to keep the school clean. The year's power supply was recharged and ready.

NATHANIEL GARTH-BA, Paine College. Audio-Visual Librarian.

THE MAIN CIRCUIT

The A-Pod faculty and the Administration made up the main circuit of Central's faculty. Mr. J.D. Carnes, principal, and Mr. John Jolliffe, assistant principal, began a year with few changes. Mr. Jolliffe, newcomer to Central, stated that he enjoyed Central, but he wished the kids would pay more attention to details. Mrs. Jan Ramsey organized the attendance and announcements. Mrs. Mirvine Okrasinski and Mrs. Betty Smith were a great help with schedule changes. Ms. Earlene Hays assisted the guidance department in keeping records up-to-date. Mrs. Debbie Eakin tutored students with academic problems. Each member of the main circuit kept Central under control.

JUDY REICH-Florida State University, BS. Jazz Ensemble, Varsity Chorus, Freshmen Chorus, Guitar, General Math. "Success is not measured by the end product but how we get there."

SPECIAL EFFECTS ENGINEERS

Switch! Click On! The engineers of band, gym and chorus led the way in special effects. Mrs. Judy Reich organized performances for the choral groups at the Choo-Choo, Central and Belmont College where the Jazz Ensemble was judged one of the top three groups. As director, Mr. C.M. Chandler encouraged students to "be professional and be one of the better bands." On April 4, Central's band was one of the bands that played at the White House during the Cherry Blossom Festival. Other engineers included Mr. Mike Collier, Mrs. Gloria Grier and Miss Patty Lane, instructors of the Physical Education Department. The gym students favored volleyball, the trampoline and basketball. Miss Patty Lane and Mrs. Gloria Grier also taught FYF. Their FYF students favored the sections discussing careers in medicine and art. These engineers really did know their special effects.

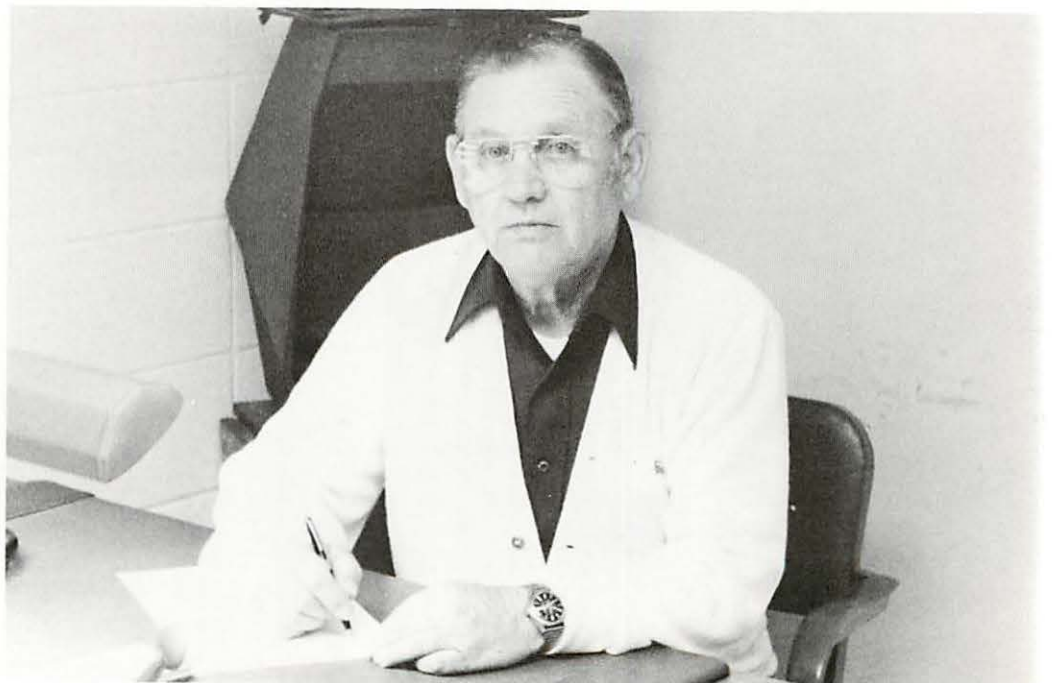

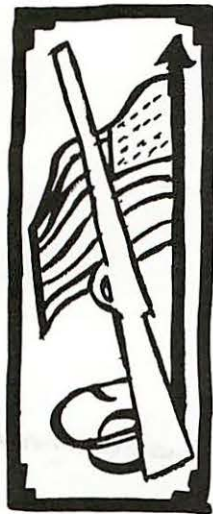

POWER BOARD COMMISSIONERS

The Power Board Commissioners lit the way for ROTC. Colonel Dannie Morris organized the Presentation of Sponsors, AGL Inspection, monthly "neatest cadet" inspection and taught leadership development to third year students. SGM Robert Hall sponsored the softball and rifle team. He was dedicated to his ROTC I class and uniform inspection the first Wednesday of each month. MSG Irvin Boatwright was the instructor for leadership development for second year students. He also sponsored Orienteering, a course in map reading. SFC Warren Luttrell Sr. was the military property officer. He maintained ROTC equipment. SFC Augustus Warren distributed supplies for the ROTC uniform. The power board commissioners kept the candle burning.

KILO-WATT HOURS

The B-pod faculty spent many kilowatt hours in class. Mr. Hillman Mayfield taught ninth grade English. Mrs. Cathy Robbs was the advisor for the Spirit Committee. Mrs. Darby Marable taught Biology, ninth and twelfth grade English.

During the winter, Miss Margorie Ogle, senior English, said, "Think Snow." Mrs. Maxine Williams discussed the research paper in her class. Mr. Steve Highlander taught IP Math and English. Miss Brenda Chauncey taught French I, II, III and published the 1981 Champion. These B-Pod members overloaded the kilowatt hours.

STEVE HIGHLANDER-University of Tennessee at Chattanooga BA and MED. English 10 IP, English 11 IP, English 12 IP, Math IP, Physical Education II. Cross-country, Wrestling and Track coach.
"Let no man despise thy youth."

BRENDA CHAUNCEY-University of Tennessee at Chattanooga BA and MED. French I, II, III, Photojournalism I, II. Yearbook, French Club, French Honor Society.
Miss Chauncey has traveled to Canada. She has also worked with the movie production company for The Night the Lights went out in Georgia.

Turning on the energy in English and Language were the B-Pod Faculty. Mrs. Sandra Harper taught VIP English and Math. Miss Priscilla Stone taught English 11, 12 and Speech and Dramatics. Dr. Louie Edmundson was the English instructor of Chattanooga State. Mrs. Susan Campbell was the ninth and tenth grade English teacher. Mrs. Debbie Perdue taught Bible History. In the language department, Ms. Candace Schooley taught Spanish I, II and English 9. Miss Janice Johnson taught Latin I, II and English 10, 11. Through much effort, the energy was turned-on in B-Pod.

POWER BOOSTER

Mathematics! It was a difficult subject with the X's and Y's, but in the Math Department, there were teachers who really did their best to boost all rules and exceptions. Mr. Rick Torbett taught Algebra and Applied Math. Jamie Roy said that Mr. Torbett was a great teacher and took the responsibility to teach and coach boy's basketball. Mr. Pat Woosley was a new teacher. He was very proud of his first year and became popular in his Algebra, General Math and Geometry classes. Mr. Bill Walton taught Calculus, Proficiency Math, Trigonometry and Analytical Geometry. Jane Cook said that Mr. Walton was a good teacher and could make even the difficult part, called Differentiation, fun. On Valentine's Day, they "differentiated hearts" for one thing. Mrs. Susan Castleberry taught Algebra I and General Math. She sponsored CCY. Mrs. Betty Lee taught Algebra, General Math and Advanced Geometry. She sponsored NHS. Miss Janice Brown was into Advanced Algebra, General Math and Computer Languages. Lee Ann Hall took Computer Languages and said that the course gave her a start for college studies. Many thought math was boring but then some really enjoyed it. Gina Jones liked math because it made her think, she said. After some time and powerful efforts, the X's did not seem confusing.

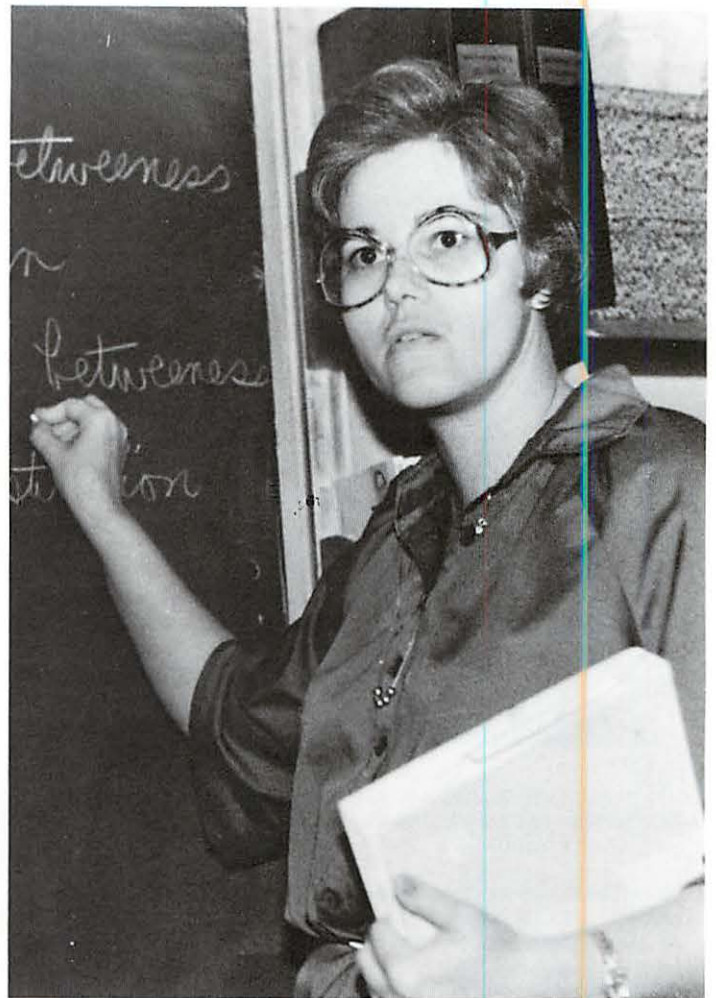

RICK TORBETT-Cleveland State Community College AS, Bryan College BA. Pre-Algebra I, Algebra I, II, Applied Math. Boys' Varsity Basketball Coach.

PAT WOOSLEY-University of Tennessee at Chattanooga BA and MED. Algebra I, General Math, Geometry. Boys' B-team Basketball Coach.
"To appreciate each day and get the most from it," is Mr. Woosley's quote.

BILL WALTON-Indiana University BS, University of Oklahoma MNS. Calculus, Analytics, Algebra I, Applied Math.

SUSAN CASTLEBERRY-Middle Tennessee State University BS. Algebra I, General Math, Mrs. Castleberry sponsors the Central Christian Youth.

BETTY LEE-University of Tennessee at Knoxville BS, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga MA. Algebra I, General Math, Advanced Geometry. Mrs. Lee sponsors the National Honor Society.

JANICE BROWN-University of Tennessee at Chattanooga BS. Advanced Algebra I, II, General Math, Computer Languages. Needlework is one of Ms. Brown's hobbies.

The planners of the Math Department brought electricity to the program. Students faired well in the Math Contest at UTC. Those participating were Colin Wright, Lee Ann Hall and Susan Baxter. Mr. Bill Walton commented that it "treated" him to see some of his students do so well against students from other schools. The computer class also was a bright spot in the Math Department. Senior Suzy Harris said, "I feel having taken the computer class will help me in the future when I try to get a job." All in all, the Math Department brought electricity to Central's emphasis on scholastics.

DOROTHY STONE-Tennessee Tech BS. Psychology, Sociology, American History. Tri-Hi-Y sponsor.

SAM STONER-Middle Tennessee State University BS, Peabody College MA. American Government, American History.
"Life is time, time is life, so make use of your life while there is time."

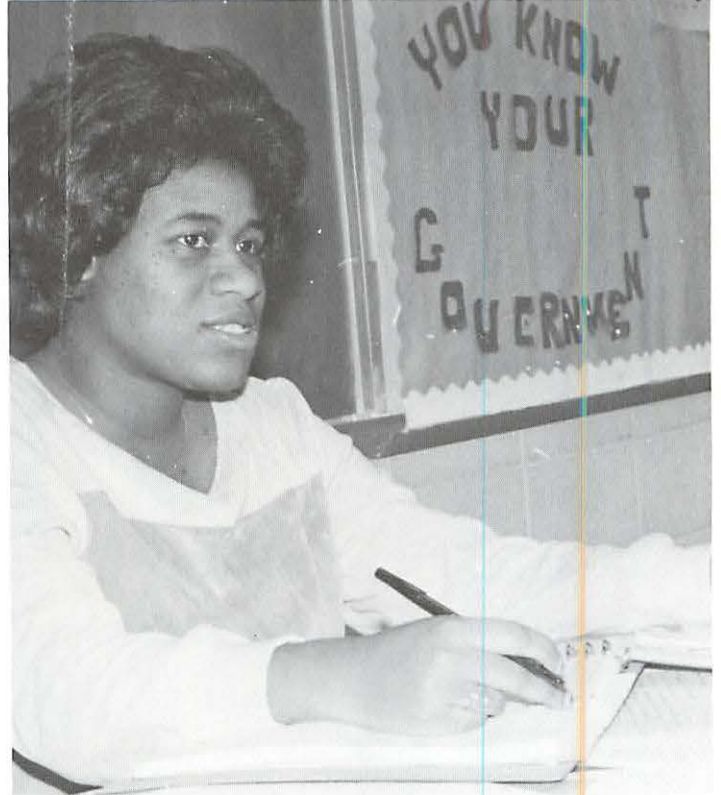

PATTY SUE LANE-University of Tennessee at Chattanooga BS. Focusing on Your Future, Physical Education. Girls' Varsity and Freshman Volleyball, Basketball and Track Coach.

The Social Studies planners had one of their busiest years ever. With US Presidential Elections held in November, teachers were busy influencing students to watch and pay attention to the outcome. Mrs. Henrietta Haselrig's class held a mock election on November 2 and elected their own president. The day after the election, Mr. Sam Stoner's Government Class held a mock presidential press conference, with Mr. Stoner acting as President. He answered each of the student's questions quite effectively while twirling his "glasses." Mrs. Dorothy Stone told her "young people" that the outcome of the elections could have a great effect on their futures. On the inauguration day, television sets were moved to C-Pod for students to watch the inauguration of Ronald Reagan. In January, the Social Studies Department sponsored a Patriotic Program. Students from history and government spoke about their patriotic ideas. Overall, the Social Studies Department had an electrifying influence on everyone's year.

VIRGINIA J. SUMMEROUR-Sanford University BS. Typing I, II. Future Business Leaders of America Sponsor. Mrs. Summerour's teaching goal is to assist students in obtaining proper skills for business and personal use. Business Department Chairman.

CLARONE HUGHES-Tennessee Wesleyan BS, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga MED. Accounting I, II and General Business. Mrs. Hughes goal is to cause students to be acquainted with and curious about their economic environment and aware of the world of work.

MARGARET HAMMACK-Florida State University BS. Health, Gym Staff sponsor. Mrs. Hammacks goal is to give students some knowledge that will make their lives more successful and that of others.

NEON SHINERS

D-Pod faculty shone in more ways than one during the year. Mrs. Virginia Summerour had her second year students dress-up every first and third Tuesday of the month to show a business attitude. Mrs. Margaret Hammack had a speaker from CADAS to speak on alcohol and its effects every semester. Mrs. Christina Campbell's students learned the many different ways to use Art in everyday living. Coach Gary Rundles used simulators to get his students ready to drive on the real road. Mrs. Clarone Hughes taught her students the secrets of good business leadership. Neon lights were bright in each room in D-Pod.

GARY RUNDLES-Carson Newman College BS. Drivers Education. Baseball coach, Football Defensive Back Coach.

PATRICIA ANN WILLIAMSON-University of Tennessee at Knoxville BS. Home Economics I, IV; Independent Living; Chairman of Home Economics Department. Mrs. Williamson's objectives are to help people improve their quality of life.

"Most family problems are made worse by some kind of immaturity; maturity is the ability to do a job whether or not you are surprised."

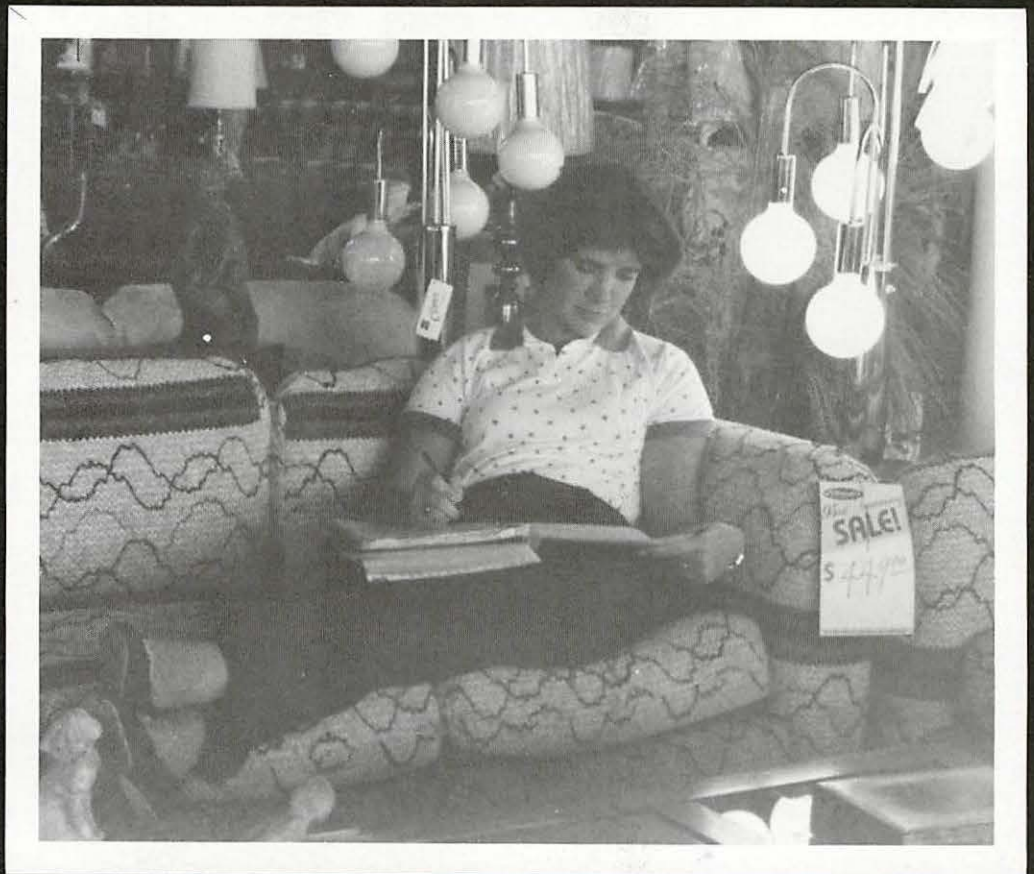

ENERGY BOOSTERS

With energy shortages and dwindling natural resources, students needed a better understanding of the world around them. They were encouraged to make their work count positively for something. They studied mechanics, sound, light, electricity, and structural formations in the science classes. As chemistry teacher, Mr. James Rogers said, "Little things do count!" Mrs. Diane Hale, General Science teacher said, "Children are the world's most valuable resource." The Home Economics classes studied housing, clothing and family problems. These things would prepare the students for the future. Through the study of Home Economics and Natural Sciences, the students were given a boost in the right direction.

CENTRAL HIGH ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The officers of the Central High School Alumni Association are happy to extend greetings to the graduates of the Class of 1981. They are aware of your attainments and your ambitions. They wish for your success in proportion to your ability, ambition, and application. These are crucial days and we urge you to continue your progress in education by attending the college of your choice.

The Alumni Association seeks to serve Central High School. Our projects are too many to list here. We constantly are looking for ways to improve our school. In order to serve the maximum, we need each graduate to join our association. When you are in a position to assist us, we ask you to join in this cooperative movement for the assistance of our school.

We wish for you the best in the future and we ask you to, at all times, elevate the name of our school, community, and nation.

Enjoying their "Suburban Picnic", Miss Ogle's sixth period English class makes use of the new Senior area. As the Seniors last day comes to a close, Janet Hay slowly begins to remove the memories of her final year from her locker. Mike Croxall shows his spirit by joining the "Conquistadors" on Fifties Day.

FAREWELL FLASH

But in a Flash it's gone forever, gone forever,
And the ceremony is grand,
But old friends never get to make a last stand ...
"Why Not me" 1980

Just as the song goes, our high school days have passed in a flash. We've shared smiles and tears through our years of growing as a family. We've spent our time together and will never find friends like the ones we've left behind. Some of the most memorable events we'll recall from our high school days include the death of Elvis Presley in August '77; the taking of 52 American hostages by Iran in November '79, followed by their release in January '81; a gold medal hockey team in the 1980 Olympics; and the Camp David peace talks between Israel and Egypt in 1978. Our experiences are numerous but we have much more growing to do. The time has come to close our memories in this book and move forward, though we will always cherish our precious times together as the Central High School Class of '81.

ROTC cadet Donna Chandler proves her repelling skills by "going off the deep end."

The last few days of school draw near for the Class of '81 with the singing of the Alma Mater on Senior Day.

Reader-of-the-Will Bob Byerley and Stan Wofford spend the afternoon after Class Day at Edsill's Game Room enjoying a game of Missile Command.

Central's own Swede, Cecilia Ekmark, dreads the thought of packing for her return trip home with her new "American" wardrobe.
