Dedication

To

MRS. REBA FULTS

Throughout her years at Central, by her kindness, friendliness, and understanding of her students, Mrs. Reba Fults has proved herself a wonderful friend as well as an inspiring teacher. Her wise counsel, unlimited patience, and cheerful manner as well as her splendid co-operation, distinguish her and challenge us. It is with great pleasure that the Senior Class dedicates this, the 1952 volume of the CHAMPION to Mrs. Fults.

CHS Library

Dear Seniors:

I trust that your years at Central High School have been happy ones and that you will always remember them pleasantly.

You may think that this is the happiest time of your lives; however, as an advance in years, we really grow happier, if we live intelligently civing is complex process and an increase of difficulties and esponsibilities enriches our minds and adds to the variety of life. Yo say that wouth is happier than maturity is like saying that the view from the bottom of the tower is better than the view from the top. As we live or ascend, the range of our views widens and the horizon is pushed farther away. Finally, as we reach the summit of our lives, it is as if we had the world at our feet.

For you to live full and happy lives is my genuine wish. May His guiding hand ever be with you as you ascend the "tower of life."

Sincerely yours,

W. H. Millsaps

The Balinboys, led by Frank Igou and Bernard Epperson, put on many fine showings during the season. The record of nine wins against twelve defeats does not give this group of boys the credit they are due. The loss of Bernard Epperson greatly handicapped the tram, but they soon filled the gap by such men as Paul Potter and Dan Wade. Playing all-around good ball the whole season were Jimmy Pack, Paul Kincer and Bill "Poncho" Goodner. Although these basketters didn't have too many standout games, they played well at all times and combined their efforts to build up the score. One cannot overlook the fact that many times these boys were beaten by one point in the last seconds of the game. In the

The Central High Boxing Team, paced by Gene Hall, racked up a good season record. Their first absorting was in the Golden Gloves, When the last fight was over and the points were notaled, Central boys took trephics in High School, Sub Noviec, Golden Gloves Open, and the Beet Squad. In winning the Golden Gloves Open, Central sent Ken Hudgins, Jack Allison, Ralph Creswell, and Gene Hall to Nashville.

Three of the four men met their match in Nashville. The only man to awarber the storm was Gene Hall. The next step for this classy champion was Chicago where he represented the South in the quaterfaints of the National Golden Gloves. By continuing his winning record and going as far as any Chattanooga bover had ever gone, he was invited to return to Chicago for the semificult in March. Here he set his aim high. He won his first fight by decision and needed only one more win to exter the finals. Here the setting ran out for the courageous boxer from Chattanooga. He was hunded his first defeat in four years of boxing and thirty-our fights by bowing to James Hairston of Kamess City who went on to with the Championship.

BASEBALL

It was with deep regret that Central heard of the retirement of W. P. Bales from the staff of coaches. The announcement was made by Principal W. H. Millsaps at a coaches' luncheon on March 22.

Mr. Bales, affectionately known to his boys as "Bang B 'ng," began his coaching career at Chartanooga High School in 1921 and the following year sined the staff of Central where he has served as baskerball and baseball coach for thirty: are During this time Mr. Bales has sent forth many championship teams in these two favorite sports and at the same time has turned down many offers for betters, aying jobs, but, in loyalty to the school, he preferred to serve Central.

During his years at Central Coach Bales has not only made an enviable record in sports but has also drawn to himself a host of friends and admirers who know him as a fair and an enthusiastic coach, a scholar, and gentleman of the highest type.

Mr. Bales will continue his work at Central as Flead of the History Department.
