*Nothing represents Central better than the Seniors themselves with their vast experience of Central life behind them and the knowledge obtained through four years of hard work and dedication.

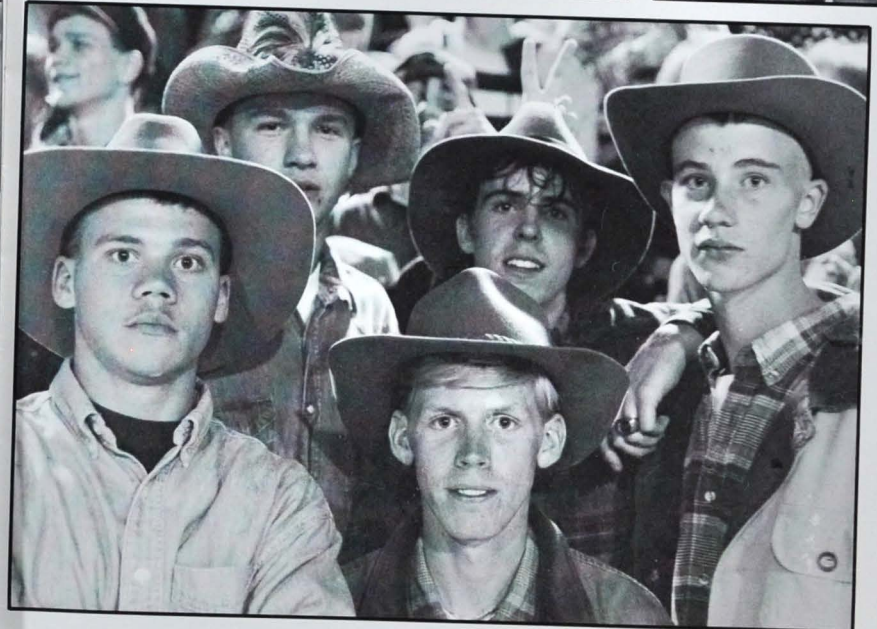

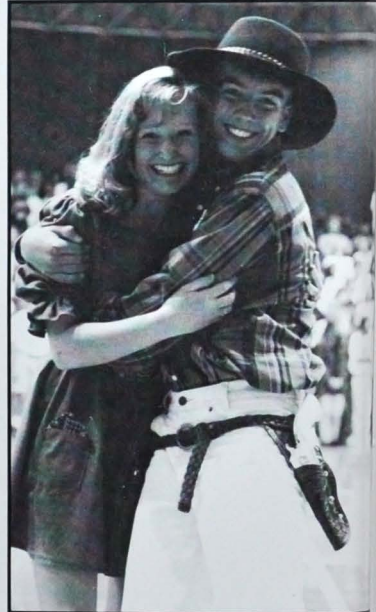

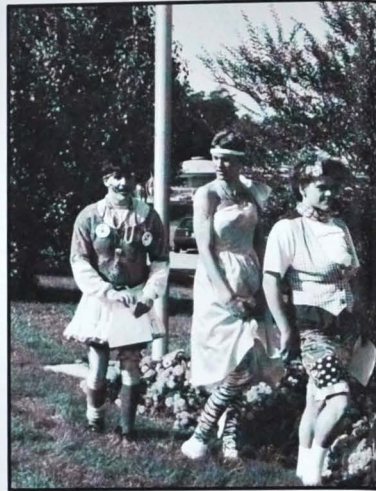

In the last four years, they have prepared for life and all of it's trials. On the road to this destination they have overcome numerous obstacles. Through these times, though, they have wavered they have never forgotten how to really enjoy life.

While at Central, the Seniors dedicated themselves to one goal in particular — to graduate. The Seniors have accomplished many goals while at Central, but the greatest is at their fingertips. For many, who beginning as freshmen and working up to now become seniors, they have won their personal war. For others, they will enter this cycle all over again in college, but use this great victory as a tool to achieve others.

Ben Franklin once wrote "Experience keeps a dear school, but a fool learns no other." As a Freshmen we become the "fools" of high school, and as you grow older, experience molds, teaches, and matures you and then sends you into adulthood. You never stop being that fool, but you do become educated. Mrs. D. Stone once said in Psychology, "Nothing is ever as good as it seems, but nothing is ever as bad as it seems."

In the end, the Seniors lead the underclassmen, setting examples, and in turn train them to be future leaders and to represent Central High School to the fullest.*

FORMING NEW FRIENDSHIPS

*Clockwise across pages: Though the oddest of friendships, Stefanie Frost and Vanessa Tucker found one between themselves as well as Jeff Gregory, Gary Bohannon and Matt Rogers managed, Stefanie Frost, Angie Fridell, Leanne Jones, and Kary Horne huddle together tightly in their friendship. Holly Draper receives a reassuring pat from her towering friend Ted Emerling. Forever together: Jason Weir, Chad Clark, Lance Shipley, Pete Jordan, and Tommy Capehart form just a small fragment of the circle in their friendship. Nothing beats a hug from David Dockery to Shannon Haynes. And finally, just sometimes, a little friendship can lead to something more, such in the case of Misty Moon and Tony Spradley.

SENIORS SHAPE THE SCHOOL WITH PRIDE

Seniors show pride in all they do at Central. They are often the spotlight at pep rallies. After four years of sign painting parties, class yells, and hall decorations, the seniors usually come up on top. This year many seniors screamed and made a lot of commotion at the pep rallies. We'll always remember those days with Joe Stafford wearing his golden, shiny wig screaming "Circle" at the top of his lungs. The senior cheerleaders, Dyan Doll, Heather Goza, Mandy Whitworth, and Christy Cholota, always showed their Pounder pride by standing behind our teams no matter how many games we won.

Seniors also show pride in their academics. Many seniors like Robert Hiestand, Lemon Williams, and Lisa Tassie, will likely receive college scholarships. Seniors set examples for the underclassmen both in their academic achievements and their extracurricular activities. Best wishes to the great class of 1993!

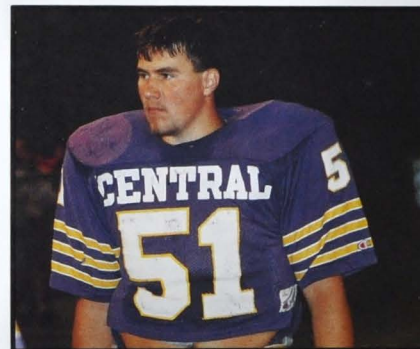

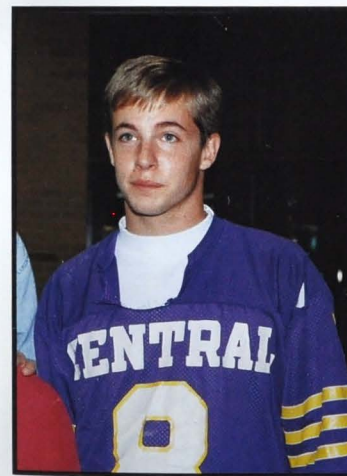

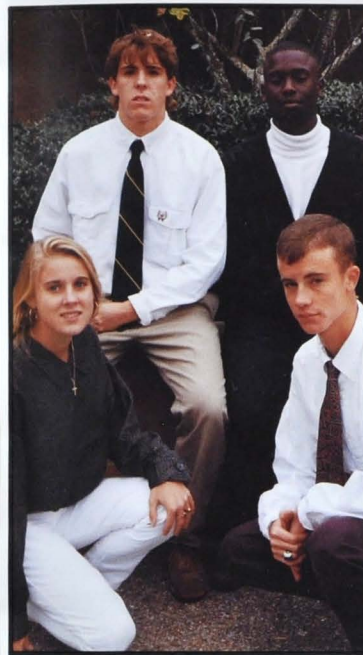

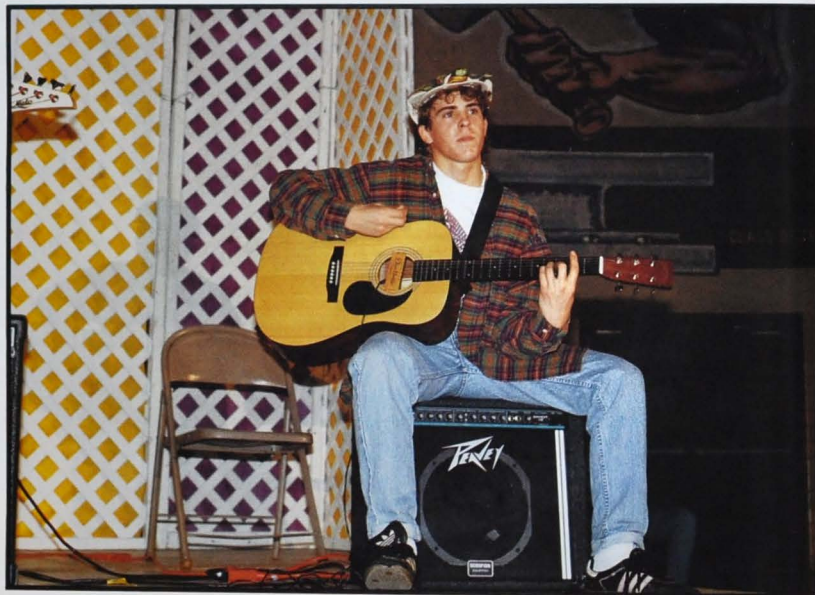

EDITORS: DIMITRA TZORTZIS
JON HAGGARD

*Seniors show true spirit in everything they do either in work, as with our talented Mike Geren, Lee Haggard, and Mike Junkins who are currently employed at the King O'Kleen located on fifty-eight highway; in the arts, such as the case with Mike Nowlin, one of our most talented dramatist; in the academics, provided faithfully by Anna Whitley and Lori Stevens; and, of course, in everyday life, like Christie Tallent and Angela Morgan often demonstrate.

*The Senior Officers: Lisa Tassie as President, Ron Sabo as Vice-President, Amy Cox as Secretary, and Kim Gee as Treasurer.

SPOTLIGHT ON TWO SPECIAL SENIORS

Central High is proud of two very special people who will graduate this year. Graham Burns and Carla Neal are purple pounders that we are all proud of. They are both students in Mrs. Shavers special classes who are hard workers with positive attitudes.

Graham is a great athlete. He likes to play tennis and could likely challenge any CHS students to a match. He is a big sports fan with a very outgoing and friendly personality. Graham plays the drums and enjoys listening to music. We're proud of his dedication to school and the contributions he has made to Central High.

Carla, a big country music fan, loves to dance. The students at Central always see Carla as neat and friendly. She is very optimistic and is a hard worker too. She'll grit her teeth and tackle any obstacle. She serves as a great role model for her peers.

Both Graham and Carla are training to work in a cafeteria. Congratulations Graham and Carla for your achievements at school. We know you will be an asset to everyone around you.

A PLACE, A SCHOOL, A TIME TO REMEMBER

By Damon Griggs

The place, Dodds Avenue, the year, 1907, and the school, Central High. In 85 years this school has had a history of changes. From the diversity of students to the moving of the school building, the school has grown in beauty and in character. In Central's 85 years we have had seven principals with the first being Mr. A.E. Darrah and the greatest of them all our current principal, Mr. Charles H. Preston.

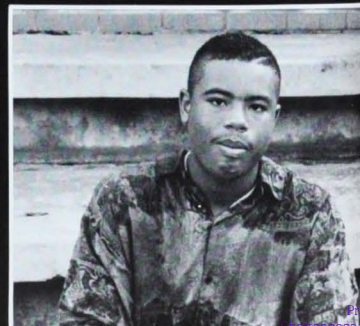

In September of 1907 Central opened its doors to 269 students. The senior class graduated 19 students. Since then one of the largest graduating classes consisted of over 400 seniors. Central has at one time held close to 1300 students and this year has 1083 with over 200 seniors.

There have been many glorious moments in Central's history, with eleven state championships in sports. Central has been chosen as one of the top seven schools in Tennessee. In 1987 the school was named a National School of Excellence. We have the National Bellamy Award, the Freedoms Foundation Award and the Scenic Beautification Award. Our seniors have been presidential scholars as well as National Merit scholarship winners.

Some people wonder if we have always been called the Purple Pounders. The answer is no. For 32 years we were known as the Purple Warriors until in 1939 when the football team seemingly pounded out the yardage. There were repeatedly called the pounders by local sports writers and eventually the school mascot was changed to the Purple Pounders.

Where's Your Favorite Place at School to Hang Out?

Tabitha Gilbert	"The Clinic because Mrs. Mitchell is outgoing and fun."
Rochelle Russell & Susan Crawford	"The Bathroom with friends."
Jeremy Shell	"The Lunchroom to socialize."
Heather Goza & Dyan Doll	"Mrs. Evan's Algebra Classroom."
Mandy Whitworth	"The Front Office so she can use Mr. Phillip's head as a mirror."
Mike Capley	"The Exit Doors."

Whad Would You Do for a Klondike Bar?

David Dockery

"I'd count the steps from here to heaven, walk through fire, chase old ghosts and watch them scatter, drop old dreams and watch them shatter."

Amy Kilpatrick

"Make good grades."

What Are Some of the Hottests Musicians Or Groups Out?

Donna Lee Long

THE POET'S CORNER

"A Man"
by Nina Cassian

While fighting for his country, he lost an arm and was suddenly afraid.

From now on I shall only be able to do things in halves.

I shall reap only half the harvest.
I shall only be able to bang with one fist on the door.

I shall only be able to half hold my love close to me.

There will be things I cannot do at all.
Applaud, for example, at shows, where everyone applauds.

From that moment on, he set himself to do everything with twice as much enthusiasm and where the arm had been torn away, a wing grew.

"I Wrote Your Name"
by Shawnah Edmonds

I wrote your name with rain drops on my window.

The spring breeze took it away.
I wrote your name on the sandy shore.

The ocean waves took it away.
I wrote your name in the snow.

The sun took it away.
I wrote your name in my heart.
Then someone took you away.

"Lend a Hand"
by Edward Everett Hale

I am only one, but still I am one.
I cannot do everything but still I can do something.

And because I cannot do everything,
I will not refuse to do the something that I can do.

"Literature Class"
by Kari Parrot

It was a poem once, only an hour ago.
But a group of scholars read and read and searched.

They pressured its every line, noun, and verb.

They even read it backwards till they knew its full content.

Wounded and dying, broken in spirit, it lies:
a mass of dull and listless words.
But it was a poem once.

"Galla's Hair"
by Martial

The golden hair that Galla wears is hers.
Who would have thought it?
She swears 'tis hers and true she swears, and true she swears.

For I know where she bought it.

* Walking is an important part of life. We must all take steps and grow older. We have learned the ways of our school and slowly, but surely, took a step up. While learning the ways of the school, we made our mark. We had members of our class on almost every varsity athletic team. We had members in the band, cheerleaders, and also ROTC members in our class. We were all over the school. As we continue our walk of life, we are becoming sophomores. WE need to stay involved and be interested in our school. Just think, three more years, and we will be at the top of this school.

SPORTS

*ATHLETICS IS A COMMON BOND AMONG THE STUDENTS OF CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL. THOSE WHO PARTICIPATE EXPERIENCE TEAMWORK, CHALLENGES, AND MANY NEW FRIENDSHIPS. THE SPECTATORS EXPERIENCE THE JOY OF SPORTS AS WELL, BECAUSE THEY TOO FEEL THE THRILL OF A WIN OR THE AGONY OF A DEFEAT. FOR THE ATHLETES THAT WEAR THE PURPLE AND GOLD AND FOR THEIR SUPPORTERS, THERE IS A SENSE OF PRIDE IN THE SCHOOL, THE COMMUNITY, AND IN THEMSELVES. THE CONTESTS, THE MANY HOURS OF PRACTICE, AND THE LESSONS THAT ARE LEARNED WILL CONTINUE TO SHAPE AND MOLD THESE PARTICIPANTS THROUGHOUT THEIR LIVES.

Kristie Close, Linda Davis, Angie Carter, and Elisha Henry bond around the heater to get warm and drink some hot chocolate. Coach Monroe and Katie Miller, who was the B-team award winner, represent the junior varsity with pride. *From the coach: The girls soccer team had an excellent season again this year. Our 12 wins, 5 losses, and 2 ties put us third over all in the point standings of our region and fourth in winning percentage. The team entered the season with first place finishes in the spring Readout League (7-0-1) and Western Kentucky Team Camp (9-2-1). We placed second in the Nashville Invitational Fall Sports Classic involving eight teams with a tough loss to Notre Dame. Injuries plagued us at different times, but our bench strength and attitudes kept us in the upper levels of our region. The B-team also put together a winning season with a (4-1-1) record.

CLASS HISTORY

PROPHECY

Four years ago as freshmen, we could feel the winds of change sweeping through the class of 1993. We had come from the summer picnic of middle school experience. There were expected to jump into the whirlwind of high school and come out four years later just to jump into the whirlwind of the "real world." Our freshmen year, it seemed like hell. We made many friends that were like the contrasting colors of the fall leaves. At the risk of failing, we leaped into the breeze of sports, clubs, and academics. Before we could get involved, we had to have strongholds to help us in our uncertain fall-like freshman year. We elected Lisa Tassie as President, Damon Griggs as Vice President, Stephanie Blanchette as Secretary, and Kim Gee as Treasurer. Through the breeze of upperclassmen was strong, the freshmen stood tall with 21 freshmen football players. Five boys and seven girls played basketball with Lisa Barham receiving the Hustle Award. There were five guys that were a part of the State Champion football team. An amazing 32 freshmen participated in boys and girls soccer alone. Twenty-three other freshmen participated in softball, track, and tennis. Pete Jordan was not afraid to be the only freshman running cross-country while Mandy Whitworth was the single freshman varsity cheerleader.

The strong breeze of freshmen was not only felt in sports but clubs as well. Twenty-five participated in Student Council while nine were in FCA. Sixteen freshmen were in the French Club and 8 in the Spanish Club. Five freshmen were a part of the Champion Staff: Nineteen people were involved in band with Courtney Rushin as the freshman band representative. There were over 60 members of the very large Freshman Chorus. Lisa Tassie was the lone freshman in the Art Club while Bob Hiestand was the only freshman member of the Toss-Up team. The freshmen did not let the fall winds sweep us into the harsh winter without electing Lisa Tassie as Best-All-Around Freshman.

As our sophomore year began, we "bundled-up" knowing the next few years would be tough. It may have seemed cold and isolated with trying on harder academics. Despite the harsh winter-like sophomore year, we knew we did not have to remain indoors. We realized there was a New Year ahead of us. We trudged through the deep snow by electing Lisa Tassie as President, Lance Shipley as Vice President, Tiffany Thomas as Secretary, and Kim Gee as Treasurer. We started through the year with 12 Varsity football players and 5 Varsity cheerleaders to keep up the spirit at the games. Nine sophomores played basketball with Lisa Barham and girls' soccer with Kati Walker receiving the B-Team award. Lesley Robinson and Lori Stevens were not worried about being the only sophomore golf players while Penny Taylor did not mind being the single sophomore varsity volleyball player. Sophomores showed they were not bogged down by the avalanche of academics by their participation in clubs and activities. There were fifteen sophomores in Student Council, with half of those being on Executive Board. Eight sophomores, which included three officers, were involved in Triple S. There were 20 members of FCA and Courtney Rushin was elected secretary of the club. A total of thirty-six sophomores took part in both the World Studies and Leadership classes. Seven sophomores participated in Amnesty International and 15 were elected to Mu-Alpha-Theta. Five sophomore girls were initiated into Tri-Hi-Y and three were selected to Y-Teens. Two sophomores each were in FBIA, Junior Civilians, and Mock Trial. Kellie Smith was the lone sophomore majority voter. Jennifer Chesney was the only sophomore influence in the Ensemble and Mandy Whitworth was the sophomore member of the Superintendent's Advisory Committee. Five sophomores received the honor of being accepted to go to the Superintendent's Leadership Conference. Also, Kim Gee was selected to go to the Hugh O'Brien Conference. We ended our winter season ready for spring by choosing Lisa Tassie as Best-All-Around Sophomore.

Though, as sophomores, we survived the winter-like conditions, we were ready to spring into our junior year. To help us flower in accomplishments, we chose Lisa Tassie as president, Lisa Barham as Vice President, Lemon Williams as Secretary, and Kim Gee as Treasurer. In our junior year, we knew it would not be all sunshine and roses; we expected a few thunderstorms. Despite the overwhelming academic courses, we stayed the flood by having participation in sports and clubs. We had 4 varsity cheerleaders to support our 8 football players. Twenty-one juniors participated in boys' and girls' soccer with 8 of those receiving team awards. There were 9 basketball players and 5 junior girls played volleyball. Thirteen juniors were involved in baseball, cross-country, softball, and wrestling. Lesley Robinson and Rusty Moore played golf, and both qualified for the Region Golf Tournament.

We planted several officers and many new members in the garden of Central's activities. There were 29 members of Student Council. Ten junior girls were in Tri-Hi-Y, and there were 11 in Y-Teens, with three of those being officers. Twenty-five juniors were inducted into Beta Club and 18 into National Honor Society. Holly Draper, Courtney Rushin, and Kellie Smith led 15 other junior members in FCA. Our junior year, several talented people took the initiative to start new clubs. Cathy Middleton became president of the Young Political Leadership Society and became president of Diversity I. Honors started springing up left and right for our talented junior class. Christi Masengill and Tiffany Thomas received the I Dare You Leadership award. Ron Sabo received the Lisa Blanchette award. Four juniors were selected to the UTC Honors Band. Boys' State Delegates were Steve Nelson, Eric Radtke, Robert Hiestand, and Michael Totton. Girls' State Delegates were Lisa Barham, Kellie Smith, Kim Gee, and Kati Walker. Kellie Smith was selected to the Governor's School for Humanities; Lemon Williams for International Studies; and Jennifer Chesney for Performing Arts. Our special moments began with winning the Homecoming Most Spirited Class award. We won second place in the Hall Decorations competition. Our prom, "So Hard to Say Good-bye," was held at the Read House. At the end of the year, there were 25 girls and 2 guys selected to be ROTC sponsors. To end our springing junior year, we selected Kati Walker as Best-All-Around Junior. Spring got us warmed up for the summer of our senior year. We knew the days of summer were soon going to come and go, but we were going to enjoy the days while they lasted. We got together as mighty seniors and good friends to choose our leaders. We elected Lisa Tassie as President, Ron Sabo as Vice President, Amy Cox as Secretary, and Kim Gee as Treasurer. Our eight dedicated marshalls were: April Bush, Chad Clark, Holly Draper, Damon Griggs, Lance Shipley, Kellie Smith, Kati Walker, and Lemon Williams. Presidents of clubs included: Tri-Hi-Y — Kim Gee, FCA — Kellie Smith, Student Council — Vanessa Tucker, STARS — Tiffany Thomas, NHS — Steve Nelson, Beta Club — Kellie Smith, Y-Teens — Lisa Barham, Art Club — Christy Johnson, FBIA — Mindi Griffin, and Dimi Tzortzis as editor of the Champion. Battalion Commander of our ROTC department was Steve Nelson. Drum Major was Carson Voiles. Our Valedictorian was Robert Hiestand and our co-salutatorians were Amy Sentell and Lisa Tassie. Our Merit Finalist was Bob Hiestand. Angie Grisham won first place in the state FBIA competition in Transcription. We held a presidential election this year with Cathy Middleton representing Bush and Ron Sabo representing Clinton. Lisa Tassie was Homecoming Queen. Military King and Queen were Eric Radtke and Jamie Cox. Christmas King and Queen were Chad Clark and Kati Walker. Mark Russell was King of the Dogpatch, and our Sweethearts were Lisa Tassie and Mark Locke.

Senior football players included: Darren Bandman, Lee Green, Eli Hughes, Mark Locke, Mike Lowry, Willie Mosley, Travis Sanders, John Sertel, and Jeremy Shell. Christy Cholota, Dyan Doll, and Mandy Whitworth were the senior varsity cheerleaders, with Dyan being captain. Senior basketball players were Ervin Bonner and Danny Smith. Ervin received MVP for the team as well as All District regular season and All District Tournament. Danny had the most assists and received the Hustle award. Girls' basketball players were Lisa Barham, Kristie Close, Amy Cox, Kim Gee, and Kellie Smith — all receiving team awards. Senior volleyball players were Amy Cox, Jennifer Rogers, and Penny Taylor. Members of the Wrestling team were: Bryan Bradshaw, Mike Geren, Mike Junkins, Mark Locke, George Rogers, Brian Stearns, and Chad Clark and Lance Shipley were the Captains. Chad had the most pins and was a state qualifier. Lance received the Team Player award; both Chad and Lance received the Most Dedicated award. Golf players were Rusty Moore and Lesley Robinson, who qualified for the State Tournament again this year. Senior guys on the soccer team were: Chad Clark, Damon Griggs, John Hundley, Hunter McLaughlin, John Sertel, Jason Tolbert, and Carson Voiles. The senior girls were: Tori Ames, Kristie Close, Linda Davis, Amber Deal, Holly Draper, Kim Gee, Angela Morgan, Kellie Smith, Lisa Tassie, and Kati Walker. Kristie was a part of the All Region team. Track members were Daniel Martin, Lee Green, Chad Dimick, Eric Masengill, and Lemon Williams. Bryan Bradshaw, Nathan Kile, Joe Stafford, Amy Cox, and Kellie Smith were members of the tennis team. Baseball players were Jim Butler, Pete Jordan, Rusty Moore, and Jason Weir. The softball team consisted of: Lisa Barham, Linda Davis, Rachel Roach, Jennifer Rogers, J.D. Stanton, and Penny Taylor. These senior girls helped to win the Berry Invitational in Birmingham and St. Jude's Tournament. Our Senior Breakfast theme was "Wild, Wild West." Our Senior Day theme was "Summer Nights" with Mrs. Brenda Hooper as our dedicatory. The males for court on Senior Day were: Chad Clark, Mark Locke, Ron Sabo, Jeremy Shell, and Lance Shipley. The female court members for Miss Central were: Kim Gee, Heather Goza, Lisa Tassie, Kati Walker, and Mandy Whitworth. Mark Locke & Lisa Tassie were selected Mr. & Miss CHS.

The past four years did not have a breeze, but we have come upon these final days of summer. We have weathered the storms and planted our shining accomplishments and deeply-rooted friendships. The summer days of our senior year have come and gone, but we have definitely enjoyed them. This being the summer of our life, we are now ready to face the next season. May God keep you as you take the ups and downs of life set before you by its changing seasons. I hope that you will never forget the memories here but blossom in new friendships and flower in future accomplishments.

Thus reads the history of the Class of 1993

Tiffany Nuckolls — Class Historian

Monday, I went to the Guidance Office to see Mrs. Hale and, as usual, could not find her. But instead of going back to class, I made the mistake of deciding to wait for her. While waiting, I fell asleep and dreamed I was 15 years in the future. The scary part is that you seniors were in my dream, and this is what I saw:

- Willie Mosley working at Kentucky Fried Chicken — dropping the food and then selling it.
- Ervin Bonner going on to play basketball for Michigan but the Chicago Bulls passing over him in the draft for Mickey Buchanan.
- After suffering a nervous breakdown, Ron Sabo opening a "back to nature" cult in Birchwood, Tennessee.
- Mindi Griffin opening her own business making stickers — having been obsessed with getting stickers from Mrs. Williams 15 years earlier.
- After Mr. Preston's retirement, Central High finding a former graduate to replace him as principal. He is the one who adored Mr. Preston — Chad Clark.
- Bob Hiestand becoming the janitor of Brown Middle School after failing to make straight A's in college.
- After leading the NFL in rushing for four straight seasons, Travis Sanders having a 7-3 record.
- Mark Locke featured on ESPN's "Muscle Fitness" doing his new workout — Chins of Steel.

CYCLES OF LIFE

The autumn leaves fell off again,
New leaves are growing in their place.

Fresh flowers bloom in the garden.

Baby birds fly with amazing grace.

In the cycles of live,
We mustn't question why.

Our purpose is to live our lives,
And at the end say a final good-bye.

When something old is leaving,
Almost always it is replaced.

One cannot break the pattern,
For fear of leaving new challenges unfaced.

Forward is the only direction,
That we're really allowed to move in.

Don't be afraid to take the first step,
For new journies we must begin.

Tearful farewells are not uncommon,
When at one's destinations end.

Carry fond memories of this trail with you always,
You walked this one with a friend.

DEDICATORY MRS. BRENDA HOOPER

The Senior Class of 1993 chose as their yearbook dedicatory Mrs. Brenda Hooper. Mrs. Hooper started teaching in 1962 at Central High School on Dodds Avenue. She has been in and out of teaching since then taking twelve years off to raise her daughter and work on her Masters. In her years of teaching, Mrs. Hooper has taught all grades 7-12, but has taught only two subjects, English and Speech I and II.

Mrs. Hooper has always been willing to give some of her free time to sponsor extracurricular activities. She has sponsored Central's literary magazine Pen-strokes, The Champion, and this coming year she will sponsor STARS. She has also taken several trips with her World Studies classes. These trips have been to Nashville, Charlotte, Williamsburg, and Asheville.

Being in and out of teaching for over 30 years, Mrs. Hooper has seen many changes. She has seen students, teachers, and society all change, but one thing that has not changed is the love she has for students and teaching. Mrs. Hooper has given much of her time and much of herself to this Class of 93 and many classes before. For her love and dedication to teaching our youth, we give her many thanks and we truly appreciate her.

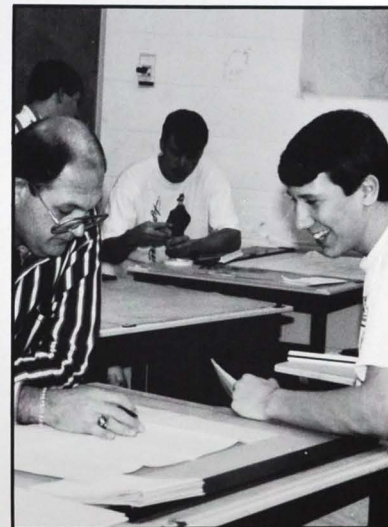

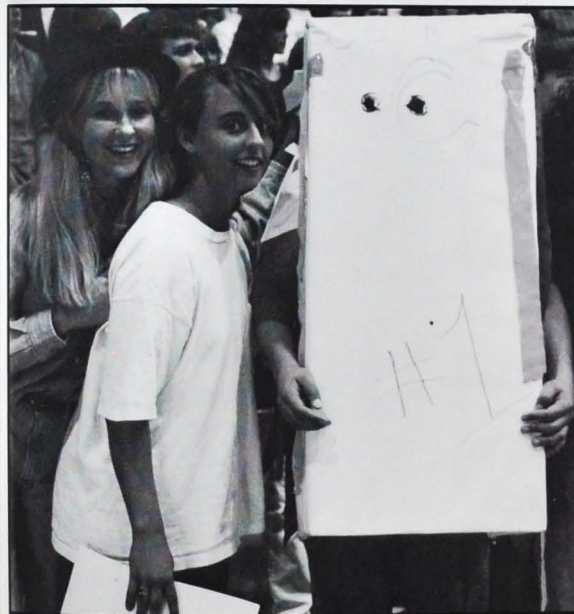

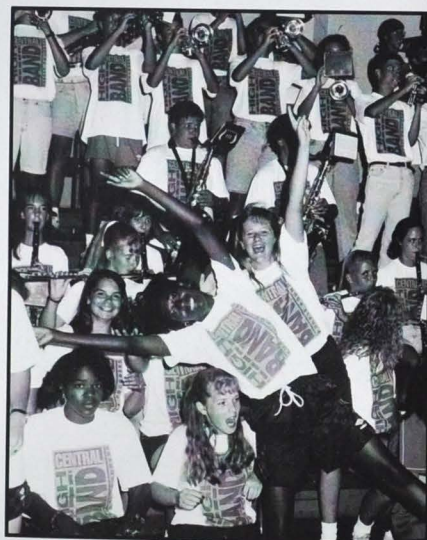

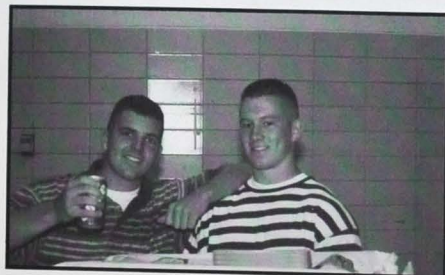

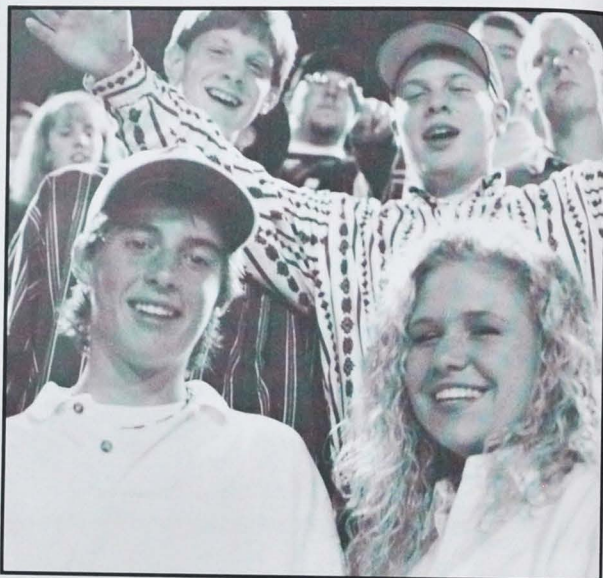

Dear World:
Here they come — the class of 1993. Some are coming to you, World, just full of anger and hostility. Keep them from harm. Some are coming to you lacking some skills they need because they were mistrustful of us. Give them a second chance. Some are coming to you vowing never to set foot in a classroom again. Soften their resolve when they find "on the job training" not to be what they thought it would be because they have no discipline and poor study habits. Teach them patience with themselves. Some come to you, World, thinking that their good looks or position or money will get them whatever they want. Send someone to be there for them when physical beauty fades and fortunes dwindle away. Some will come to you, World, feeling like losers. They have always been at the wrong place at the wrong time. They have never felt success. Make them winners, World. Lift them above the mud and the mire of mediocrity to the mountain of achievement. Some come to you ready to become the next professionals. They are ready to be our lawyers and teachers and doctors. Give them good mentors and strong perseverance. Some come to you ready to lead the rest of us with their smiles, brilliance, and charm. Give them integrity, honesty, and open doors. So I send you all of my beautiful young friends. They come from this safe haven, this cocoon to your waiting arms. Open your arms to them in love; do not shut them out. Be kind to them and treat them well. Remind them often that friends are friends forever, and that a lifetime's not too long to live as friends.
God Bless You, My Friends

Bridget

It means so much to us to have a daughter like you. To be with, to talk with, and to share special times with. We thank you for the joy you've brought to our lives ever since you were a child. Thanks for the love and friendship that you've shown to others. In our hearts that's what makes you the beautiful person you are today.

We love you very much.
Mom, Dad, And Ronnie

Faith

When at first we couldn't conceive, we prayed to God — and Faith we received. A gift from God, Sent from above — Faith fills our lives with happiness and love.

Love you very much.

Ricky

It has been wonderful sharing your dreams and watching you grow, feeling such pride in the accomplishments you've made and in the wonderful man you've become.

Sometimes it's easy to talk to other people about those feelings and neglect to tell you. But the pride and love are always there, and always will be.

Love,
Mom, Dad, And Randy
