

CENTRAL INCREASES ENROLLMENT FOR 1959-60

LIBRARY DISCLOSES PLANS FOR 1959-60

A pre-school library conference was held on August 28 here at Central. A staff manual was written containing a detailed description of library duties. Some time was spent revising the staff constitution. The group arranged their schedules so the library periods would be distributed among the staff members. There is a considerable amount of work being done to revise the thirty year old card catalog. The new catalog file will give better service to the students.

Another important addition to the library will be a double charging system. Each book will have a pink and a white card. Students will be required to sign both cards. One card will be placed in the circulation file while the other is filed according to the borrowers' last name. This will be a time saver for the staff. If a pupil has forgotten the name of his book, the system will enable the library to find the book with little difficulty.

SENIORS RECEIVE M. TEST RESULTS

Last May 101 juniors took the Merit Scholarship Test. There were fifty-one seniors who received recognition for their relatively high scores. These students were asked to take courses in advanced groupings. A graph showing the areas of strengths and weaknesses will be shown these seniors. The areas shown are word usage, English usage, math, natural science, and social science. These graphs are used for guidance purposes whereby students may realize their area of need.

To be eligible for scholarships, seniors must be in the ninety-ninth percentile of the nation. These students will be classed as semi-finalists. The school will receive a letter October 1, announcing the semi-finalists. The semi-finalists will be required to take college board exams to determine winners in April.

Mr. Hoodenpyl will take a trip in October to M.I.T. to participate in a group of a hundred to discuss scholarship programs as well as other important subjects pertaining to the high school students.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT GREETES NEW STUDENTS

Welcomes Students For Fifty-Third Year

1,749 students are attending Central this year. Last year Central had the largest graduating class in her history, with 414 graduates. During the next three years, graduating classes will be larger or equal to this if there is no great change in the present sophomore, junior, and senior enrollments.

The senior class enrollment is 456; junior class is equal to last year's graduating class and has 414 students. The sophomore class is largest of all six grades with 476 members.

Coming down from the 400 mark in classes to 100's, freshmen total 161 students; 8th graders, 112; and 7th grade, 130.

Central has students from many different schools attending here this year. Students from Brainerd Junior High, East Lake, Lookout Valley, Knoxville South, East Side, Dickinson, East Ridge, Hardy, Northside and other junior highs and high schools make up Central's variety of students.

The students in the picture on the left and the schools from which they come are, left to right: Pat Michaels, Brainerd Junior High; Pat Bridges, Knoxville Central; Judy White, Lookout Valley Junior High; Robert Thomas, East Lake; Carl Reynolds, Lookout Valley, and Lenora Ann Zimmerman, East Lake Junior High. Greeting the new students is Steve Whitaker, representing the Student Council.

Lookout Valley Junior High and East Ridge High are the newest schools in Chattanooga. East Ridge has students through the 11th grade and next year will be a complete senior high.

Faculty Observes BIE Students Enjoy Fair Day

Students and teachers both profited by the day, September 23. Students had the day off to go to the Interstate County Fair at Warner Park.

While students enjoyed the day off, county teachers were observing Business - Industry-Education Day. The principal speaker for the occasion was Dr. Nichols Nyaradi, Director of the Institute of International Studies at Bradley University, Peoria, Illinois. The program began at 9:00 a.m. Teachers were served coffee and cakes during a get-acquainted period. There were also several short talks and discussions. The program ended at noon when all teachers were luncheon guests of the businesses they were to tour in the afternoon.

The faculty and student body wish to express sympathy to Fred Slayton, Jr. and family in the death of his mother.

Math-Science Reveal Activities of Dep't.

All Freshmen and new sophomores have taken the mental ability and arithmetic tests. The purpose of the mental ability test is to measure the thinking power and degree of maturity of the mind; whereas the arithmetic test will be used to determine how advanced a pupil is in math. The results of the mental test will be kept in the office for the benefit of the teachers. No student will be allowed to see his grade. The tests will aid the Math and English Departments in placing the pupils in classes according to their learning ability.

Table Setting Wins National H.Ec. Award

Lynne Williams, a second year home economics student under Mrs. Crawley recently won fifth place in an annual National Table Setting Contest.

She was the only winner from the Chattanooga area and one of four from Tennessee. The contest is open to all high school and college home economics students from which 178 winners were selected. Lynne, a home economics major, planned a table setting for a dinner given by a bride for her bridesmaids. She had to select china, silver, crystal and centerpieces and plan the setting on a large folder rather than on a table.

Members of Faculty Interviewed About Travels At Home and Abroad

During the summer members of the faculty toured fifteen states, twelve foreign countries, and four continents. Miss Nipper, Miss Major, and Mr. Hoodenpyl traveled over the United States; while Mrs. Robinson and Miss Rice crossed the ocean to see the wonders of Europe, Asia, Asia Minor, and Africa.

Miss Nipper and Miss Major took a two week motoring trip to Denver, Colorado. "We traveled through Kansas and Missouri on our trip to Denver," they stated, coming home through Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Mr. Hoodenpyl covered fifteen states on his tour of the central and northwestern United States. "The highlights of my trip included visits to Yellowstone National Park, the Rocky Mountain and of Wyoming, and many cattle ranches," said Mr. Hoodenpyl. The S. S. United States took Miss Rice across the Atlantic where she visited Paris, France; Madrid and Barcelona, Spain; the Riviera, Florence, and Rome, Italy; Vienna and Innsbruck, Austria; Sucerne, Switzerland; Amsterdam, Holland; London, England; and Edinburg, Scotland. An interesting note in her travels was a trip from Wiesbaden to Bonn, Germany, down the Rhine River.

Mrs. Robinson's travels were the most extensive. She visited England, Gibraltar, Italy, Greece, Egypt, Jordan, Turkey, Switzerland, France, Belgium, and Lebanon, seeing the Sphinx, Windsor Palace, the old city of Troy, and many other wondrous sights of these countries.

Central Loses Three Two Added to Staff

Among the many teachers we have at Central, two of them have retired. They are Miss Sally May King and Mr. Ed Brown.

Miss King taught English here for the past thirty-one years. Miss King is now living with her sister in Ardmore, Tennessee.

Mr. Brown, former mathematics teacher, taught here since 1943. He will continue his insurance business in Chattanooga.

Mrs. S. Spitzer, who taught typing and shorthand for approximately four years, has resigned. Miss Austin came from Lakeview Junior High, where she taught for seven years. She teaches shorthand and typing.

Mr. Mickler, our science teacher, came from Henegar Junior High in Henegar, Alabama. He taught there for nine years.

Pounders Open Season in Fine Fashion

Win First Two Games of Schedule

Once again the Pounders are off and running, having topped their first two games against highly-touted opposition. Despite their comparatively inexperienced team and schedule of the state's most powerful teams, the Purples stack up to be one of the top teams in Tennessee.

Central is blessed with a fine coaching staff, who, as Pounder fans know, have compiled an excellent record in past years. These men are due much credit for the conditioning of the players and the finesse displayed by the team at this early stage in the season.

The band and drill squad are to be commended for their colorful half-time shows, and, too, the cheerleaders deserve recognition for their pep and morale-boosting chatter when the chips are down.

This year's Pounders appear to be on an equality with past teams and should capably fulfill the school traditions pertaining to football. Therefore, our loyal support is due both to the team and the associated activities. LETS GO ALL THE WAY, POUNDERS!!

The remainder of the season's schedule is as follows:

- Sept. 25—Kingsport.....Kingsport
- Oct. 9—Bradley.....Cleveland
- Oct. 16—Butler.....Huntsville
- Oct. 23—Hillsboro.....Home
- Nov. 6—Greenwood, S. C.....Home
- Nov. 13—Oak Ridge.....Home
- Dec. 4—Meniak Bowls/Jacksonville

FOOTBALL PREVIEW

POUNDERS TOP TOPPERS

Central opened the 1959 football season in typical Pounder fashion in downing Johnson City's Hill-toppers 20-0 before a relatively sparse representation of home folks. Central struck quickly, scoring 5 plays after taking possession of the pigskin. The TD was set up by a Trusley-to-Mallet lateral play. Trusley took a hand off from Huling, and as he was hit at the line, pitched to Mallet who galloped 50 yards up the sideline to the Johnson City 17. Four plays later Trusley plunged over from the three. Huling split the up-rights, making it 7-0 and thus ending the scoring for the first half.

The Pounders scored with the same lightning-fast quickness in the second half with Mallet going 90 yards to pay dirt on the opening kickoff. Mallet received the kick on his own 10, fumbled, picked up, and dashed through the path cleared by tremendous downfield blocking for the score. Huling's try for the PAT hit the cross-bar and bounded back. Central's other touchdown, also coming in the third quarter, came on a 67-yard sustained drive. The score came on a Shuford to Thompson pass play which covered 11 yards. Huling ran the extra point after the snap from center had been tumbled. The final score was 20-0.

Purple Down Memphis
The Pounders carved out their second triumph of the season Friday, September 10 as the Green and Gold clad Memphis Central Warriors fell before the Purple onslaught, 20-13.

POUNDERS LOSE TO ETOWAH 12-6

The Etowah County Devils handed the Pounders their first defeat of the season last Friday night at Attalla, Ala., in a thrilling game. It was marred by frequent fumbles and penalties. Although both teams drove deep into their opponents' territory, the end of the first half saw the two grid giants locked in a scoreless tie. The most serious Central threat brought the Pounders to the 7, but the Devils rallied to throw them back to the 9. The Alabamians actually went over only to have their TD and their drive stymied by a penalty.

The Pounders broke the scoring ice at the start of the third quarter with Huling going all the way on the fourth play from scrimmage. The scrappy quarterback adeptly faked a pitchout, kept and rambled 48 yards for the six-point. The try for extra point was good, but the play was called line jammed up the Warrior backs.

Huling's run around left and failed. The Devils' passing game plus a smoothly performed reverse set up the Etowah Countians' first tally with Halfback Marler going over from the 4. Mallet blocked the kick. In the last quarter Etowah fooled the Pounders on one side of the ball which was handed to Marler who rocketed to the Central 20 behind several blockers. The Central line buckled down in an effort to preserve the tie, only to be faked by a well-executed reverse by Mince, who went for the score. The PAT failed.

Central regrouped into contention when Huling rolled out to pass, but seeing the left sideline open, dashed to the Devil 31. However, an interception of a Shuford pass cut off any thoughts of a score the Purples had. The game ended with Etowah ahead, 12-6.

OFFICERS FOR 1959-1960 ANNOUNCED BY MILITARY

Carolyn Owens Sings In Assembly Program

Carolyn Owens, Miss Chattanooga for 1959-60, presented a musical program in assembly Wednesday, September 16. On the program with her were Barbara Walker and Susan Owens.

Carolyn sang "Love Is Where You Find It," her winning song in the Miss Chattanooga talent contest. Miss Chattanooga, now a voice major at U. C., has been very busy since she won her title. She is called upon to do personal appearances in addition to her classroom and her work with a primary and junior choir at First Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Barbara, a psychology major at the University of Chattanooga who hopes to be a professional singer, accompanied each number. Her presentation of "Kisses Sweeter Than Wine," which she sang and played in assembly, won her the title of Junior Miss Tennessee. Susan, a senior at Central, is majoring in home economics and music. She plans to enter college next fall. Susan sang duets with her sister Carolyn and one solo.

Digest Presents Talent Program

A talent program was presented by the Digest on Monday, September 28, during the regular homecoming period. MC for the program were Gene Clark and Tom Hoge, disc jockey's from WAGC. Pop talks were given by Mr. Millsaps and Mr. Bibbey.

The first performer for the program was a graduate of Central, Wayne Curtis, who entertained the students with his singing. The Central Majorettes presented a baton and dance routine. Not to be out done by the pupils, several teachers organized a faculty band and displayed their talents as they performed on stage before their students.

Each year the Digest staff presents a talent program to promote the sale of the school paper. The Digest is a weekly publication. Digests may be bought for a dime a week, but students are urged to subscribe on the yearly basis of $1.50.

Fred Miller Writes Purple-Gold Column

"Purple and Gold" is the name of the news column which is printed in each weekly edition of the East Ridge Sun newspaper. All students, teachers, and heads of departments are welcomed to submit news concerning their club activities, projects, or anything of interest for the column.

All news should be submitted to Fred Miller who is writing and editing this column.

PLAN PURPOSED FOR NEW SPACE

The County Board of Education met recently to make tentative plans concerning the blocks north and south of Central High School. The block to the north of Central, from Chamberlain to Duncan, will be leveled and fenced in by a cyclone fence eight feet high. It will consist of two softball fields, a tennis court, a basketball court, and a football field. Two sets of bleachers will seat one thousand people. The field will be used by the physical education department and the drill squad. It will also be used on occasions such as May Day.

The block to the south of Central, from Bailey to Union, will be used by the ROTC Department for daily drill activities and for special activities.

Each field will have water fountains and vehicle entrances.

J. Russell Attends Jr. Red Cross Camp

Judy Russell, secretary of the Junior Red Cross here at Central, attended the Southeastern Area Leadership Training Center at Camp Green Cove, Tuxedo, North Carolina. Other delegates attending from this area were Joan Graves of City High School and George Farr of Red Bank High School.

Qualifications for the delegates were based on leadership, initiative, and interest.

The purpose of the training center was to stimulate leadership in our schools.

While at the camp each person from the Southeastern states participated in discussion groups, committee meetings, instruction periods of first aid, recreation, and assemblies.

The trip was made possible by our local Red Cross Chapter.

Mitchell Pearson Sees Europe Found Iran Palace Impressive

Mitchell Pearson, a senior student here at Central, spent three and one-half months abroad this summer. His father works with K. D. S., Khuzestan Development Service, in Iran. Mitchell spent three months in Iran with his father. The remaining two weeks were spent in traveling.

Mitchell's first stop was Amstern, a country of canals, windmills, and what he describes as the "cutest costumes I've seen." Five days were spent seeing all the sights of Rome, the most impressive being St. Peter's Cathedral with its mosaic and gold interior design. Next on his itinerary was Greece with its beautiful ocean perfect for swimming, then to Cairo, Egypt, very much like Iran.

Mitchell did not think too much of the desert sands, palm trees, Choo."

Miss Tiernan Goes To Nashville Meeting

Miss Tiernan, who teaches economics and sociology, is attending a meeting in Nashville on Thursday and Friday of this week. She will meet with the Tennessee State Board of the Council on Economic Education. This is their regular annual meeting.

Discussions will be held concerning the workshops on economic education, which are being sponsored in different places during the year. The plans and budget for the coming year will be made.

The board has met at the University of Tennessee and plans to meet at Fisk University sometime in the future.

Miss Tiernan is the only teacher from the county schools that has been elected to this board.

The number of officers has diminished slightly from last year as the military has adopted a Battle Group patterned after the U. S. Army's new pentomic command. It replaces the regiment which was outmoded by this change. Another new idea in the way of ROTC is the singing company. These boys will go to Mr. John from time to time for instruction and will perform on special occasions.

At this time Central wishes to welcome to the military staff, two new instructors; SFC Sizemore from Chattanooga High, and SFC Gilbert from Fort Benning, Ga. They will assume the duties of Sgts. Green and Martin and round out the staff.

Mr. S. T. Stoner is the sponsor of the Cinema Club for this year. Mr. Stoner teaches world history.

BARNEY OTTINGER HEADS CENTRAL ROTC CADET CORP

Central High's Corp of Cadets has just recently named its commanding and executive officers for the 1959-60 school year. They are as follows: Colonel—Barney Ottinger; Lt. Colonels—Monte Stewart and William Millsaps; Majors—Robert Babb, Bert Brown and Ken Hudgens. The remainder of the officers will be named at a later date.

Ottinger's promotion to Central's highest military position was made by Major General T. E. de Shazo, deputy commander general, Third U. S. Army. General de Shazo had been touring the areas' military schools in order to meet the school's officials and consented to make the presentation which transpired at a private ceremony in Mr. Millsaps's office. The other promotions were made by Mr. Millsaps.

The purpose of the Cinema Club is to show classroom films and to help with visual aids. To set up visual aid equipment for teachers, to show classroom films, to prepare visual equipment for mailing, and to service and repair visual aid equipment are a few of the many duties performed by the Cinema Club members. To qualify as a member of the Cinema Club one must be regular in school attendance, conduct himself properly at all time, have an interest in the welfare of Central and its students, and each member must possess the desire to work.

The members of the Cinema Club of '59-'60 are: James Gossett, Bill Stansbury, Don Russell, Gary Tipton, Dan Smith, Gary Stout, Clifford Dillard, Bill Cummings, and Ronnie Bonnie. Bill Stansbury and Don Russell are head operators of the club.

At this time Central wishes to welcome to the military staff, two new instructors; SFC Sizemore from Chattanooga High, and SFC Gilbert from Fort Benning, Ga. They will assume the duties of Sgts. Green and Martin and round out the staff.

Mr. S. T. Stoner is the sponsor of the Cinema Club for this year. Mr. Stoner teaches world history.

BATTALION BRIEFS

The Central High School Battalion is an important part of our physical education department. It is under the direction of Miss Sarah Hubbard. The girls' battalion specializes in marching drills and formations for the half-time shows of the Central football games. The battalion has a busy schedule planned for the school term of '59 and '60. Besides participating in half-time shows, they will help present programs in the Central High auditorium such as Ponders on Parade.

The girls have planned several money-making campaigns for this year. During the month of November, the battalion will be selling Christmas paper and fruit cakes. The money made from these projects will be used to pay the expenses of the trip to the Meniak Bowl in Jacksonville, Florida. Ann Hoffmeyer is major of the Girls' Battalion for this year. At the present time none of the other officers has been appointed. The sponsor will appoint the remaining officers as the year progresses.

COMING EVENTS

Monday, October 5, Homeroom.
Tuesday, October 6, Boys Hi-Y.
Wednesday, October 7, To be announced.
Thursday, October 8, To be announced.
Friday, October 9, Pep Rally. Bradley game there.

Donna Reed, head majorette, won first place in dance twirling and third place in strutting. Carolyn Hale was chosen Miss Congeniality. The other girls are Diane Turner, Pat Woodfin, Diane Swafford, Tanya Mesevich, and Diane Haynes. Besides these regulars this year, we have a junior majorette from the seventh grade, twelve-year-old Jackie Nelson.

Now that school has started the girls spend three days a week working about three hours each day for programs such as Ponders on Parade, Band Varieties, Champion Night and the Band Festival. Working closely with the band and their sponsor Morris Bales, they really turn out some fine shows--so be watching for the Central High Majorettes.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY SENIOR CLASS

Seniors held their first meeting of 1959-60 on September 22, for the purpose of electing the officers for the year. Bert Brown, junior class president of '58 and '59, presided until the new president was elected.

The senior president for this year is Jimmy Aiken. Jimmy's activities include the Disc and Diamond, C Club, National Honor Society, football and representative for the Student Council last year. The class elected as vice-president, Ken Hudgens. Ken is a member of the C Club, officer in military, and a three-year letterman in baseball.

Sandra Woods will fill the office of secretary. Being president of the Nite Owls and head cheerleader takes up much of Sandra's time. Susan Pollett is not only treasurer of the Vagabonds, but also new treasurer of the senior class. Susan takes part in many activities at Central. She is president of the Bank and Book Store Staff, vice president of the Tri-Hi-Y, and a member of the Senate, Honor Society and Champion staff.

Marshals for '59 and '60 are: Paul Chapman, Wayne Huling, Murphy Rogers, and Gilbert Trustley.

Paul is captain in football, C Club member, and an executive lieutenant in military. Wayne's activities include football, Glee Club, and C Club. Murphy proves his interest in music by playing in the band, Swing Band, and orchestra. He is also a member of the Key Club and an officer in military. Gilbert is co-captain of the football team.

Graduates Make Careers of Art

Miss Mary Lou Derryberry, head of Central's Art Department, has released the following information about her former students.

Marilyn May received a degree at the University of Georgia and is teaching art in the new program in Cleveland.

Jean McWhorter, a 1950 graduate, has received her Bachelor of Science and Masters Degrees at the University of Georgia. After spending the summer traveling through Europe and Italy, she returned to Sioux City, Iowa, where she is teaching at Morning Side College. Jean's sister, Carole, accompanied her to Europe. Carole is now attending the University of Tennessee.

Roy Craven, a 1942 graduate, and his wife, Lorna Andreae Craven, visited Miss Derryberry this summer. Roy teaches art at the University of Florida in Gainesville. Lorna has private classes for adults each Saturday.

Bill Jernigan, Hubert Shuptrine, and Carlton Burnette, all former Centralites, will have paintings in an exhibition of works by local artists which will travel through several Southern towns.

50-60 SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Central Alumni Have Third Floor Offices

In a short time the Central Alumni Association will move into its new office. The school has donated a small room which is between Miss Tiermans' room and Mrs. Robinson's room on the third floor. This is something that the officers of the Alumni Association have wanted and needed for some time.

Mrs. Kenneth Hemphill is in charge of remodeling the room. New tile has been put on the floor and new filing cabinets have been ordered. At the present time no other equipment, whose president is Mr. Cooper T. Holt, is furnishing all of the equipment and materials used for the remodeling of the new office.

This office will be used for filing cards containing the names and addresses of all Central graduates. The mailing list will be used to inform the graduates of their class reunions and other special events.

SIX GIRLS RENDER SERVICE TO SCHOOL

At noon each day a group of girls composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors are kept busy selling ice cream at both lunch periods.

The proceeds from the sales are used by the school and the P.T.A. for many different projects.

The girls not only sell ice cream, but also have the job of stacking cups and straightening the counter after the rush of students have made their purchases.

SENATE NAMES NEW MEMBERS

The Senate increased its membership on September 24 by taking in thirteen new members. A list of qualified students, prepared by the Senate Cabinet and a group of teachers, was presented to the Senate to be voted upon. Thirteen receiving the highest number of votes were taken in as new members.

After becoming a member, the students begin working for points which are given for any service or activity done concerning the Senate projects.

Under the point system, any senior who has earned 70 points is presented with a Senate pin.

The new members for the coming year are: Tommy Aiken, Floyd Keith, Linda Womack, Billy Warren, Sandra Blackburn, Bobby Duggan, Joan Goodlet, Gene Spencer, Cliff Suddarth, Lynn Williams, David Womack, Charles Smith, and Sandy Parsons.

Miss Dorothy Walker is Senate Sponsor.

COFER BECOMES TIMES REPORTER

Laura Cofer has taken Brenda Belk's position of last year as reporter to "The Bulletin Board," a column in the society section of The Chattanooga Times.

"The Bulletin Board" presents an all-around picture of the school and its athletic, social, and academic activities. In addition to news from Central, Laura also reports on the activities of Tyner High. A representative from City contributes news from City and Red Bank High Schools to complete "The Bulletin Board."

Laura's many other activities around Central include: Glee Club, Quorrels, and Glenna King. Mrs. Shupshire is in charge of the selection of the girls who sell the ice cream.

SENIORS TO TAKE A. C. T. TESTS

On November 7, 1959, the American College Testing Program (A. C. T.) will be sponsoring a test which will be given to college-bound seniors. The A.C.T. is an admissions, scholarship, guidance, and placement test designed to provide helpful information and service to colleges and high schools, and to the student.

The examination will consist of four tests averaging forty-five minutes in length, representing the fields of English, mathematics, natural sciences, and social studies.

The A.C.T. examination will be administered at testing centers throughout the country. Some of the testing centers for Tennessee are at the University of Chattanooga, the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, and Middle Tennessee State College at Murfreesboro.

A fee of three dollars will be charged and should be sent directly to the office of the State Co-ordinator. The registration form and fee must be in the office of the State Co-ordinator by October 15, 1959. A ticket of admission will be issued after registration. The test will take place from 8:30 to 12:00 noon on November 7.

Central students interested in the tests may consult Mr. Hood-enryl.

Marching Unit Makes Its Debut At Central

Mitchell Pearson has organized a new group at Central called the "Rebel Rousers." They first appeared on Ponders on Parade on which they presented a drill. The four members that represented the group were Mitchell Pearson, John Sliger, Guy Padgett and Ronald Hicks.

This group has many plans for the coming year. They are: to visit the junior high schools of the area, to participate in activities associated with Mr. Dyer on "Goodwill Tours," to present an exhibition at the Oak Ridge game, to perform in Champion Night, and to compete in Nashville against other drill teams of the state.

MORGAN TELLS OF FAC. PICNIC PLANS

The faculty will have its annual picnic at Camp Dixie on October 15, reports the general chairman, Miss Minnie Lee Morgan.

Attending the picnic will be the faculty and their families and invited guests. Special guests will be the retired teachers of Central and Superintendent Sam McConnell and his wife.

In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Beba Pults and Mrs. Lora Fleniken. Mrs. Gerald Castle will prepare the food. The chairman of the finance committee is Miss Ruby Nipper. Recreation for the afternoon will be planned by Mrs. Janette Crawley, Mrs. Margaret Hammack, and Miss Joyce Austin. Mr. Sam Stoner will see that needed transportation is furnished. The welcoming committee chairmen are Mrs. Virginia Skates and Mr. Arlie Hoodenryl.

By JIM FRIEDRICHSEN

Two of Central's stalwart defenders rack up an Indian back in the picture at the right—one of the many action shots of the Kingsport game. However in this game the Indians dealt the Purples their worst defeat since about 1948, blanking them 28-0. The Kingsport offense was in sharp contrast to the Pounders, who were unable to generate any steam throughout the game, mustering only 54 yards rushing.

ANOTHER INDIAN BITES THE DUST

Pounders Face Bears Tonite
The Pounders are now occupied with the task of whetting their appetite for their annual "bear meat barbecue." The Bears, a formidable foe who last year came so close to fanning the Purple's then clean armor, are highly touted again this year. Says Etter, "We expect Bradley to be just as strong as Kingsport, but we're hoping to be a greatly improved team come game-time."

Thus far this year, Bradley boasts a clean slate, having rolled over Polk and Tyner by sizeable margins and edging Nashville Litton 14-13.
It stands to be a good game, so do yourself and your team a favor by going to Cleveland tonight and cheering the Purples on

Cheerleading Becomes A Family Matter ?

If you have heard "For when those Central warriors fall in line" everytime you turn around, think nothing of it. This time every year hopeful sophomore boys and girls try their luck as song and cheerleaders.

For two weeks these hopeful boys and girls go to the gym on various afternoons to learn cheers taught by the junior and senior cheerleaders. During this time mothers promise to shoot themselves if they heard the cheer one more time, fathers complain about the amount of money it will cost if his little hopeful gets cheerleader, and little brothers and sisters wonder why everything is in such chaos.

The day finally comes. One by one, these sophomores file into Mr. John's room as though they were walking the last mile. But in only a short time it's all over. There are tears of gladness and tears of sadness. Oh well, it's all over until next year and then we'll have to go through all of it again.

RIFLE TEAM PLANS YEAR'S FIRST MEET

The acrid odor of gunsmoke fills the armory as the battle between men and bulls-eyes is waged. Seriously, our rifle team made up of Charles Stehle, this year's captain, Joe Clem, Charles Morris, and Bobby Samuelson are in the dual process of both getting ready for their first meet and recruiting new members. Last year our Rifle Team competed against such teams as the University of Chattanooga, City, McCallie and Baylor.

This year's change in the military staff brought about a change in the sponsorship of the team with SFC Gilbert taking the reins from SFC Green, who is no longer with us.

GIRLS TO DECIDE ON TEEN FASHIONS

Twenty Chattanooga high school girls have been chosen to participate in fashion shows at Miller Brothers in the Junior Colony. Fashion models from Central are Augusta Nock, a junior, and Sue Cameron, a senior.

Applications were taken on September 12, with two girls chosen from each high school. The first public fashion show was on October 3, in which all girls participated. Each set of girls is required to put on their own fashion show, and the first one is to be on October 17. They will also do informal modeling in the store. The girls will choose their own models and plan their outfits, including the accessories. The Fashion Board will give their opinion on the clothes worn by the models, and buyers for Miller Brothers will then buy ten clothes according to the Board's opinion.

The models will meet every other Saturday for one year. They will have a uniform of green leotards, short pleated skirts, white blouses, and green vests. Each girl will keep a scrapbook of the Fashion Board's activities, and Mr. Miller will award a prize to the girl with the best and most complete scrapbook at the end of the year.

Bible Club Elects Officers for Year

Regular meetings are being held each week by the Bible Club. The Bible Club is a club where students can have fellowship with each other. The purpose of the club is to help develop people in their Christian lives and to practice it in their daily living.

The officers for the Bible Club this year are president, Judy Frappier; vice president, Dawn Balow; secretary, Pat Lang, and treasurer, Joyce Ledford.

The Bible Club has invited a missionary to speak in chapel on October 20. Miss Winslett is the sponsor.

SOPHOMORE KURT CARPENTER PREFERS CHATTANOOGA AND AMARILLO, TEXAS

New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Virginia, Mexico, and Washington, D. C., are only a few places which Kurt Carpenter, a sophomore at Central, has either lived or visited. The main reason Kurt has been and seen more places than the majority of students is because his father is in the Air Force.

Kurt attended Glenwood Elementary until the fourth grade. Then his family moved to Nashville and lived there for two years. His father was transferred to Falls Church, Virginia, when Kurt, 10, was in the seventh grade, and to Maryland for the first part of the eighth and back to Chattanooga for the latter part to attend Dick-

The Photographers Club, sponsored by Mr. Towery, was organized at Central in 1943.

The purpose of the club is to do the photography of all school activities, to take pictures for the Champion, to paint portraits, and to display pictures in the display window on the second floor. The activities of the club are financed by students who have pictures developed or painted by the club. Bill Pierce has been elected president for this year and Bobby Baker, vice-president. Gwendolyn Wilson will serve as secretary and treasurer. The photographers are: Bill Pierce, Robert Wallace, Gary Powell, Tommy Gross, and Bobby Baker.

Several honors were received by the club when three of the members entered the Interstate Fair photo contest this year. Bill Pierce's work won two first place prizes and a second place. Robert Wallace received a second place prize.

OFFICE SERVES DEFINITE USE

On the second floor, opposite the rotunda, is Central's main office. Mr. O'Neal and school secretary, Miss Coppinger, are there to guide and assist students at all times. It is here dismissals, passes, student records, and schedule cards are kept.

The office is staffed by girls selected by senior office members for their character, efficiency, and responsibility. It is the duty of these girls to answer phones, to file information, and to run errands.

The registrar's office is located to the right of the main office and is staffed by Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Dyer. Mrs. Ellis helps all seniors inquiring about their credits. Mrs. Dyer is in charge of assisting all underclassmen in regard to credits.

PAT WOODFIN WINS IN SENIOR TWIRLING

Pat Woodfin, junior majorette here, recently won third place in the junior twirling division held at the Southeastern Fair Majorette Contest. The Central High School Corp captured 2nd place in the contest. Ranking first was one of the Atlanta school entries. The contest was held Saturday, October 3rd in Atlanta.

Pat won 6th place in the Miss Majorette of Tennessee Contest, held here before school started. She also did a solo during the University of Chattanooga halftime show September 25.

Pat moved here last year from Miami, Florida, where she had been a majorette and 1st leader of the North Miami Baton Club.

Pat is a member of the Twixteen Club as well as being a majorette.

Pat included in our majorette corps who went to Atlanta are Donna Reed, held majorette, Dianna Turner, Tanya Mesevich, Carolyn Hale, Pat Woodfin, Diane Swafford, and Diane Haynes.

JRC Officers Elect Ginny Riggins Pres.

The Junior Red Cross recently elected officers for the 1959-60 school year. They are as follows: president—Ginny Riggins; vice-president—Billie Ainscough; secretary—Judie Russell; treasurer—Gwen Hamilton; program chairman—Vickie Chambers and Terry Farr.

Anyone interested in joining the Red Cross Club may do so by contacting one of the officers or the sponsor, Mrs. Robinson. Meetings are held every Thursday during the assembly period in Room 317.

CENTRAL STUDENT BODY ELECTS ADDITIONAL MEMBERS TO COUNCIL

Elections were held recently in which executive and associate members of the student council were selected. The officers of the 1959-60 Council were elected by these new members as well as the executive members held over from last year.

The officers elected were: president, Steve Whitaker; vice-president, Cliff Suddarth; secretary, Alke Woy; treasurer, Carolyn Downs; chaplains, Wayne Huling and Jackie Indermill; publicity chairman, Gale Delaney.

A functional Student Council is a practical and useful way to meet the school's objectives of teaching citizenship. With good leadership, the Student Council not only becomes a laboratory for building citizens of tomorrow but also envisions the school to become a working laboratory for actually practicing citizenship today.

The Council is a two-way channel. Individuals and groups of students from the home rooms may propose ideas to the Council; then the Council deliberates, draws conclusions, and reports to the student body the accepted ideas and initiates the realization of projects.

If the Council is to give its greatest service, every project and every idea must fit into the five basic functions of the Council:

1. To build unity
2. To improve scholarship
3. To provide opportunities for leadership and service
4. To promote cooperation between faculty and students
5. To further the future development of Central.

BRUIIS SMASH POUNDERS 27-14

Last Friday night proved to be an ill-fated date for the Pounders as they went down to their third crushing defeat in a row. This time it was Bradley's Bears who inflicted upon Central the third such "triple loss" during the "Etter era."

POUNDERS ON PARADE

Playing at Cleveland, Central started the scoring on an electrifying 76-yard run by Huling on the QB keeper play. However, the joy was short-lived for Pounder fans as the Bears made it 7-0 on a jaunt by Senters with only 1 1/2 minutes having gone by since the Purples' score. Then again at the start of the second quarter White, a Bear lineman, dashed in and stole a handoff from Shuford and lumbered 67 yards for the TD. The Pounders tied it on a play which saw Trusley carry, get hit, and then pitch to Huling, who went 25 yards for the score. Huling then put the Purples ahead with a placement from the 7 following a Pounder penalty on first try. But again the Bears forged ahead on a score set up by an interception, leading at the half, 20-14.

PAUL CHAPMAN

Paul Chapman, 200 pound tackle on this year's starting eleven, is the Pounder's captain this year. On the All-City team last year, "Ball" has come back to be just as stalwart and mean on the line, if not more so, this year. Chapman plays both defense and offense for the purples and does a bang up job at both.

In addition to football, Chapman is a lieutenant in military. His sponsor is Diane Turner, a Central majorette. He is also a member of the "C" Club, and a Marshall among the officers of the Senior Class. As for college, the Wauhatchian is undecided.

BAND NOTES

The Central Band will be kept busy marching at three important performances this week-end. The first performance will be the half-time show at Huntsville, Alabama, tonight.

Tomorrow the band will participate in the Tri-State Band Festival. The majorettes will enter a contest in the morning, and the band will march in a downtown parade in the afternoon. Saturday evening the group will compete with thirty other bands in a contest at the U. C. Stadium. The past four years, Central's Band has received an "A" rating, which is the highest rating they can receive.

On October 3, the majorettes participated in contest held in Atlanta and returned with quite a few awards. They placed second in the corps competitions, and Pat Woodfin won third place in senior twirling. Jackie Nelson placed second in junior twirling.

COMING EVENTS

- October 19—Assembly: Student Council presents new officers.
- October 20—Boys HI-Y.
- October 21—Special events period from 1:05 to 2:05. Boys go to military and girls go to homeroom.
- October 22—Mr. O'Neal and the Swing Band.
- October 23—Pep meeting—Hillsboro, here.

OFFICERS PRESENT SPONSORS OCT. 26

The highlight of the fall activities for the Military Department is the Presentation of Sponsors which will take place at McGuffie Field on Tuesday evening of October 27, at 7:30 p. m.

The programs will consist of a parade by the R. O. T. C. Cadets and the presentation of the sponsors to their units. Each officer chooses a senior girl to be his sponsor and to participate in the military activities of the year.

The officers and their sponsors are:

PSY. CLASS VISITS ORANGE GROVE SCH.

On Monday, October 12, Mr. Dyer took his third period psychology class to Orange Grove School for Retarded Children. Here, they visited the various classes where teachers informed them of their work. The thirty-eight students going on the trip also visited the school's workshop. Adults who are disabled make articles to be sold to different businesses for advertising purposes.

Each Friday, during the third period various Central students will act as assistants at Orange Grove. The students assisting are Wayne Huling, Ken Hudgens, Bert Brown, Lucy German, Donnie Allen, Sandra Woods, Susan McLaughlin, Ken Parker, Richard Daverson, Susan Owens, Beverly Horner, Danny Strickland, Willie Dean Ray, Toni Lenn, Linda Brown, Ann Cole, Katherine Ray, Sandra Compton, Faye Watnow, Gerry Robinson, Judy Russell, Martha Coe and Linda Kirby.

Science Club Studies Various Science Fields

The Science Club, sponsored by Mr. Moore and Mr. Litz, meets each Tuesday in room 322 for the study of many fields of science. The club is preparing several projects for its presenting evening projects for the Science Fair held here in Chattanooga. They also plan to make field trips to study nature and to show films of the different sciences to the club.

Music Students Sing At E.T.E.A. Meeting

Approximately 300 students from East Tennessee high schools will be in Knoxville on October 28-29-30, to participate in a mass chorus and orchestra at the East Tennessee Teachers' meeting.

Out of the 300 in the chorus, 16 of them will be representing Central. They are: 1st soprano, Jo Ann Massey, Rita Harding; 2nd soprano, Judy McKaig, Sannie Sue Potter; 1st tenor, Ronald Ledford, Stanley Lewis; 2nd tenor, Jimmy H. Smith, Morris McDowell; 1st bass, Kenny Park, Barry Ford; 2nd bass, Jerry Dewwanger, George Peele; 1st alto, Laura Cofer, Lynn da Pease; 2nd alto, Linda Norris, Patti Hayes. Bene Hammel will try to act as accompanist for the chorus.

The 60 piece orchestra will be conducted by E. D. Rushworth of the University of Chattanooga. Central students who tried out for this orchestra were Sophia Silver and Pamela Smith.

The orchestra and chorus will perform at the Teacher's Meeting on October 30 in the afternoon session.

Chaperones for the trip will be Mr. and Mrs. John. The group will be staying at the Alhambra Motor Courts.

Band Wins 1-A Rating In Tri-State Contest

Last Saturday night, the band won a Division I rating at the In-State Band Festival. The majorettes also won a Most Outstanding Contest Corps Award. The contest judges were O'dell Willis from Knoxville, Howard Brown and Jimmy Reynolds, both from Nashville.

In spite of the fact that the band didn't return from Huntsville until 2:30 a.m., the majorettes got up bright and early and participated in the majorette contest at U. C. held in conjunction with the band festival. They placed second in the ensemble event and Donna Reed placed third in the strutting contest.

Even though rain threatened to cancel the parade and contest, spirits of the bandmen were not dampened and the events went off as scheduled.

There were twenty-eight bands in the contest from Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee.

CENTRAL HOLDS P. T. A. DRIVE

The Parent-Teacher Association (P. T. A.) recently held a membership drive which began on October 16. Special emphasis was placed on Wednesday, October 14, which was recognized as Membership Day. Each floor formed a committee to see who could get the most members. Chairmen were:

Mr. Fields—first floor, Mrs. Haskins—second floor, Miss Rice—third floor. Percentages through October 15 were: first floor—90%, second floor—88%, third floor—

24 Rooms Support Digest 100 Percent

As this Digest goes to press, twenty-nine homerooms are either 100% or near 100% subscriptions to the school paper.

Each student in a room having 100% in annual subscriptions receives two tickets for two basketball games. These tickets are given by the Digest in co-operation with the basketball coach, Mr. Smith.

During a program on September 28 for the promotion of the Digest sales, it was announced by the disc jockeys of WAGC that a bottle of perfume would be awarded to the first boy and girl whose homeroom got 100% subscriptions for the Digest.

The boy, Bobby Baker, won from Mrs. Robinson's room with 100%, while the girl, Faye Springfield, won from Mr. Dyer's room with 100%.

The Digest can still be bought in your homeroom for ten cents a week or $1.50 for the yearly subscription. They, too, might receive tickets for to complete their sales so that 100% in their annual sales is urged. Any homeroom which is not yet 100%.

The price of membership was fifty cents for each person. A film was shown to students having one membership.

Membership cards, which will be given to members, will be in the form of booklets giving the purposes and activities of the P. T. A. It will also give the programs of the P. T. A. for this year.

Elma O'Neal Heads 1960 Champion Staff.

The members of the Champion staff for the coming year have been announced by Miss Minnie Lee Morgan, new faculty advisor for the Champion. They are as follows: Editor-in-chief, Elma O'Neal; Senior Editors, Della Hamilton and Marian Berning; Feature Editors, Ann Hoffmeyer, Suzanne Lawrence, and Loretta Ettien; Service Club Editor, Alice Woy; Social Club Editor, Virginia White; Departmental Editor, Betty Reeves; Girl's Sports Editor, Sara Jane Reeves; Junior High Editor, Judy Frappier; Sports Editors, (Football) Jim Friedrichson, (Basketball) Bill Millsaps, and (Baseball) Floyd Kephart; Military Editors, Barney Ottinger and Ronnie Renegar; Art Editor, Jimmy Shuptrine; Junior Class Editor, Ann Cole; Sophomore Class Editor, Dottie Meyer; Freshman Class Editor, Pam Catlett; Photographers: Bill Pierce, Bob Baker, Tommy Gross, Raymond Kile, and Gary Powell; and Typists: June Clinton, Mary Jo Keith, Marlene Poff, and Phyllis Thompson.

The Champion Staff edits the annual yearbook at Central. Each Editor has a specific section of the yearbook for which he is responsible. He arranges for all pictures to be made and edits all material concerning his section.

ORDER CHAMPION OCT. 23-NOV. 13

October twenty-third through November thirteenth orders for the Champion of 1960 will be taken in the bank. All students of all grades may purchase a yearbook. The price, $5.00, remains the same as it has been in the past.

COUNCIL HOSTS JR. HIGHS AT GAME TONIGHT

SHOUT, STUDENTS, SHOUT

1000 Tickets Distributed Among Area Jr Highs

October 23, the Student Council are sponsoring Junior High Night. Approximately 1,000 tickets were distributed to the junior highs for the Central-Hillsboro football game. The purpose of this effort is not only to create a good will between junior highs and Central but also to show them what a great school we have.

Last year, the Student Council initiated this program, but more emphasis is being placed on this year's project.

Student Council President Steve Whitaker reported that a welcoming committee of two council members was assigned to each junior high. They visited the assigned schools, distributed 1,000 tickets, and also presented welcome badges which would identify them as being our guests.

The schools visited and the Central representatives were: East Side—Alice Woy, Floyd Kephart, Gale Delaney; Hardy Junior High—Lowell Bennington, Carolyn Downs; Elbert Long—Steve Whitaker, Jackie Indermill, Ken Parker; Brainerd—Cliff Suddarth, Mark Scherer, Gerry Robinson; Lookout Junior High—Alice Woy, Floyd Kephart, Gale Delaney; East Lake—Ann Cole, Bill Millarsaps; Northside—Chris Kite-Powell, Ann Hoffmeyer; and Lookout Valley—Steve Whitaker, Jackie Indermill, and Ken Parker.

The cheerleaders will welcome our junior high guests and lead a special cheer for them. Also the council members and cheerleaders will organize a special student section to support our team.

The snapshot above is indicative of the high degree of school spirit which we of Central are noted for having. In this picture, we have Mr. Millarsaps and Mr. O'Neal, our principal and assistant principal respectively, leading a cheer at a pep rally preceding the Bradley game. This is an example of Central's "oneness," showing that Central's not a building of mortar and brick, but "we, the people"—the students and the faculty.

School spirit: What is it? It's defined as cheering during the third and fourth quarters of a football game when the home boys are coming in second in a two team race, do we have said spirit? Actually, it is an intangible something which gives a school that little extra drive which elevates it to the "head of the class"; this is the type thing with which both past and present patrons of Central are so beautifully endowed. However, we cannot sit idly by resting on our laurels. Our school is what we make it and want it to be. More, let's make it head and shoulders above the pack; let's make it the finest.

Battalion In 29th Year Under Miss Hubbard

The Central High's Girls' Marching Battalion was organized by Miss Sara Hubbard twenty-nine years ago. Hers was the first battalion in the city, and she has always been the sponsor. The battalion is made up of girls who are interested in marching drill.

The Battalion was originally organized to perform marching routines at the annual Thanksgiving, City-Central football game. The Battalion at that time marched without the band.

At the present time the Battalion performs in half-time at football games, parades, May Day, and Ponders on Parade.

The high spot of the battalion is the annual trip to Jacksonville, Florida, for the Meniak Bowl. This trip is being financed this year by the girls selling fruit cakes and the profits from Pounders on Parade.

The battalion officers are Major Ann Hoffmeyer. There are two captains—Rachel Temple and Gale Delaney. The lieutenants are Marlene Poff, Laura Coffey, Gerry Robinson, Jackie Indermill, and the sergeants are Sue Carmichel, Patsy Farmer, Nancy Evans, Carolyn Downs, Karen Heyer, Sue Cameron, Janice Daniels, and Diane Alverson.

Pounders Snap Loss Skein, Winning 33-0

Central's Pounders snapped a three-game losing streak in crushing the Huntsville Butler Rebels, 33-0. The game saw something new in Pounder football as Coach Etter introduced the platoon system, which was, as indicated by the score very effective.

The Pounders struck hard and fast with Gil Trusley putting the Purples ahead 6-0 with a 65-yard gallop on the second play from scrimmage. After a tussle in the scoring throughout the remainder of the first quarter and the greater portion of the second, the Pounders "dood" it again, this time Huling tallying from 2 yards after a 60-yard march. The kick was good, making it 13-0.

Central unleashed another long run midway in the third period as Trusley ripped off 59 yards for the TD. Then, minutes later, Mallet used the weapon which beat the Pounders last week, the intercepted pass, to set their fourth score, which came on a Shuford-to-Brown serial, making it 27-0. The last Purple score came in the final quarter on Huling's second score as he sped 82 yards to pay-dirt.

The Alabamans challenged seriously only twice and once drove to the 2-yard line, threatening Central's shutout. Each time the defense rose to the occasion and drove them back. The Pounder offense, too, was at its peak as they rolled up 400-plus net yardage.

HOMECOMING QUEEN TO BE CROWNED DURING HALF-TIME ACTIVITIES TONIGHT

Central High's Homecoming Queen will be crowned during the half-time activities at the Greenwood-Central game tonight. The candidates are Carolyn Hale, Sue Cameron, Dianna Turner, and Sandra Woods.

Sue Cameron is publicity chairman of the Spinsterette Club, sergeant in battalion, Tri-Hi-Y, head cheerleader, sponsor, Miller's fashion representative from Central, and a member of the gym staff.

ROADMAN HEADS HONOR SOCIETY

The Lookout Chapter of the National Honor Society recently announced new officers for 1959-60. Don Roadman was elected to preside over the group for the first semester. Other officers elected were vice-president, Elma O'Neal; secretary, Lovetta Etten; treasurer's aide, Donna Brock; chaplain, Judith Frappier.

In order to become a member, a student must maintain a "B" average and be in the upper one-third of the class. A student must also have the qualifications of leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

A list of the students' names eligible for membership is voted upon by members of the Honor Society, and then it is sent to the faculty for their vote and approval. Seniors are chosen for the Honor Society in the fall; juniors are chosen in the spring.

Members of the National Honor Society are as follows: Jimmy Aiken, Marian Bering, Sue Carmichael, Marilyn Clark, Laura Coffey, Pat Cooper, Gale Delaney, Susan Follett, Della Hamilton, Suzanne Lawrence, William Millarsaps, Betty Reeves, Sara Jane Reeves, and Alice Woy.

The Lookout Chapter meets on the first Thursday of each month. The purposes of the Honor Society are to promote leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

CHAMPION EXTENDS SALES TO NOV. 13

The time for buying the Champion, which is the school year book, has been extended to Friday, November 13.

The Champion can be ordered at Central's bank. The cost of it is $5.00.

ETA CLUB PROMOTES AMERICAN ED. WEEK

American Educational Week is the week which the National Educational Association, National Conference of Parents and Teachers, the American Legion, and all other organizations which are interested in education set aside each year to be observed as a means of emphasizing the importance of education in our nation. A. E. W. was observed November 2-5 at Central. The Future Teachers Club, sponsored by Mr. Dyer, had charge of special activities. The officers, president, Mary Prophater, vice-president, Shirley Crownover, secretary-treasurer, Martha Coe and chaplain, Nancy Morris, were presented pins on Monday, November 2. On Tuesday Skipper Swords, Judy Armstrong, Sandra Compton, and Brenda O'Daniel composed a student-panel discussion on "The Welfare of Children." On Wednesday, there was a student-teacher discussion on "What Qualities Make a Good Teacher." Panelists are Nancy Monks, Mary Frazier, and Martha Coe.

Council Promotes Clothing Drive

The annual clothing drive, which is being conducted by the Student Council, this year will be November 9-17. Students are asked to bring at least one garment suitable for students from 6 to 19 years of age. In each homeroom the Student Council associate member will act as room chairman. Clothes are to be collected, counted, and taken to the room to the right of the study hall by 9:30 each morning.

Every year Central has collected more clothing than all the other county schools combined. Last year, under the leadership of Mr. Stoner, Central collected over 14,000 garments. The Council is hoping to equal this record with the concerted effort of every student and teacher.

At the completion of the drive, a representative of the Hamilton County Department of Education will collect and distribute the garments to the schools where they are needed.

SENIORS OBSERVE CAREER DAY AT UC

On October 22, 1959, the seniors observed Career Day at the University of Chattanooga.

A general assembly was held at 8:30 a.m. The high school seniors are divided into groups in terms of professional and vocational interests. Each group attended two morning and one afternoon session.

Each student chose three fields which he was interested. Among the fields of interest were: Art, business, chemistry, biological, biological science, communications, engineering, home economics, journalism, law, government and civil service, library, science, medi-

Bygone Days Re-lived At Tonight's Game

"Oh, the homecoming days are here." There will be reminiscing, nostalgia and reviewing of the good old days as the alumni get together for tonight's homecoming and open house. Of course, there'll be a few tales, similar to those stretchy socks when a million dollar catches them about "billion dollar deals", etc., but then that can be expected.

Looking around the stadium, we see that all-state halfback from the '30's—"Swivel-hips." However the "swivel" is now "hippo" as he has accumulated a little more weight and has a little less hair. And, too, there's that grandstand QB who knows all about the game and wants all around him to know it, too. Of course there are many more, including Central's earlier majorettes, last year's grad, and the character in the raucous coat trying to relieve his last youth.

We, too, make up this fandom; so let's go all out to come up with a 100% representation for the game. There are two features—the game and the crowning of the queen at halftime. By the way, any resemblances in the cartoons are purely coincidental.

BAND NOTES

Ronald Williams, with the help of Roy Anderson, Darrell and Dwight McCauley, designed and made a music cabinet which will hold the flip over folders used for the marching music. This new addition to the bandroom will be a big help in getting the band ready to march easier and quicker.

The band, along with the battalion, is selling fruit cakes and Christmas wrapping paper in order to raise money to go to Jacksonville. The two pound fruit cakes, which are attractively boxed in tin containers, are selling for $2.00. There is a total of 30 feet of paper in the boxes which sell for $1.50 a box. If you would like to help the band and battalion out in their efforts to raise money, you may do so by purchasing Christmas wrapping paper and fruit cakes from anyone in either of the two organizations.

FBLA CLUB PLANS DIMES PROJECT

The Future Business Leaders of America (F. B. L. A.) recently held a call meeting to discuss plans for a new project. The project was to address envelopes for the March of Dimes. A representative of the March of Dimes called the school asking for assistance in addressing approximately seventy thousand envelopes. Members of the club volunteered to address ten thousand envelopes, which have to be finished by December 1. The F. B. L. A. has another project that is carried on after school every Tuesday. This one is typewritten for the faculty. When teachers have something that needs to be typed, it is typed and run off on the mimeographing machine. The mimeographing is also done by club members.

The sponsor of the F. B. L. A. is Mrs. Virginia Summeror, who teaches bookkeeping. Miss Austen shorthand and typing teacher, who recently made the co-sponsor of the club.

JR., SOPH. HOLD OFFICER ELECTIONS

The junior and sophomore English classes have been occupied with the nomination and election of their class officers for the coming year.

The final election for junior officers was held Monday, October 12. Students elected for the 1959-60 school year are as follows: President—Steve Whitaker, vice-president—Ken Parker, secretary—Donna Reed, treasurer—Gerry Robinson. Mrs. Kalb is the junior class chairman.

The main project for the year will be to promote Junior Day, an event that falls in late spring. At this time the officers will present a talent show and other entertainment for the rest of the school.

Tuesday, October 20, the sophomore class met in the auditorium during the sixth period and elected to office the following students: president — Tommy Aiken, vice-president — Bill Rich, secretary — Jill Keef, treasurer—Betsy Klein. The sophomore chairman is Mrs. Barger.

SWING BAND GIVES ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

On Thursday, November 12, a program was presented by Mr. O'Neal on the Swing Band. Among the numbers played were: "Cherokee," a new Ralph Flanagan arrangement. Also played was a Billy Butterfield arrangement of "My Ideal."

Elma O'Neal sang, "There Will Never Be Another You."

Also played was the numerous requested, "Night Train." The members and the instruments they play in the Swing Band are as follows: Bene Hammett, piano; Mark Scherer, bass; Bill Rich, trumpet; Byron Black, trumpet; Lonnie Biggs, trumpet; Jim Shuptrine, trombone; Kenny Parker, trombone; Bobby Dugan, trombone; Murphy Rogers, drums; Richey Swearingin, saxophone; Joe Pickett, saxophone; Ronald Williams, saxophone; Gene North, saxophone, and Andy Powers, saxophone.

Mr. Everett O'Neal led the band and assisted by playing the saxophone.

History Classes Give Money For Magazine

The students in Miss Hodges' senior history classes recently saved dimes. These dimes sent the Sunshine Magazine to high school students in India.

The Sunshine is no ordinary magazine. A publication of the American Observer, it is a means of getting American literature into India. Until now, most magazines in India were given by the Communists. Indians are eager to learn about America, but there is one obstacle. Most of them never have an extra dime to buy an American magazine or book. Some wait weeks to read a ragged copy of a book written in American.

OFFICERS SELECT SENIOR INVITATIONS

Each year a group of seniors, composed of class officers and a committee appointed by the president of the class, select the invitations for the graduating students.

This year's committee is: Jimmy Aiken, Loretta Ettien, Kenny Huggins, Sandra Woods, Susan Follet, Murphy Rogers, Paul Chapman, Gilbert Trusley, and Wayne Huling. The invitations are thirteen cents each. The cards cost $2.75 per hundred, and $1.60 per hundred if extra cards are wanted. Seniors may order as many invitations as needed, but cards are only ordered by the hundred. If seniors wish to see a copy of the invitations or cards the bank now has samples of them.

The class may begin placing their orders November 16 and orders will be taken through December 2. Only one order per student will be permitted and none will be taken after the closing date.

In order to save time and inconvenience for those involved, it is suggested that each senior make a definite list of how many invitations and cards he needs at the moment and allow a few extra.

THIRD FLOOR WINS RED CROSS DRIVE

The Red Cross Council conducted its annual Junior Red Cross Fund Drive on October 21 through October 23. All three floors competed for the honor of submitting the largest donation. This year the largest amount of money was given by the students on the third floor. The money was collected in each room by the homeroom representative and then given to one of the following Red Cross members: Ginny Riggin, Beverly Metcalf, James MacMillan, and Terry Charr.

The money given by the students will be used by the National Red Cross to help disaster areas and poverty stricken people in the United States and foreign countries.

CAROL AVERITT, ALGEBRA STUDENT, WINS FIRST PLACE IN STATE MATH CONTEST

Carol S. Averitt has won a mathematics award in first year algebra. She won first place in the Algebra I division of the State Mathematics Contest, which is sponsored each year by the Tennessee Mathematics Teacher's Association.

Last April in the Algebra I division, there were 1122 contestants, the best first year algebra students from all of the schools in the entire state. Carol's score was 164. The score of the second place state winner was 153.

In recognition of Carol's achievement in first year algebra, the National Life and Accident Insurance Company in Nashville, Tennessee, has presented to Central High School a four-volume set of mathematics books entitled, The World of Mathematics. The volumes have been presented to the library, and gift-plates will be placed on each volume. These plates will bear the name of Carol S. Averitt in whose honor they were presented to the school.

1959-60 USHER STAFF

Y-Teens Re-Organized With New Leadership

Central's Y-Teen Club was recently re-organized under the direction of Miss Bobbie Ruth Hodges, club co-ordinator, and Mrs. Janette Crawley, who is to sponsor the group.

The new officers of the club are as follows: Mary Jean Riley, president; Marquita Mahoney, vice-president; Janice Grizzle, corresponding secretary; Gwen Lowrance, recording secretary; Peggy Milburn, treasurer; Linda Jones, program chairman; Susan Greer, chaplain; Jerry Reece, social chairman.

The Y-Teens act as a service club. In setting up goals for the coming year, the members plan to decorate the Old Ladies' Home during Christmas. They also will have a chapel program twice a month.

USHERS, ORGANIZED IN 1921, ASSIST IN VARIOUS SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

The Usher Staff, a service organization directed by Miss Cross, was organized in 1921. The duties of the ushers include directing traffic, assisting with registration, seeing that no one breaks the lunch lines, and helping new students find their way about the school.

Ushers are chosen at the end of the year by English teachers and then voted upon by the staff.

Optimists Sponsor Annual Youth Week

Each year the Optimist Club of Chattanooga sponsors Youth Week Youth Week, which was November 9-16, recognizes people who have done constructive things for youth and combats the bad publicity that comes from juvenile delinquency.

USHERS, ORGANIZED IN 1921, ASSIST IN VARIOUS SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

The Usher Staff, a service organization directed by Miss Cross, was organized in 1921. The duties of the ushers include directing traffic, assisting with registration, seeing that no one breaks the lunch lines, and helping new students find their way about the school.

Optimists Sponsor Annual Youth Week

Each year the Optimist Club of Chattanooga sponsors Youth Week Youth Week, which was November 9-16, recognizes people who have done constructive things for youth and combats the bad publicity that comes from juvenile delinquency.

Each school was asked to submit the names of two typical students, a photograph of each, and a list of their activities. These pictures, which helped advertise Youth Week, appeared in local newspapers and store windows.

Gary Gober, a Harvard student, represented last year's graduating class. While at Central, Gary was a member of the Senate, National Honor Society, vice-president of the Student Council in 1959, feature editor of the '59 Champion, along with many other activities. Gary received one of the highest honors given at Central when he was elected Mr. Central.

Ann Hoffmeyer has been selected to represent this year's graduating class. Ann's activities are: president of the Tri-Hi-Y, major in battalion, feature editor of the Champion, homeroom representative for the Student Council, military sponsor, vice-president of the Area Hi-Y Council, secretary of the Spinstereer Club, member of the Honor Society, gym staff, Senate, and a delegate to Volunteer Girls' State last summer.

STUDENTS RECEIVE HONORS IN MUSIC

Two Central students recently won honors in try-outs for the East Tennessee Chorus and Orchestra. They are Bene Hammett and Sophia Silver.

Sophia Silver, a sophomore who was the representative for Central's orchestra, received the honor of being the first chair violist.

In His Steps

To whom are we to be loyal? To whom we would answer to the government first. But doesn't it go further than that?

Loyalty first begins in the home. Being loyal to our parents in love, respect, obedience and honor are important factors in growing toward something higher. If we can not have respect and admiration for our parents with whom we live now, how can we be capable in later years of being loyal to an employer, a husband, or a wife?

If we sow honesty first in the home, we will bear fruit of it outside in our school and in our government; sowing faithfulness in our homework and class responsibilities, we will reap the rewards of loyalty. ...

The seeds that we are sowing now will produce fruit that will be reaped in later years. The highest loyalty that can be possessed is being loyal to our Lord in the spirit of love, obedience, and worship.

The habit of loyalty to our parents, teachers and Lord that is sown now will stay with us through our life time. Are we sowing loyalty?

Getting to Know You

On May 2, 1944, a boy by the name of Bill Rich was issued into this world (according to him). Bill stands 5'9 1/2" and has blonde hair and hazel eyes.

Bill takes apart in many of the activities at Central which include: Announcers Club, vice-president of the sophomore class, ...

When asked his ideal girl he said, one who is a Christian, thoughtful, cute, and "Who likes me!"

Bill says he is planning to go to the University of Tennessee when he graduates from Central, but he doesn't know yet what he plans to do.

Good luck, Bill Rich, for a very successful life. Thanks for letting us get to know you.

Rotunda Round-up

S. C. seems to have her eyes on somebody with the initials J. A. I wonder how long this has been going on. No doubt that's who she cheers for at Central's football games.

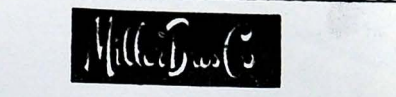

L. M. has been looking mighty and this week. Maybe it's because she doesn't think T. C. will get to come home from T.P.I. this weekend.

L. T. is very broken hearted because a certain T. H. is casting his favors towards N. C. May the best girl win!

Pat Woodfin has been singing I'm not homesome anymore. Wonder what the reason is? Could be that going steady agrees quite well with her.

T. H. has been looking around quite a bit since she broke up with L. Maybe they rested on G. T. or F. H. I wonder!

Several bunches of girls have been sneaking around, peeping behind every door. No telling who they're keeping an eye on. The fact that this is rush season couldn't possibly have anything to do with it, could it?

CENTRAL CHEERLEADERS

CHEERLEADERS DUE A BIG FIFTEEN

"Two bits, Four bits, Six bits, a Dollar All for CENTRAL stand up and hollar!"

This is only one of the many cheers that will be led by our cheerleading squad at today's pep meeting and tonight's game with Oak Ridge.

The twelve members of the squad — Billy Brown, Sandra Woods, Dutch Curtis, Sue Cameron, Beverly Horner, Edward Parton, Mark Scherer, Toni Lenn, Jill Keef, Charles Adkins, Dee Edge, Johnny Martin, and their sponsor, Mrs. Hammack — render the school services unknown to many. They support the team rain or shine and set an example for others to follow. The decorating of the goal posts, the stands, and the various strategic places around school doesn't just happen—the cheerleaders do it. They promote good-will between our team and the opposing team at the games.

Because we think they are so great, let's give a "Big Fifteen" for Central's Cheerleaders!

SPORTS TID BITS

With all this to do about the City-Central caper, a quote from the Purple mentor might prove appropriate. In passing he said something to the effect that, "I believe it would benefit both schools as well as the entire city." In bearing out this statement, since the cessation of the considered series and the inter-city competition, sports' interest has been at low ebb. However, there are signs of a renaissance as Red Bank has agreed to engage the Pounders in grid combat next year.

Central's eagerness in speeding up the tempo of their practice as they prepare to meet the Alumni all drills performed tonight in Jacksonville next week. This year's schedule (see elsewhere on page) is one of the toughest we've had, including City, McMinn, Oak Ridge, Meigh and up and coming Red Bank.

The Pounders wind up their regular season tonight as they tangle with Oak Ridge at Chamberlain Field.

SPORT SPIEL

By Jim FRIEDRICHSEN

Greenwood Battles Pounders to 7-7 Draw

The Pounders battled the Emeralds of Greenwood, S. C. to a 7-7 deadlock on a windswept Chamberlain Field. This tie was the first blemish on Emeralds previously unspotted record; Central now sports a 4-3-1 mark. Central got the first break of the game when Tommy Aiken fell on a Greenwood fumble on the Emerald 41 early in the first quarter.

The Emeralds, a preennial grid power in their state, bounced back in the next period, capitalizing on a fumble. On fourth down the Greenwood punter boomed a high punt which Brown fielded on the Central 7; however the ball got away from him and an alert fender recovered. Three plays later the game was tied. Central made a spirited comeback but were found wanting as the pighide was resting on the Emerald's 29 as the half and the scoring ended.

The homecoming crowd of approximately 2,000 overcast fans observed this well played contest characterized by crisp blocks and crashing tackles. A worthy foe, the Emeralds out gained 4 of the Purple 171-165. Offensive leaders for the two teams were for Central, Huling and Trusley; for Greenwood, Marcengill and Thomas.

During the halftime show, Carolyn Hale was crowned Homecoming Queen, and the band and battalion officers were announced.

Pounderettes to Make Season's Debut Tonight

The "Pounderettes" are making a return appearance at tonight's game with Oak Ridge. The group made its debut last year under the leadership of Miss Mary Ruth Neyman and have since returned to perform on such occasions as Champion Night and Pounders on Parade. They will also present the drill performed tonight in Jacksonville at the Menikau Bowl.

They will be arrayed in white shorts with gold strips, white blouses with long puffed sleeves, gold vests (with the exception of the group appearing on Pounders on Parade which will wear the purple vests) and white socks and purple shoes. Purple and gold pom-poms will be carried by each girl.

Based on a story by Mark Twain, the play relates how Sheriff Jack Holmes comes back to life again (it only to be beaten at his own game by a young amateur and out West, not in England! Admission is 50c. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any member of the play cast.

Forty Honored For Achievement

On October 16, an assembly program was given to recognize the sophomores, juniors, and seniors who had achieved a percentage rating of ninety-three and above. These students were in competition with students in the same grade throughout the United States.

Sophomores and juniors were given certificates of merit and seniors were recognized as having achieved the similar degree of rating. The outstanding seniors recognized are: Chris Kite-Powell, Thomas Van Zant, Vicki Chambers, Jimmy Aiken, Peggy Clinton, Laura Cofer, Jarelle Donehue, Loretta Ettien, Ruth Gill, James Hays, Thomas Heffner, Suzanne Lawrence, Monty Jo Lowery, Bill Millsaps, Elma O'Neal, Ronnie Renegar, Steve Robinson, Richard Traylor, and Alice Wor.

The juniors were: Linda Graves, Karen Heyer, Carl Parsons, Mike Powers, Kathy Ragland, Jerry Shuford, Grant Spencer, Bill Stansberry, Edwin Swart, and David Womack. The sophomores were: Charles Adkins, Carol Averitt, Jimmy Bass, Billy Cleary, Rickey Cook, Carolyn Cole, Elaine Coe, Dorothy Meyer, Janilyn Schmitt, Bob Strother, and Linda Womack. The National Educational Development Test for 9th and 10th grade students and the Merit Scholarship Test for juniors, will be given March 8, at 9:00 a.m. Students who are interested are to notify their English teacher or Mr. Hoodenpyle immediately so that the test may be ordered.

Donna Reed Competes For Teen Queen Title

Donna Reed has been chosen by the Digest Staff to represent Central in the Miss Teen Contest for 1960. Donna was chosen on the basis of appearance and talent.

The Staff was asked by Teen Magazine to select the person who represented a typical teen representative from this school. The Staff decided on six semi-finalists. They were: Carolyn Hale, Dianna Turner, Sandra Woods, Diane Stuart, Gerry Robinson, and Donna. The staff voted after talking with each representative and selected Donna to be the representative.

Teen Magazine required information on coloring (hair, eyes, skin), height, and weight of the representative as well as special abilities, honors, and school offices she holds.

Donna is 5' 3 1/2", 117 lbs., with blonde hair, brown eyes, and an olive complexion. She performs all types of dancing and plays the piano. She has won trophies for habit and strut and has held 2nd place in three beauty contests. Donna is head majorette, secretary of the junior class, Student Council representative, and a member of the office force.

The Miss Teen Contest is open to all girls between the ages of 13 and 19 who are full-time students in U. S. high schools. Peggy Collins of Lake Charles, Louisiana, received the Miss Teen title last year. She received an all-expense paid trip to Hollywood, tours of the movie capital, plus a swimsuit and dress wardrobe, a record player and record library, and a Lane Sweetheart Hope Chest.

MOVIE CLIMAXES CLOTHING DRIVE

A comedy will be shown by the Student Council on Monday, November 23 to all students who have contributed at least 10 garments to the clothing drive. The clothing drive that began on November 9, has been extended to November 20.

Mrs. Farrar, representative of the Hamilton County Welfare Department, spoke in assembly. November 18. She emphasized that Central students contributed last year over 14,000 garments, which were distributed to the needy of our county.

Floyd Kephart plugged the drive in assembly on November 9, by appearing in a barrel, instead of his clothes which he had contributed to the clothing drive. Representatives from homerooms which win will be featured on WOPR Television Station and in The Chattanooga Times.

Donna Brock Elected Chatta. Honey Queen

Central student Donna Brock was elected alternate Honey Queen of Chattanooga in a contest sponsored by the Bee-Keeper's Association of Chattanooga. The contest was held October 15 at the Patten Hotel. Donna was also chosen attendant to the State Honey Queen. Nominees were to be between the ages of 17 and 22 and have a relative in the Bee-Keeper's Association.

Here at Central, Donna is on the bank staff, vice-president of the Future Leaders of America, treasurer's aid in the National Honor Society, leader of morning devotions, and is a member of the Bible Club and Tri-Hi-Y.

HOFFMEYERS HAVE KEPT CENTRAL A FAMILY AFFAIR FOR 34 YEARS

Success is nothing new to the Hoffmeyer family, as they have kept a long line of popularity in their family for many years. This year, Ann Hoffmeyer comes to Central as the fourth representative of her family. Ann's activities include: secretary of the Senate, member of the Champany of the Spinstrettes, member president of the National Honor Society, gym staff, president of the Tri-Hi-Y, major in battalion, military sponsor, feature editor of the Champion, and has in the past years participated in May Day.

Ann has two older sisters who are alumnae of Central. Her older sister, Kay, graduated in 1953. While attending Central, she was the editor of the Champany of the Spinstrettes, member secretary of the Senate, member of the National Honor Society, secretary of the gym staff, vice-president of the Spinstrettes, member of the National Honor Society, secretary of her junior class, military sponsor, May Queen, salutatorian of her senior class, and a candidate for Miss Central.

By
JIM FRIEDRICHSEN

The Pounders opened the season on the right foot as they edged the Alumni 51-47; but they got out of stride their next outing, so Soddy-Daisy turned the tables, and dropped them 41-38. Both contests were well fought, however, the inexperienced Purples did make several floor mistakes due to the "green-ness".

In the season's inaugural, the Pounders started out fast hitting a torred 11 out of 15 shots in the first period and rolled on to a halftime lead.

Meet The Military

The joy in the stands, however, was silenced, as the two teams took the floor to start the second half, as the Alumni got back in the groove and the Pounders cooled down. Starting mid-way in the third period and continuing throughout, the Norman Hoffmann-Tom Cole combination wreaked honor on Pounder defenses. However, the Pounders quelled the rally and eked out a 51-47 victory.

It was fine team effort with guards Wescott and Stewart leading the scoring with 13 and 12 points respectively.

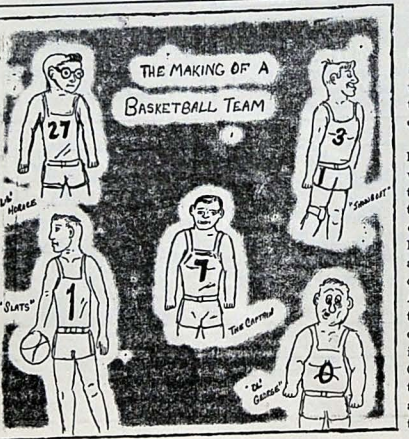

The second game in which Soddy-Daisy's Trojans inflicted the first blemish on the Pounders slate was a nip and tuck battle all the way with both teams having the lead at one time or another. However, at during the third and early part of the fourth period, the Trojans forged ahead at one time leading by 11. At this time, the Pounders got hot and made an gallant effort to overcome this deficit, but as the smoke cleared, the scoreboard had it, Soddy-Daisy 41, Central 38.

The defense appeared pretty downpat, but the Pounders offense were slow at getting their sights adjusted as they managed only 22% accuracy in the first half. However, they came back strong in the last.

WE REGRET . . .

The Digest regrets the fact that we will be unable to have the results of the Meninak Bowl or any of the action of the Times Cup Series or its results in this issue, as the paper will have gone to press ere the outcome of these events is known.

The Times series itself was originated in 1944 and has continued thenceforth. The big winners have been the Pounders and the Trojans of Soddy-Daisy with five wins each.

COMING EVENTS

BAND NOTES

Thursday morning at 9:00 a.m. the band left for Jacksonville, Florida, where they performed during the half-time of the Meninak Bowl game. The band started off the show by forming a stage and playing "Oh, You Beautiful Doll" while the majorettes did a twirling routine. They honored one of the Jacksonville schools and played "Hi, Neighbors." Then, they formed "A Stairway to the Stars."

The half-time show ended by the band and battalion spelling out Central and playing "Mister Touchdown."

While in Jacksonville, the band stayed at the Hotel Seminole. Friday morning, there was a practice for the half-time show at the Gator Bowl. Friday afternoon, the group went on a sightseeing trip to Jacksonville Beach. The band returned home Sunday morning about 6:00 a.m.

"The All-American 5"

The making of a good, well-oiled basketball machine is not so easy as one might think. Some schools have the material and not the interest; others have a situation just the opposite. This "all-American" contingent to the left is the latter.

First on our list, little Horace, looks like a book worm who wouldn't know the difference between a basketball and a hole in the ground. However, he is a dribbling wizard who makes monkeys of the defensive giants who attempt to guard him. Then, of course, is the captain, that Mr. All-Everything who excels in anything he attempts, and he attempts everything. Winding up this team is George, and he is, just old George, the big showboat, who thinks he's nothing short of great; and finally old long-tom "Slats" the team's 6' 8" center.

1959 Council displays food given by students for Christmas baskets. Pictured are Steve Whitaker and Bill Millsaps

Christmas Activities Are Climaxed By Glee Club and Basket Distribution

Today is the highlight of the Christmas observance here at Central High School. The home rooms will be busy placing last-minute items in the good baskets. The chairman will be taking them to the auditorium during the first period. The student Council will then decorate and arrange them in an attractive display on the stage. Many students will be exchanging cards and giving gifts to their friends and favorite teachers. There are sure to be many nervous members of the Glee Club helping Mr. John prepare their program of the after-

The Glee Club will sing the following selections: "Comfort Ye, My People," a tenor solo sung by Wayne Huling; "Oh Thou That Tells Good Tidings," "For Unto Us a Child is Born," "Glory to the Lord," "And He Shall Feed His People Like a Shepherd," which will have solo parts for a soprano sung by Jo Ann Massey, and an alto; "The People That Walked in Darkness," a bass solo; "Surely He Has Borne Our Griefs," "Behold the Lamb of God," and the "Hallelujah Chorus."

ALICE WOY CHOSEN AS DAR RECIPIENT

Alice Woy will be presented the Daughter's of the American Revolution Citizen of the Year Award this year at the Class Day exercises. The candidates for the award were nominated by the senior class. From the three persons receiving the highest number of votes, the faculty chose Alice as the outstanding girl.

To qualify for the award, a person must be in the field of citizenship. She must be dependable, loyal, and punctual. Service is another important factor. The winner must be cooperative, courteous, and considerate of others. Leadership is another quality to be considered in the choosing of this girl. To have leadership, this person must have personality, self-control, and the ability to lead when expected. The recipient of the award must have patriotism which includes an unselfish interest in family, school, community, and nation. All these go into the making of the DAR award winner.

Alice is a member of the Senate, Library staff, National Honor Society, Champion staff. She is chaplain of the Tri Hi Y, head usher, secretary of the Student Council, and secretary of the Twix-Teen social club.

Floyd Kephart Places 2nd in Speech Contest

Floyd Kephart recently participated in the "Voice of Democracy" speech contest and won second place.

On November 21, representatives from various high schools in the area met at WDEP television station for the "Voice of Democracy" speech contest. Charlotte Bao from Notre Dame won first place, Floyd won second place, and a student from City won third place.

The senior English classes were assigned a three to five minute speech on "What America Means to Me" if they wanted to enter the contest. Floyd's speech was chosen to represent Central.

City Hi is Defeated By Central Bible Club

A team from Central's Bible Club recently defeated a City Hi team in a contest at the Bible Institute. The contest was repeated Saturday, December 12, with two contests at 7:30 and 9:10.

The club members who represented Central were: Michael O'Dell, Nancy Joyner, Joyce Nowlin, Glendora Roberts, Jerry Davis and substitute David Jones. The group was accompanied by Miss Winlett, club sponsor.

The questions were based on the lives of Biblical characters. Each team scored 0 points for correct answers and lost 10 for each question. (Continued on Page 3)

MILLSAPS ATTENDS LOUISVILLE MEETING

Mr. Millsaps, Central's principal, recently attended the 64th annual meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This year's meeting was held in Louisville, Kentucky, the week of November 29-December 4. The problems of high schools and colleges in the South were discussed.

Central has been an honored member of the Association since 1918. This membership enables any Central graduate to enter any college or university in the United States.

Mr. Millsaps serves on two of the association's committees; they are the Reviewing Committee, on which he represents the state of Tennessee, and the Commission on Research and Service.

BILL GRAY, HORACE FORESTNER BUILD EXHIBIT WITH MODEL SHIP COLLECTIONS

On exhibit in the case by the library recently was a collection of model ships built by two junior boys. The exhibit attracted a great deal of attention to the many seafaring books in Central's library.

Horace Forstner assembled the seven modern boats on the top shelf; the F. D. Roosevelt, an aircraft carrier; the Los Angeles, a heavy cruiser; the Guard cutter, the Eagle. These were assembled by Bill Gray who has read from five to six hundred books from Central's library, a great deal of them being sea stories. Besides building the boats, one of which he had to rebuild in the showcase after it was practically demolished by a flying apple. On the bottom shelf were the N. he also assembles gas planes and collects stamps and rocks. Upon Long Beach, Bermuda Yawl, the finishing school Bill plans to be a Flying Cloud and a U.S. Coast mechanic.

2 Seniors Participate In Jr. Miss Contest

Carolyn Hale and Linda Mathis, two Central seniors, participated recently in the Junior Miss Chattanooga Contest. Carolyn placed third in the competition.

Representatives from Chattanooga schools were selected to enter the contest which will held November 25 at the Tivoli Theater.

The girls were judged on the basis of talent, beauty, and personality. In the talent division, Carolyn performed an Oriental dance, and Linda sang "Pink Shoe Laces."

LIBRARY PURCHASES ADDITIONAL BOOKS

The library has recently purchased new books for reading and research work. Some of them are: Long Way Home, Benary Margot; Deborah, Joan Jones; Saved, Beverly Clark; Storm, George Stewart; Untame the Sky, Helen Blotz; Russian Journey, (poetry) William Douglas; Mrs. Longfellow, Fanny Longfellow's selected letters and journals.

GIVING IS TO BESTOW WITHOUT RETURN

Now that the Yule season is just around the corner, the subject of giving is prevalent throughout the world.

Taking the former question first, we see that there are several types of exchange. Many give with the expectation of receiving a more expensive gift...

Accentuating the positive side, which is in the majority, the true way of giving is exercised in doing so for the simple joy of it.

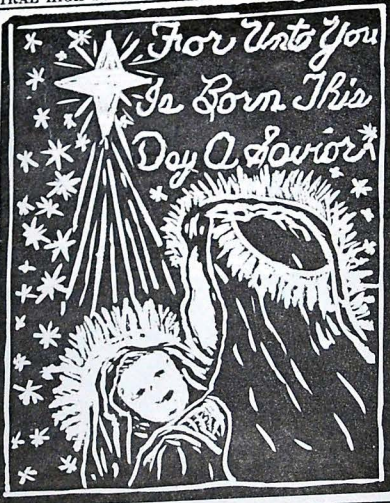

WILL YOUR CHOICE BE A WISE CHOICE?

Seniors, is it marriage for you right after graduation, a job, or are you going to further your education by attending college?

If you have decided on marriage right after school, ask yourself the following questions. Am I emotionally ready for marriage?

The people who will get ahead are the people with the ability to advance. These people are the ones with the head start of a college education.

America wants educated people. High school graduates are fortunate in that they have increased educational opportunities.

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

A new addition to Central is a 5'4 1/2" freshman, Pam Catlett. Pam has really got her fingers in almost every pie possible.

Pam boasts a perfect combination of dark blond hair and blue eyes. Hot steak sandwiches head her list of favorite foods.

In His Steps

The spirit of Christmas. What does that mean? The hustle of buying gifts to exchange with family and friends?

The story of the first Christmas tells of love, of the giving of a priceless gift to people in great need.

Let us keep Christmas in that spirit, seeking to be channels for God's love to express itself—still among men.

LIKE MAN—THE LATEST!

The main LP's on sale at the record shops at the moment are the Christmas albums. There are many varieties of Christmas records.

Among the more notable popular singers which have cut Christmas albums are: Harry Belafonte, Pat Boone, Perry Como, Bing Crosby...

The Council Reports

The Student Council sponsored an assembly program on December 7 that emphasized the theme "What Do Colleges and Businesses Expect of High School Graduates?"

Have You Heard These?

Diets are for people who are "thick and tired of it."
One evening after scanning the society page of our local paper, I teasingly asked my husband if he thought any girl on it was prettier than I.

"No, Honey," he said, "there's not one there as pretty as you."
"That's why I love you," I told him. "You're so kind and sweet and loyal!"

By JIM FRIEDRICHSEN

The first week of December proved to be a fatal one for both versions of Pounders squads, as they both came out... Central's gridders dropped their post-season contest to Robert E. Lee 19-7, while the cage squad was edged out of the Times Cup Championship by City.

In the Times Cup, the Purples Dynamo solid 24 point pre-game favorite. The Pounders, unawakened by this deficit, started out strong, mounting a 10 point lead at the end of 3 quarters. However, after the end of 3 quarters, the leading rebounding, Kile, and Traylor left the game via the foul route, the Pounders fell apart and the Dynamo generated a 61-48 victory.

PURPLES DUMP 'CATS 68-53

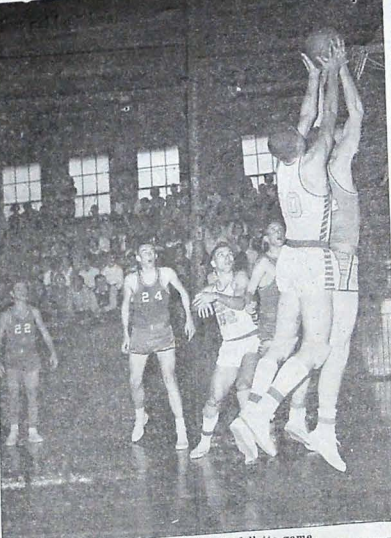

Central's Pounders moved to their second cage conquest in three outings with a 68-53 triumph over the Wildcats of Oak Ridge. The Purple's poise was greatly improved as they came from a half time tie to a 15 point bulge at the final buzzer.

In the big third period, the Pounders danced to notes to the tune of 24 points, using the fast break effectively. Traylor and Stephens were the kingpins as they bucketed 16 points during this spurge.

In "B" Team action, the Pounders, led by Eddie McGee's 18 points, edged the baby Ridgers 57-55.

RODDIN' AROUND

Among the unusual and bizarre cars owned by members of the student body of Central High is a 1950 MKV red Jaguar drophead touring car. The owner is one Donald Moon who has spent much of his time fixing the "Red Beast."

Kile is guest of ball in Lafollette game.

BAND NOTES

The hand members are now in the midst of rough practice sessions as they prepare for the upcoming series of tests to determine their adeptness in the field of music. Central band director, Mr. Bales, will administer these examinations to each of the striving musicians.

Participants will be grouped into three classifications; first, second, and third. The top rated players will be placed in the first class and will be awarded sterling silver achievement pins.

The Alumni Association has given the band the money for the cost of these pins which should be an added incentive to those in the other classes.

These members placing in the second and third classes will be encouraged to practice more in order to improve their abilities.

Ca'd Corner

The uniforms of the R.O.T.C. does more for the military cadet than make him and his cohorts look more like a military unit; it teaches them to discipline themselves in taking care of it. The usual issue for winter dress is as follows: a brown wool jacket and trousers, a black tie, over seas cap, and kaki shirt.

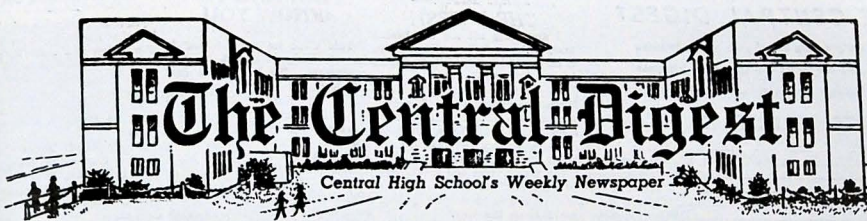

Of course there are appendages which may be worn with the uniform in addition to the regular paraphernalia, such as ribbons, medals, shoulder cords and other similar regalia. These said ribbons may be the purple and gold of a neatest cadet, or that of a member of a best drilled unit.

The array of cords are significant of the following groups: Varsity, drill team; blue, Disc and Diamond; green and white, Honor Platoon; and the purple and gold is that of an officer.

Throughout the contest, though the Pounders did give them a scare in the last quarter as they came into strong contention.

February 29 Marks Ring Order Deadline

Orders for next years senior rings will be taken February 29 through March 16. $5.00 must be paid at the time of ordering and the remainder when the rings arrive next September. A committee met and decided that the 1961 rings will have the purple settings and will have dark finish only.

FRESHMEN ELECT CLASS OFFICERS

On December 15, the freshman class students voted during class for their four '59-'60 class officers. Those selected were: president—Bobby Etter; vice - president —Dickey Phillips; secretary—Carolyn Wallace; and for treasurer—Jana Smith.

CENTRAL'S LIBRARY, BEGUN IN 1926, IS LARGEST HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY IN SOUTH

Central High School has not always had a library. But in the year 1926, Central was given some donations from a private classical library. In cooperation with the Chattanooga Public Library, the Hamilton County Board of Education was able to organize a library for Central. This library was to consist of books which would serve the uses and the reading ability of the students. The library was then located behind the Rotunda, directly over the cafeteria.

COUNCIL HOSTS 5-SCHOOL FORUM

The Central High School Student Council sponsored a forum during the regular assembly period on January 13. The presidents of the Student Councils from five different schools were the speakers for the program. The schools that participated were Red Bank, City, Baylor, McCallie, and G.P.S. The purpose of the forum was to inform Central students of the activities, duties, work habits, and projects conducted in the area high schools by the members of the different student councils. The information that was presented in the discussion gave the students here at Central many new and helpful ideas in making plans for school improvement.

Hoodenpyl Releases Test Information

At the approach of the second semester, seniors will be receiving results from test and along with underclassmen may avail themselves of the benefits of achievement and aptitude tests.

Mr. Hoodenpyl, co-ordinator of Central's testing program, announces the following tests information: 1. ACT tests are being processed and seniors will be called in for a conference on their individual results; 2. PSAT test are also being processed and the results will be announced; 3. COLLEGE BOARD Exams—seniors may still take three of these exams which are scheduled for February 6, March 12, and May 21. Three exams may be taken at the cost of $6 for the morning exams and $9 for the afternoon. This test is often a college entrance requirement. It is important to note that if the penalty dates for application are not met that the test costs more. The penalty date for February was January 9, for March is February 13, and for May is April 23; 4. MERIT SCHOLARSHIP — qualification and achievement tests for freshman, sophomore, and juniors will be taken on March 8. It is still possible to apply for these exams by contacting an English teacher or Mr. Hoodenpyl. A fee of $1 is to be paid the day of the test. Students may prepare for this test by studying the practice book which may be borrowed from the school library.

The Pounder cagers have been an active five since the last issue was emitted from the press. Therefore a few of these game resumes may be a mite stale, much to our regret.

The first of these outings was the Tyner game in which 29 big Ray Kile paved the way to a decisive win by netting 23 points. As a follow up the Purples detosthed the Bulldogs of Rays.

COMING EVENTS

- Monday, January 18 - T.P.I. College Chorus.
Tuesday, January 19 - Basketball game with Bradley.
Wednesday, January 20 - Girls H.I.Y.
Thursday, January 21 - Treasury Department film.
Friday, January 22 - Red Cross Program.

POUNDERS ON PARADE

BILL MILLSAPS

Leading the Pounders in the rebound department is William Millsaps, a 6'2", 185 pound forward.

PAUL STEPHENS

Captaining the Purple Cagers on the court this year is Paul Stephens. He is a 6'1", 175 pound senior guard.

Although he isn't always high point man, he is a very good defensive spark plug.

BAND NOTES

Four of the members of Central's band have been chosen to participate in the East Tennessee Junior High Band Clinic.

THE CENTRAL DIGEST

JANUARY 15, 1960

CENTRAL B'S AMID A WINNING SEASON

If you have been wondering who the boys are that stay and shoot during half-time at the Varsity basketball games, let your thoughts subside; they are members of Central's "B" team.

It appears they are going to have a good season, for at present they have won six games while losing only two. These losses were to Soddy-Daisy and Meigs County—both by very small margins.

The mentor of this year's "B" team is Coach "Stan" Farmer. The roster consists of nine players: Bobby Puffer, 5'8" junior guard Wayne Billingsly, 6'1" junior forward Archie Holmes, 6'1" sophomore forward Harry "Buddy" Phillips, 6'1" sophomore forward Floyd Keith, 5'6" sophomore guard Jack Woods, 6'1" sophomore forward Wayne Steele.

These are the boys that will make up the varsity next year, so be sure and keep your eye on them.

Art Dept. Contributes To Exhibition Center

The Central High School Art Department has been asked to contribute art work for an exhibition center here.

Marvin D. Lane, County Director of Textbooks, revealed the plans for a new materials center to be established in the old Lupton City school building.

The Central High School Art Department has consented to contribute materials such as: oil paintings, finger paintings, sculpture, and other art supplies.

This materials center will be visited by teachers and educational representatives from all over the county. It is designed to portray what is being done in the Hamilton County schools and will be of great value to its teachers.

Spanish Club Holds White Elephant Party

The Spanish Club, Los Picaros, held a white elephant party at its last program meeting. The club, sponsored by Miss Rice, decided to hold an exchanging of gifts after Christmas instead of having a party before Christmas.

The Spanish Club meets bi-monthly in Room 305 on Thursdays at assembly period. Any Spanish student may join the club.

Tennessee Tech Gives Program in Assembly

The Tennessee Tech Choir and the Brass Choir presented a special program in assembly Monday, January 18.

The choir, directed by Dr. Wade, sang "Ruler of Heaven, O Hark to Our Voices" by Back; "Love Song Waltzes" by Strauss; and a selection from Gerawin's musical comedy, Porgy and Bess.

The Brass Choir, directed by Mr. James Marks, played a 18th Century piece entitled "Sonata No. 1," "Præclodium," and the gospel songs "I Love My Blessed Saviour" and "How Firm a Foundation."

The TPI Choir has made several appearances at Central along with the School's band and swing band.

The Digest regrets the error in publishing the names of home-tickets. Mrs. Haskin won basketball Stover's rooms were among the winners.

STAMP SALES BEGIN MONDAY, JAN. 25

Central's Bank has set the 25th of January as the day to commence selling savings stamps to the students and faculty of Central. Students will be allowed to buy stamps which cost 10 cents, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00.

On January 21 a movie was shown in chapel, by a representative of the United States Treasury Department of America which introduced this opportunity of personal savings and service.

CENTRAL BANK RUNS FINANCIAL BUSINESS

The Central High Bank is the crossroads for all of the school's financial activities. Money deposited or withdrawn for the school plant, clubs, departments, and organizations is handled by this staff.

The members of the staff—have to be honest, trustworthy, responsible, and have a B average in every subject. Some of the staff members belong to the Honor Society, and all are leaders in school activities and also in the social and other service clubs.

The many duties performed by the Bank Staff include ordering senior rings, invitations, and caps and gowns; taking orders for the annual, selling tickets to movies and ball games, taking fees for ROTC, band, and battalion uniforms; selling bus tokens, cashiering in the cafeteria, operating the bookstore, and stamping and keeping records of the text books.

Miss Ruby Nipper, head of the business department, is the faculty supervisor of the Staff. The present members are: Susan Follett, president; Ray Hayes, vice-president; Loretta Etien, secretary-treasurer; Donna Brock, Don Roadman, Joan Goodlet, Dick Kimbrel, Sandra Newell, Ann Pickering, Kathy Reeves, Carol Hooks, Dottie Meyer, and Barbara Talley.

Perhaps you have seen military boys wearing white citation cords and paratrooper boots. If so, you know what a "Rebel Rifle," a drill team member, looks like.

If you went to Pounders on Parade you saw a group of these boys on stage. The fancy rifle movements these boys did are known as Queen Anne movements, sometimes called Jodey drill.

Woody Slinger is the cadet officer in command, with Mitchell Pearson acting as cadet officer deputy commander. The other instructors are Cliff Suddarth, Mike Bragg, Sandy Parsons, Ed Parton, Mickey Bibbey and Guy Padgett.

At present the group is holding try-out practice sessions for boys who are interested in the drill team. If you are interested in the group, be in the armory at 8 a.m. any school morning.

Pounders Lose to City in Round Robin Tourney

The Pounders made a fine showing in their first two games at the Round Robin Tourney in their conquests of Soddy-Daisy and highly ranked Red Bank, but fell by the wayside in the finale as arch rival City prevailed 68-55.

The boys breezed by the Trojans 68-47 and had little trouble with Red Bank who were 20-plus favorites according to the ratings. Stephens led the way in the latter game with 22 markers as the Pounders rolled to a 55-42 victory. The last game, however, was a different story as the game was dominated by City's Maroons. The white-clad Pounders simply couldn't get their gears moving and fell to their 7th seasonal loss.

LIKE MAN—THE LATEST! BY RUPERT

One of the greatest movies of all times "Samson and Delilah" is soon to return. One of Cecil B. DeMille's (The Ten Commandments) early productions, it is considered by many as his greatest Biblical movie. The plot, of course, is the story of the Israelite Judge Samson and his defilement by Delilah. Samson is portrayed by Victor Mature who in his heyday was known in Hollywood as "the body beautiful." Delilah is played by one of the most exotic actresses of all time, my favorite, Hedy Lamarr.

Being a re-run, the movie is at a disadvantage, for not long ago a near copy of "Samson and Delilah" was released. It was accepted with great enthusiasm and turned out to be a great hit. Nothing against the other movie, but it would not be fair if "Samson and Delilah" were thought to be the copy. In both movies the hero is an amazingly strong man, far beyond human capabilities. Both of the heroes fight a lion to the death, and if that isn't enough, both of the heroes pull down a building at the end of their picture.

A memorable classic "Samson and Delilah" is far above any copy and is well worth your time and money.

The Sure Way to Pass

Hurry Harry is running from class to class. Worried Walley is doing some last minute cramming. There is only one reason for this kind of behavior. It's exam time again! Here are some tips to help you—

- 1. Stay up late with your friends on the night before exams.
2. Don't worry about studying—education is unimportant.
3. Be sure and take all advantage of cuffs and chewing gum wrappers—they come in handy to jot down notes.
4. Become chummy with your fellow students—especially those having the test before you.
5. Don't be afraid to go up and ask your teachers questions—besides, some of the answers may be on the desk.
6. Don't worry about grades now—wait until report cards come out.

CHEATING—A BLESSING OR A CURSE?

In what category should the act of cheating be placed from a student's standpoint—a blessing or a curse? But hold the phone here, Andy, how can cheating be a blessing? In reality it can't, although erstwhile pupils do consider it a haven of rest on important exams. Usually these students do not stop to consider that their learning through the use of this practice is nil. The answer, of course, is it a detrimental act—a "curse."

Another little morsel of food for thought is whether or not cheating is theft. Consider that the other fellow has burnt midnight oil in preparation for a test, while you made with the movie bit. He has worked, while you've played; and yet you both end up with the same grade, and yet you have no qualms about pilfering his answers.

Still in another group is the one who studied and went to a test intent upon doing his own work; however the test was a little harder than he anticipated, and a little cheating wouldn't hurt too much; therefore he cheats. Remember, "People will judge you by your actions, not your intentions. You may have a heart of gold, but so has a hard-boiled egg."

One last idea and my "sermon" is yours; cheating effects you more than anyone else, and the effect is negative. If you depend upon cheating for grades, you're wasting both your time and that of the teachers by warming a bench in the classrooms. You are also cheating yourself out of an education. If you're going to be in school, why not make the most of it; you might be enhanced by a little learning.—J. F.

The Council Reports

January twentieth, the Student Council instituted a series of programs to be presented to surrounding junior high schools. This first program was presented at East Lake Junior High.

The program consisted of a combo composed of Kenny Parker, Jimmy Shaprine, Murphy Rogers, and Rene Hammel; Robert North, and Mark Schaefer; Robert North, and Mitchell Pearson, Sandy Parsons, John Slicer and Guy Padgett; a solo by Elma O'Neal; and a performance by the majorettes and our junior majorette, Jackie Nelson.

The committee responsible for these junior high programs consisted of Mr. O'Neal, Mr. Bales, Coach Etter, Mr. Hoodenpyl, Mrs. Plennik, Miss Major, Mr. W. H. Millsaps, Steve Whitaker, Cliff Suddarth, Ricky Cooke, and Floyd Keith.

Orchids or Onions?

Orchids to: Senior Personalities of 1960. Those who were smart enough to pass Mrs. Robinson's Hamlet test.

The "Purple Pounder" basketball team. Students who support morning devotions.

The Ushers who are always on the job. Onions to:

Those who didn't cry during "Magnificent Obsession." Students who refuse to return their trays in the cafeteria. Semester tests and grades. Those who don't yell at the basketball games.

Changeable weather! Chewing gum poppers. Students who blast their way down the hall, knocking down everyone and everything in sight.

In His Steps CLIMBING MOUNT '60

The first month of the year is named January in honor of the old Roman god whose name was Janus. Legend says that Janus had two faces; with one he looked forward and with the other he looked backward; so he saw the past and the future.

At the beginning of the New Year it is well for us to look back over the past year, as well as into the new year.

Reviewing the past year helps us to see and appreciate time; and, as we look back over the year that is gone, we are reminded to take inventory of our time. There were so many things that we had planned to do, but we did only a few.

We should face the New Year with an optimistic, triumphant spirit. In the New Year God offers the chance to make a new start and another to try to overcome our faults and shortcomings, to succeed where we have failed.

So as we are beginning to "Climb Mount '60" let's forget about 1959 and with God's help make good use of 1960.

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

This week's principal subject is one Floyd Keith. Our boy has brown hair, blue eyes, and stands a length of 5'7 1/2 tall.

Floyd has been with us for 2 1/2 years, only entering Central after living in Ft. Payne, Alabama. He is a member of the Varsity basketball, Football B team, and the baseball team. Out of these sports, football is his favorite.

Printing and 4th period lunch are Floyd's two choice subjects here at Central while the old standard "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and singer Pat Boone best his musical list.

Most students studying Julius Caesar will agree with Floyd's pet peeve of doing homework. His glasses, which were left in Floyd's ideal girl at Central has blonde hair, blue eyes, and a "C" for his first initial.

Besides being a member of the above athletic teams, Floyd is also in the Senate, an executive member of the Student Council, a member of the Library Staff, and a new member of the Digest staff.

THE MAD DASH

There's the bell! The race is on. Down the stairs and down the walk they run. And like always, there it is. The "Central Special" runs rain, sleet, or snow to take students to and from Central High.

Of course, there are the few who have to push, but sometimes that's necessary to get on. And someone always has to drop his books in the middle of it all. It is practically impossible to get a seat on the "Special"; usually you can't get one.

At every stop, at least half a dozen fall out when the door is opened and have to start the push and shove all over to get back in.

The "Special" finally makes it to town. The students get off at the "Special" goes on. But we all know it will be out front, regardless, the next day.

BEHIND THE SCENE

News stories, features, and editorials are only a few varieties of reading that go into making of the Central Digest. The editorial department is composed of a staff of hard working Centralites who track down, and write-up news of activities of interest to its readers.

To become a member of the editorial staff, a student is recommended by his English teacher. He must maintain a "B" average.

The Sponsor of the Digest? Miss Ogle whose job it is to proof read and copy-read all issues of the paper. Mr. Bibbey, printer, teacher, is in charge of printing the Digest. Mr. Wharton, medical arts teacher, sells the advertisement for the paper.

VIRGINIA WHITE JIM FRIEDERICHSEN

POUNDER'S SPIRIT COMPTON'S CORNER

It was a cool, crisp night when I first came alive. I can't remember the season. Since that first very joyous night, I've just never felt the same.

The fast-moving team roared down the floor. The ball flew through the air. It was up—and then in—it was another point for the mighty Pounders. That's the exact night that I realized I was the "Hammer Behind the Pounders."

I was full of joy when our team was leading—hopeful when the team was lagging. I couldn't be downed by what the opponents said about Central, or by the way the referees called the game. In fact, I couldn't be destroyed by anything.

By this time you should be able to guess what I am. All true Centralites make up my figure. The cheerleaders keep me going. When I'm down, they give a cheer to pep me up. The teams give me a reason for existing. And then—of course—the student body is always thinking of me. I'm the true "Hammer Behind the Pounders"—Central's School Spirit.

THE IMPROVED CENTRAL

In your opinion what is the best improvement that could be made here at Central?

- Judy Pitsinger—More good looking eligible boys.
Lucille McGlohon—More open-book tests.
Ronnice Williams—I think it's pretty good like it is.
Mary Prophater—Better use of time in the classroom.
Nancy Jordan—A cleaner, neater cafeteria.
Evelyn Lively—Shorter periods.
Bill Carter—Better attendance at the junior high sport's events.
Beverly Burton—More cute boys.
Mike Baumstark—More cute girls.
Phyllis Thompson—Air-conditioning and no long 6th periods.
Linda Graves—Music in the cafeteria.
Janice Hughes—More boys like "Jimmy."
Gail Cooper—More feature movies.
Ellen Irwin—Do away with all girls who flirt.
Brenda O'Daniels—5 minute classes and 5 1/2 minute recesses.
Jimmy Waldrop—Stop lights at every corner.

This week we are featuring the Editor of the Digest, Virginia White and the Sports Editor, Jim Friederichsen.

Virginia, who is heard frequently exclaiming, "No sweat!" is 5'2" with brownish-red hair and blue eyes. "So Rare" sets her dreaming about her ideal boy who is mature and sincere. Virginia's favorite food is "Mother's" country style steak, and her pet possessions are Carline's friendship and her Alabama Banner. Inconceivable to people are her pet peeves. Her ambition is to successfully combine marriage and a career.

Virginia is a member of the Twix-Teen Club, editor of the Digest, a member of the National Honor Society, an Usher, Social Club Editor of the Champion, and vice-president of the Spanish Club.

Jim is 6'1/4" with brown hair and green eyes. He delights in eating hamburgers while enjoying his favorite song, "Sue Loves the Love I Give Her" which is about his ideal girl whom he describes as being one who is pretty and intelligent. Jim's ambition is to be a success in anything he undertakes to do.

He is a member of the National Honor Society, Sports editor of the Digest and football editor of the Champion.

BAND NOTES

Majorjette preliminary tryouts will be held in the bandroom during the 7th period and after school on Tuesday and Wednesday...

The purpose of these tryouts is to select the girls with the most talent, and train them all spring.

Final selections will be made at the basis of twirling ability, appearance, poise, grace, rhythm, and character.

RODDIN' AROUND

Two sporty looking late model cars seen being driven by Centralites are a 1959 Pontiac Bonneville and a 1959 Chevrolet Impala.

Cad' t Corner

Perhaps you have noticed some R.O.T.C. boys with their uniforms "spic-and-span".

You may think it would be easy to keep your uniform neat, but it's not always so.

Six boys are chosen from each company. The boys are chosen each month. The nearest cadets for the month of November are as follows:

- Robert Evett, Jimmy Gilreath, Johnny Culberson, Charles Jolley, Andy Powers, Jimmy Adkins...

THE 1959-'60 GLEE CLUB, DIRECTED BY MR. K. W. JOHN

GLEE CLUB PLANS CONCERT AND TOUR

Central's Varsity Glee Club is preparing for their spring concert and the tour to New Orleans.

Members of the Glee Club are: Sopranos: Carol Brown, Linda Cantrell, Ruth Coffelt, Libby Crabtree...

CENTRAL HOST TO DIGNITARIES

Today is College-Vocational Day for Central's seniors.

Faculty members serving on the committee are: Miss Morgan, general chairman, Mr. Hobart Millaps, Mrs. Shelton, Miss Cross...

All senior, through their English classes, were asked to sign a college or vocational card in advance...

All of the college representatives and students planning to enter college will meet in the school auditorium at 9 o'clock.

Upon admission, Charles will go to Annapolis, Maryland, in June. During the months of June and July, the new freshmen will become acquainted with the school.

Mr. Shropshire is in charge of preparation and serving a luncheon in the reception room of the school for all college representatives and other guests.

CLUB ASSISTS IN POLIO DRIVE

Saturday, January 30 was the date set to sell the annual Polio Crutches for the new March of Dimes.

The girls stood on the street corners downtown for two hour shifts and sold the crutches for as much as the purchaser desired to pay.

Sue Cameron and Sandra Woods were in charge of the drive.

This is an annual service of Central's social clubs, which are directed by Miss Hodges.

DIGEST SUBMITTED FOR PRESS RATING

The Central Digest will be entered in the rating competition sponsored annually by the Tennessee High School Press Association.

This year the conference is to be held April 8-9 at the Patten Hotel.

Digest Staff members who attended the conference will participate in a program of lectures by professional journalists, panel discussions, individual conferences and exhibits.

Dyer to Represent Tenn. at Convention

Mr. J. Pope Dyer, head of the Social Science Department at Central, was recently appointed by Governor Buford Ellington as a delegate to the White House Convention which will be held in Washington, D. C. on March 27.

Mr. Dyer's appointment was based upon his many qualifications for representing the state. He has received several college degrees, which include a Bachelor of Science degree from Middle Tennessee State College...

Other qualifications upon which Mr. Dyer's appointment was based were the many organizations in which he has been active.

Mr. Dyer has served as Commissioner of Parks and Playgrounds for the city of Signal Mountain.

Who is American Education? and has written more than 100 articles and books.

CHAS. STEHLE RECEIVES APPOINTMENT TO ANNAPOLIS NAVAL ACADEMY IN MD.

Central may soon have another representative at one of the military academies.

Charles Stehle has received news of his appointment to Annapolis Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland.

The results of the tests will be known to Charles around May. If he passes both the written and the physical examinations, he will be admitted.

Here at Central, Charles is a Major in R.O.T.C., the president of the Senate captain of the Rifle Team, and representative to the Student Council.

Central is already represented at each of the military academies. Rob Martin, a 1957 graduate, is a prominent cadet at West Point.

MATH COURSE IS OPEN TO SENIORS

At the beginning of the second semester a special mathematics course was opened for seniors.

The course beginning this second semester will give one-half credit to the students. It is hoped that next year the course will be available for the complete year and therefore give a full credit.

Baby Pounders To Be Future Varsity Squad

The Central Junior High basketball team, known as Coach Jimmy Hale's 'Baby Pounders,' are having a hard time getting started. They have won only six out of seven team games. Probably next year with more experience under their belts, the team may have a better record from seventeen games.

The team starters are big six foot. Dicky Phillips, Bobby Eiter, the high point man, John Staten, Pat Weller, and Neil Hoplowitz. Others on the team are: Jack Devopert, Bryant Millsaps, Charles Solman, Scott Campbell, Carl Vaughn, and Jerry Sanders. These boys will be next year's 'B' team and possibly some of them will make sports news for the Varsity squad in later years.

I am sure that with the backing of more students, this team will come up victorious. We would like to say to the "Baby Pounders" that the whole school will be behind you. —J. Waldrop.

BAND NOTES

Preliminary majorette tryouts were held in the bandroom February 2 and 3. A group of eleven semi-finalists were picked from the 35 girls who tried out. These eleven girls are: Linda Dowell, Barbara Hannah, Maridon McClure, Charlette Mitchell, Kathy Ragland, Donna Rosenick, Janice Rogers, Nannie Sledge, Carol Wallis, and Glenda Wolfe.

This group of girls will be taught the regular majorette routines by this year's majorettes and near the end of May will try out again. At this time, the girls who will become a part of next year's majorette corps will be selected by Mr. Bales.

CENTRAL BASKETBALL TEAM ENDS SEASON WITH WINNING STREAK

The cage season is drawing to a rapid close as the Pounder hoopers of Central High fight for state prominence. The Central quint started out at a slow pace with the uncertainty that goes with inexperience, but in the closing few games they have picked up Program Presented By Digest, Feb. 11. The Digest presented a program to the student body Thursday, February 11, with Floyd Kephart serving as M.C.

Students were reminded to have their Digest subscriptions changed to their new home addresses and to keep up to date on the payments for weekly subscriptions. On the agenda of talent were a combo made up of Ken Parker, Murphy Rogers, Bene Hammel, Mathis, dance routine by the majorettes; and an organ solo by Bene Hammel.

Our hats is off to Coach Smith and the team who deserve recommendation for their spirited play. These players are: Captain, Paul Stephens; alternate captain, Bill Millsaps; Richard Traylor, Raymond Kile, Monte Stewart, Larry Westcott, Jerry Shuford, and Larry Hicks. Stephens and Millsaps, both on the Times Cup all-tourney team, were among the areas' top scorers with 305 and 258 points respectively.

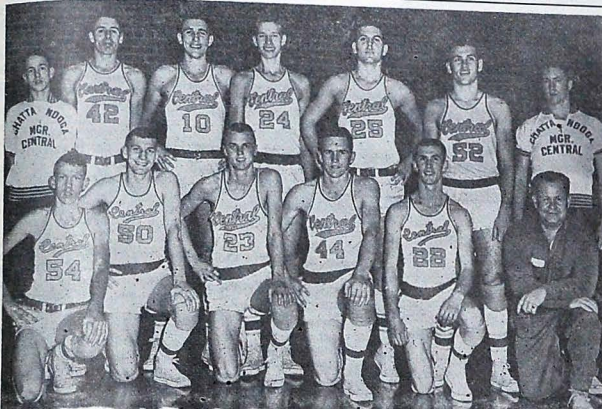

Conference Attended By Students, Dyer

On February 3, Nancy Monds, Martha Coe, Diane Byerly, and Floyd Kephart, accompanied by Mr. Dyer, visited the Middle Tennessee State Teachers College to attend a Future Teachers Conference.

Some of the attractions of the conference were short talks by the heads of the departments and a special talk given by publisher and humorist, Bennett Cerf. The approximate number of students and teachers attending the visitation-conference was 150 from 50 high schools in the state.

In addition to participating in the conference, the group toured the campus.

The main object of the Future Teachers Conference was to bring together young people throughout the state who want to be teachers. This year was the first time a conference such as is had been held. However, Dr. W. D. Boudoin, the person responsible for the conference, announced that plans were being made to make the conference an annual event.

EDITORS REPRESENT CENT. AT OAK RIDGE

JIM FRIEDERICHSEN Thursday, February 11, began early for Mr. Olinger and the Digest editors—Susanne Lawrence, Sandra Compton, and Jim Friederichsen—as they arose before the old cock crowed and made a trip to Oak Ridge. The purpose of this trip was to participate in the birthday celebration of Thomas Edison through a press-science news seminar.

At 9 a.m. the small group of school newspaper writers and faculty representatives were welcomed by Edwin E. Stokely, Assistant Manager for Public Education, Oak Ridge Operations. The group then heard talks by Richard Smeper, editor of the Oak Ridger.

Dr. F. A. Rohrer, principal scientist for the University Relations Division, was the very capable emcee for this discussion. The talks, which entailed informative scientific knowledge intermingled with a touch of humor, kept the group interested while stressing a need for good relations between science and the public.

Following lunch and a movie entitled "Oak Ridge Operations," the group toured the National Lab, taking in 3 nuclear reactors, the radioisotope processing area, and the main research building. Last on the agenda was a press conference, which made this inaugural gathering history, with R. A. Ellington and his orchestra, Tom Dorsey, and Dick Robertson, who was popular after the Pearl Ridge Laboratories.

Honor Society Headed By Jim Friederichsen

The Lookout Chapter of the National Honor Society will be headed by Jim Friederichsen for the second semester. Jim, who replaces retiring president Don Roadman, is Sports Editor of the Digest and Football Editor of the Champion. (EDITOR'S NOTE: Read Jim's article on an Oak Ridge field trip on this page.) Other members elected to office in the Honor Society are as follows: vice-president, Dell Hamilton; secretary, Suzanne Lawrence; treasurer's aide, Marion Berming; and devotional chairman, Donna Brook.

The Honor Society will elect new members from the junior class this second semester. Qualifications for membership are leadership, scholarship, character and service. Mrs. Shelton is faculty sponsor, and the faculty committee members are: Mrs. Skates, Miss Nipper, Miss Major, and Mrs. Caudle.

Donna Reed Featured In March Magazine

Donna Reed will be featured in a special article of the Teen Magazine for March. Donna's name was submitted by the Digest Staff as Central's representative for "Miss Teen of 1960." The article, entitled "Miss Teen of 1960," is one of a series of sparkling features which have won nationwide recognition for Teen Magazine as the leading variety of the U.S.A.'s large teen-age audience.

The contest is to recognize teenage girls from the ages of thirteen to nineteen years old.

Donna's activities here at school include: head majorette, home-room representatives to the Student Council, member of the Office Force, and secretary of the junior class.

Miller's Records Displayed in Show Case Estimated Value of Collection is $1,000

For the past few weeks, records from Fed Miller's collection have been displayed in the library show case. Music and the collection of rare and original records has been Fred's hobby for a number of years. He estimated his collection to be worth a $1,000. His deep appreciation and interest in music all began simply because he enjoyed music in general. "Listening to old records tends to take me back in history," says Fred.

Some of his favorites are the ones displayed here at school; for example, original work by Duke Murphy and his orchestra, Tom Dorsey, and Dick Robertson, who was popular after the Pearl Ridge Laboratories.

Caed. t Corner

As tournament time draws nigh, the Pounder basketball squad sports 12-10 record, and holds fifth place in the District 9 Standings. Despite this fact, they hold an even record four games with the Trojans of Saddy-Daisy, and lost a couple to City's Dynamo.

The season on an average has been a topsy-turvy affair, with the Pounders making like a yo-yo as they bounced from a well-oiled machine on many occasions, to a not so well geared team on others. However, the Pounders have shown good potential, and with the great spirit and hustle they possess could go in the up-coming tourneys. Thus far in the scoring, Captain Paul Stephens, peppery senior guard, Bill Millsaps, and Larry Westcott have carried the brunt of the Pounder's offense each tallying over 200 markers. However, the rest of the Pounders have had outstanding performances.

Small Task—Large Service

When the weather is bad, I mean rainy, snowy, etc., something is missing out in front of Central High. I'll bet you can't guess what; so I'll tell you. It's the flag.

Almost every morning at eight-thirty, four of the Central's R.O.T.C. boys, agreeably assigned the job by Sgt. Davis, put up the United States flag.

They are in order of rank, Charles McMahan, Richard Ryon, Gene McMillian, and Mac Bowen. It's only a five minute job, but it is important. If you take into consideration the fact that they spend five minutes every morning over a period of the one hundred and seventy five days that we go to school, it turns into a fourteen and a half hour job. A small service, yes; but just think what would happen if everyone would spend just five minutes a day doing something for Central High.

POUNDERS ON PARADE

JERRY SHUFORD

LARRY WESTCOTT

Alternating at center or forward posts, depending upon the game, is Jerry Shuford. Jerry is a 6'2" junior. He lettered last year in basketball as a sophomore.

He came to Central from North-side Jr. High where he lettered in football, basketball, baseball, and track. He has lettered in all these sports at Central except track.

Most of Jerry's game is rebounding although he gathers in a fair share of points. Jerry handles the ball well and shoots mostly jump shots although he does considerable driving for lay up shots. He sparks play in defense play as well as on the offensive drive.

That hustling sophomore seen on the basketball court for the Pounders is Larry Westcott. He is a 6'11 1/2" guard. Larry likes to shoot two hand set shots from the quarter court line, from which he does most of his scoring. Larry is the third highest scorer on the squad at present with approximately two hundred points.

He does most of his work on offense, although he holds his own against the man he guards on defense.

Larry came to Central from Brainerd Junior High this year. There he lettered in baseball, basketball, and track. He was voted the best all-around athlete at Brainerd.

Washington—Guide to Choice of Candidates

The four qualities we consider in our choice of Mr. and Miss Central—character, scholarship, leadership, and service—were qualities also possessed by the Father of our Country, George Washington.

Washington's ability as a leader is shown in the important positions he held. He led America to independence when he was Commander-in-chief of our army during the Revolutionary War with Great Britain.

Washington's leadership, scholarship, and service made him "First in war" and "First in peace," but it was his character that put him "first in the hearts of his countrymen."

THAT WHICH IS YET TO COME

As the last quarter of school comes nearer and nearer, all of us, especially seniors, begin to think of last-half activities. Of course the biggest day for most of us is the end of February 31—Graduation Night. This night will be the end of our high school education.

Activities to be attended by many underclassmen included will be Champion Night, the Junior Play, and the Spring Formal. Champion Night will be Thursday, March 17, the Junior Play will be held on April 7. The Spring Formal will be April 1.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

The Digest likes to give credit where credits is due, so this week we would like to recognize the Industrial Arts Department. For the benefit of those who are not familiar with this department, the boys who take shop spend a half year in mechanical drawing.

RICHARD MANNING

ENGLISH NONSENSE

The laws that govern plural nouns I think are strictly for the birds. And not for humans such as we who strive for punctuality. If I goose in plural comes out geese, why are not two of moose then meese?

"In His Steps"

Humility in Giving "I know we're not supposed to talk about our almsgiving," said Bud to his father, "but can't a fellow tell his dad?"

THE LATEST!

The latest craze in albums is the "life performance." Quite a few of the top comedians are taping their performances at night clubs. The performers that have come out of big albums that have come out of this are "Rejoice Dear Hearts" by Brother Dave Gardner, "Inside Shelly Berman," "Outside Shelly Berman," and "Woody Woodbury Looks at Love and Life."

At the moment the newest and possibly the funniest of these is "Rejoice Dear Hearts." Brother Dave does some great routines such as "Where Rock and Roll Came From or the Story of Little Davy," and "Boy on a Motorcycle or How to Die Young and Happy."

Guard: You can't go in the General's tent! Private: Why not? It says "Private."
Mother: Don't you think it's about time we took Junior to the zoo? Father: If they want him bad enough, they'll come after him.

Absolute Perfection

Calling all boys! Well, fellows, we've finally found that ideal girl for you!

She has eyes like Diane Stuart, teeth like Charlene Wooten, with a nose like that of Bobby Jean City. Her rose-petaled mouth is like that which belongs to Kay Kamsee, her flawless complexion like Ann Hendrix's, and she has the hair of Gerry Robinson.

Other students in work shop and their project are: Darrell Morgan, a fourth year student who made a chest of drawers; Wayne Billingsley, a second year student, who made a pair of coffee tables; and V. C. Thompson, another second year student, who made the best cedar chest.

The Digest would like to commend these boys for their work and hope they continue to do well.

COUNCIL PROMOTES

Floyd Kephart and Steve Whitaker served as Masters of Ceremony for a program of talent acts on the Student-Council program February 18.

Participants in the talent program were: Jackie Nelson performing a Latin act; Elma O'Neal forming "Pennies from Heaven," and Bobby Dugan and Oscar performing a skit emphasizing the "Pennies for Music Drive."

Following the talent program, a panel discussion was conducted with Jerry Robinson commenting on the subject, "What are the aims and objectives of the Student Council."

Laura Cofer, Mr. Millsaps, Ken Parker and Alice Woff commented on "What are the appropriate activities and projects for the Student Council and to sponsor?" Mr. Hoodenlocker and Alice Woff commented on how the Student Council can encourage high standards of scholarship.

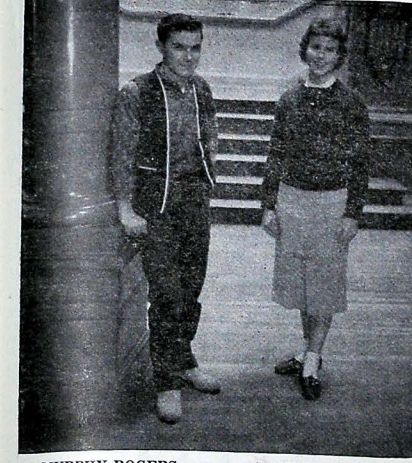

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

Our surprise subject this week (and believe me it's really a surprise, since our prize gal didn't know she was going to be written about) is sophomore, Sophia Silver. So, if you hear a big explosion don't panic — it's only Sophia. Now, in get on with our little story.

Sophia came to Central from typical American girl. In other words, her many likes include: swimming, dancing, listening to the radio, hamburgers, chocolate malts, telephones, movies, the colors green and white, TV, diamonds, and of course, boys. Her typical dislikes of smart alecks and conceited people are naturally shared by many.

Joe: What did King Tut say when he saw the elephants coming?
Moe: I don't know.
Joe: Here come the elephants!
Lady: When I sing, tears come to my eyes. What do you recommend for it?
Doctor: Ever try cotton?

BOY AND GIRL OF THE WEEK

MURPHY ROGERS LAURA COFER

The boy and girl for this week are Laura Cofer and Murphy Rogers.

Laura informed us that noisy people are her pet peeve, while Jimmy's football is her pet possession. Laura loves to eat shrimp and French fries while listening to "Eb Tide," her favorite song.

Laura's activities include: Merry Mace, officer in Battalion, Honor Society, Gym Staff, Student Council.

Next our spotlight turns on Murphy Rogers who is better known as the "teen beat kid," which explains why his pet possession is his drums. Murphy claims that just "beating around" is his favorite pastime.

Murphy is 5' 7", has black hair and brown eyes. While eating spaghetti, Murphy loves to listen to "Sing, Sing, Sing." If you're wondering why you don't see much of Murphy perhaps it's because he is kept busy by his many activities which include: band officer, Swing Band, orchestra, Sergeant-at-Arms of Senior Class, Key Club, officer in the military.

POPULAR ME

Man, I was a king a couple of weeks ago. I was the most popular fellow in Chattanooga. I was on radio and TV. There was even a contest involving me. Everybody from two years to granddad played with me and talked about how handsome I was.

Some people liked me best when I was small and smiling, while others preferred to make me big and fat with a top hat and cane. No matter how I looked, I was always the center of attention. I must have had my picture taken a hundred times.

Come to think of it I had more fun in that short time than some have in a year. I'm sure if it knows Pack; Glenda Bales, Spencer DeFries; Jackie Intermitt, Steve as wonderful as I was this time. Whittaker; Linda Riddle, Tommy Shipley; Betty Keith, Jimmy Tucker; Diane Massengill, Richard Taylor; Donna Rodrie, Bill Rich;

"TIS NOT FOR ME"

I have been roaming the halls and am I surprised. Many of the students seem to have left their manners in their coat pocket.

You can run, skip, hop or jump and still be known as a gentleman or lady. You may shout, yell or whistle and still not be thought too lowly of.

There is still another certain type of "real gone goofy characters." They just must put their bubble chewing gum under the desks. Others act as if their day just cannot be complete unless they knock a couple of people down as they rush through the halls like they were trying to break the world's speed record.

No, this is not the life for me. I'll stick to sliding down the banisters, falling off the rotunda, and having a war with paper wads.

MGRS. PLAY VITAL ROLE IN ATHLETICS
The unsung heroes of our great teams here at Central are the managers. What team could function without the young men who issue equipment, take care of minor injuries, run errands, and are always on hand with a cheery word for all?

The basketball managers are Michael Wright, a junior, and Charlie McLaughlin, a senior. They both have their hands full at this time of year.
Gordon McGlohon and Ronnie Garrison, both juniors, are the football managers. All the protective pads and football shoes and uniforms have to be kept clean, and they have a big job in doing this.

Gordon is also the baseball manager and has charge of all the baseball equipment.
Michael, Gordon, and Ronnie are all in their second year of managing at Central. This is Charlie's first year.

Managers are usually boys who aren't large enough for the team but still have the desire and want to participate.

Managers work hard but get very little credit, so we of the Digest are happy to be among those to give them that which is due.

PURPLES POUND KIRKMAN, RED BANK; ARE EDGED BY CITY IN FINALS

After a first round bye in the District 9 tourney, the Pounders were paired against Kirkman's Golden Hawks. The game was rather slow throughout the first three quarters of play as the cawks doggedly kept within reach. However in the last stanza, the Purples broke out with a rash of baskets and prevailed 61-48. Jerry Shuford bucketed 21 for the Pounders.

Cadets Prepare For Federal Inspection

The cadets are standing at a rigid attention and hear the command "Inspection" to the occasion. The next sound heard is like a machine gun's irregularity, but these cadets are working on it in preparation for Federal Inspection.
Throughout the last few weeks the military has been boning up on the manual of arms and their precision on the drill field. Also, as an aid in getting familiar with the proceedings of this most important military event of the year, two military activity periods have been scheduled for March 16 and 18.

During these special periods, the cadets will practice the second stage of the Inspection in which visiting officers will observe the alignment and marching process of our regiment. The first stage of this event is the personal inspection of each individual as to knowledge of military tactics, weapons, neatness, and deftness with weapons.

Captain Phelps R. Womble, PMS&T, and Central's instructors will be on hand to instruct the cadets.

Library Displays Stamp Collection

The stamp collection displayed in the library from February 29 to March 11 was that of Harold Thomason, Evelyn Lively, Dianne Marshall, Jean Ray, Anne Stancil, Paula Verbanick; Wharton — Dennis Wilkes, Norman Smith, Albert Siegal, Mike Dorsett; York — Shirley Lowe, Joyce Ross; Davis — Gary Johnson, Harold Manning, Bryan Pope, Wiley Poole, Freddie Tucker, Mickey Bibbey, Jimmy De Fries, Eddie Trotter, Guy Padgett, Ernest Reed, Porter Yarbrough, Charles Morris; Etter — Charlie Butler, Ronnie Cordell, Tony Henson, Mike Holdaway, Rickey Klein, Ted Lamb, Terry Parks, Ralph Hutson, Roy Hutson, Roy McCrary, Paul Rutledge, Jerry Davis, Boy Brazier, and Gary Swafford.

Harold says stamp collecting teaches the past history of a country and the happenings of today. While he agrees his hobby is especially interesting, Harold also states that it can become quite expensive.

JUNIORS PRESENT "QUIET SUMMER"

The 1960 Junior Play, entitled "Quiet Summer" will be presented on April 7 at 8:00 in the auditorium.

The play centers around James Clark, a lawyer, played by Steve Whitaker who wants to spend a summer of peace and quiet merely concentrating on being elected president of the Country Club in order to further his career. He hopes to be elected district attorney in the fall. However, James' sister, Lillian (Virginia Johnson), and her husband (Dick Kimbrell) want a summer away from their children, Pamela, 17, (Pat Woodfin) and Sonny, 15, (Jack Stranges); so they send them off to spend the summer with their Uncle Jimmy. At first James resents their visit. As the summer continues, he grows to enjoy the younger generation as they unexpectedly help him in his career and get a little more fun in his life.

The remaining characters in the play are: Helen Russell, Linda Loggans; Jamie Day, Brenda O'Daniels; Harriet, Morgan; Judy Martin; Betsy Harrison, Darlene Welch; Esther Hamilton, Ann Pickering; Frederica Collins, Jay Southerland; Frances Shagnessy, Jackie Indermill; Carrie, Evelyn Huckabee; Bill Henly, Jeff Salter; Mr. Leslie Gardner, Lowell Bennington; Tubby Pitts, Bobby Dugan; Tony, Marshall Harris; Mr. Henry Morgan, Ralph Nipp. Promoters for "Quiet Summer" are Kenneth Phelps, Lynn Williams, Tylene Standridge, and director is Mrs. Flenniken.

FBLA Members Attend Convention

On March 18 and 19, eight members of the Central Future Business Leaders of America attended their sixth annual state convention which was held at the War Memorial Building in Nashville, Tennessee.

The convention was composed of business meetings, discussions, and various contests which the members could enter. Judy Ferris, Donna Brock, and Elizabeth Capps represented Central in a spelling contest.

The club placed second in the entertainment contest. Elizabeth Capps and Judy Ferris were in the spelling finals, Elizabeth placing in the top seven.

RED CROSS FILLS OVERSEAS CHEST

The week of March 14 through 18 was the Red Cross Overseas Chest Campaign. Mrs. Robinson, chairman of the drive, sent representatives to the homerooms to collect money.

The chest, built by Mr. Wharton's shop classes, contained enough school supplies to last for one school year. It will be sent to a school in one of the overseas countries that cannot support its schools.

The Red Cross Chest contained first aid articles, sports equipment, art supplies, musical instruments or sheet music, a picture of activities at Central made by Mr. Towery, and three books.

Mr. and Miss Central Crowning Highlights Senior Day Activities For Class of '60

"Who will be Mr. and Miss Central of 1960?" This greatly discussed question will be answered today, March 25, in the annual crown the new Mr. and Miss Central, but will also introduce all Mr. and Miss Centrals of former years that are seated in the audience.

While the orchestra plays the Senior Class March, Marshals—Paul Chapman, Gilbert Trusley, Bert Brown, and Murphy Rogers—will assist in the seating of the members of the senior class. Pages—Terry Farr, Dayle Harding, Patrick Owens, and Charles Sedmans—will roll out the carpet for the Miss Central.

The closing event of the program will be the singing of the "Alma Mater" by the entire student body. All students will remain seated until after the Recessional as honored guest and seniors leave to the reception held in the study hall.

At the reception the senior class, parents, and guests will congratulate Mr. and Miss Central as well as the Court. Good wishes for the remainder of the year will be expressed by all.

Mr. and Miss Central, members of the court, class representatives, crown bearer, and flower girl will be the honored guest of Mr. Millsaps at a luncheon served in the reception room.

The afternoon will be spent at the home of an alumni, Bill Penney, where group and individual pictures will be taken of Mr. and Mrs. Penney and the Court. Music for the program will be supplied by the orchestra and a quartet composed of the following Miss Central and members of the Glee Club members: Carolyn Court.

Picture above is the cast for the junior class play to be presented April 7.

THE BALLOT BOX

Meet The Military

Vote for your choice and place this ballot in the ballot box found at the Rotunda today. (All students are eligible to be voted upon.) Remember, it's all in fun! Cutest Kitten:

The annual Federal Inspection was held here Tuesday, March 27. This, to the R.O.T.C. cadet, is the hardest time of the year. However this year, it was not quite so hard. Because of rain the inspection was held inside, and the boys did not have to go through the passing review. The cadets, although it was raining, had a hard enough inspection. The inspector, Colonel Mitchell, inspected everyone in the Battle Group, their rifles and the armory. Out of four hundred rifles, he found not one major error or mistake. The armory passed with flying colors. As a whole the complete inspection was very satisfactory. Getting off the subject, have you noticed the new stripes on the N.C.O.'s have been wearing? These new stripes are located not on the arm but on top of the shoulder on a strap. These stripes signify the same rank as the old ones but are easier to put on and to remove.

W. P. Bales Honored; Stephens Named MVP

A special testimonial program honoring Coach W. P. Bales, former basketball coach here at Central, was held in our school auditorium March 22. The program was preceded by a luncheon for Coach Bales. Our principal, Mr. Millsaps, was the toastmaster. Principal speakers in the hour and a half program were former principal, Mr. Stacy Nelson, City Commissioner George McInturf and other friends and former members of Coach Bales' teams. Several humorous stories were told on Coach Bales. Stories about his legendary absent-mindedness brought many laughs. As one said "Coach Bales, I knew that you had asthma, but I didn't know that it affected your eyes." Also there was a serious side as "his boys" told how much they enjoyed working under him. Near the end of the program, Coach Smith presented Coach Bales with a plaque that would be left here at school in his name. The name of our Most Valuable Basketball player will be placed on it each year. This year the honor, along with an individual trophy, was presented to Paul Stephens.

As the heat of the season approaches, things are popping in the world of sports. Today marks the opening of the baseball season for the Founders as they make the short jaunt to East 3rd to meet City High's Dynamo. The Pounders, in the AA loop, will be playing such teams as Red Bank, Soddy-Daisy, Kirkman, and Tyner, in addition to today's foe.

BAND NOTES

The majorettes have had a great year in 1959-60, taking more trophies than any other majorette group in the history of the school! Donna Reed, who was named "Miss Majorette of Tennessee" topped first place in dance twirling, second place in twirling, and third place in strutting, at the state N.E.T.A. Contest, while placing second in strutting at the Bill Allen Contest. Others placing in the Bill Allen affair were: Pat Woodfin—third place; Carolyn Hale, "Miss Cogeniality", and special ensemble consisting of Misses Reed, Woodfin, Haynes Turner, and Nelson—first place. Team awards won were: Second place in the Southeastern Contest. Outstanding Corps trophy at the Band Festival, and second place in the Bill Allen Contest. Further individual awards are too numerous to mention.

SENATE CONDUCTS ANNUAL ELECTION

The annual Senate elections are now under way. The two parties announced their candidates at the Senate meeting March 31. The campaign will start on May 3, and the debate in chapel will be on May 5. The debate will be between the candidates of the two parties. The students will judge from their speeches who they think would best fill the office. The losing candidate for president has a choice of being treasurer or parliamentarian. The losing candidate for vice-president becomes secretary. Charles Smith of the Populist Party and Edwin Swart of the Plebeian Party are candidates for president. For vice-president are Jimmy Smith, Populist, and Steve Whitaker, Plebeian.

This is Charles Smith's first year in the Senate. He is next year's chaplain of the Boy's Hi-Y and a member of the Glee Club. Jimmy Smith has been in the Senate for 2 years. He is also in the Glee Club, Boys Quartet, and is secretary of the Boys' Hi-Y.

Edwin Swart has been a member of the Senate for two years. Also he is a master sergeant in military and assistant chaplain in the Boy's Hi-Y. Steve Whitaker, a Senate member for three years, is vice-president of the Honor Platoon, vice-president of the Boys' Hi-Y, president of the junior class, representative to the National Student Council Convention, President of the Student Council, and was in the junior play.

TEACHERS HONORED FOR SCHOOL SERVICE

Honored in assembly on April 13, on Teacher Appreciation Day were Miss Edmond Hooser, Mrs. Blanche Kalb, Miss Mary Lou Derryberry, Miss Sarah Hubbard, and Mr. Robert Wharton. The program featured three alumni of Central who assisted in honoring the teachers for their years of service at Central. Floyd Delaney gave the main address; Jeannett Aiken played a piano solo; and Mrs. Ranson Rankin sang a solo. Keys containing sapphires and diamonds, depending upon the number of years of service, were presented to the following teachers: Miss Hooser and Mrs. Kalb for 35 years service; Miss Derryberry and Miss Hubbard for 30 years service; and Mr. Wharton for 25 years service. Keys are presented for as much as 45 years of service to the school. Mrs. Shelton has been honored with the 45 year service key and Miss Schwartz with the 40 year service key.

STUDENTS TO ATTEND GIRL'S, BOY'S STATE

Each year, representatives who are outstanding in leadership, scholarship, character, and cooperation are chosen from the junior class to represent Central at Girl's and Boy's State. Tennessee, at the Castle Heights Military Academy, June 5-12. Steve Whitaker, Lowell Bennington and Jimmy DeFriesse are this year's representatives. Alfred Brown, Benny Hartman and Joel Jones will serve as alternates. Middle Tennessee State College in Murfreesboro will be the site of Girl's State, May 29-June 5; Jackie Indermill and Jerry Robinson will serve as delegates. Brenda O'Daniels and Karen Heyer are alternates.

TEWENTY ENTER MATH CONTEST

Fifty-five students competed in a school contest conducted by Mrs. Haskins. Results were placed on the class room board so that participants could see their individual scores. The twenty who reached the finals are: freshmen, Pam Catlett, Karen Duggan, Bobby Elter, Terry Farr, Diane Henze, Linda Mauldin, Pat Michaels, Pat Owens, Charles Sedman, and Bob Schele; sophomores, Carol Averitt, Jimmy Bass, Carolyn Cope, Joan Crownover, Carol Hooke, Dottie Meyer, Mary Reed, Carol Sampson, Janelyn Schmidt, and Linda Wamack.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED FOR JUNIOR RED CROSS

New officers for Junior Red Cross were recently elected to serve for the year 1960-1961. Replacing Ginny Riggins will be Terry Farr as president; Lowell-Bennington will take Billie Ainscough's position as vice-president; replacing Judy Russell for secretary will be Judy Belk; and Vickie Chambers office as treasurer will be filled by Alwayne Smith. A banquet will be held in May honoring these new officers. Floyd Kephart will preside as guest speaker. Honors will go to Mrs. Robinson, sponsor of the council, while entertainment will be furnished by Raymond Kile.

CORONATION HELD MAY DAY, APRIL 28

The front lawn of Central High School Thursday, April 28, will be the scene of the annual May Day festivity. Sue Cameron, Rachel Temple, Ann Hoffmeyer, Dianne Turner, Martha Pardue, Gail Delaney, Jimmy Aiken, Bert Brown, Gilbert Frazer, Jack Gohber, Barney Ottinger, and Wayne Huling are the candidates for May King and Queen. All senior girls having received A's in gym will attending Central will be court guards and will take part in the winding of the two Maypoles. Jackie Indermill with Gerry Robinson will be the leader of the day's activity as the court's jesters. Seen as crown bearers will be James P. Davis and Mary Ellen Pangle. William Brooks and Martha Ann Bass will serve as the queen's train bearers. Various folk dances will be performed by underclassmen selected from five different gym classes. Also on the program will be a drill by the girl's battalion with the drill ending as they line the pathway for the entrance of the May Queen, King, and the Court. After the crowning of the queen, Nancy Evans will make a salute to the queen and her court with a dance. The day's activities will come to a close with all guest and students singing the Alma Mater.

REPORTER TAKES SCENIC-LAND TOUR

One representative from each school present at the Tennessee High School Press Conference on April 8 was selected to tour several scenic attractions on Lookout Mountain with the agreement that each student would report on the trip. Central's Wade represented the Central Digest. A chartered bus carrying about 28 persons left on the tour at 2 o'clock on Friday, April 8. The Incline Railway is the most direct route to the top of Lookout Mountain, so the reporters, wanting the quickest way up, boarded the incline. In perfect safety and comfort and with a panoramic view of the valley below, the group was suspended above the city of Chattanooga.

The next exciting experience of the day was the exploring of the adventureland, Rock City, a mountain site that surrounds one with the Indian legend of the area. Upon leaving Rock City, the group found itself below 260 feet of solid rock in the geological discovery called Ruby Falls. At the end of the journey through this subterranean wonderland was the view of the 145 foot waterfall. A fitting climax of the tour was the battle of Chattanooga that sealed the fate of the Confederacy seen in the Confederama.

Golds Take Game; Purples Trail By One

With the close of spring training, Thursday, April 14, came the intersquad "Purple-Gold" game. This game consisting of: Gold two teams consisting of: Gold captain Aaron Watts, quarterback Jerry Shuford, halfbacks David Kilgore and Charlie Ladd, fullback Glenn Jones, ends Jackie Benny and Jim Collins, tackles Benny Cuzort and Dicky Phillips, guard Blaine McGuffey and Jeff Salters and center Don Richardson; Purples: captain Benny Hartman, quarterback Harry Phillips, halfbacks Don Giles and Tommy Aiken, ends Tony Giles and Tommy Parsons, tackles William Walker and Gene Keller, guards Billy Thompson and Johnny Lassater and center Gerald Griffith. The Golds led by two touch downs, the first Jerry Shuford; 65 yard run back and the other 20 yard pass to Charlie Ladd. The "Golds" converted both extra points.

Harry Phillips' yard sneak and Don Giles' 55 yard run, sparked the Purples who missed on extra point by only a hair. The Purple being underdogs came out better than expected by the coaches.

Pounders Bow in League Debut; Dynamo Prevail

After taming Roosevelt's Bull dogs in an early April meet, the Pounder nine tangled with an ex-cross-town playmates, City High in the AA League opener.

The game, from the time the first pitch was hurled, was a gruelling pitcher's duel with both mound men giving up but four hits. The Maroons drew first blood capitalizing on a couple of Central miscues in the fourth frame, the sacker via errors, Posey Davi popped a double into left scoring both runners.

The Pounders retaliated in the first half of the seventh, knotting the score 2-up. Ed McGee lived off an error, Stewart doubled and both scored on a throwing error. City, having the advantage of the home team, pushed across the winning run when McCulley walked, stole second, went to third on a fielder's choice and scored when Gilbreath punched a single through Central's indrawn infield.

Meet The Military

"Variety is the spice of life," in all facets of activity. Military, being no exception, has revolutionized the cadet's uniform.

This change, a welcome one to the military cadet, comes about this time every year. The change is not a big one in that the only changes are: no jacket, wool to khaki trousers, and will to khaki hat. The cadets keep the same shirt, brass, and tie. These new uniforms will be a regular sight each Wednesday and Thursday and any other time the cadet is instructed to wear it the remainder of the school year.

Looking through my scheduled events I notice the drill team is one more on the move. This time it will not be so far away but with a far greater purpose. They are going to Nashville to compete in a state wide drill contest. There will be school drill teams from all over the state competing for the honors. Some of the main competition will be coming from three

POUNDERS TAKE LEAD DEFEATING CITY 5-0

After holding down the number two spot in the AA prep division for the majority of the half-used season, the Purple batsmen took the lead. City's Dynamo, who inflicted the only loss of the season on the Pounders, proved to be the final stepping stone to the top. The Pounders had previously gained a tie for the lead by shutting out Tyner's Hilltoppers 4-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Larry Westcott. Third sacker, Eddio McGhee, was the leading batsman, as he slapped out three singles.

In the City game the Central 9 atoned for a previous loss, blanketing the Dynamo 5-0. Stewart turned in a superb job on the hill, giving up only one hit, while whiffing 11. The team as a whole played error-less ball while rapping out 7 hits.

The starting nine, now that the dust has settled is: infield, Shuford on the initial sack, Hudgens at second, Huling at short, and McGhee holding down the hot corner; outfield, Mike Drake, Gil Trusley, and Bert Brown; battery, Lloyd Benton, catching, and Monto Stewart, Bill Millsaps, or Larry Westcott on the mound.

SPORTS SPIEL

The 1959-60 stanza of athletics at Central would be hard to summarize in the space allotted; for, though it has not been a record-smashing year, it has been an eventful one. The various teams' efforts fluctuated from brilliant to mediocre.

It all started September 4 with the opening of the grid season, and it is yet in progress as our base ballers are still embroiled in seasons play.

To begin at the beginning, which concluded with the Pounders sporting a 5-4-1 reading. They opened like a ball of fire, taking Johnson City and Memphis Central in well-played contests. A 12-6 defeat at the hands of Etowah then started a 3-game losing streak including defeats to Kingsport and Bradley.

In winding up the season the Pounders moved from under the cloud of defeat to post decisive wins over Nash-Hillsboro, Huntsville-Butler, and Oak Ridge and a tie with perennially potent Greenwood, S. C.

Grid lettermen were: Linemen, Ted Baskette, Paul Chapman, Haven Thompson, Barney Ottinger, Sam Tucker, Don Apperson, Jack Guber, Russell Heffner, Glenn McPeters, Sidney Ballinger, Jim Collins, Tony Giles, Gerald Griffith, Central placed third in the state behind Castle Heights Military Academy and Columbia Military Academy with local rivals Ogburne, Backs, Wayne Huling, Gilbert Backs, Wayne Huling, Gilbert Trusley, Jim Aiken, Bert Brown, and Jerry Shuford, Don Giles, Benny Hartman, Tommy Aiken, Harry Phillips, Charles Ladd, David Kilgore, and Aaron Watts.

Academy and Columbia Military Academy with local rivals Ogburne, Backs, Wayne Huling, Gilbert Trusley, Jim Aiken, Bert Brown, and Jerry Shuford, Don Giles, Benny Hartman, Tommy Aiken, Harry Phillips, Charles Ladd, David Kilgore, and Aaron Watts.

Moving to basketball, the Purple hoopsters were in the role of bridesmaid as they proved to be runners-up in the Times Cup, Round Robin, and District 9 tournaments. The squad turned in a 20-13 overall record as they "yo-yoed" up and down the quality-of-play scale.

Pounder cagers garnering the coveted "C" were: Bill Millsaps, Paul Stephens, Larry Westcott, Jerry Shuford, Richard Traylor, Larry Hicks, Raymond Kile, Joel Brown, Monte Stewart and Eddie McGhee.

Last but not least is the men of the diamond whose activities are summarized elsewhere on the page.

In other phases of the military the Rifle Team, also traveled a little. On April 29, they went to compete in a local rifle team competition there. The team also competed in a local rifle team meets with such schools as Bay, Brown, Monte Stewart and Eddie McGhee.
