Welcome To The Party

The students were welcomed to the party by Mr. John Jolliffe, administrative assistant, and newcomers Mr. Charles Preston, principal, and Mr. Frank Cofer, administrative assistant. The students noticed several changes such as administrative personnel, lunch fee increase to 90¢, and a barrier at the entrance to the school.

The first few days were spent getting yearbooks, changing schedules, assigning lockers and parking spaces, and filling out forms.

Some faculty changes included Mr. Pat Woolsey's move from assistant coach to head basketball coach, no nurse, an addition to the mathematics department, Mr. Bill Nelms and a special proficiency instructor, Mr. John Bonner who also took over the Digest Staff.

One change everyone appreciated was a winning football season. As far as class spirit went, the seniors showed they were true leaders by winning the spirit stick while the sophomores showed they were real troupers by winning the "Best Class Yell" contest.

All these changes helped start off the new school year in the right direction. The party had officially begun.

The seniors give a big Purple cheer to start off the new school year. They are from left ... oh, never mind.

Having A Blast

With the return of school many students feared that the summer fun was over, but they soon found that going to school could be a blast. Many special activities were planned for the 1981-82 school year. In September, there were pep-rallies and football games. With October came homecoming, powder-puff football, and sock-hops. In November, there was the Beta Club talent show; and December was filled with Christmas parties. January was filled with basketball games, and February marked the beginning of baseball and softball. March included tennis, the musical "West Side Story" and the ROTC general inspection. April was the month of the long awaited spring break and prom. May was a busy month filled with activities such as Senior Day and Class Day. June topped off the year with graduation ceremonies. During the school year the students had many opportunities to have a blast.

Mrs. Margaret Hammack and Mrs. Jeanette Crawley enjoy the festive atmosphere during the Champion staff dedicatory party.

Pam Humphreys and Penny Moates study hard to get good grades in French I.

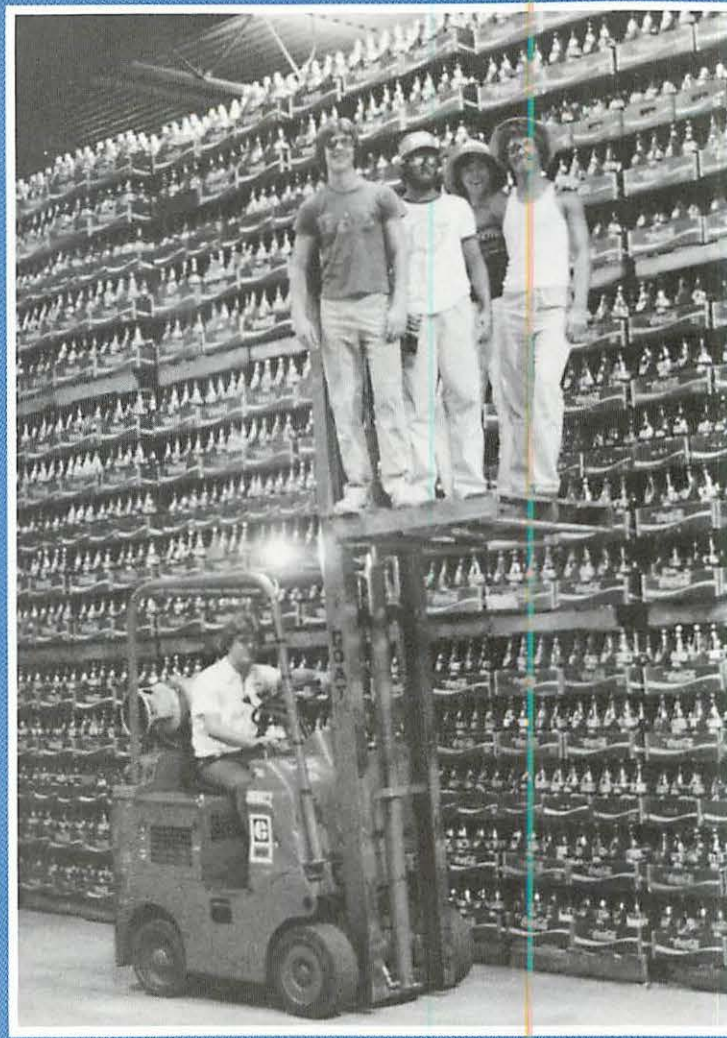

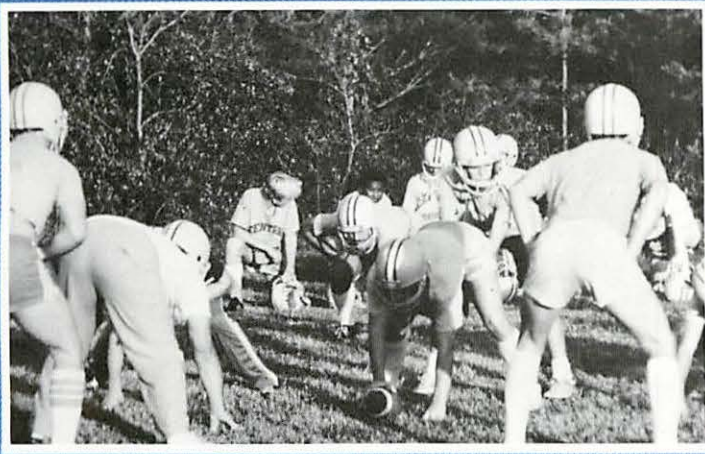

Hard practice and determination help the Purple Pounder football team have a winning season.

E.Y. Chaplain catches up on his homework in the peace and quiet of his library.

Mr. Charles Preston and Coach Patty Lane inspect their partners before the big donkey basketball game against TV-9.

Debbie Gallaher and Tiki Walker perform their flag routine during half-time of the basketball game against Northwest Whitfield.

During football season, posters encouraging the team adorn the walls.

The junior cheerleaders find that building a pyramid is not as easy as the varsity cheerleaders make it seem.

Junior Tracy Kille fails to tackle senior Leigh Shumaker during the third quarter as the seniors move closer to their second powder-puff victory.

Kevin Dodson, with escort Chari Cross, is named the 1981 Homecoming King by Y-Teens during the Powder-Puff halftime.

The junior spectator section gets more than they expected. In addition to the exciting powderpuff game, the sultry male cheerleaders entertained the fans with popular cheers such as fire-up, rock steady, and yell it, spell it.

Jan Williams blocks Stacey Croft while Leigh Shumaker runs for the senior's winning touchdown.

Fun And Games

The day of the homecoming game, the student body was released for a fun and games event — the Junior-Senior Powder Puff game. Memorable events accompanying the game were the junior and senior cheerleaders and the crowning of the homecoming king, Kevin Dodson, by Y-Teens. The seniors beat the juniors 6-0. The junior team was coached by Bobby Richardson and Scott Powell while David Champion and Larry Buckles coached the seniors. The referees were Greg Holder and Kevin Dodson. All these people made Homecoming Day a day of fun and games.

The party favors of the senior class set a fashion trend. Their attire varied from bandanas to western to metallics. Accessories to their new wardrobes were ballet slippers, sabagos, cowboy boots and asahi tennis shoes. Several fashions carried over from 1981. Such fashions were surgical outfits, Izod shirts, dickles and buttdowns. Also, the seniors carried over several accessories such as flops and dip for the lip.

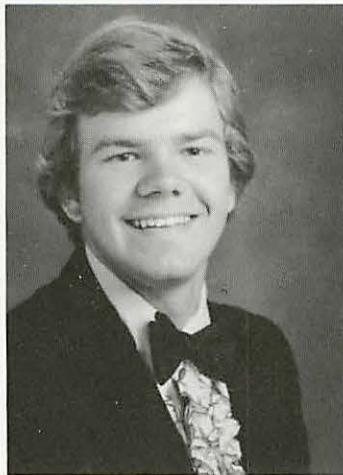

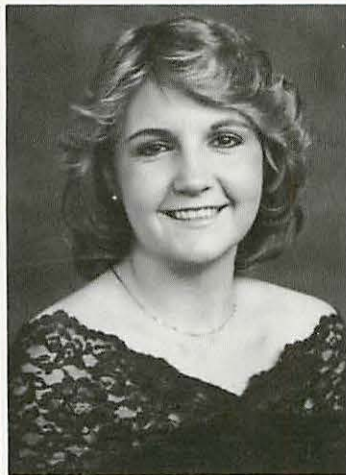

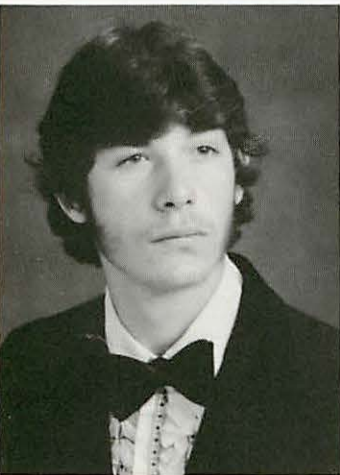

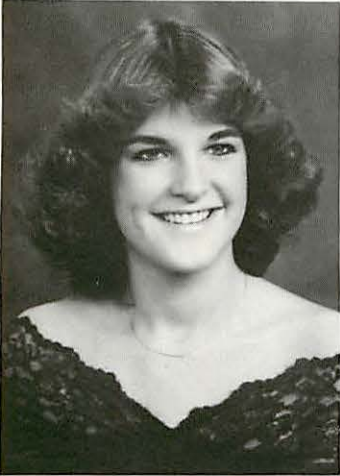

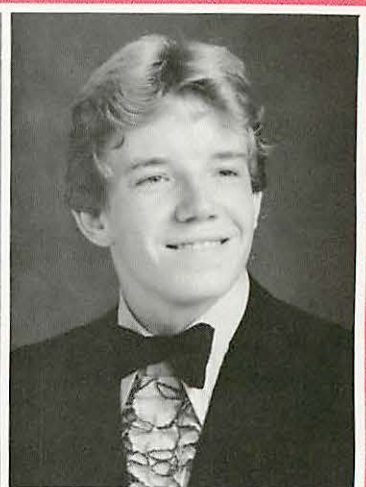

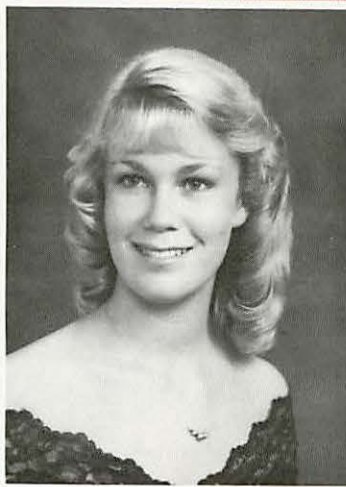

"Dress up" day was every Wednesday, and students showed off their Sunday best.

Even though tastes varied, the seniors led the way for Party Favors.

In a recent Senior poll, many surprising facts were found. Out of a total of 140 seniors, 110 said that they drove to school. One senior said that he would drive once his car was fixed. Sixteen admitted that they smoked but not necessarily on the school campus. As far as dipping, a surprisingly low 27 seniors said they dipped. One senior stated "@#! of course I do!" Sixty-two said they worked after school while 40 said they had permanent dismissals. Meanwhile, 43 said they participated in a school sport and 91 seniors said they attended school sports events regularly. A hundred and seven seniors said they liked some of their classes but not all of them. The seniors never stopped surprising people with the things they did or said.

A popular game played during the celebration year was the scavenger hunt. The object of this game was to track down various students. Step one would have been to check the announcement sheet for students on school services. These students were excused for functions concerning sports, publication staffs and various service clubs. The second step would have been to check students with permanent dismissals. Two such students were: Joni Pierce, a Red Food Store cashier, and Shella Newby, a K-Mart employee. Some students were harder to find — or catch. These students silently dismissed themselves for lunch or perhaps a jaunt to Edsill's. As everyone knows, in the game Scavenger Hunt, some items, or people, were harder to find than others. Nevertheless, practically all enjoyed the game.

Celebrating seniors came alive when they sold magazine subscriptions, records and tapes. This sale campaign was to raise money for Senior Day and Graduation. Their motivation was quite unique. Everyone who sold three items was given one excused absence from school. Rhonda Phelps and Kim Hindman both received a mug or a rubik cube key chain. Music certificates for any free tape or record were also given to those who sold four or more items. The Seniors were truly celebrating with their campaign.

After the senior celebration, the thoughts of many members of the graduating class turned into the post-party blues. The excitement of the year was replaced by tension as concerned seniors examined the various choices awaiting them. While many chose jobs, marriage, cooperative programs, technical schools or two year colleges, others chose to extend their education much further. Stan Braley commented, "I plan on entering military service that will pay for my college education in either engineering or criminology." Another ambitious senior, Mary Slifko, stated, "I would like to attend a four year university and then enter medical school."

Trying to make a decision about their future plans changed the seniors' lives from a lively celebration to serious post-party blues.

By promoting the excitement through school spirit, the seniors proved to be the leaders. The dynamic leadership of the seniors in several clubs such as Y-Teens, Key Club, Student Council, Beta Club, and FHA contributed an extraordinary interest in the coherence and participation of the classes. To promote this spirit and excitement, these clubs supported sock hops and formal dances, skits at pep rallies, Mr. Teen Angel, Bachelor of Ugliness, dance kings and queens, hayrides, spirit week, motorcades, and many off-campus activities. All these activities and their special leaders promoted excitement at school.

The seniors' memorable celebrations were recalled. The fear and excitement of entering as freshmen were well-remembered by Gaye Jeffers. But senior Angie Clark states, "My memory of Central is how I ever managed to learn anything in my math classes over the past four years — considering the fact that it was always thirty degrees below zero in every room!" But despite the cold, the seniors struggled through all the term papers, exams, and homework to obtain their goal — the diploma. Many seniors took time out from their studies to take band and chorus trips to Washington D.C., Florida, and Atlanta. Senior band member Jennifer Duff remembers the malls, McDonalds, and the bus rides on the band trip to Washington D.C. in the spring of 1981. Senior Laura Lloyd summed up her memorable celebrations and those of other seniors by stating, "These past four years at Central have been the best years of my life!"

The chaperone of this group was Miss Brenda Chauncey. The junior staff added the finishing touches to make the yearbook a grand celebration at the dance December 6. The other staff was the Digest. Its host was Mr. John Bonner. The senior Digest staff included: Teresa Lundgren, Editor-In-Chief; Blake Watson, Assistant Editor; Charl Cross, Justine Jepson, Jeff Frye, Joanie McCoy, Mike Salisbury and Pat Sherill. The Publication staffs were the party promoters of this celebration. They kept us informed of daily events and captured memories in words and pictures for us.

Greg LaRue and Shelia McBrayer.

Senior graduates Tricia Smith, Mary Slifko and Rose Secrest's names are called to receive their diplomas.

The 1982 Senior Class remains standing as the remainder of the class walks in Memorial Auditorium to "Pomp and Circumstance."

As the commencement exercises come to a close, the seniors join hands as they sing the Alma Mater for the last time as students.

Stepping Up

The seniors took their step. As stated by Mr. Charles Preston, principal, "The moment they have been awaiting has arrived!"

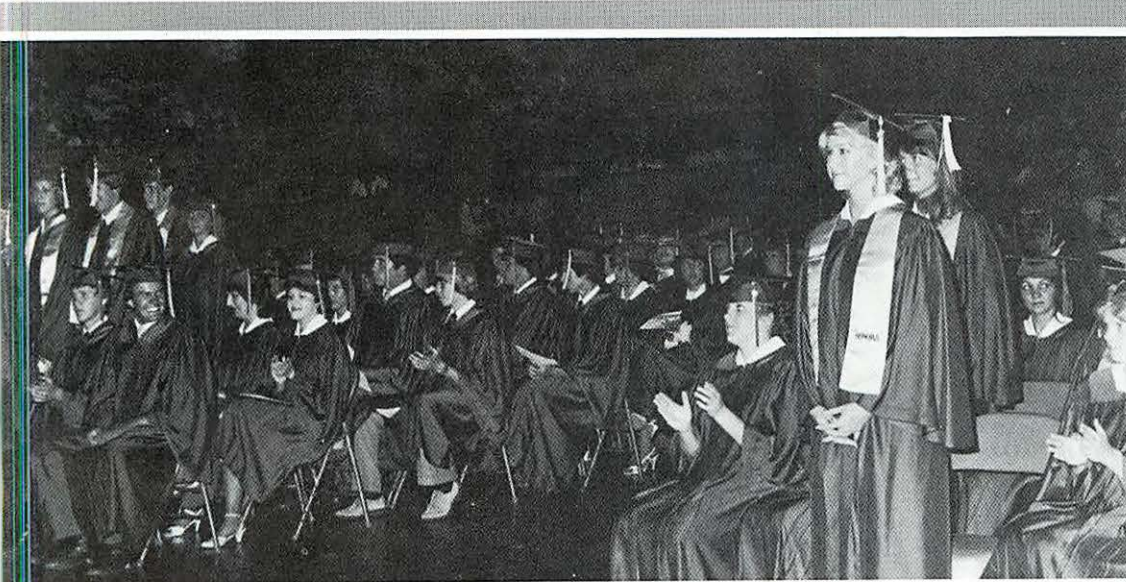

The band played the "Procession of Nobles" by Rimsky-Korsakov as the seniors' processional. The chorus represented the seniors' goals with the song "Climb Ev'ry Mountain," arranged by Smith. The diploma march was the "Pomp and Circumstance." Other musical arrangements for this occasion were "Great Themes from Great Italian Movies." Director of the Symphonic Band was Mr. C.M. Chandler; the Director of the Music, Mrs. Judy Reich; accompanist, Jeff Parker.

Mr. Everett O'Neal, Division Coordinator of Secondary Schools, accepted the class for graduation. Mr. Don Duggan, Chairman of the Hamilton County Board of Education, awarded diplomas. Other special guests were past principals and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Farmer and Dr. and Mrs. Hobart Millsaps. The Honorable Bobby G. Wood, State Representative, gave the invocation.

The faculty was also honored at this time. Mr. James Rogers, the yearbook's Dedicatory, was presented the Evans Award for Excellence in Teaching. Two faculty were recognized for their service to the school and students. Mrs. Janette Crawley, serving 20 years was awarded the ruby stone; Miss Marjorie Ogle who has served Central for 25 years was presented the sapphire stone.

One Step taken: Thursday, June 3, 1982 at the Memorial Auditorium, Chattanooga, Tennessee. By 10:00 the steps were silenced.

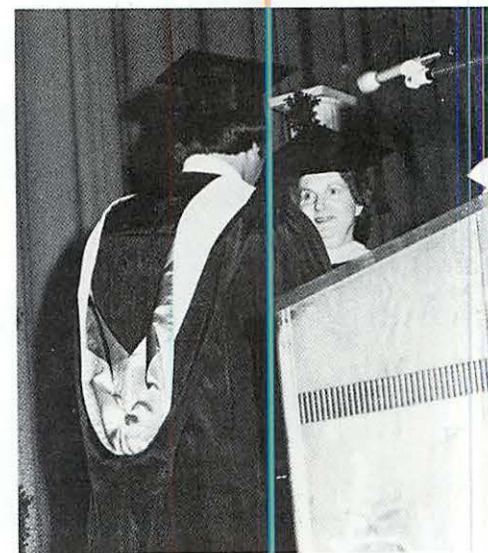

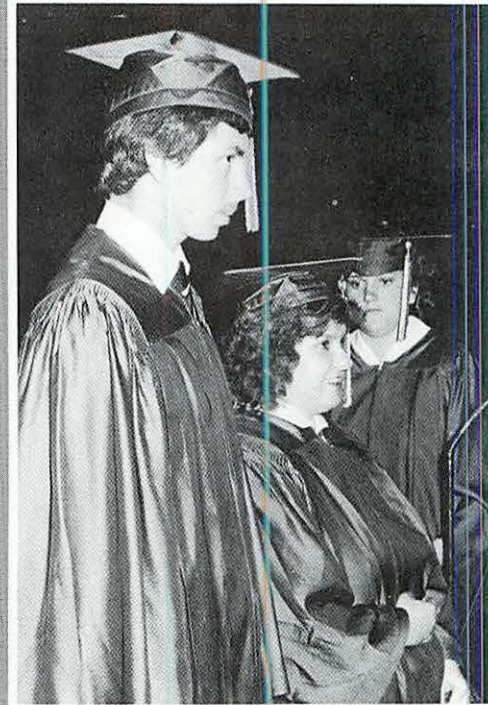

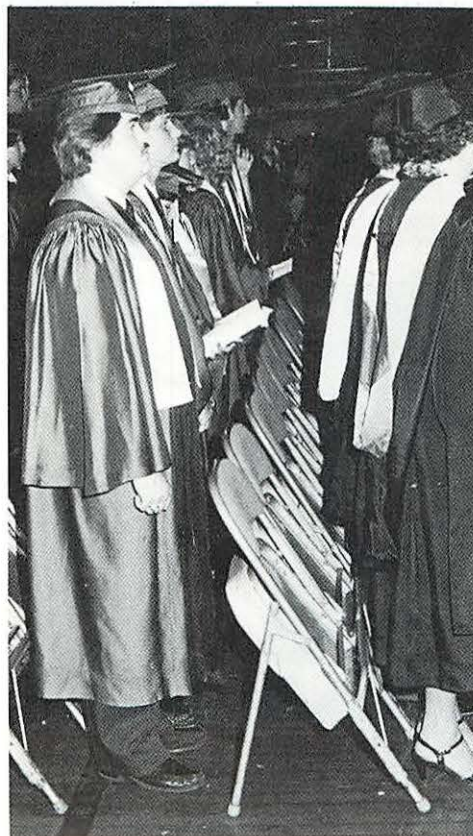

The Four-Year Honor Students, the Beta Club, the National Honor Society, the Departmental Honor Students are all recognized by Mr. Charles Preston.

Marshall Debbie Crane directs Tim Daniels and Rhonda Coleman to the stage to receive their diploma.

Miss Marjorie Ogle receives her Central Service Award for her 25 years at Central High School. Miss Ogle is the Language Arts Departmental Chairman.

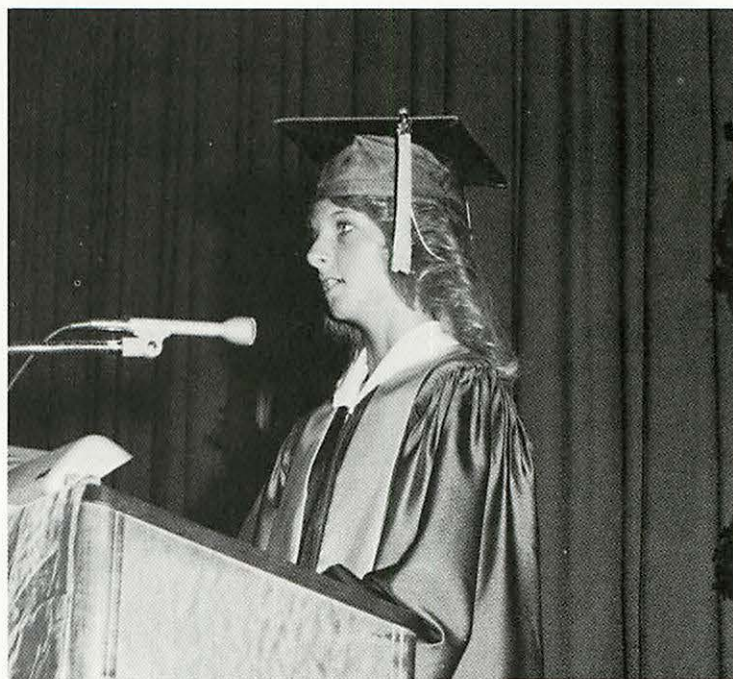

The seniors realize that these are the last minutes they will be students at CHS; however, they will become Central Alumni forever.

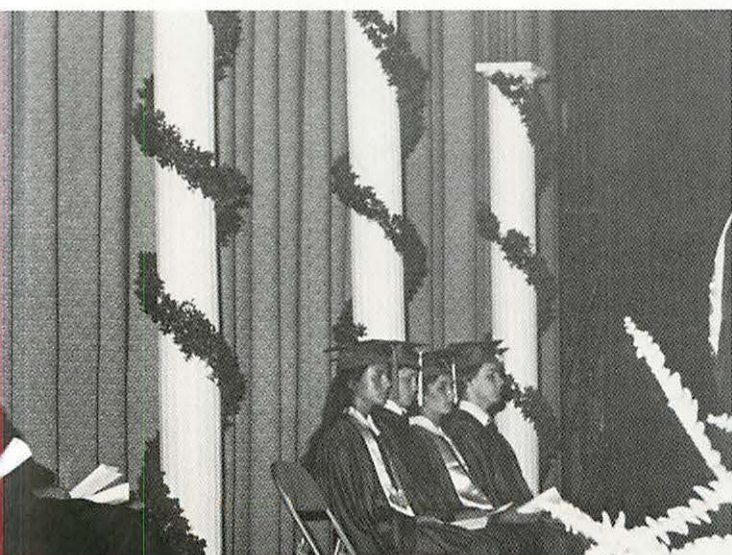

Party Well-Deserved

The senior class was taking the step closer to a party well-deserved. The Valedictorian was Miss Myrna Barton with an outstanding grade point average, 4.048. The Salutatorian was Miss Angela Pope who earned an impressive grade point average of 4.043. Valedictorian Myrna Barton spoke about "Being a Fulfilled Individual." In her speech she stated, "He himself can only make his dreams come true." Faculty Representative Leigh Shumaker's speech was "Accomplishing New Goals." She also had a statement in her speech that will stay in the minds of many students that they be themselves and make new challenges to accomplish their ultimate goals. Angela Pope's speech "Taking a Part in the American Dream" reflected finding one's self worthy and having faith in one's abilities. Senior Class Representative Jan Williams spoke on "Assuming More Responsibilities" and emphasized the ability to cope with change and discipline one's self to go beyond in creating new ideas.

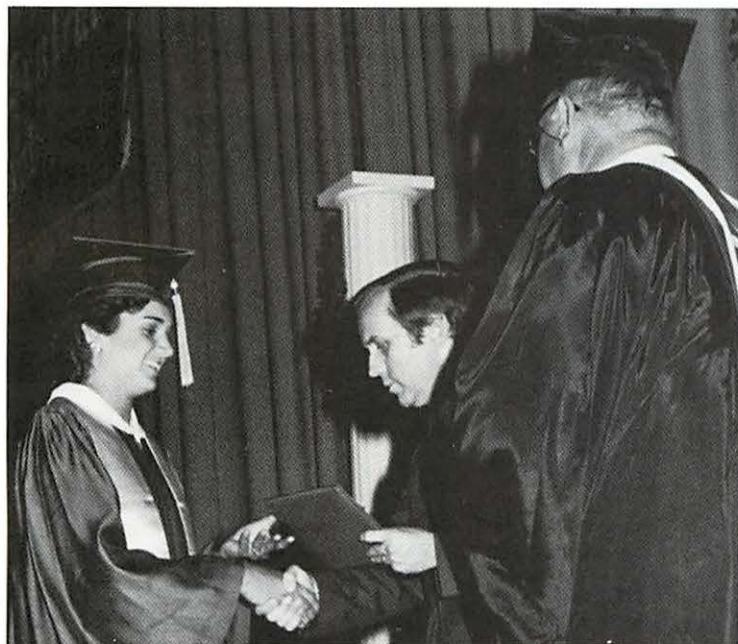

These graduation speakers not only idealized the goals of the Class of 1982 but also presented the future — one step closer.

Jan Williams, Senior Class Representative, speaks to the class and guests to encourage their fresh ideas in the future.

The Step Closer To A

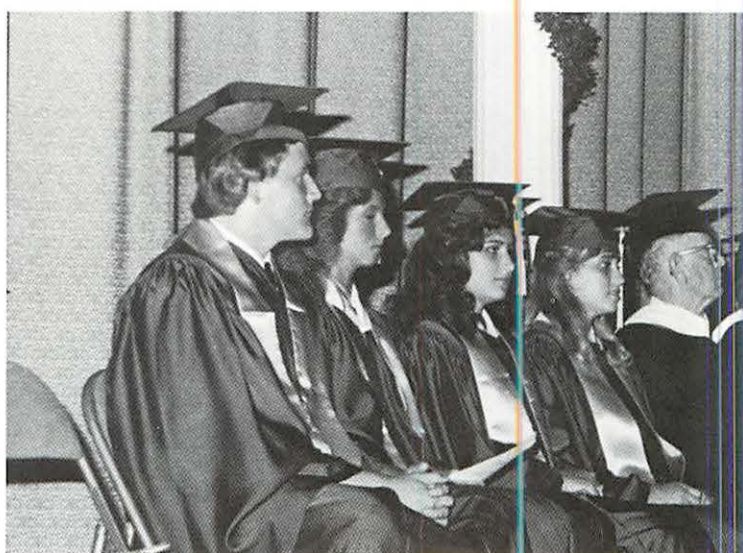

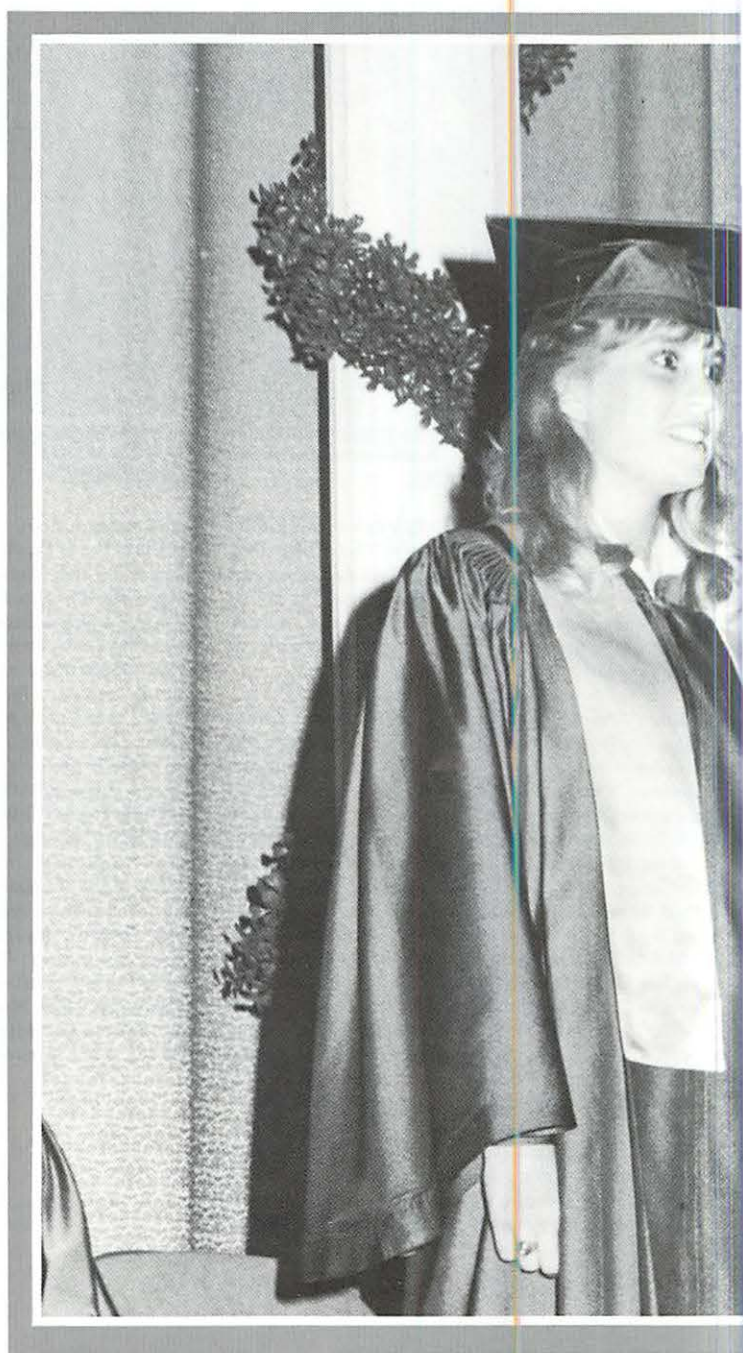

Mr. Everett O'Neal and Mr. John Jolliffe share the excitement with Faculty Representative Leigh Shumaker as she receives her diploma's folder.

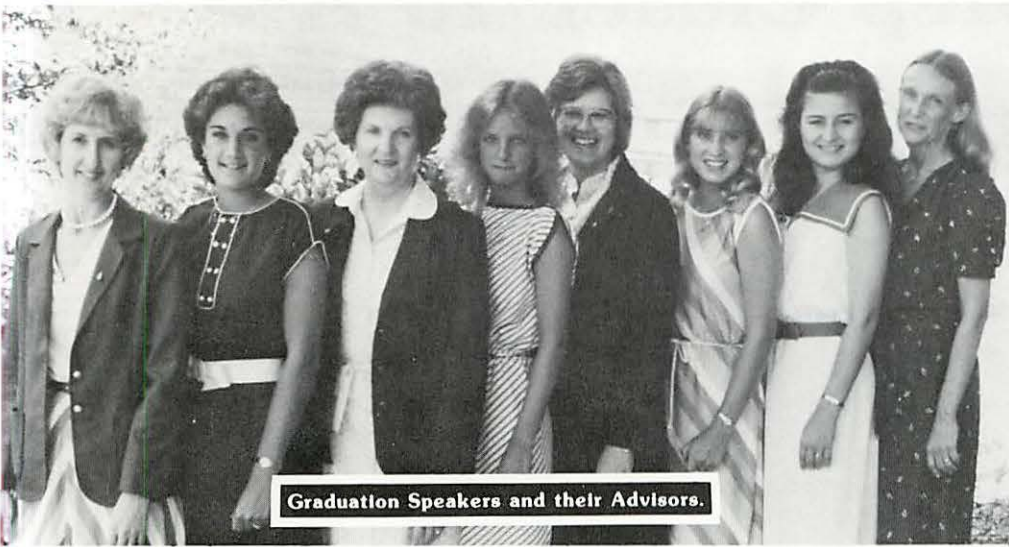

Valedictorian Myrna Barton stands when her name is called as an Honor Student.

Angela Pope says that "It's not how good you are but how good you want to be," in her Salutatorian speech.

The graduation speakers await their turn to welcome special guests, faculty, family and friends to the seventy-fifth annual commencement ceremonies.

Stepping Stones

Graduation Speakers and their Advisors.

Stepping stones had already been arranged by the Four-Year Honor Students. The Class Day speakers explained the steps already taken and those to come. Recognition was given for those honorable steps taken through the years. Among those seniors recognized with awards and scholarships were:

THE PROPHET'S WORDS

It's now twenty-0-two, twenty years since graduation, and the World's Fair has come to Harrison. As the festivities begin to get underway, I decide to take some time to fly over to Central High School, my old Alma Mater, which I still don't know the words to. Central is now known as the Educational Complex K27.

Seeing the sights makes me reminisce about old times and think what has happened to the gang since graduation.

Eddie Taylor was refused his diploma when he slept through graduation, and senior day and final exams.

Chari Cross should make it here today, but she probably forgot the way.

Johnny Baker is starring in a hit movie called "Frankenstein Plays Football."

Leigh Shumaker got such a dark tan that she is now modeling for Ebony magazine.

Greg Morgan climbed Mount Everest in his Jeep.

Tammy Cobb and Angie Clark are still arguing over who was a better drum major.

Muriel Dupourque moved to France where she hoped someone could spell and pronounce her name correctly. She moved back because they couldn't do it over there either.

PGA golfer Brent Henley is in the finals.

PGA drinker Charlie Hatler is in Jail.

President Nancy Lonas was impeached after the big defense scandal in Washington last year. Apparently one of her top aides, Penny Powell gave our military secrets to the Soviets. Penney said, "I had to tell them, it was my duty. Besides, they have a right to know." Secretary of State Stan Braley and Secretary of Defense Tim Lewis shot Penney on sight.

Paul Horton moved to California with the proceeds of the Fall Festival. He later said, "Ha, I guess I fooled them."

Tricia Smith's husband hired private investigator Marty McDaniel to follow her because he suspected she was having an affair with Ziggy. Marty's got the experience.

Joni Pierce married Dana Pierce because she didn't want to change her last name.

Donna Lowery replaced Dr. Engstrom in teaching the College English class since the old teacher moved to Soddy Daisy.

Travis White has taken the place of Sgt. Cupp on the narcotics squad of the police force.

I'm glad we have all kept in touch over the years.

Bret Wood

THE SENIORS' WILL

We, the homeroom of Patty Sue Lane, will Allan Cruise the honorable award for most likely to offend someone.

I, Debbie Crane, will Harry Summers the extremely honorable title of "King of the Lunch Room" and wish him many successful years with his dictatorship.

We, the anti-Ziggy committee, will Tricia Smith a life-size Ziggy doll covered with Ziggy decals to keep in her Ziggy room in her Ziggy house.

I, Kim Goins, will to Randy Newman, a steel bear trap to keep his mouth from flapping in the wind.

We, the senior class, will to all rising seniors the ability to make Miss Ogle mad by not responding in class.

We, the senior class Powder-Puff team, will the up-coming senior team a 21 point lead in next year's game in hopes that they will pull this one out.

We, Patrick Livingston, Kevin Dodson, and Charlie Hatler, will Mike Burnam 2 new cousins to tell us stories about his working on Saturday.

I, Greg Neely, will my blonde hair, my Izod button down, and my Calvin Klein blue jeans to Mr. Ables.

I, Norma Stansberry, will my wittiness to Terri Lowery, since her sister has none.

I, Nancy Lonas, will my ability to dip Skoal to all the Florida gang who didn't get sick.

I, Shirley Arendale, will Karen Neely the ability to keep a steady boyfriend her senior year.

I, Brian Oliver, will my softball talents to David Buckner.

We, the Chattanooga State English class, will Penney Powell to Lewis Hundley.

I, Chari Cross, will my All-City Volleyball trophy to Lisa Burns so she will quit complaining.

I, Donna Lowery, will my senior superlative — wittiest — to Kevin Bradshaw, who is working so hard to get it.

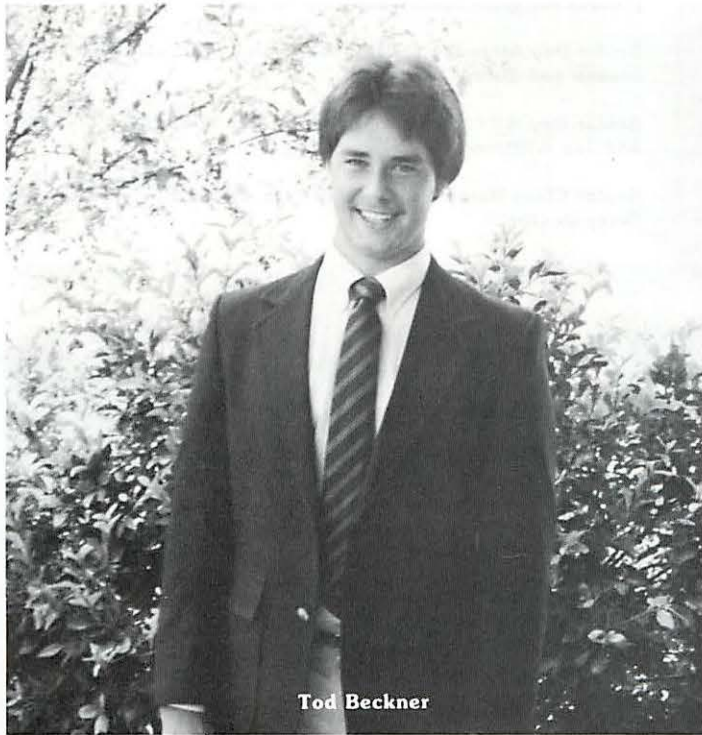

I, Muriel Dupourque, will a new phone to Pat and Kevin to replace the one they wore out asking girls to the Sweetheart Dance.

We, the legitimate parkers of C-Pod, will our parking spaces to all those who didn't buy a sticker but parked there anyway!

I, Bret Wood, will make it big someday.

ONE STEP CLOSER

Our lives are filled with choices,
As we walk along life's paths.
Whether we travel the common trail,
That echoes the footsteps' voices,
Or journey down less travelled paths,
We will be one step closer.

The knowledge that we've gained
And the moments that we shared,
Will stay with us forever;
These thoughts cannot be chained.
Memories of the times we cared
Will bring us one step closer.

We'll deal with each obstacle in stride,
Applying the insight that we've attained
From a dozen long years of learning.
In our successes we'll take pride,
For it's the diligence that we maintained
That will take us one step closer.

So we've spent a long time training
For the hindrances we'll face,
And the hope is that we can find a way
To dissolve each problem remaining.
Yes, it's the time for us to run life's race
And continue striving one step closer.

THE HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1982

In September of 1978, over 200 scared freshmen walked through the doors of Central High School. We did not know what to expect nor did we know what was expected of us, but we soon overcame our fears and uncertainties to become one of the greatest classes to graduate from Central. The class of "82".

When the class elections were held, the class elected Chris Hood, president, Angie Clark, vice president, Tricia Smith, secretary, and Myrna Barton, treasurer. These officers did a superior job.

The class spirit was kept up by our freshman cheerleaders who were Kim Brown, Wendy Buck, Debbie Galloway, Christie Hale, Diane Thorwart, Tricia Smith, and Janet Watkins.

Nancy Lonas represented us in the flag corps.

As sophomores, Allan Kennedy and Eddie Taylor were the Y-Teens' Bachelors of Ugliness. Jowayne Yarbrough was the only sophomore majorette and Tricia Smith was the only varsity cheerleader.

Nancy Lonas was elected president, Jowayne Yarbrough, vice-president, Sheryl Wurm, treasurer, and Leigh Shumaker, secretary.

The juniors elected Nancy Lonas, president, Debbie Galloway, vice-president, Leigh Shumaker, secretary, and Mike Higney, treasurer.

In girl's basketball, Mary Slifko was named to the Chattanooga Times second team and Leigh Shumaker received an honorable mention on the News Free Press "AAA" All-Star team.

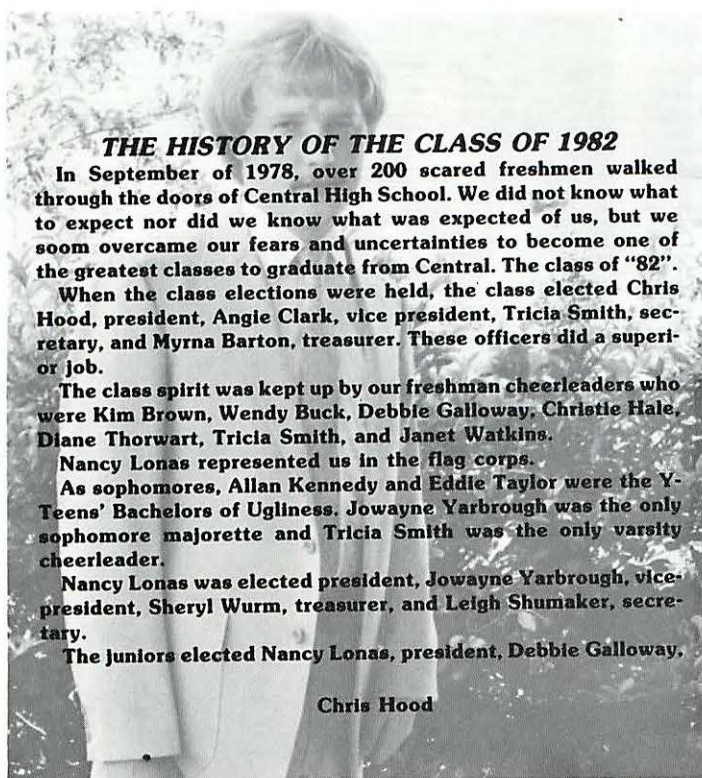

Troy Williams was top finisher in the state wrestling tournament. Juniors Mark Malone, Greg Neely, and Alex Vasquez won first place in the Beta Club Talent Show.

In our last and most memorable year here at Central, we elected four officers to guide us through the year. They were: Nancy Lonas, president, Scott DeFriesse, vice-president, Leigh Shumaker, secretary, and Bret Wood as treasurer. Betty Denton, David Barie, Lynn Bailey, and Tricia Smith were elected as our class marshalls.

The Mr. and Miss Central court consisted of Lynn Bailey and Steve Fraley, Nancy Lonas and Marty McDaniel, Teresa Lundgren and Jeff Smith, Leigh Shumaker and Alex Vasquez, Tricia Smith and Troy Williams.

The Mr. and Miss Central titles went to Steve Fraley and Nancy Lonas.

The valedictorian of the Class of "82" was Myrna Barton and our salutatorian was Angela Pope.

Chris Hood

Mr. Charles Preston, principal, congratulates the senior class and expresses his good wishes for their future.

Senior Day Attendants: Brett Wood and Jeff Vetterick. Jowayne Yarbrough and Sheryl Wurm.

Senior Day Attendants: Chris Hood and Mike Salisbury. Mary Slifco and Jan Williams.

Senior Class Marshalls: Gaye Jeffers, Mryna Barton, Kim Brown and Eddy Denton.

Frills And Thrills

Senior Day was alive with frills and aroused thrills. Dressed in gray tuxedos and pink formals, the attendants were the first revealed to the guests, faculty and students. The classy antebellum background was created by the art department, and the music was conducted by the Central Souther Band. To the audience, those must have been glorious days!

The occasion reached its turning point as each class president or representative extended good wishes to the court, attendants and the '82 class. A reception was given the seniors and program guests. The refreshments were prepared by the Home Ec students.

This would be the moment of glory for the '82 class as the thrills and frills of Senior Day '82 came to a close.

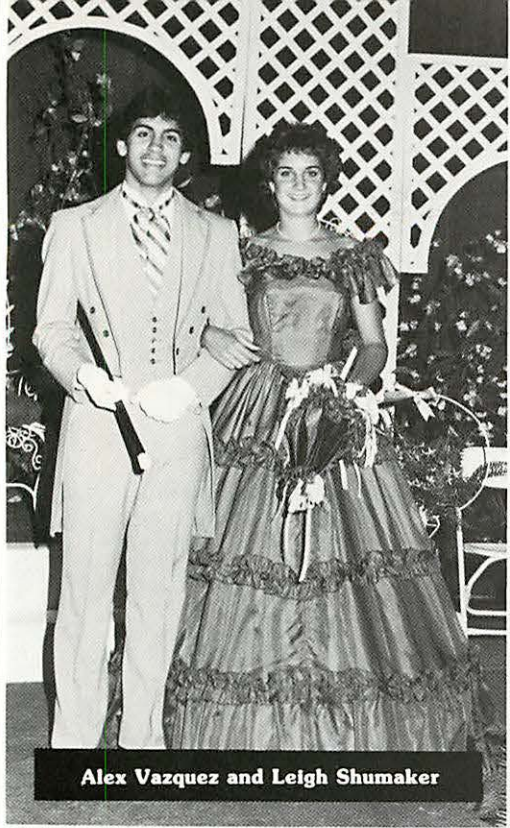

Senior Day Attendants: David Barie and Tod Beckner. Darla Banther and Debbie Galloway.

Senior Day Speakers: Blake Watson, Myron Vazquez, Dottie Mockbee, Chari Cross, Jim Lawrence and Mike Brewer.

Parties must have "eats!" Regina Upchurch takes a sample of each mint at the reception.

Senior Day Attendants: Stan Braley and Scott DeFriesse. Kim Hindman and Angela Pope

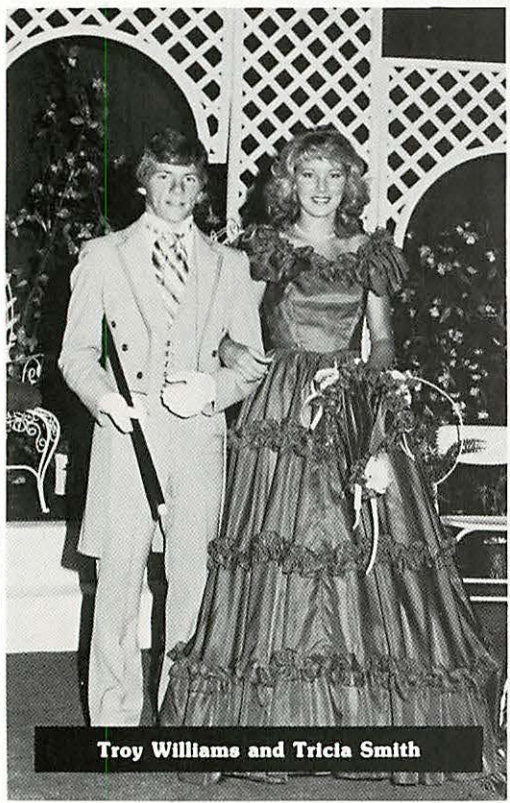

Alex Vazquez and Leigh Shumaker

The party royalty were the Mr. and Miss Central High School. Their crowning was the highlight of Senior Day.

The southern belles on the court were dressed in maroon, the gentlemen, in grey tuxedos. The theme of the program was the days of the Chattanooga Grand Central Train Station. The art department's train, the musical arrangements by the chorus and the band gave the program in the gym much atmosphere.

The speaker for the program was Dedicatory, Mr. James Rogers. Senior Ensemble Chorus member Mark Malone expressed his feelings for his classmates and for all present with the popular song, "Through the Years."

The party royalty would be remembered "through the years."

Standing in the receiving line after the senior day program, Mr. Rogers greets members of the senior class and their guests.

1982 DEDICATORY — Mr. James Rogers

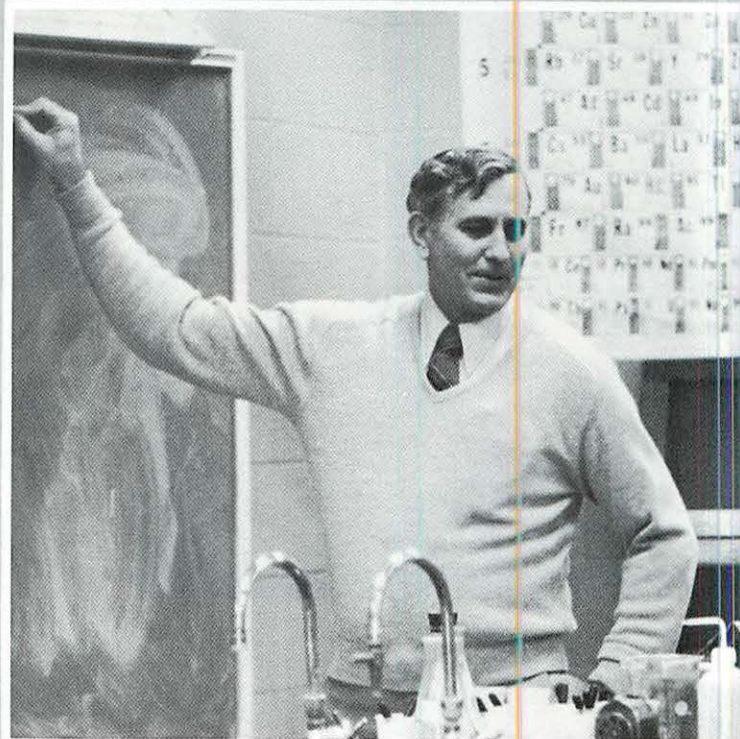

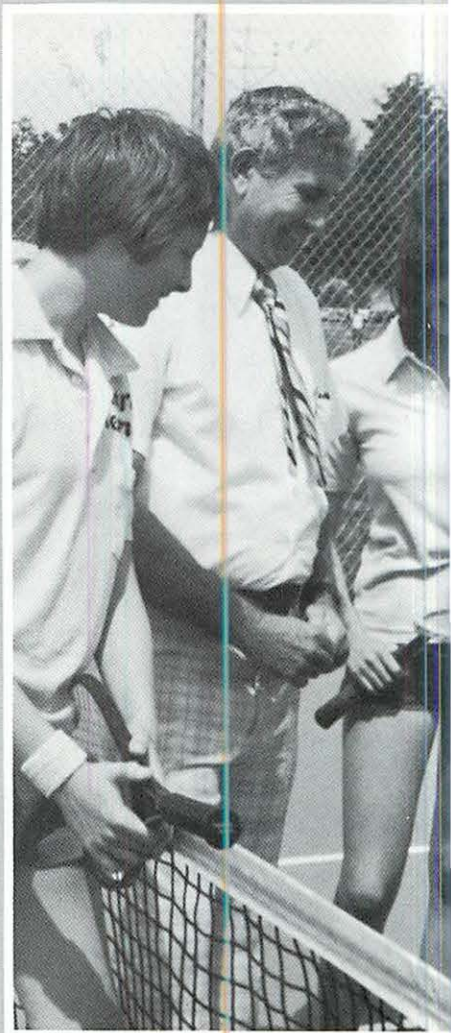

After accepting the honor of dedicatory, Mr. James Rogers shares some memories of his senior year in high school during the start of World War II.

Honored Guest

The honored guest at the 1982 Champion Celebration was Mr. Rogers. The senior class honored him as the 1982 Champion Yearbook Dedicatory. Mr. Rogers, Chairman of the Science Department, said he was very surprised and pleased when Mr. Preston announced that he was the new dedicatory. The only requirement was to be a faculty member for ten years.

Mr. Rogers was admired by the senior class because of his school spirit and popularity with the seniors. He had served Central High School as a faculty member for nineteen years.

Of his nineteen years at Central, being the honored guest had to be one of the highlights of his career.

Muriel and Stephan Dupourque discuss tension in tennis raquets with their tennis coach Mr. Rogers. Past dedicatories congratulate Mr. James Rogers on his recognition. Seated with Mr. Rogers are Mrs. Gloria Grier, Mr. Rogers and Mrs. Darby Smartt. Back Row: Miss Marjorie Ogle, Mr. Sam Stoner, Mrs. Mirvine Okrasinski, Mrs. Patsy Williamson, SGM Robert L. Hall, Mrs. Jeanette Crawley and Mrs. Margaret Hammack. Mr. Rogers enjoys the goodies at his dedicatory luncheon. Instructing his chemistry class on new formulas is one of many duties Mr. Rogers faces every day.

Junior Prom Committee members Lisa Sprayberry, Blake Watson, Mrs. Priscilla George, Gina Moyers and Marian Davis exchange band reviews. Appropriate dress is required for all those attending the prom; shoes are not included evidently as Elizabeth Geraldson, Deanna Hilbert and Michelle Mann unshoe.

Ronnie Lowe, Amy Dean and Rhonda Beasley enjoy the refreshments served by the Read House. The dancing, the good food and the fun are too much for Kevin Bradshaw and Blake Watson — "where are our dates?"

The Best Of Times

The Read House in downtown Chattanooga was again the location of the Junior-Senior Prom.

Prom sponsors were Miss Candace Schooley and Mrs. Priscilla George. Music was presented by the band "Magic." Refreshments were prepared by the Read House staff.

The honored guests were the seniors and their dates.

The theme for the prom was "The Best Of Times." Decorations were provided by the juniors. Junior Elizabeth Geraldson said that this was the best prom ever — "the music was the best in a long time."

It was the "best of times" for all.

While some sang "I'm in love with the other woman" others danced with their number one woman.

Belle Of The Ball

Many events took place before the crowning of the Belle of the Ball. Students were dismissed at 1:30 for the annual junior-senior Powder Puff game. The seniors beat the juniors 6-10. During the half-time show, the Y-Teens crowned their own king for '82, Kevin Dodson.

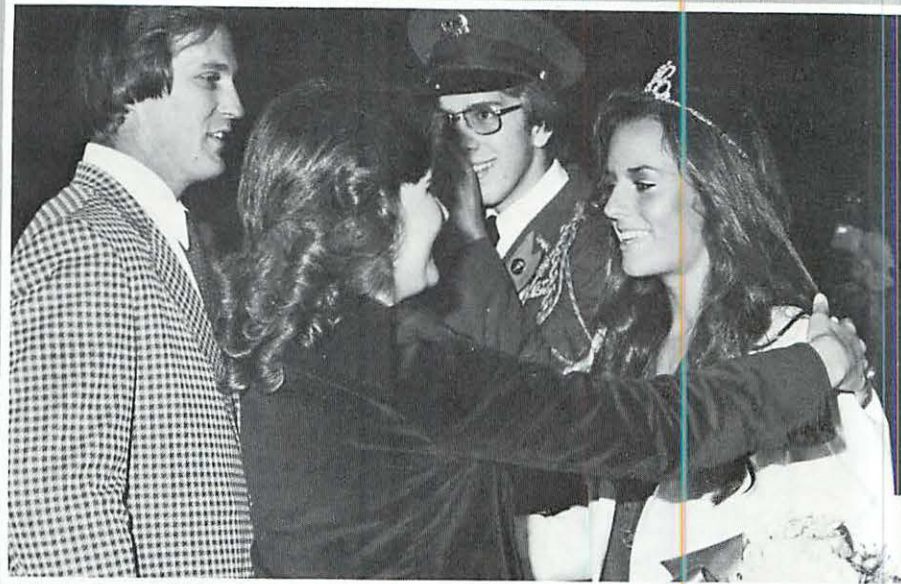

The rainy homecoming night did not dampen the Central spirits as the football team beat Grundy 35-7. Nancy Lonas was crowned the 1982 Homecoming Queen, and the dance was a hit! The band was "Good-Time Oldies"; pictures were taken by Olan Mills. At the dance, everyone became the belle (or beau) of the ball.

The senior class began the year with the election of the party hosts. Many candidates used new and interesting ways of campaigning for class offices. They made small campaign badges and large signs. After all the speeches and promises, the ballots were totalled. After several run-offs, the offices were filled. The results were: Nancy Lonas, president; Scott DeFriese, vice-president; Leigh Shumaker, secretary; and Bret Wood, treasurer. The newly elected officers had many jobs and duties awaiting them. Class marshals were chosen by the senior class to aide the officers with the selling project and with senior activities such as Senior Day, Class Day and Graduation. Elected marshals were: Kim Hindman, Betty Denton, David Barie, Lynn Bailey, Jan Williams, Marty McDaniel, Debbie Crane, Kim Brown and Tricia Smith. With the selection of the party hosts behind them, the senior class was on its way to an exciting and successful school year.

Raiders Of The Lost Party

Who were these "Raiders of the Lost Party?" Chances were, they were the members of the Key Club. Leaders were: President, Mike Salisbury; Vice-President, Eric Lee; Treasurer, Greg LaRue; Secretary, Roger Moon; and Sponsor, Mr. Gary Rundles.

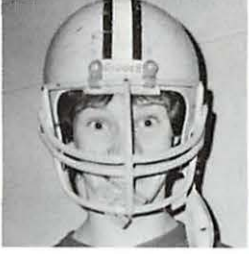

Key Club had many activities such as the sock hop held after the Riverside football game. The many banners hung in locations lost to many imaginations were the work of this club.

At an impersonal interview at a party, Mike Salisbury's response to the question, "How long will the Key Club continue?" was "... what time is it?"

The "lost raiders" were found lurking in the shadows of everyone's party. In closing, this writer has asked that the reader consider whether they were lost or just in the dark continuously.

Sheryl Wurm, Mary Bryan, and Lisa Sprayberry listen to president Tricia Smith's instructions on the banquet.

The Student Council sponsored many festivities throughout the year. Miss Janice Brown, the faculty sponsor, and Tricia Smith, the president of the club, planned the pictures, backdrops and music for the dances and many other festivities. Some of these festivities included: the teachers breakfast, the Mr. Teen Angel contest, the Spirit Links contest and the singing valentines. One of the favorite movies was "The Birds".

The Student Council's festivities throughout the year were certainly fantastic! Paul Bailey, a member of the council, said, "It is really lots of fun to be on the Student Council."

The thought of planning a summer trip to Spain leaves Debbie Crane speechless.

Spanish Club president John Rice reminds member Chuck Lewis about the doughnut sale, to raise money for the spring banquet.

Noise Makers

A party was never complete without noisemakers. Y-Teens sponsored noisy activities such as a sockhop, Mr. Football, Bachelor of Ugliness, Coolest Teacher, decorated lockers, Teacher's Dessert Day, Valentine's Dance and Carnation Sale. For all the activities, Y-Teens was voted Most Spirited Club during the football season. The officers were president, Sheryl Wurm; vice-president, Donna Lowery; secretary, Leigh Shumaker; chaplin, Elizabeth Geraldson; sergent-at-arms, Karen Salisbury; social chairman, Mary Bryan. Sponsor Mrs. Jeanette Crowley said, "I contribute the success of Y-Teens to our officers."

Another contributing factor to the noise level at Central was the Spanish Club. This club had twenty-three members. Officers were president, John Rice; vice-president, Jennifer Duffey; secretary, Sharon Young; treasurer, Shelley Roberts. The sponsor was Miss Candace Schooley. The Spanish Club activities were: a breakfast, doughnut sale, Christmas party and prom flower sale. The president, John Rice, said, "Being in Spanish club gives me a chance to support my school." The Central party was finally completed with two noise makers like Y-Teens and Spanish Club.

Sparklers For Success

Collecting most of the honors at Central was the National Honor Society, sponsored by Mrs. Betty Lee. The NHS officers were Deanna Hilbert, President; Jeff Vetterick, Vice-President; Teresa Lundgren, Secretary; Debbie Johnson, Treasurer; Gaye Jeffers, Chaplain, and Angie Clark, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Seniors inducted on October 22, were: Grant Dobson, Stephen Martin, Jana Jacobs, Tammy Kerley, Jeff Smith, Jan Williams, and Sharon Young. These members were chosen for their scholastic achievements, scholarship, service, leadership and character. A minimum grade point average of 3.5 was required.

The NHS members met once a week to discuss the club's activities such as a Christmas party for the special education students. They also had a candy sale to help pay for the honors' certificate and the honors' stoles for graduation.

NHS sparkled not only for their achievements but for their interest in other groups.

Organizing The Fun

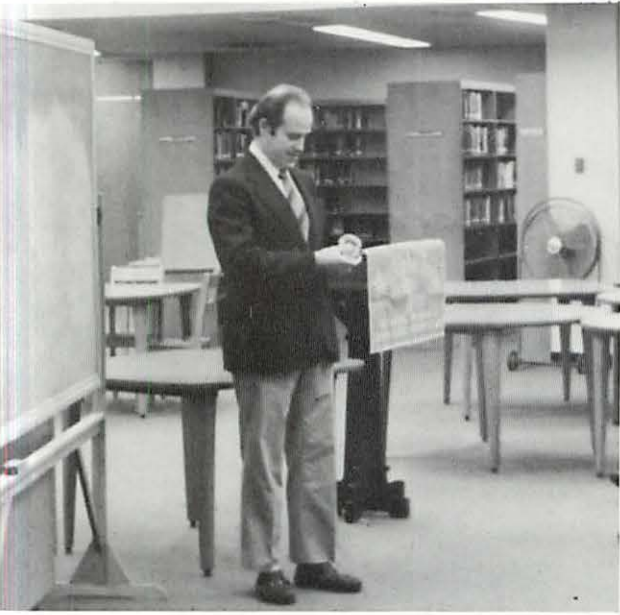

When the French Club officers were not living it up at Felix's French Restaurant, they were organizing the fun. Who were the leaders? Elected officers were: President, Lori Davis; Co-Vice Presidents, Michelle Mann, Stephan Dupourque; Secretary, Kim Biggs; Treasurer, Sharon Bailey. Activities organized were the Road Rally, Christmas parties, Felix's and the progressive dinner. The winners of the Road Rally were Sandy Knight, first place; Ethan Holder, second place; Stephan Dupourque, third place.

The Guidance Staff was responsible for the schedules. The staff's most important task was to counsel about college plans and job referrals. Students found a friend in Mrs. Mirvine Okransinski and Mrs. Betty Smith as well. What looked like work was organized fun for the French Club and Guidance Staff.

Swingers

Swinging through the year were the CCY, FCA, Office Staff, Latin Group and Mu Alpha Theta. The Central Christian Youth, sponsored by Mrs. Debbie Perdue, had a Christmas party, visited children's homes and held car washes, bake and candy sales. The FCA was sponsored by Mr. John Bonner. This group cleaned the campus every Thursday for its school service project. The Office Staff duplicated tests, answered phones and compiled the absentee report. This staff was sponsored by Mrs. Frances Shamblin. Shirley Arendale stated that her office job gave her insight in the school's operation from the principal to the janitor. The Latin Group was sponsored by Miss Janis Johnson. This group held a Roman Banquet which consisted of seven courses. Some math students took their "food for thought" and averaged 3.5 quality points. This average qualified them for the math honor society. The Math Department's faculty selected the honored members. The group was sponsored by Mr. William Walton.

These groups swung back and forth between social and service projects.

Party Starters

The F.H.A. was involved in planning many party activities. To raise money, they set up Computer Dates. They were also involved in activities such as the Carpenters Sub-Region, the State Convention, children's hospital and work sessions after school. They also chose F.H.A. Secret Heroes. The F.H.A. members would treat their Heroes with candy, gifts and cookies.

The club officers were Shirley Arendale, President; Connie Davis, Vice-President; Shelley Smith, Treasurer; Karen Neely, Secretary; Debbie Pickard, Social Chairman; and Tammy Pearson, Community Service.

At the club meetings were speakers for haircare, Christmas crafts, nutrition and drivers' safety. These F.H.A. parties promoted friendships with hardy activities and community speakers.

Although soaked to the skin, the varsity cheerleaders' fun is not dampened at the Homecoming celebration.

The Perfect Ten

The perfect ten were the varsity cheerleaders. These ten girls, led by Tricia Smith, head; and Elizabeth Geraldson, co-head; sparked the athletic programs. Their sponsor was Miss Jean Hopper. During the hot summer, they planned a thirst quenching watermelon cutting for the football team. In season, these girls planned a breakfast for the wrestling and football teams. Aside from these activities, the cheerleaders spent many hours in preparation for the crowds. They devoted their summer to sleepy-eyed early morning practices. They also endured a week of cheerleading camp at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. They won superior ratings.

Every pep rally was a celebration as the pounder spirit reached new highs with its own perfect ten.

Shooting For Glory

The Rifle-Corps dazzled the audience during the half-time activities for the football and basketball games. In every performance their spirits were high. Senior members of the Rifle Corps were Myrna Barton, Kim Goins and Regina McDonald, captain. They competed in the Atlanta Band Festival and were rated excellent for their twirling and dancing routines.

Future Teachers of America challenged students who shared an interest in education to become involved with the teaching staff. The club consisted of sixteen members, and each member had a "secret buddy." Ms. Lane said, "My secret buddy always surprised me at the right time." Senior Craig Coffman thought the group meetings were interesting and he remarked, "I met many new friends this year in the club." Both Rifle Corps and FTA were student-oriented and presented a challenge to their "glory-bound" members.

"Pop" Goes The Sounders

"POP" went the sounders as the twenty-six flag girls flashed the school colors at nine half-time shows.

Regina Upchurch, head flag girl, expressed her views about the auxillary unit: "Considering 3/4 of the girls were new this year, I think we've done extremely well. I'm very proud because we received an excellent rating at the Atlanta Invitational Band Festival."

The Band's largest section was the trumpet section. It had fifteen playing members. They were featured in a Trumpet Line during such haltime songs as, "Tiger of San Pedro" and "Fantasy". Also, the band featured Joey Brimm, Jeff Frye and Keith Hays in a Trumpet Trio. "POP" went the sound of the sounders in an unforgettable 1981-82 Field Show.

Party Horns

The Chattanooga Central Sounders under the direction of Mr. C.M. Chandler consisted of 110 members including one drum major, twenty four flags, nine rifles, and eight majorettes. The band performed at football games, senior day and at various other seasonal concerts. It celebrated as it received exceptionally good ratings at contests.

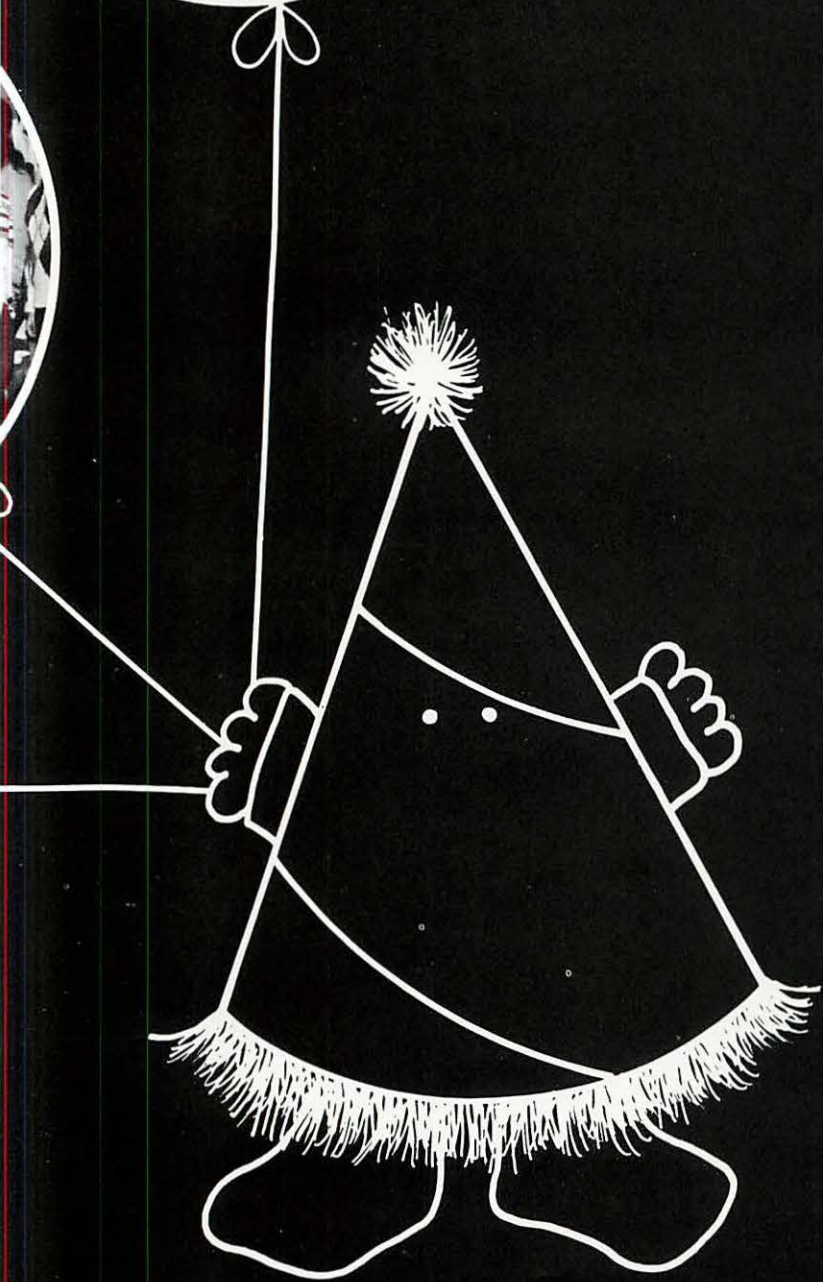

The field show opened with "Chattanooga Choo Choo", the favorite of the crowd. Several other crowd favorites were: "Captain from Castile", "Tiger of San Pedro", and "Fantasy". Band members agreed with Angie Clark that "after much practice for the field show, the feeling from pleasing the audience paid off."

Once again the Central Sound of Chattanooga made a lasting impression on its audience.

Stars And Stripes Forever

Stars and Stripes were always presented by the ROTC units. Special events held during the year were the annual federal inspection and the sponsor presentation.

The Honor Platoon allowed freshmen, sophomore, junior or senior students to serve.

Disc and Diamond sponsored the presentation for officers and the girls.

The Rifle Team had eight members. Senior Scott Harvey was the sharpest shooter with an almost perfect score.

The Drill Team had twenty-nine members and they practiced every day after school for their final presentation in April.

The Color Guard not only carried "stars and stripes" but also presented the Central colors, state flag and ROTC flag.

Stars and Stripes surrounded the ROTC department from their stripes on their shoulders to the flags they carried.

1982 ROTC Sponsors Sheila McBrayer, Leigh Shumaker, Angela Pope and Mary Slifko are presented by their officers at the military presentation.

The Invited Guests

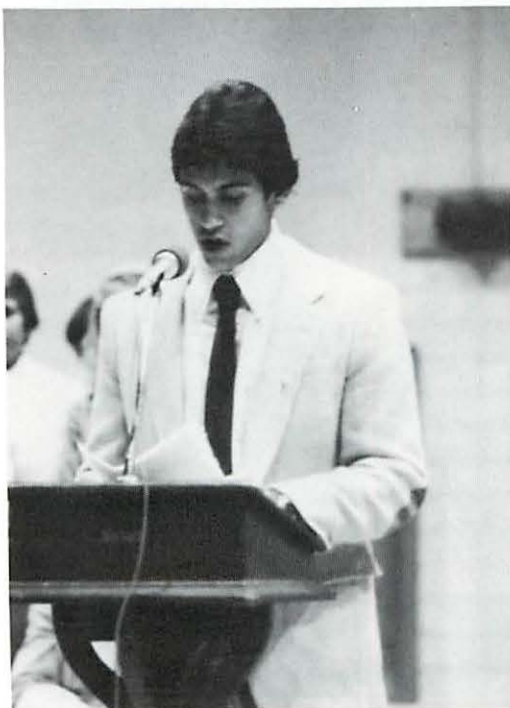

During the celebration, invited guests mingled in the crowds. These guests were members of the Beta Club sponsored by Mrs. Maxine Williams. The officers were: Alex Vazquez, president; Mary Slifko, vice-president; Leigh Shumaker, treasurer; Tricia Smith, secretary; Nancy Lonas, chaplain; and Myrna Barton, sergeant-at-arms.

President Alex Vazquez said that the Beta Club held high the standards of achievement, leadership and character. Membership requirements were: a 3.0 grade average and participation in extracurricular activities. Members were selected by the faculty.

Beta Club had many projects. It sponsored the talent show, played cupid by selling valentine candy, held the Honor's Board and gave two scholarships to two seniors on Senior Day.

These guests were invited by the faculty to share their honors in Beta Club.

A Paint Bucket Of Laughs!

The Art Club started out with a bang. The first meeting, the members elected Debbie Crane and Kim King as co-presidents; John Gilbert, vice-president; Allison Adcock, secretary; Selina Helton, treasurer; and Bret Wood, social chairman. The art scene representative and faculty sponsor was Mrs. Chris Campbell.

The many art club projects included the raffling of a lamp, printing buttons and screen paintings. T-shirts were also a very successful project. The year's successes were paid off with a trip to the World's Fair.

The Art Department's talent was well recognized. Six members were chosen to participate in the Hunter Art Museum's Birthday Party Gala. Those participating were: Craig Coffman, Angela Pope, Karen Dill, Denise Adams and Wendy Hicks.

This club's bucket was full of paint and fun.

The Entertaining Angels

As in previous years, Tri-Hi-Y was filled with thirty little angels. The group's purpose was to set a Christian attitude in their activities which entertained the school.

They participated in making signs for sports, decorating basketball player's lockers and surprising their Secret Brothers with homemade cookies — "what angels!"

Two of their big projects were publishing the "Hello Central" and helping a fellow student cope with personal tragedies through friendship. These angels devoted time and money to their friends in time of any need.

The Tri-Hi-Y officers for the year were: president, Teresa Lundgren; vice-president, Chari Cross; secretary, Gaye Jeffers; and sergeant-at-arms, Sheryl Wurm. The sponsor was Mrs. Dorothy Stone.

"Tri-Hi-Y has been like a second family to me," stated Emily Boyd, one of those little angels.

Balloons

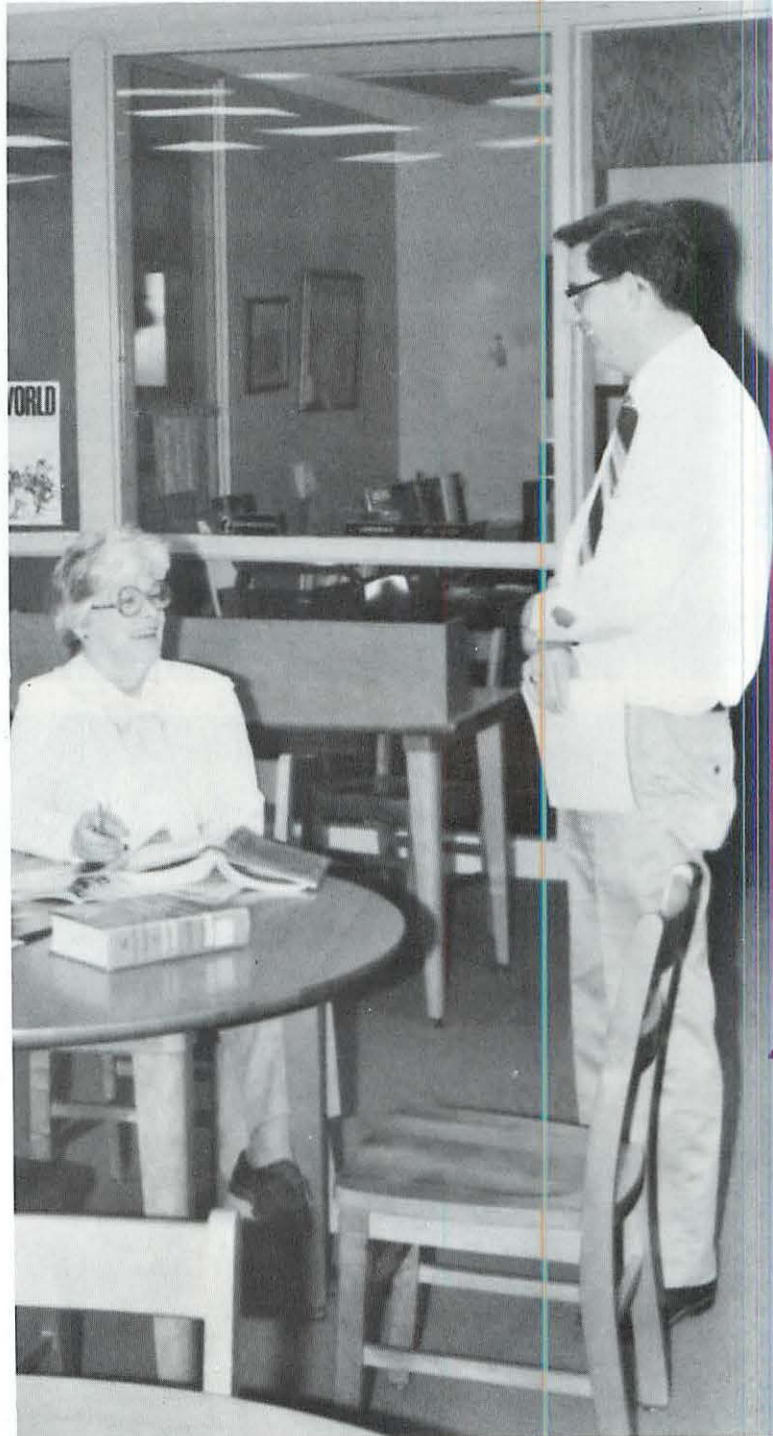

The Digest, Library and Bank Staffs went up like balloons when they started elections of new officers and editors. The Digest appointed: Editor-In-Chief, Teresa Lundgren; Assistant Editor, Blake Watson; Sports Editor, Joanie McCoy; Picture Editor, Charl Cross; Exchange Editor, Justine Jepson; and Mr. John Bonner was the sponsor.

The Bank Staff voted: President, Fin King; Vice-President, Donna Heaton; Secretary and Treasurer, Forrest

McNair; Social Chairman, Scottie Williams; Sergeant-At-Arms Paul Perry; and Mrs. Joy Quinn was the sponsor.

The Library Staff voted: President, Sandy Knight; Vice-President, Rita Edge; Secretary and Treasurer, Amy Southern; Historian, Kim Hill; and Mrs. Pansy Allison was the sponsor.

The cheerleaders were: Tonya Johnson — Head, Tuesday Reese — Co-Head, Wendy Brown, Andrea Harris, Viki Miller and Deonne Henley. They prepared for their season at the UCA cheerleading camp and were awarded three blue ribbons, two red ribbons, one white ribbon and two spirit sticks. Head Cheerleader Tonya Johnson stated, "It has been great to represent our school."

The Future Business Leaders of America was sponsored by Mrs. Virginia Summerour. The officers were: President Sandy Knight; Secretary, Gaye Jeffers; Treasurer, Shelle Roberts; Co-Historians, Tim Lewis and John Rice; Co-Chairlains, Sheila McBrayer and Jim Lawrence. Some of their activities were the teacher activity calendar, holiday parties and a banquet. The Tom Watt sale raised funds for their club's expenses. Party Hearty Harrison Bay Vocational Center had a hearty party with county students. The staff center trained some Centralites for jobs in areas such as auto mechanics, health and office education. Everett Cox was the manager of this hearty group in the second semester. Mr. Pat Roberts managed the group earlier. Harrison Bay also catered to the vocational needs of Ooltewah High School.

Central students had the choice of going to the morning or the afternoon sessions at the center. The vocational center also had clubs for the students such as Future Farmers of America, Tennessee Office Educational Club and Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. Students also had a job placement service and a well-trained faculty to help them in their work. Harrison Bay Vocational Center gave many Central students a chance to have a hearty party in the field of their choice.

The Champion Staff members were raiders of everyone's party. They held a sock-hop for those who bought a yearbook; a total of 501 yearbooks were sold. The staff also held a dedicatory party for Mr. James Rogers. The chief of the editors was Muriel Dupourqué, assisted by Myrna Barton. Their staff was: Leigh Shumaker, Sports; Tricia Smith, Art; Sheryl Wurm, Promotions; Diane Jones, Organizations; Gaye Jeffers, Seniors; Sheila Newby, Underclassmen; Lori Davis, Faculty; Fin King, Business; and Tod Beckner, Paul Horten, Phillip Davis and Scott DeFriese, Photographers.

Fire Works

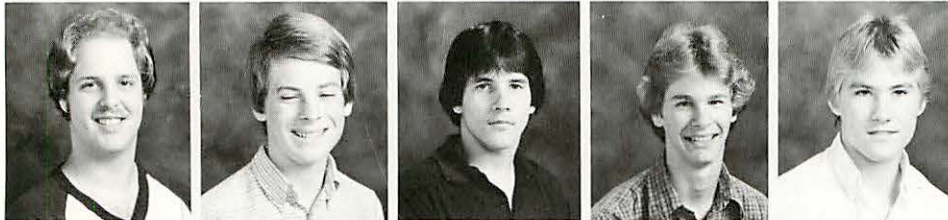

When the 2:35 bell rang, juniors separated like fireworks. They rushed to take advantage of the remaining hours of the afternoon. Heavy homework assignments or part-time employment kept some busy, but many took time to enjoy various activities and to relax. Several practiced for varsity sports; while, those who belonged to service clubs could be found decorating lockers or painting signs for athletics. Art club vice-president John Gilbert said, "Being an official takes a lot of my time, but it's worth it."

No matter how juniors spent their time, they found the afternoon hours a welcome change from the morning. Their morning accomplishments were soon forgotten and the excitement of the afternoon passed too quickly — just like fireworks.

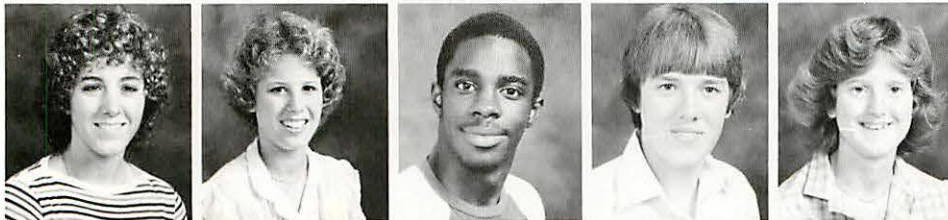

Many kinds of trophies have been won and lost around the display case. Here, John Gilbert and Neal Spurling try-out for the academics' trophies in English and journalism, and Charlene Essary looks for love.

Fire Away

The golf team fired away this year by capturing the District Tournament and City Championship. Captain Brent Henley won the City Prep and placed First in the District. Henley advanced to the Region Tournament and tied for second place. The golf team ended with a remarkable record of 10-0-1.

The softball team ended their season with a 15-10 mark behind the pitching of Freshmen Gina Brooks and Melanie Tipton. After being seeded first in District 6-AA, the Lady Pounders placed second in the District Tournament and second in the Region. The captains for the 1982 season were Donna Lowery and Leigh Shumaker. Senior Lisa Burns commented about the season, "I'm disappointed we didn't go to the state, but I think we had a great year anyway."

Senior Co-Captain Jamie Roy fields the ball and makes the play at first to give Notre Dame their second out.

As Ooltewah's catcher awaits the throw, Dana Pierce slides in home to put Central up by two.

Third baseman Barry Parham, fires the ball to first to give Central the winning out against Ooltewah.

Solo freshman David Owen releases the pitch to give Riverside another strike.

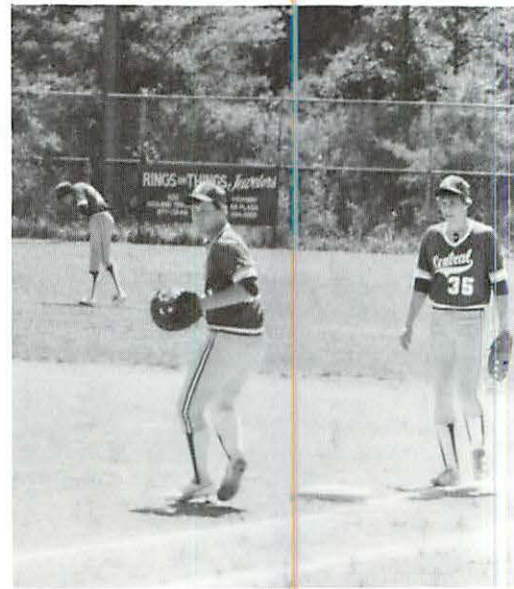

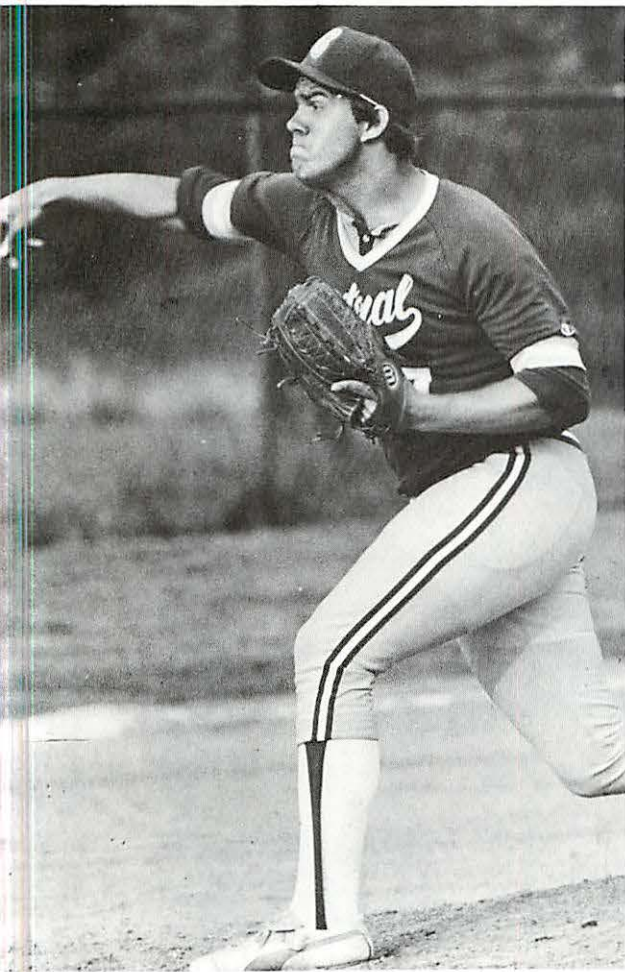

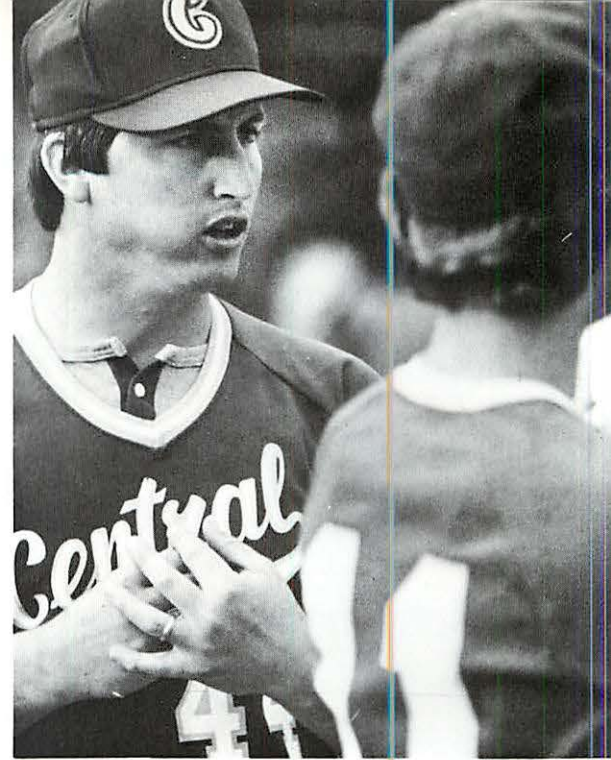

J.C. Hogan, Larry Mowery, and Barry Parham take time out because of the first place position in the district.

Celebration

The Central Pounders celebrated a remarkable season with an overall record of 25-10, a record that gave Coach Rundles his best season in his coaching career.

The Pounders returned from Alabama with the first place trophy of the Ophelia Tournament. They also were seeded first in District 6 AA and by pulling out an exciting ten inning game against Soddy Daisy, they were named District Champs. In the Region Tournament, Central eliminated Cleveland but were defeated by Lenior City to receive second place in Region 3-AA. Larry Mowery, Greg Holder, and Marty McDaniel were selected to the News Free Press All Star Team. Coach Rundles was elected "Coach of the Year" and Marty McDaniel, MVP for the All-Star Team.

Coach Rundles stated "Our success is because they worked together as a team. I'm very pleased with them and feel that they worked hard enough and deserve everything that they have achieved."

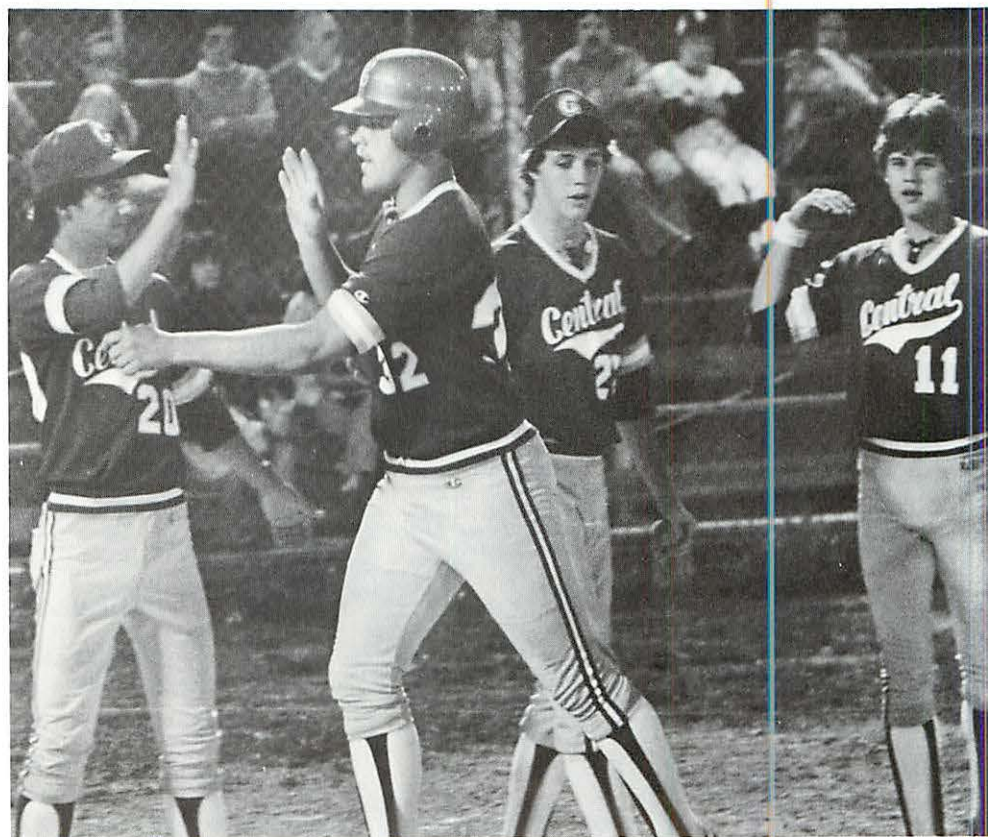

Class 3-AA "Coach of the Year", Gary Rundles explains his strategy to the infielders.

During pregame warm-ups, first basemen Greg Holder and Jeff Smith alternate receiving the throw.

Greg Holder receives high fives from his teammates as he crosses home with another home-run under his belt.

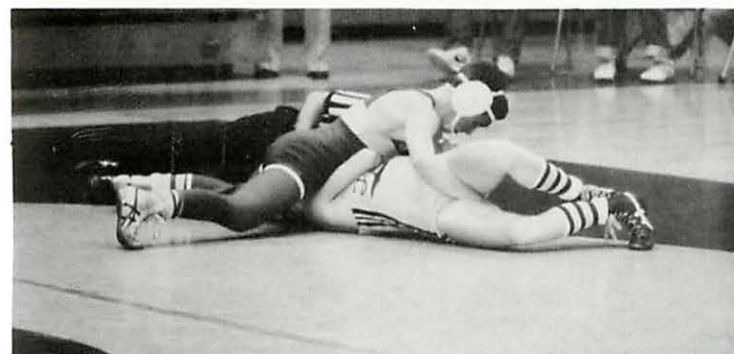

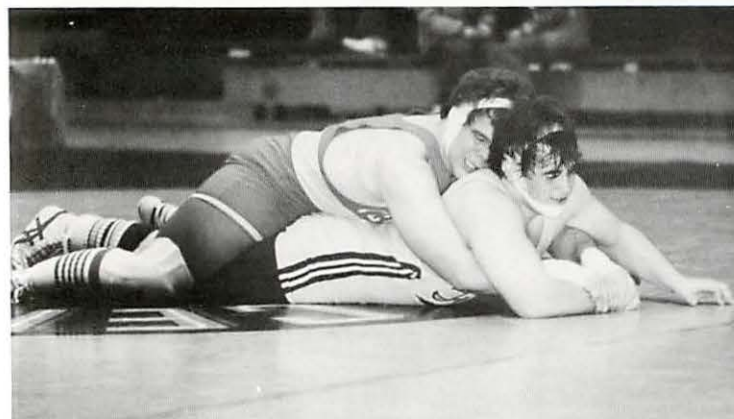

The Central wrestlers got the beat as they started the season at second place in the Carter Invitational Tournament in Knoxville. They won their first match against Soddy-Daisy 33-28. They ended the season with a record of 3-6.

Bo Benton and Troy Williams were selected for the AA-All Star Team and the All-City Wrestling Team. Bo Benton, Gene McGee and Troy Williams qualified for the AA-State Wrestling Tournament Team.

The wrestlers got the beat early in their season but failed to keep up with their record wins.

Gene McGee works on an arm-bar hold and beats his man 10-2. The team does win the match against Tyner.

The arm-bar hold was again a winner for David Champion as he beats his man 7-5, in the heavyweight class.

Randall Norris has a chicken wing hold on his opponent but loses 6-4, to his man from Tyner.

We Got The Beat

The volleyball team kept the beat with a 13-13 record. The six starters were: Lisa Burns, Donna Lowery, Leigh Shumaker, Chari Cross, Emily Boyd and Tina Brown. They had most of the playing time in the winning games and the losing games. The team had two players selected to the A-AA All-District Team: Leigh Shumaker and Chari Cross.

As the girls take a break in the action, Coach Patty Lane gives defensive instructions to beat Red Bank 15-3, the loss 15-12 and then take the match 15-7.

A Surprise Party

The Purple Pounders started their season with two surprising wins over Grundy County, 55-47 and Hixson, 61-55. Eddie Taylor and Vincent McKenzie were the only two returning starters.

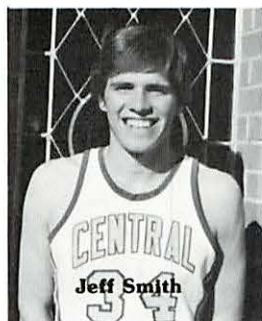

During the Christmas break, the Pounders played in the McCallie Tournament and placed second. Even though the team ended the season with more losses, there were honors. Eddie Taylor was honored by the News-Free-Press as Player of the Week. He also made the All-City Team. Vincent McKenzie received an Honorable Mention.

The Pounder's overall record was 11-17.

Pounder Celebration

The football team started slow with two losses but then came back strong to end up with an even 5-5 season.

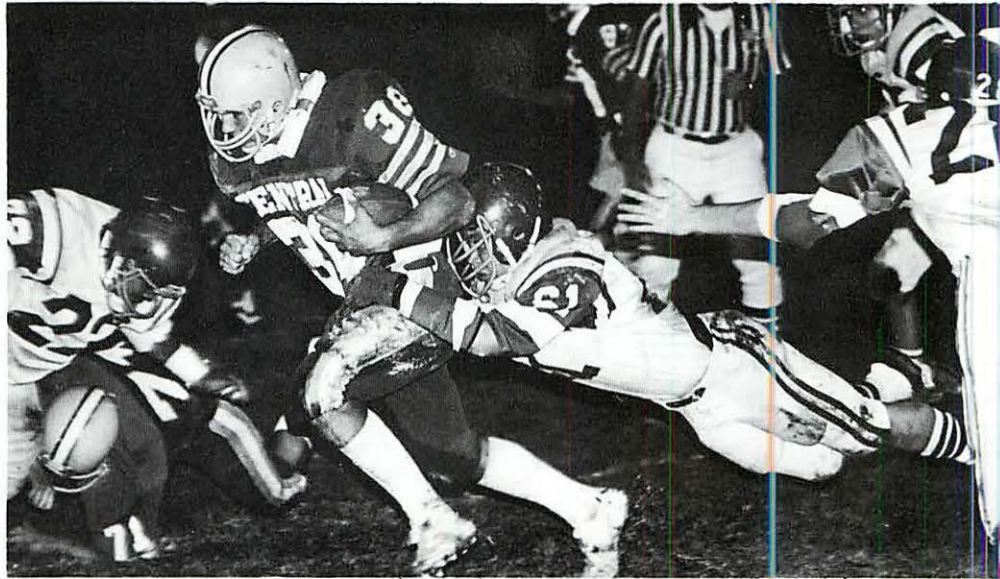

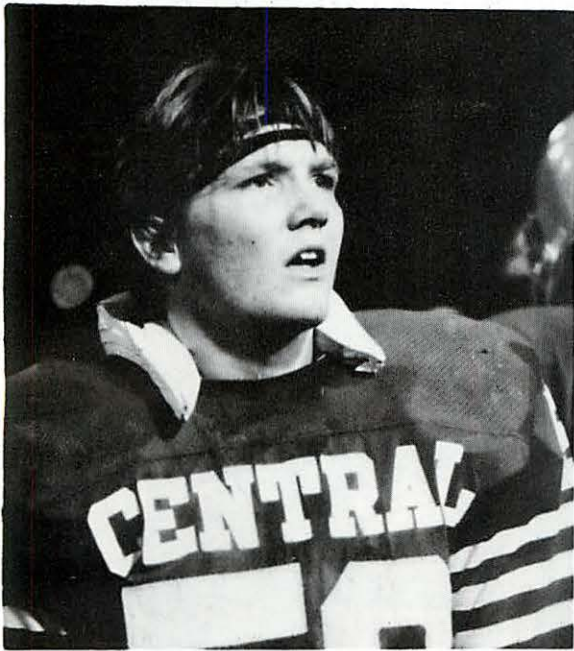

Coach Collier commented, "I was not satisfied with the 5-5 season although it was better than last year. I was really pleased with the effort the team gave the last part of the season, and I feel the seniors laid a good foundation to build a good program."

The team suffered an overtime loss against Ooltewah but came back the next week and defeated Kirkman. Junior standout Tom Cole rushed for 261 yards, 44 carries, and was named the Associated Press AA TN Player of the Week. Tom ended the season with 1,162 yards.

Senior running back Kevin Dodson stated, "If we had the confidence all year long like we did at the end of the season, we would have done a lot better. The two overtime losses really hurt our morale."

Although starting slow, the football team ended up with a respectable 5-5 season.

Party Tonight

The "party tonight" began with the chorus concerts. The Jazz Ensemble consisted of nineteen members chosen from the Varsity Chorus. These songsters travelled to the Ruritan Club and the Chattanooga Choo Choo. They also visited neighboring schools. The Ensemble sang at the Christmas concert and spring concert and performed at the All City-County Chorus Program. The Ensemble competed in the State Solo-Ensemble Festival and members of the Ensemble auditioned for the All-State Chorus.

The Freshmen Chorus consisted of thirty-eight members. They attended the East Tennessee Festival Clinic; and Carmen Truitt, Powell Reich and Brenda Buck were selected by audition to sing in the Junior High All-East Chorus.

Mrs. Judy Reich, sponsor, stated that the chorus enrollment had doubled. She said, "Central's choral groups are the best organizations in this school."

These groups always partied when they sang their songs.

Tony and Maria, played by Steve Fraley and Tammy Cobb, sing about their future in West Side Story, performed at Harrison Elementary School.

Sing A Happy Song

The Varsity Chorus sang Happy Songs such as "Body Electric" during Central's celebration. With thirty-five new members the Varsity Chorus participated in the Christmas Concert, concert trips to Atlanta and Northgate Mall. Varsity Chorus along with the other two choirs sold cheese to raise money for the musical "West Side Story." Chorus actors and actresses were: Stephen Fraley, Tony; Tammy Cobb, Maria; Jamie Bishop, Zelma; and Kerry Jordan, Consuela. The chorus concluded their year in celebration with Happy Songs from this musical such as: "Maria" and "Officer Krupke."

The chorus' Happy Songs gave them much recognition. Members chosen for All-East were: Becky Bentley, Tammy Cobb, Michelle Holder, Debbie Galloway, Marc Malone, Mark Lemon, Jeff Parker and Greg Neely. Members chosen for All-State were: Tammy Cobb, Michelle Holder, Marc Malone, Mark Lemon and Jeff Parker. For all their awards and recognition the chorus sang Happy Songs.

Paul Horton, Noland Sharp and Trey Chase, all first lieutenants, show their "rank" from the years of ROTC training.

Sheila McBrayer, candidate for Military Queen, awaits the judges' final review at the Military Ball presented at the First Tennessee Bank property.

Willie Truett, Yvette Banford, Yoland Winston, Carmen Truett, Henry Williams, Vincent Moon and guests enjoy the occasion to show their "macho" at the ROTC's formal military ball.

Woodey Achey, David Adams, Shannon Young and Jeff Dixon enjoy the parade of queen candidates as much as the judges.

Fired-Up

The class of '83 was fired-up with the magazine and record sale. Although the juniors lost the sale to the seniors, many won prizes. A Sherlock Bones animal was given to students who sold any number of magazine subscriptions. Students selling at least one subscription were eligible for the stuffed animals, Rubik's cube and music certificates. Winners were: Sally King, Ethan Holder, Cheryl Lee and Mary Bryan.

Losing did not dampen the junior spirit. The prizes and the planning of the prom fired-up the juniors.

Fire Works

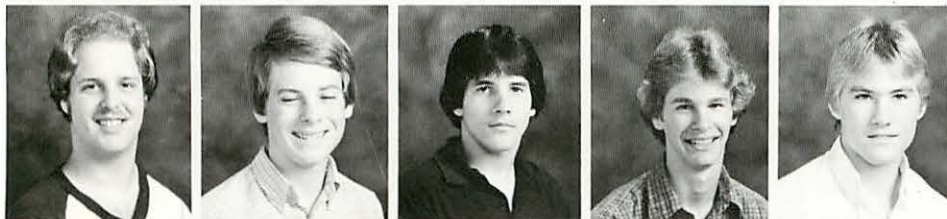

When the 2:35 bell rang, juniors separated like fireworks. They rushed to take advantage of the remaining hours of the afternoon. Heavy homework assignments or part-time employment kept some busy, but many took time to enjoy various activities and to relax. Several practiced for varsity sports; while, those who belonged to service clubs could be found decorating lockers or painting signs for athletics. Art club vice-president John Gilbert said, "Being an official takes a lot of my time, but it's worth it."

No matter how juniors spent their time, they found the afternoon hours a welcome change from the morning. Their morning accomplishments were soon forgotten and the excitement of the afternoon passed too quickly — just like fireworks.

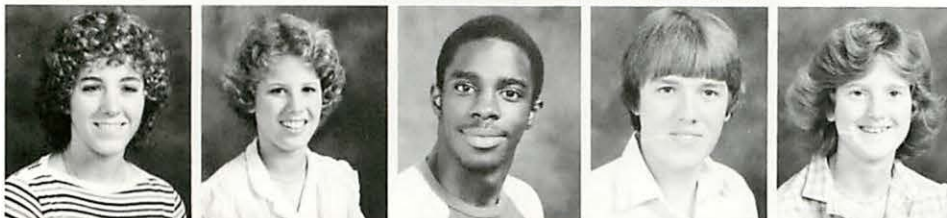

Many kinds of trophies have been won and lost around the display case. Here, John Gilbert and Neal Spurling try-out for the academics' trophies in English and Journalism, and Charlene Essary looks for love.

Party Crashers

A-pod crashed into the celebration with tests, mops, guidelines and menus.

The cafeteria staff was directed by Mrs. Betty Oliver and her staff served food prepared at J.B. Brown. Students practiced crash dieting except on Mondays. This was "pizza" day.

The guidance counselors issued Proficiency Tests and California Achievement Tests in addition to their scheduling duties. Mrs. Mirvine Okrasinski and Mrs. Betty Smith felt that business and engineering were the most pursued careers of the seniors.

Mrs. Pansy Allison kept the party moving with books. She said that her interest in Dutch hex signs developed from books available in the library.

Mrs. Allison orders the newest books in print and tries to replace all books lost by students.

MRS. PANSY ALLISON; Librarian; B.A., Western Kentucky State University.

MRS. REBA BURTON; Library and Guidance Clerk.

MR. FRANK COFER; Assistant Principal; B.S., University of Chattanooga; M.A., George Peabody College.

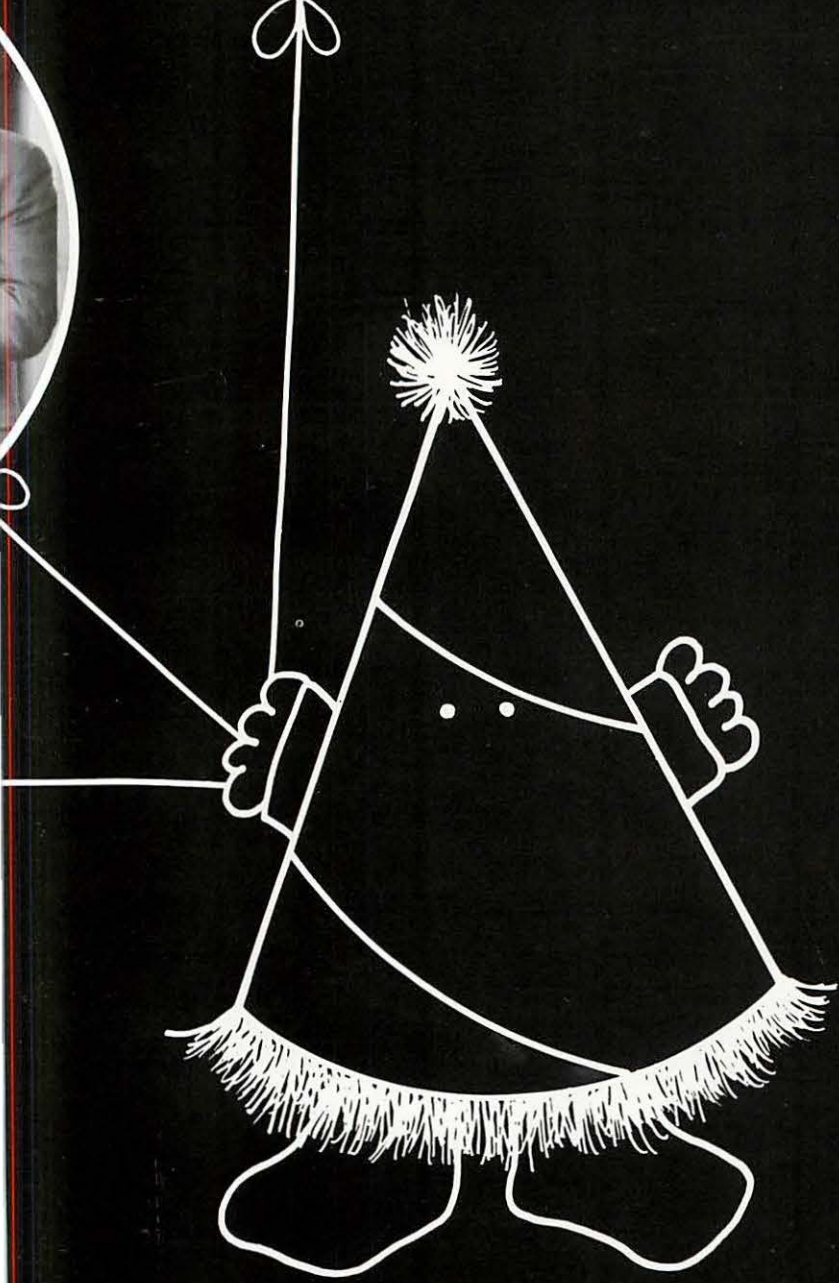

MRS. HELEN HUMPHREYS; Guidance Clerk. Transferred to Harrison Elementary.

MR. JOHN J. JOLLIFFE; Assistant Principal; B.S., Carson Newman College; M.A., George Peabody College.

MRS. MIRVINE OKRASINSKI; Guidance Counselor; A.B., Meredith College; M.S., Simmons University.

CHAPTERONES

Coach Pat Woolsey shows his interest for his four-legged sports buddy at the first Donkey Basketball Game with the Brown Middle School faculty.

Mr. Frank Cofer, assistant principal, checks tardy notes and hall passes from those sneaking a second lunch period.

Mr. John Jollife, school disciplinarian, and Mr. Charles Preston, principal enjoy this administrative duty, distributing money to the faculty.

This is the one day that every one is happy.

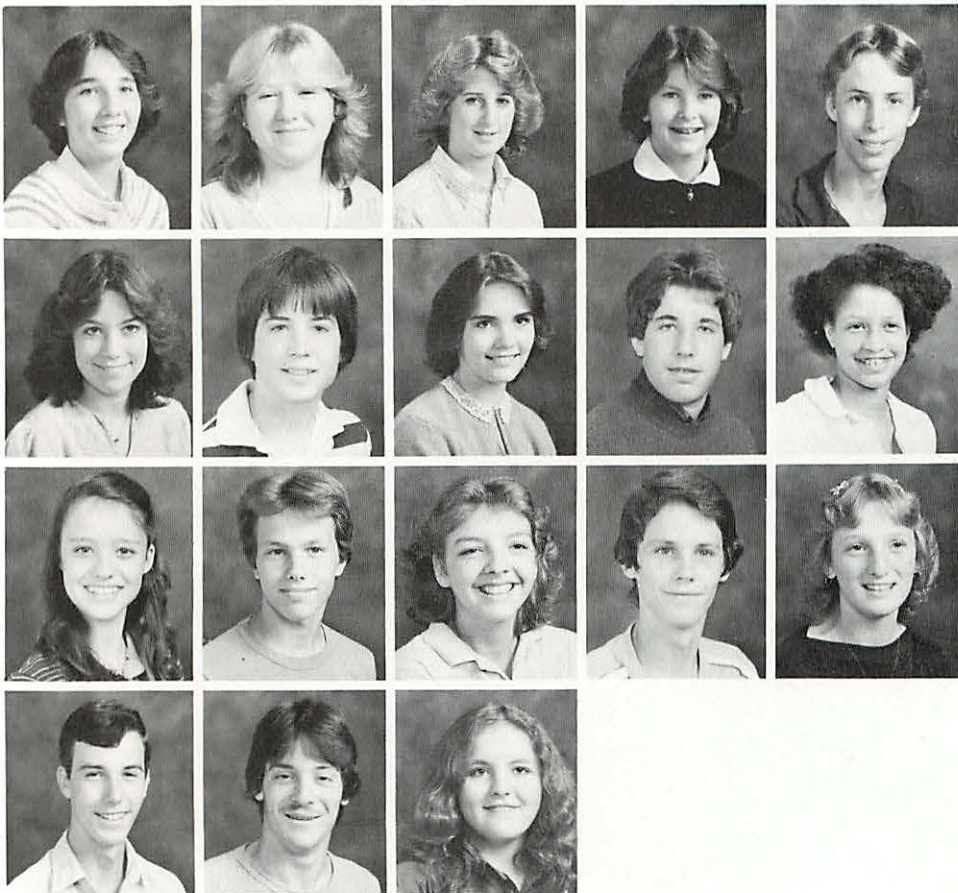

Mrs. Priscilla George reviews the fundamentals of grammar usage to the third period. Clauses are mind-bogglers to the English students.

Party — Hardy

The freshmen knew it was going to be a hard first year. They had heard all the rumors about getting pushed around by upperclassmen. "But not this class!" Myron Vasquez exclaimed. The class of '85 was alive at all the pep rallies and sports events. Freshman Robbie Croxall expressed his feelings as he said, "I was really scared when I first came to Central, but taking advice from my big brother I seemed to fit in with the older girls." All the freshmen knew that the year was somewhat of a party but realized that hard work was in store for them.

Sparklers

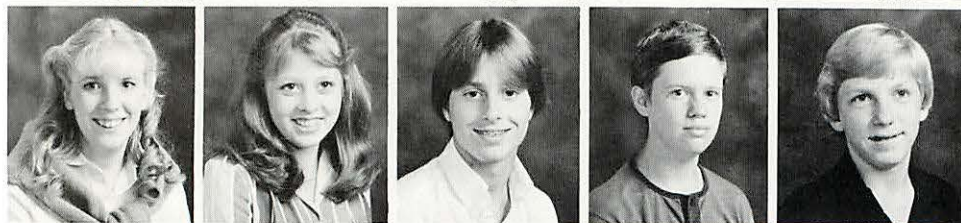

The freshmen basketball team sparkled at the top with their record of four wins out of six games. Craig Curtis was considered number one! Teammates were: Joe Nabors, Joey Fenstamaker, Steve Smith, Joel McDaniel, Greg Saxton, Craig Curtis, Kevin Fairchild, David Owens, Robbie Croxall and Kelly Goza. Coach Bill Nelms led the drills during practice. Scott Monroe felt that the team had a good year and hoped for a greater team next year. The freshmen team was a stand-out the entire season. Maybe these sparklers would be tomorrow's torches.

Denise Hatch blocks her Signal Mountain opponent to secure the win. Playing Signal Mountain twice, Central wins 46-37 and 34-30.

Baby Bottle Rockets

The freshmen shot off like baby bottle rockets as they entered Central. The first major activity of the year was the election of class officers. Each candidate was required to give his name, state which office he was running for, and tell why he thought he could serve the class well. After each candidate presented his speech, class members were asked to vote by secret ballot. After the votes were counted, the new freshmen officers selected were: Myron Vazquez, president; Gina Brooks, vice-president; Denise Knolls said, "I like to help my fellow classmates anyway I can and that is why I ran for secretary." Robbie Croxall was treasurer, and serving as rockette sponsors for the Class of '85 were Mr. James Rogers and Mrs. Dorothy Stone.

The Party Began

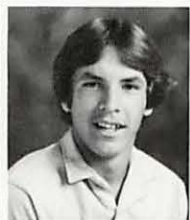

As freshmen, the party had just begun. After the first major task of the election of officers, the freshmen were determined to be the most spirited class. They were chosen "Most Spirited Class" during the Spirit Week celebration for Homecoming '82. Their signs, class yell and enthusiasm showed the upperclassmen that the freshmen were celebrating. Led by the freshmen cheerleaders, these students were heard shouting: "Pounders, Pounders, we're alive, we're the class of '85."

One new experience for the freshmen is the "first pep rally." The freshmen cheerleaders cheer for the Pounders to conquer Lenior City and show their spirit stick for "Most Spirited Class."

Party Go

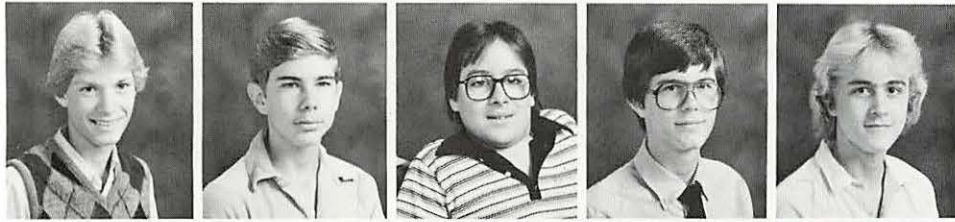

Pounders, Pounders, We've got more. We're the class of '84. The sophomore class was the party goers because of their participation in school activities such as varsity sports, cheerleading, chorus, social clubs, staffs, service clubs and pep rallies. The class of '84 had a lot of spirit. They received the award "The Most Spirited Class". The sophomores also participated in spirit week sponsored by the varsity cheerleaders and "Hat and Sunglasses Day" sponsored by Y-Teens. The class of '84 was always eager to try something new and be a part of anyone's party!

Sophs Excite More

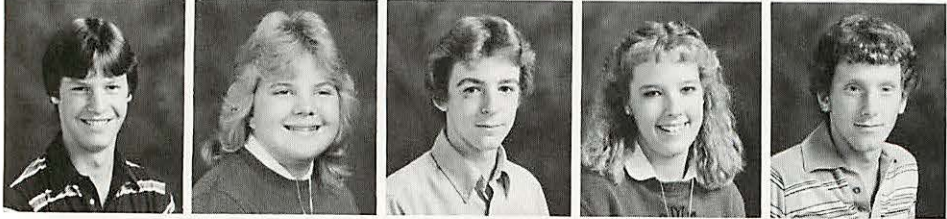

The Class of 84' really celebrated. One peak of their excitement was winning second place in the spirit links, a contest held by student council for spirit week. The varsity cheerleaders also awarded them most spirited class. Varsity sports also excited the sophomores. There were eight sophomores on the girls' basketball team and two sophomore cheerleaders. The wrestling team was honored with Gene McGee. The super sizzling sophomores not only excited the athletic department but other clubs and organizations as well. They had been dedicated in club work and in school events. The Class of 84' definitely excited more.

The Party Spirit

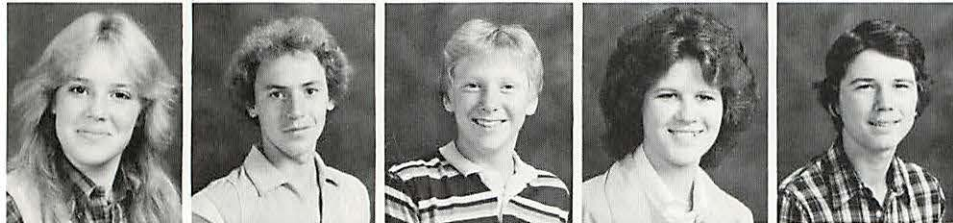

The party spirit began when the sophomores returned to school. The return in September signaled forms for new classes and teachers. Friendships were renewed with old friends and teachers. As the year moved forward, the class settled into its schedule. Some of the sophomores' favorite courses were: health, French, algebra and physical education. The sophomores elected their class officers: president, Dottie Mockbee; vice-president, Bobby Bishop; secretary, Karen Fann; and treasurer, Mitzi Brown. These officers were the spirit of the sophomore class.

March To The Sound Of Music

Juniors in the "Old Guard" Platoon did not need music for their marching. They performed in the sponsor presentation. Junior members were: Trey Chase, Gene Humphreys, Virgil Howard, Vincent Moon, Noland Sharp, Melissa Hall, Karl Sodergren, Robert Anderson, Danny Slabaugh, Stephane Dupourque, Randy Newman, Forrest McNair, Steve Belcher, Bubba Luttrell, Kevin Wright and Wes Carter. The platoon leader was junior Greg Williams.

These juniors won a trophy in the First Annual Field Day held at Chickamauga Lake. Other schools participating in the games were Ooltewah, Soddy-Daisy, and East Ridge.

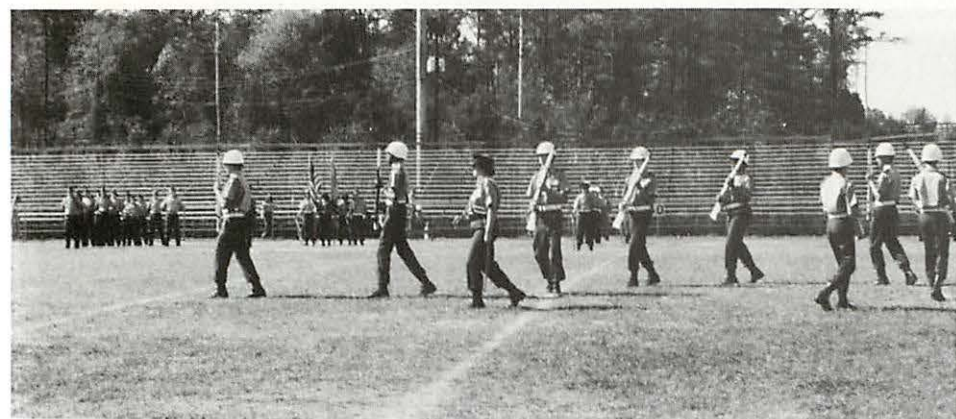

Marching to the sound of music would have been great, but marching with style with the "Old Guard" was greater.

Freshmen Melanie Tipton, Terry Lowery, Lynn Jordan, Kim Planchard and Deanne Wright work on their tumbling routine in gym class.

Mike Brewer was undisturbed in Mrs. D. Stone's American Studies class. Saturday mornings were spent reading the paper and drinking coffee — not at school, make-up snow days or not. Karl Sodergren and Candy Highsmith take a break from semester exams. Karl shares his secret for studying — "it only takes this much time for an exam!"

ROTC members proudly march across the field during their many presentations.

Thank you

The Party's Over

The party was officially over on graduation night when the seniors became Central alumni and the juniors became seniors — unofficially. The party had been a success with all the special moments which would stay forever in the celebrators' minds. Johnny Baker would always remember this year as he signed a football grant with UTC. For Stan Braley, this was his year of leadership in the ROTC department. Greg LaRue would always remember this year as he was struck by lightning! For Eddie Taylor, it was his best year as a basketball player. Leigh Shumaker would always cherish the moment she was named the "1982 Miss Jack" at the Donkey Basketball Game. For Myrna Barton, it was the year she was named Valedictorian. Steve Fraley and Shirley Arendale would not forget their short marriage but a happy one promoted by the Home Economics Department. For Mike Salisbury and Jeff Smith, it was the year they both excelled in sports and scholastics.

All in all, it was a year and a party not soon forgotten. The party was over but the memories would continue forever.

As the party comes to a close, the celebrators go home. "Thanks for the memories."

CENTRAL HIGH ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

TO THE GRADUATES OF THE CLASS OF 1982

The officers of the Central High School Alumni Association are happy to extend greetings to the graduates of the Class of 1982. They are aware of your attainments and your ambitions. They wish for you success in proportion to your ability, ambition, and application. These are crucial days and we urge you to continue your progress in education by attending the college of your choice.

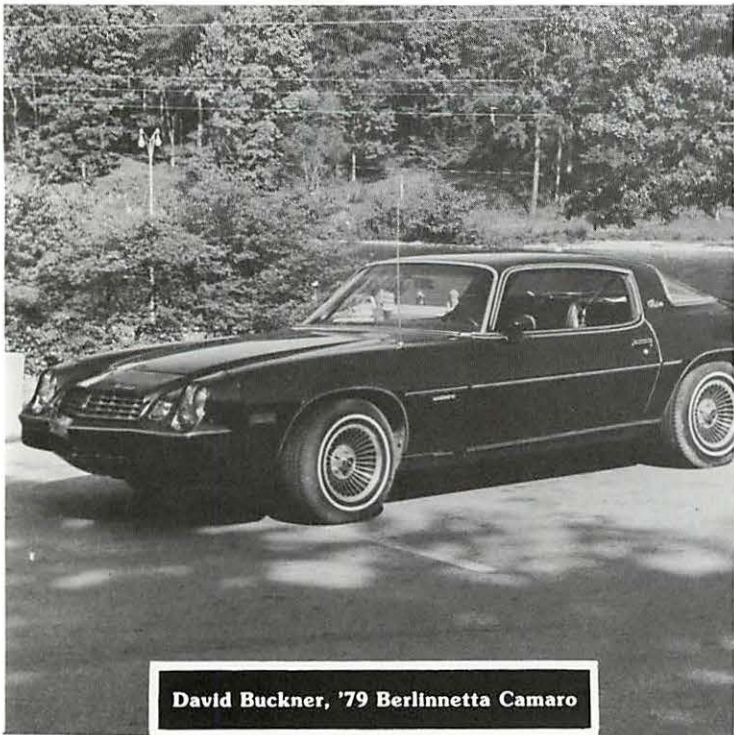

The Alumni Association seeks to serve Central High School. Our projects are too many to list here. We constantly are looking for ways to improve our school. In order to serve the maximum, we need each graduate to join our association. When you are in a position to assist us, we ask you to join in this cooperative movement for the assistance of our school.

We wish for you the best in the future and we ask you to, at all times, elevate the name of our school, community, and nation.

The Social Studies teachers were Mrs. Dorothy Stone and Mr. Sam Stoner. Mrs. Stone was the Tri-Hi-Y sponsor and celebrated with the winners of Girls' and Boys' State. Mr. Sam Stoner was the chairman of Social Studies and sponsored the Tennessee Tomorrow at Central. Mrs. Debra Perdue was the CCY sponsor and taught Bible History in C-Pod. Mr. Ralph Hixson also taught in this pod. He taught Sociology and history. This was Mr. Hixson's first year.

After the planning and the activities in their classrooms, one can understand why these teachers were "all partied out!"

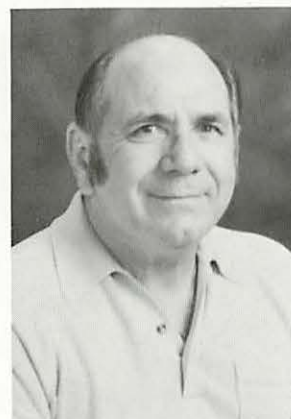

MRS. DEBBIE PERDUE; Bible History; B. A., TN Temple University.

MR. JAMES ROGERS; Science Departmental Chairman, Physical Science, Physics, Chemistry; B. S., TN Tech University; MEd, University of Florida.

MRS. DOROTHY STONE; Psychology, American History, American Studies; B. S., TN Tech University.

MR. SAM T. STONER; Social Studies Departmental Chairman; American Government, American History; B. S., Peabody College; M. A., MTSU.

MR. HARRY H. SUMMERS; General Science, Civics; B. S., UTC.

MRS. PATRICIA WILLIAMSON; Home Economics Departmental Chairman, Home Ec I, IV, Independent Living; B. S., UTK.

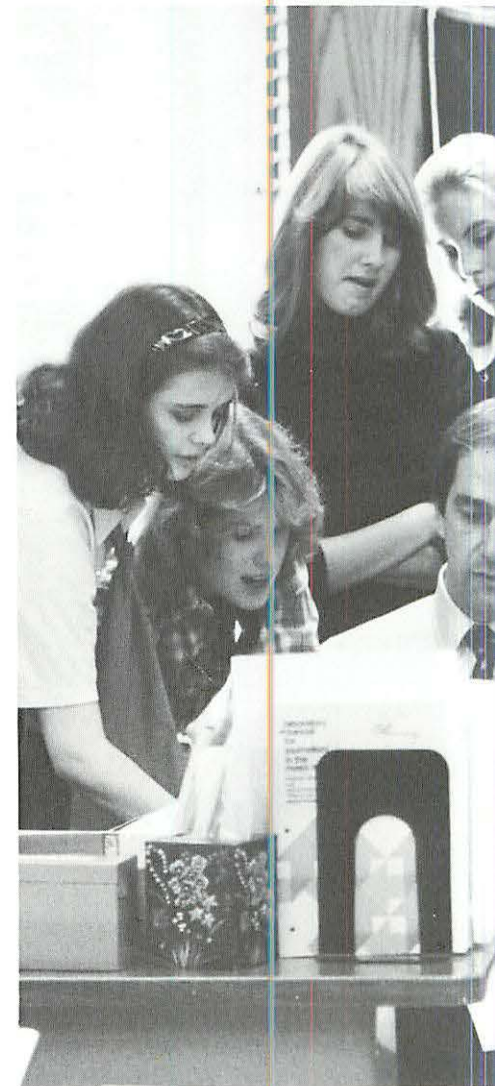

Mrs. Hammack keeps the party well-supplied with concessions at the athletic events held on campus.

All Partied Out

The teachers in the science, social studies and home economics areas were all partied out after the celebration. The home ec faculty was staffed by Mrs. Janette Crawley, sponsor of the Y-Teens and secretary/treasurer of the Central Alumni Association; and Mrs. Patsy Williamson who sponsored the Future Homemakers of America. She also was the chairman of the Home Economics Department.

The Science Department, chaired by Mr. Jim Rogers, was staffed by Mrs. Darby Marable, club coordinator; Mr. Harry Summers, General Science teacher and lunch supervisor; Mrs. Margaret Hammack, Health and supervisor of the concession stands; and Mrs. Diane Hale, Science and sponsor of the freshmen cheerleaders.

The yearbook is printed by Josten Company from Clarksville, TN. Marv Martin, local Josten representative, shows the staff the variety of colors and covers for the annual.

MRS. JANETTE C. CRAWLEY: Home Economics II and III; Foods; B. S., UTC.

MRS. DIANNE M. HALE: General Science; B. S., UTC.

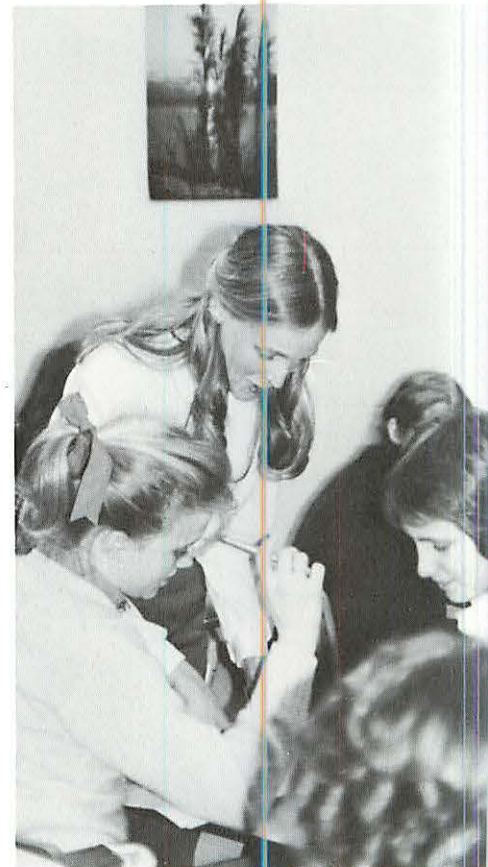

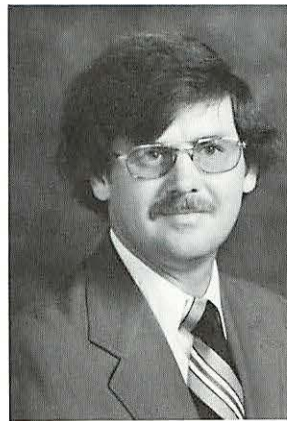

MRS. MARGARET HAMMACK; Physical Education Departmental Chairman; Health, Civics, B. S., Florida State University.

MR. RALPH HIXSON: Sociology, History, Civics; B.S., UTC; MEd, MTSU.

MS. DARBY MARABLE; Biology I, II, English 9B; B. S., and MST, MTSU.

Mrs. Dorothy Stone explains the Civil War beginnings to Traci Hawkins and Stephane Dupourque. The class is in American Studies.

Mrs. Christina Campbell's art classes prepared the setting for Senior Day. The business teachers, Mrs. Clarone Hughes and Mrs. Virginia Summerour, taught the marketable skills of the business management world.

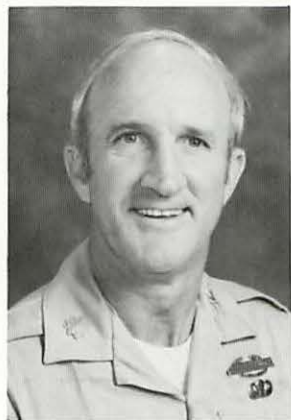

This entertainment committee was to be recognized at the celebration for their organization and planning.

During physical education classes, Coach Rundles and Coach Clayton overlook the prospects for the athletic program.

MRS. CLARONE C. HUGHES; Bookkeeping I and II, Typing I; B.S., Tennessee Wesleyan College, MEd, UTC

MISS PATTY SUE LANE; FOF, Physical Education I and II; B.S., UTC.

LT. COL. DANNIE B. MORRIS; LDIII and IV; B.S. and MBA, MTSU.

MRS. JUDY REICH; Ensemble, Varsity Chorus, Freshman Chorus, Guitar; B.M., Florida State University.

MRS. VIRGINIA J. SUMMEROUR; Departmental Chairman; General Business 9-10; Business Law 11-12, Shorthand 10-12, Typewriting I, 9-12; B.S., Sanford University.

SGT. AUGUSTUS A. WARREN; ROTC Instructor, Drill Team Coach.

Mrs. Gloria Grier rolls up the tumbling mat and relaxes for ten minutes at the break.

The Entertainment Committee

The year began with D, E and G Pod faculty entertaining the party guests. These teachers took time to plan activities for special events.

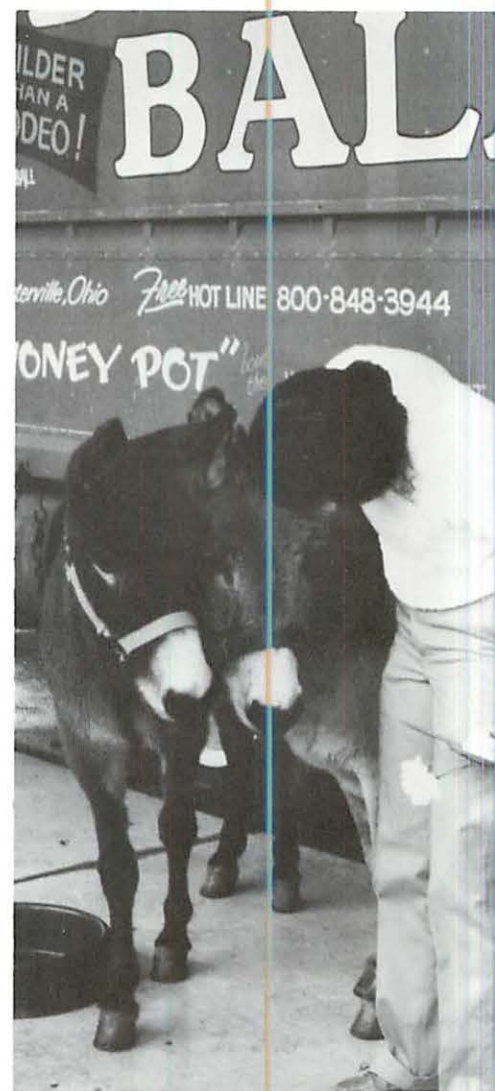

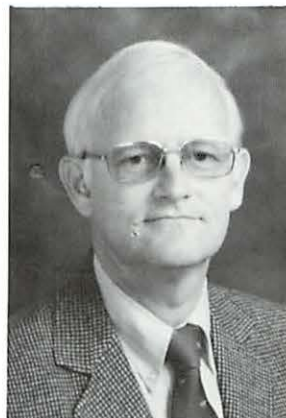

G Pod faculty planned activities from the musical performances to the athletic ones. Mrs. Reich sponsored the musical "West Side Story." Leading roles were played by Tammy Cobb and Steve Fraley. Mr. Chandler planned the band trip to St. Petersburg's Festival of States, March 29-April 4. The ROTC instructors planned the sponsor presentation and the federal inspection.

Miss Patty Lane talks strategy with her donkey partner. Central has first pick of the donkey partners over the opponent, Brown Middle School faculty.

MRS. CHRISTINA CAMPBELL: Departmental Chairman; Art I Basic, Art II, Art/Crafts, Art III Studio, Art IV, Advanced Seminar; B.A., Western Carolina University; University of Hawaii and UTK.

MR. C.M. CHANDLER: Varsity Band, Band Auxiliaries, Jazz Band, ROTC Band; Civics; B.S., East TN State University.

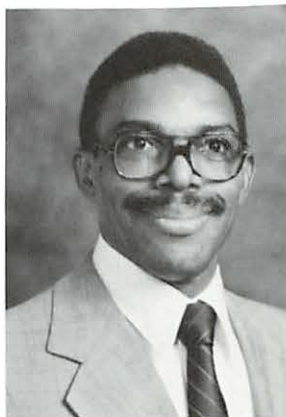

MR. MIKE COLLIER; Physical Education, Varsity Football Coach; B.S., Carson Newman College.

MR. NATHANIEL GARTH; Social Studies and Remedial Assistant, Study Hall; B.A., Paine College.

MRS. GLORIA GRIER; Physical Education, FOF; B.S., Tennessee State University; MEd. UTC.

SGM ROBERT L. HALL; ROTC, LDI Instructor, Rifle Team, Softball Coach.

Private Mike Shaffer proudly carries Company A's unit flag during the federal inspection.

Mr. John Bonner held his remedial grammar classes for the underclassmen. Mr. Hillman Mayfield boasted nineteen years of service to B-Pod, surpassed only by the department's chairman, Miss Marjorie Ogle with twenty-five years.

The moto of these faculty "Be's" seemed to be, "For those students seeking the most out of life, this pod's for you!"

Juniors Karen Salisbury, Tracy Kile, Elizabeth Geraldson and Marlan Davis choose prom invitations and memory books for the junior-senior prom. Sponsor is Miss Candace Schooley.

MISS JANIS MARIE JOHNSON; Latin, English 10, 11; B.A., University of Chattanooga; MEd, UTC.

MR. HILLMAN MAYFIELD; English 9, Economics; B.A., University of North Alabama.

MISS MARJORIE OGLE; Language Arts Departmental Chairman; English 12 CP and Regular; B.S., East TN State University; MEd, UTC.

MISS CANDACE SCHOOLEY; Spanish I, II; English 9; B.A., Birmingham-Southern College; MEd, UTC.

MRS. MAXINE WILLIAMS; English 10 CP, 11 CP, 11 Regular; B.A., TN Wesleyan; MEd, UTC.

Addressing one senior English class, Miss Ogle explains the basics of thesis' writing.

Party Be's

The party Be's were the B-pod faculty. Their motto could be quoted as "Be all that you can be." For those students interested in language and foreign cultures, Ms. Candace Schooley, Miss Brenda Chauncey and Miss Janis Johnson taught Spanish, French and Latin, respectively. Advance writing classes were held by Miss Marjorie Ogle and Chattanooga State's Dr. Lena Engstrom. This was the first year the American Studies in English was offered. Mrs. Priscilla George said "The program has unlimited potential for improving the academic opportunities for Central High students." Mrs. Maxine Williams said the novel The Good Earth written by Pearl S. Buck was the most enjoyed book in her 11th grade English classes. Mrs. Susan Campbell taught both ends of the pod, the seniors and the freshmen English classes.

MR. JOHN BONNER; English 9B, 10B, 11B, Journalism I and II; B.S., UTC.
MRS. SUSAN CAMPBELL; English 9, 10; B.A., UTC.

MISS BRENDA CHAUNCEY; French I, II, III; Photojournalism I, II; B.A. and MEd, UTC.
MRS. PRISCILLA GEORGE; English 10, 11, American Studies; B.A., Tennessee Wesleyan College; MEd, UTC.
DR. LENA ENGSTROM; College English; A.A., Gardner-Webb College; B.S., Western Carolina University.

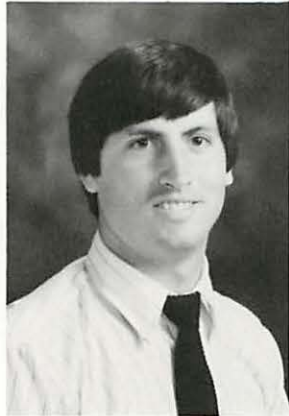

Dr. Lena Engstrom explains the Greek play, Agamemnon to her Chattanooga State joint enrollment class.

Mr. Pat Woolsey stirred up a delight on the basketball court. He was the varsity basketball coach and assisted with the varsity girls' softball team. Mr. Gary Rundles organized the football and baseball routines as coach.

These caterers really prepared some treats for their students. Some not so delightful, as semester exams. However, there was lots of overtime put in by these caterers to make the year a celebration.

Mr. Pat Woolsey sneaks by the year-book photographer to congratulate the Best All Round Superlatives, Troy Williams and Mary Slifco.

MR. GARY RUNDLES; Health, Math; B.S., Carson Newman College.

MRS. CINDY STOREY; Modified Vocational Resources; B.S., UTC.

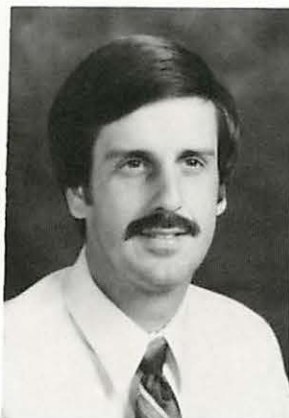

MRS. CAROL WALLACE; Modified Vocational Resources; B.S. and MEd, Ohio University.

MR. WILLIAM L. WALTON; Trigonometry, Algebra I, Proficiency Math I; B.S., Indiana University; M.S., University of Oklahoma.

MR. PAT WOOLSEY; Algebra II, General Math I; B.A. and MEd, UTC.

Mrs. Carol Wallace provides M-Teams with student performance and behavioral improvements.

The Caterers

The celebration had several caterers. These services were provided from the math, special education, resource, social studies and health departments. Each caterer had his own specialty.

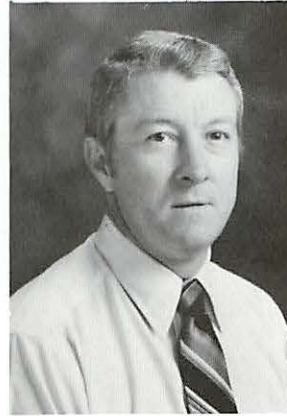

Miss Janice Brown concentrated on the Student Council and the ROTC Sponsors. Mr. John Clayton coached football and track. Mrs. Sandra Harper drilled her students in writing job applications and reviewing basic math skills. Miss Jeanne Hopper sponsored the varsity cheerleaders. The NHS was perfected by Mrs. Betty Lee. Mr. Bill Nelms assisted the varsity baseball team and coached the freshman basketball team. Mrs. Carol Wallace and Mrs. Cindy Storey concentrated their resources on math and English skills. Mr. Bill Walton sponsored the Mu Alpha Theta.

Our own Miss Brown is honored with the visiting brass and guests at the sponsors' presentation.

MISS JANICE BROWN; Algebra I, Geometry, Computer Language; B.A. and MEd, UTC.

MR. JOHN CLAYTON; American Government, Health; B.S. and M.A., Tennessee Technical College.

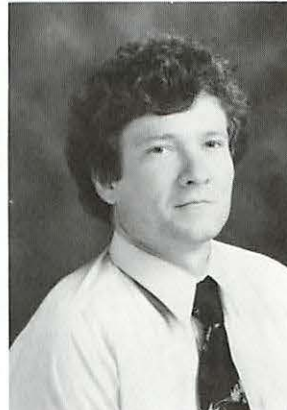

MRS. SANDRA R. HARPER; VIP, English and Math; B.A., UTC.

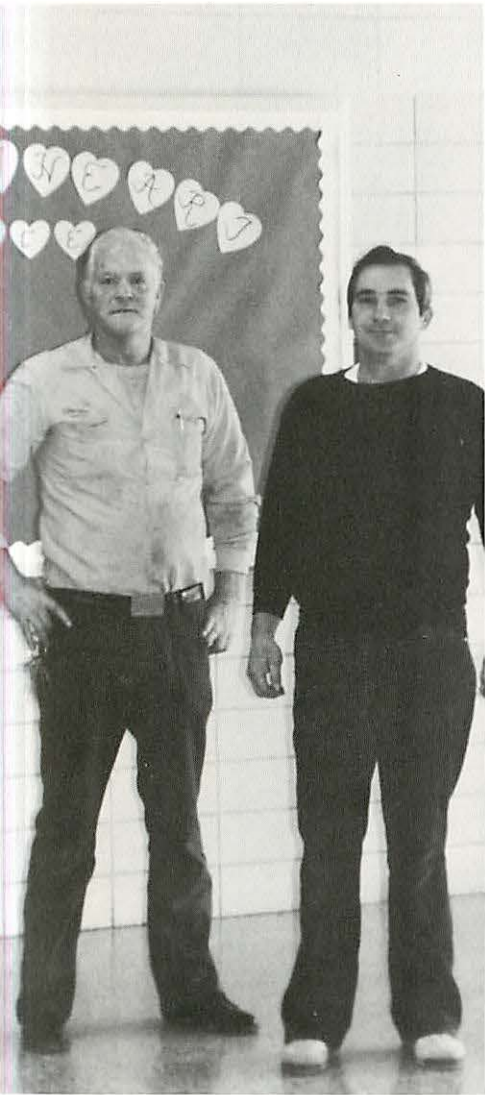

MISS JEANNE D. HOPPER; Special Education; B.S., UTC.

MRS. BETTY LEE; Math Departmental Chairman; Senior Math, Calculus, Geometry; B.S., UTK; MEd, UTC.

MR. BILL NELMS; General Math, Applied Math, Algebra I, Pre-Algebra II; B.S., UTC.

Mrs. Betty Lee describes her procedures for calculating the first semester grades to the student teacher.

Mr. Charles Preston and Mr. Frank Cofer were new to Central. Mr. Preston was formerly of Signal Mountain Junior High. Mr. Cofer was the attendance clerk; Mr. Jolliffe, the disciplinarian.

Mrs. Reba Burton and Mrs. Helen Hunphreys maintained the students' test and grade records. Mrs. Jan Ramsey resigned during the first semester and was replaced by Mrs. Frances Shamblin.

The janitors made a "clean sweep" at Central. Mr. Bill Ables was in charge of the staff.

RSVP? If you did, you talked to Mrs. Shamblin. She was the office secretary who aided these party crashers. If your invitation for purchase was not accepted, you probably talked with Mrs. Joy Quinn. She kept all the school's financial records.

These faculty members and staff took care of all the unexpected! Many called them party crashers, but everyone welcomed them to the celebration.

Mr. Norman Sherrill and Mr. Bill Ables are the custodians of the party.

MRS. BETTY OLIVER; Cafeteria Manager.

MR. CHARLES PRESTON; Principal; B.S., Carson-Newman College; MEd, UTC.

MRS. JOY QUINN; Bookkeeper. MRS. JAN RAMSEY; Office Secretary.

MRS. FRANCES SHAMBLIN; Office Secretary. (not pictured).

MRS. BETTY M. SMITH; Guidance Counselor; A.B., Berry College; MEd, University of Georgia.

Mrs. Jeanette Johnson turns-on the warming trays for the noon rush, fifth period. Cafeteria Staff (not pictured) — Sara Alvarez, Jerry Hanning, Helen Hinson, Bonnie Hundley, Jayne Lundgren, Carolyn Reeves, Betty Smith and Celesta Stapp.
