The Senator's Visit

Central was honored this year when Senator James Sasser held a Senare field hearing at our school. Central served as the hast for the five other Hamilton County. High Schools, area dignitaries and members of the press. Senator Sasser listened to students' ideas on a national volunteer service program. Rob Compbel represented Central on a select panel of six students who shared with the senator their personal experience with community service. While or Central, the senator was presented with a purple Central shirt, a pair of purple and gold orhieric sodis, and was made a honorary PURPLE

JUST DOING MY JOB, MA'AM

Everyone knows that to be a reenager today, you need a car, gas to put in it, places to go, and clothes to wear when you go. To support this lifestyle, many Central students are working. Central students not only work for the minimum wage but also for the fringe benefits a job possesses. For the student whose priority is to meet other kids, McDonalds, Pizza Hut, Hardees, and Harrison Video are the businesses preferred. Central girls know that if you want to pick-up some "real" men, then you have to get a job at Ace Hardware. Several guys have realized that if you want to get a good ran and make money, the best places to work are the Loret Marina, The Ski Gub, and the K-Mart Garden Shop. For tips, nothing can beat Red Food Store or Food Llon. The "coolesr" place to work by far is Baskin-Robbins, and we won't go into the benefits of working at Show Biz. There is one thing though, every job has its drawbacks. No one for a lare night; and no one likes to get stiffed or having to wear the uniforms. Really, you have to admit,

I ger poid for this!

ARE YOU SURE WE CAN DRAIN THE OIL FROM UP HERE?

FUN BECAUSE WE WERE SENIORS! AND FROM START TO FINSH THE FUN NEVER STOPPED. BY THE MARATHON SIGN PAINTING PARTIES. THE "SMOK-ING OUT" OF THE JUNIORS IN BOTH THE "CLASS WITH THE MOST CENTS" AND THE GREAT TRIUMPHANT MAG-AZINE SALE, AND SO SO MANY PER-MANENT RESIDENCE IN THE VERY LAST "DOG HOUSE", AT CENTRAL HIGH, WE SHOWED THE JUNIORS, SOPHO-MORES, AND FRESHMAN HOW TO BE SENIORS! YES, VICTORY WAS SWEET. THE WILD TIMES WERE TRADITION. AND FOR ALL WHO KNEW US. THE EXCELLENCE WAS EXPECTED. NO SUR-PRISES, NO QUESTIONS ABOUT IT, NO ARGUEMENT: THE CLASS OF '89 HAD IT ALL, BUT MOST IMPORTANTLY WE ALWAYS HAD EACH OTHER, OUR LAST YEAR TOGETHER SLIPPED AWAY DEFORE WE KNEW WHAT HAPPENED. IT WAS DECEMBER AND WE WERE ALREADY PLANNING OUR FIVE YEAR REUNIONI DUT THAT WAS JUST THE WAY WE WERE - AL-WAYS ON THE GO AND PUSHING AHEAD WITH OUR NEW IDEAS AND INNOVATIVE WAYS, I WONDERED MANY TIMES THROUGHOUT OUR YEARS AT CHS WHAT THE CLASS OF '89 WOULD BE LIKE AFTER GRADUA-TION, AND I DECIDED - A LEGACY, THE ONE AND ONLY, CLASS OF '89, A "FAMILY" OF FRIENDS WHO COULD. CHANGE THE WORLD SOME DAY, I WAS PROUD TO BE THE PRESIDENT OF THE GREAT CLASS OF '89. EVEN THOUGH OUR DAYS AT CENTRAL ENDED, OUR FRIENDSHIP AND MEMO-RIES OF THE FUN WE HAD OUR SEN-IOR YEAR WOULD LAST FOREVER! Written by Tamara Walker

Once upon a time, long ago, a group of young people looked across the cold, deep space separating them from the new world. We marveled at the new ife that was awaiting us in this new world. We weren't looking for riches, but for fame and popularity, and maybe an older boyfriend or giffriend. We chose to load up on our ship, the Bushower, and explore the new world.

After a couple of months of searching, we finally found the new world. We then decided to vote in the leaders that would guide us in our new land. As president, we elected Kristol Grant. As vice-president, we elected Tamara Walter. The group vared as secretary Tamms Wheeler, and Kristi Cline as treasurer. Our future was looking bright. The nortives of the land referred to us as freshmen. We had eight members of our settlement that would get the rest enthused about the new adventure. They were called cheerleaders. They wan second place or the Eastgare Cheer Compension and were camp champions at UTC. Our marching band, which had many freshmen, participated in the "Land of the Sky" marching festival. Joe Hilbert was selected freshman representative of the band and made As East Ir High, Our ROTC department also shined. Our drill ream placed third in UTC competition with freshman members Terry Tisdale and Ray Layne. The Rangers won first place in the Ranger Rendezvous with members Brian Simms and Terry Tadale. In sports we had fifteen freshman. baseball players, seven wresters, five cross-country runners, and four volleyball players. There were nine boy soccer players with Ronnie Rooks making the Freshman All State Soccer Team. Our dass sponsor in ninth grade was Mr. Hughes. The future looked bright for this small settlement. Our only fear was a barbarous and bloodthirsty. native tribe called: the Seniors!

Our second year we grew and were then referred to as sophomores, which means better than freshmen, but nor much. We held our second presidential election and Kristol Grant won. Our vice-president was again Tamara Walter and our secretary was Tammi Wheeler. Our treasurer was Kristi Cline. During this year, the football team won the &AA District Championship. There were twentyone participating sophomores on this ream! The baseball team become state champions with members David Elis. Mark Roy, and Joe Geren. Army Clarkson was chosen MVP of the baskerball ream and Jennifer Baker was chosen most improved. Our cheerleaders won a porn porn comperition and were chasen camp champions. Members include: Karen Brooks, Tartia Smith, Tammi Wheeler, and Surv Miller Poul Ashley, Joe Hilbert, and Jodie Robertson. arrended the All State Chorus Choir. Beth Randolph was chosen sophomore representative of the band while our drill rearn wan a second place trophy at the UTC and Warren County competitions. Members include Jeanine Where Terry Tisdale, and Jeffrey Mariack Srephen Short was chosen as Superior Coder during this year. Central was chosen as a school of excellence during this year and eemed to have an excellent group of sophomores at-

Our third year at Central people began to refer to us as union, which must mean maturing because even the seniors began talking to us. We elected Tamara Walker, president Koren Brooks, vice-president Tommi Wheeler. secretary. Kristi Cline, frequiner. Detsy Henry was chosen as the winner of the Sewanee Award while Linda Sutton was chosen as Best-Ali-Round. Joe Hilbert, Paul Ashley, and Joe Boshears were chosen as delegares for Boys Stare. Berti Randolph and Amy Carlson were chosen as delegates for Girls Store, Michelle Renker, Dersy Henry, and Terry Tisdale were chosen to ottend the Superintendents Leodership Conference: Our soccer team had eight members and Jav. Novel received the Defensive Award in Soccer. Raquel Garralon made the All Regional Girls Soccer Team while Andrea Roark made the All Cry Baskerbal ream. Our class representative for our lunior year was Mrs. Williamson.

Our fourth year we were finally accepted. We became seniors and weren't looked upon as newcomers anymore. We started off our year by electing Tamara Walker, presdent; Jodie Roberson, vice-president; Tammi Wheeler, secretary, and Valerie Moon, measurer. Srephonie Banther was chosen as drum major and Bruce Volles was chosen band coprain. He made All East Tennessee Jazz Band while our charus received superior ratings or a festival in North Coroling. Tabby Hill received MVP for girls soccer and Raquel Garraion made All Regional Soccer Team for the second year in a raw. Our cheerleaders were camp champions and won the master key to spirit with captain, Karen Brooks: co-captains, Tathia Smith, Tammi Wheeler, and also Michelle Bennerr. Brian Simms was selected as Barallon Commander and Tammi Wheeler was picked for Homecoming Queen.

The years have passed in sequence with years beforehand. We have grown stronger as friends just as the nation has grown as a country. The real class history lies in each friendship and every accomplishment of the dass of '89. May God bless each and everyone of you, Sreve Wise

THE EYES OF A CHILD

In the eyes of the children Lies the down of tomorrow

Youth sees romorrow As a time to reap rewards Looking to romorrow, Dreams come to life

Forer the children To the threshold of adulthood To a time when visions fade. And dreams callide with reality Coming of age is a dire time When innocence becomes a memory

But dreams never muly die: Therefore, the vision remains. Ofren visions fode And shodows close the eyes Here it is hard to find Real mativation of a dream.

Because dreams lie in innocence, Keep the eyes of a child.

To the Class of 1989 I say thank you for a fantastic year. Because of your hard work and dedication Central High School has achieved yet another honor of distinction by being named one of Tennessee's ten great schools for 1988-89, and the only high school from East Tennessee to receive this honor. I hope that in years to come that you will look back with pride of your

See you strive in your life to article success, gain happiness, meet the challenges of life, become an individual, and gain integrity, let me encourage you to bring about changes in your life, community and notion.

As individuals you can change the contour of a day, the mood of a moment and the way people.

These changes can be either destructive or constructive as a result of personal decisions you will make everyday about your life. Be eager to strive for improvement and initiate change for better methods of accomplishing answers to lodays complex problems.

As you initiate these changes remember that virtually nothing comes out right the first time. Failures, repeated failures, are the finger posts on the road to successful change. The only time you won't fall will be the last time you try something and it succeeds. Remember that one fails forward, not backward, toward successs.

Don't stop striving for changes that will make this community and nation a better place in which takes less does, nutrue the urge you have deep down inside of you to better your own conditions in life always pick yourself up after you have been knocked down. Keep going when everything seems to be against you because nothing comes to stay, but only to pass. Remember that two seems to be against you because nothing comes to stay, but only to pass. Remember that two giving you the apportunity to grow, once at the same time, one change will make way for the next giving you the apportunity to grow. One can the same time, one change will make way for the next giving you the opportunity to grow. And will will move mankind forward to a better future.

is the Junior class number one? Of course it is Not only has the Junior class been the Most Spirited Class two years running, but we have also been well represented in all aspects of life at Central High. Whether it's otheria, ROTC, academics, or sending three Juniors to Ali-State charus, our dass excels in all that we do. We have Juniors proven time and time again in every area that we are indeed the very best that Central has to offer. Pride, excellence, and achievement are the elements that have disringuished the Junior dass or Central. When the rest have faded and been forgotten, the Class of '90 will still be remembered and celebrared for its superiority and its contributions to Central High. Written by Rab Campbel.

- You have warmed our lives and routhed our souls, For that we will always love you. We count among our dreams and gools. The day in perfect peace when we will join you,
- But now you live on in our minds and hearts,
- And there you will remain.

 And because of your love, when the pain starts, From tears we will refrain.

Being named president for the dass of '91 has been nothing but an honor. It has been a great year for this unique class in many ways! Although we only won third place in the Magazine Drive, and Spirit Link contest, and received fourth place in the "Class with the Most Cents," we have shown tremendous spirit at pep rallies and in supporting our athletic reams. This year the Sophomore dass has set before them many dreams and goals that they intend to see become a realty. We have not only progressed in these areas, but have established bands of friendship that will never be broken. We intend to continue our success over the next two years and to leave a lasting impression on Central High School Congratuations class of '91 and may God bless each and ev-eryone of you. Spring Dreak is the time in each school year that students live for. Over the years certain rituds have become a part of Spring Break. Many students head to Daytrona, Panama City, or Fr. Lauderdale in search of sun and all sorts of fun. Others stay in Chartranooga but live at the dam tanning on sunny days. No one knows the word currew on this special holiday either. Spring Break serves as a major tension breaker for both students and faculty and gives everyone a little more courage to come back and finish the school year.

Sammylox and the Three Principals

Once upon a time there were three bears who lived in a cozy little office in A-pod. The father was a great big bear from the Soddy Woods, the mother was a middle-sized computer-hacker of a bear, and the child was a reeny-tiny Elvis

One day, namely Senior Skip Day, while their porridge was left on the table to cool, the Great Big Bear, Warren, urged the other bears to join him on a stroll through the parking lot. Along come a little girl named Sammylox. She nervously knocked on the door of the office, but no one answered.

She skipped in and there she saw three bowls of porridge on the table.

"I am very hungry", thought Sammylox, She was going to taste the partidge in the great big bowl, but sameone had placed robacco juice in it. Then she decided to raste the partidge in the middlesized bowl, but it had mysteriously vanished due to an unexpected schedule change. Then she tasted the porridge in the bowl labeled "Little Chucky's Bowl," and it was just right, so she are it all up.

After that, Sammylox went to another area of the office, where she saw three chairs. First, she sar down in the great big chair, but again there was an unslightly pool of dip spir on it. Then, she sor down in the middle-sized chair, but it was duttered with hours of paperwork. When she looked at Little Chucky's Chair, she said, "This is just right," But when she sat down, the added weight from the over-sized, out-of-style tie crushed poor Little Chucky's Throne.

After that, Sammylox discovered three beds hidden in the rear of the office. First, she tried the great big bed but, alas, its sheets were soaked with nosty robocco juice. Then she tried the middle-sized bed, but it was a Craft-Matic Adjustable Model, and she didn't know how to operate it. When she lay down on the bed covered with Graceland Souvenir Sheets, it was just right. Sammylox fell asleep.

While she was sleeping, the three bears returned from their stroll in the parking lat. They looked about their office. "Some little punk's breathed on my parridge!" said Warren in a great big voice.

Then the middle-sized bear, whose porridge had suddenly reappeared, sold, "UHII" -- and that was it. And the little bear, in a surprisingly deep voice, said, "May I have your attention please. May I have your attention please. Someone's been rasting my porridge and it's all gone. Thank you.

Then the three bears went into the next room in the office.

Good Night Children.

"Gosh Danger, some punk's put robacco juice in my chair again!" said the Great Big bear.

"Look or all the governork I have to do!" said the middle-sized bear, looking or his duttered chair,

Then the teeny-tiny bear, in his deep voice, said, "Pardon me teachers for this interuption, but someone's been sitting in my Chucky's Chair and it's all broken to pieces. Thank you:" Then the three bears heard a lispy snore coming from the rear of the office. Naturally, upon Warren's insistence, they

"Well, Shoot Fire, I've got to go to the Soddy Wal-Mart to buy new sheets!" said Warren in a great big voice. "I didn't know I even had a bed in here!" said the middle-sized bear in a bewildered voice

Then the reeny-tiny bear said in his usual deep voice, "Teachers and students, I have a special announcement to make. Someone's been lying in my bed and she is still here!" The voices woke up Sammylox. When she saw the three bears looking at her, she quidtly took her bifocals out and began fidgering with them. She then attempted to run to CPod, but her way was blocked by three lazy pigs: Walsey, Hixson, and Nelms. But that's another story.

Excuses, Excuses, Excuses

From the very beginning to the very end of time, teachers will hear the never ending excuses kids use to get out of class. In the beginning the students simply rold their teachers they were sick. The reachers let them go home with no questions asked. Those were the good ole days. Now the reachers have gotten smarter and we actually have to think about the excuses we use

We no longer can use the going to the bathroom or to a locker excuse. Teachers have gotten smarter and limited our time. (You have two minutes to get there and back.) How do they expect a student to go and see his/her best friend on the other side. of school, gossip, and make it back to class with a time limit?

Students can always say they need to go to another teacher's class, but that usually requires a pass. When lunch time nears, Mother always loves to hear from you. You've waited 35 minutes to use the phone, too bad the line is so long and you're still Feeling side? (Wanting to get out of geometry or chemisty?) Go to the clinic. Central should post directions so many students

Our of all the excuses, guidance always works best it's always backed up and confusing. After doing what you wanted, go to audiance and get a copy of your transcript. There's no problem with getting a pass either!

We've come a long way with our excuses since the good ale days, so be proud but counous. When we have children or become reachers, what kind of an excuse will the next generation come up with?

How To Get Out Of A Speeding Ticket

In the year of 1988-1989. Central added yet another test to its curriculum:

Oh no, another one? Just what we all needed, right? However, this test was different; for one thing, the teachers did the most studying and faced the more homework assignment to avoid! While these students worried and planned, seniors who needed an extra credit to graduate were able to relax.

After all, they can not attend the biggest event for segions: the graduation and the parry afterwards, right? The third group of students weren't relaxing and they weren't worrying, they were simply enjoying the chance to expand their scholastic abilities (they told us that underwater basket-weaving was good for

American Studies View On A Research Paper

Picture this . . . you've had a long, grueling, and redious day. Ludely, you get a thirty minute lunch break. You walk into American Studies (abbreviated AM, STUD) and you are handed a 1/4 inch packet of information. "This can't be good," you

Then it comes, "OK doss, we're going to spend the next six to nine weeks doing a research paper." AAAAGGGHH!! Sure, you get a couple of release days to go out to ear, play fribee at the dam, or maybe go to the library for a few minutes, but sooner or later you've got to start. (Usually two weeks before it's due is a good time to read the information.) The research paper is really a huge exercise in discipline. Every night you must do a certain amount of the paper or you'll be behind (which is where I've been all along.)

But since we know all this is good practice for college. (you did know that didn't you?), we should try to keep up the pace and never forger the periods or the end of the bibliography cords! One day in college, the juniors of '88' 89 are going to look back at these little bitty five page research pagers and lough their heads off. All of us will wish things could be that easy again. Written by Parrick Birchfield

He's Really Alive!!

The King lives!!! Yes, girls, old swive! hips is really alive. For years, millions of fans have asked the same question, "Is Elvis really dead?" Well, Central High do you believe he is really gone? Here's a little story that might change it started before Christmas break when people started hearing "Blue Christmas" over the intercom. All right, maybe that doesn't prove anything. but haven't you girls seen a certain face in the hall that carches your eye? Haven't you seen a face with that same sexy sneer, and heavy eyelids that the King himself passessed?

Haven't you noticed a man with a wiggle in his walk and a sway in his hips? Surely you people have seen some signs of the King, or maybe you have but you just won't admit it. Maybe he hasn't left any subtle hints for us like wandering around the hall in some right black leather ourfit, or wearing one of his bell-borrom jumpsuits, but a true fan could rell him a mile away.

Believe it or not, we see him every day, and I must admit his hair is holding up rather well, thinning a little, but doing well. The King's voice still has its hilbilly twang and I am sure that if you asked him to, he would be hoppy to sing a song to two. Fellow students, it gives me great pleasure to introduce the King. Central High, I give you the King ... Elvis C. Preston.

In our day and time, when people want to look like Arnold Schawenger, It's nice to know that your high school has it's own weight room.

In Central's weight room our own personal trainers, who know all about weight lifting, are Coach Clayton and Coach Ray

While Coach Clayton has turned out good powerlifters, Coach Ray has turned out strong

When you enter the weight room, there are 3 rules: desire to lift, commitment to work out, and no earrings.

In the weight room during seventh period, you will see football players lifting to get ready for next season. After school, you will see people like Tom Harvestor, who has come to help the football team with a good weight lifting program.

Face the facts, Central has one of the best weight lifting rooms in the state. Written by:

MODOSCORES FOR NEXT YEAR

arvueAlib UF 07

Be aware that changes are necessary and you must prepare for them. You may welcome them but others are arranged from the chard to radie new jobs or to think along new lines. Your efforts will ensure great things. A rise travel will be good for you. Pan ahead.

You will have many bright ideas in the coming months. Don't get discouraged by others. If you give friendship

Don't understrande your abilities as you begin to make major dranges in your tives. De confident, but nor putinty. That you own incuron and Judgement but consider all draicies corefully. De sure nor is now strings too secoully, or you will ruin what should be a great year.

You may feel overwhelmed by responsibility early in the year, but it will get easier. Avoid errors and sudder behavior, impulsiveness may prove dangerous, particularly when surrounded by seniors. Your new aptrionry as a sopharmore may be questioned by a freshman. Air him in his place with a linte help from your friends.

WE'VE GOT THE LOOK!

The school year of '88-'89 saw the return of many things. To the joy of all, the hickey-hider returned in the form of the turtleneck that was worn under shirts, sweaters, and everything else. This year the student body returned to the wild, wild West. Snakeskin or leather boots covered the most fashionable feet on the compus, while blue jean or leather jackets covered their bocks. To cope with the stress in school, students returned to the 60's. Peace symbols appeared and hair became straight. True male rebels pierced their ear and let their views on society reflect in the earring choice. Girls showed off their legs in miniskirts and dressy knee-bearing shorts. Neat Jeans became a thing of the past as guys and girls faded their jeans and ripped holes in them in various locations. Back packs became the most popular mode of transporting books around campus. The most daring student wore spandex bilker pants under skirts and pants. "Anything goes" was the theme for hairstyles this year. Some boys spiked their hair whiled others shaved it off, and some let theirs grow untamed. Girls permed, straightened, cut, and lengthened their hair. Loafers with brightly colored socks were worn instead of tennis shoes while rubber hunting boots showed up everywhere

Since time began, there has been music. Once music and teenagers found each other, music has been disliked by older generations. From "Beethoven" to "Boy Meets Girl" there have been arguments. Parents banned Evis and hated Beetlemania. Their children rebelled and raday those same children are banning our music. They've forgotten what music means to the younger generation. They've pur "warning" sign on abum covers, but it hasn't helped and never will.

As you look in the corners, you find all types of music. There's no longer ordinary KZ-106; there's everything you can imagine. There are metalheads, sterotyped as devil worshippers. That is not at all true! Devil worshippers listen to all types of music but don't rell the skinheads.

For the dancers in the bunch, there's reggae, rap, and sout. No one can argue with this type of music; it's straight to the point. Listen to Tone Loc's version of "Wild Thing" and you'll understand what that means

Some groups will never die our. Def Leppard, Chicago, and The Dead Millymen. have been around and will be around forever. Not everyone likes the same music, but there's one person no one can overlook, and that Hank Williams, Ir. He's rude, he's loud, and he knows how to have a good time.

Could it be possible that we'll turn into another generation like our parents? No,

"Tour of Duty" is a dramatic series depicting the hardships of a platoon of the U.S. Infantry in the Vietnam War. The show airs weekly and can be viewed by the whole family. It touches on many things that a reenager might not ever think of asking his/her parents. The series focuses on drug use, alcholism, and mental problems associated with the war. These things are a few of the many difficult bridges that the 24th Infantry has to cross.

"Tour of Duty's" two main characters are L.T., the platoon leader, and Zelke, the platoon sargeant. There are also several other characters, like the chapper pilor who helps the plaroon through the thick of the battle. The men are from all walks of life. Some are hunks and some aren't. They all have one thing in common, though, they are a family fighting for their country and for their lives.

Look at us. We are the action and spirit in Central High School. We are the tradition keepers of spirit links and sign painting parties because we know that Pounders will always be number one with us. Student Council represents you to the world in leadership conferences at Farragur High School in Knoxville and at honorable Southern and state conventions. Shinh I Do the teachers know who their secret Sontos were yet? The whole student body reaped benefit from our extremely popular comeback of Fall Festival this year. Remember the good intres (GOBUELD of the Great Turkey Race when everyone pitched in to donate food to the less fortunate.

You want class spirit? The days of "Class with the Most Cents" and "Hall Decorations" were created for you. It is reported that reachers became happy munchers after Student Council started our monthly faculty food feast. Have you been twifing and dining this year? Well, thanks to the presentations of Homecoming, Christmas, and Soale Hawkins dances, you had this privilege. How about that groavy new smash called the MORP?

As a team, we have reached beyond the four walls of a class to valunteer in Bethal Bible Village and Smallwood Child Center. Pucker up all Centralites? Who can forget the charity of our Free Kissing Booth? Several hot new Items instituted by Strudent Council were binhady recognitions, talking locker suggestion box, and student exchange programs — all aimed at better communication.

Between pizza paries, banquers, and scapy car washes, we know that we all pull to put fun and work together. (Note: Automobiles weren't the only things to get hossed down!) Through the Margarer Hammack Excellence in Teaching Award. American Education Week, and Best-All-Around Honors, we serve our school. Do we ever slow down or give up? NO! Thanks to Morn Nelms and Nanny Evans we have a great goal to fulfill. That goal is to improve always. Just like our pride in CH5, the BEST school around, we find this goal unending.

Induction Day

Before school starts in the Fall, the Beta Club officers plan a car Before school starts in the Fall, the Beta Club officers plan a car wash to help raise money for activities the club sponsors throughout the year. Induction of new junior and senior members in the fall is a big event. Inductes must meet rigid requirements and are recognized in a ceremony conducted before the student body. The Beta Club Student Body Talent Show is an annual event that involves the entire school. Old and new members all help out to make the show a huge success. Also, this year the Beta Club supplied a dunking machine for the Student Council sponsored Fall Festival. Teachers like Mr. McNelli, Mrs. Hitchcock, Mrs. Reich, and Mrs. Neims, along with "much in demand students" like Tamara Walker, Rob Campbell, and Hollis Duncan, helped make it one of the festival's most frequented booths.

The Beta Club also sponsors a teacher appreciation luncheon each spring.

The money taken from the car washes, the talent show, the festival booth, and other fund raisers are put to good use. A scholarship is given to a Beta Club senior member who best exemplifies the qualifies of the organization. When possible, the club also contributes to specific financial needs that are made known. In years before our club has beer sponsored by the Jaycees. This year, for the first time, the Chattanooga Civitans are sponsoring us. We work with the Civitans on many exciting and helpful activities in our community. At the beginning of the year we did volunteer work at Shoneys. All our money we earned that day went to the Children's Hospital. We also work with the Chambliss Home which is a home for abused children. They love for us to have parties. Working with these little children has taught all the members in the club a lot about love. During the Christmas holidays we githwrapped at Sears in Hamil-ton Place. Being in Civitans helps you learn a lot about your community and all the needs it has. Also by being a member you can help in some little way to make your com-

Toss Up is an academic competition among area high schools. Competitions are held approximately twice a month at WTCI-Channel 45. Four schools compete each session with the match lasting 12 minutes between two teams. These 12 mind-boggling minutes are when the game host, conveniently named Al, bombards the students with questions. The subject areas range from math to Bible history, science to history, and sports to literature and mythology. We have a great deal of tun, and I encourage the student body to try It.

The Spanish Club was different this year. Instead of meetings at rogether, we had three presidents Know Coldwell, Cecil Stokes, and lenoter Woker. We had meetings no Mandays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays with a different presdent each day. This allowed students whose schedules wouldn't permit them to meet on a certain day the chance to meet on another day. The Spanish Club had a Halloween Parry of the Chartanao ga Sie Oub. Everyone wore casturnes. We are at B Chico in early December. We had a Valentines Day party after school. We also had an after exam party with an Easter pinara. The Spanish Club had many enjoyable times this year and will have even more." next year. Spanish Cub is open to anyone who has taken Spanish or is currently alking Sponish.

Mrs. Pansy Allison

Students may best remember Mrs. Allison for her limited vocabulary of "Shish-hi", "Srop talking!", "Separate tables, please", or "OUT!". They rend to forget the time when they desperately needed that book on tornadoes, and she said, "Look at about 551; I believe it's a white book."

The staff who have worked with her will remember her as a delightful, loving person who always had a smile for everyone and a word of encouragement. Working well with reachers and students during library projects, she always knew where to find an answer.

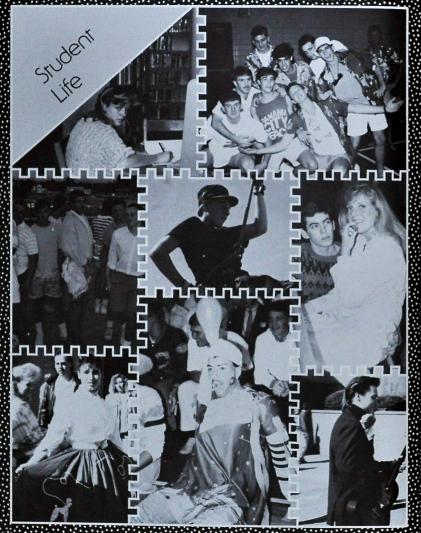

Mrs. Allison's expertise has made Central's library the best in Hamilton County. She will be missed by the staff and student body. Thank you, Mrs. Allison, for your 20 years of library guidance; good luck, and EN/OY your retirement.

My Son (And My Best Friend)

It seems that not so long ago My son was born to me. As I examined fingers, roes, Were as I'd hoped they'd be.

I watched him grow up through the years Through baseball, soccer, track Till one day from his boyish face, A young man's eyes looked back.

The thought then struck me,
"Where'd he go? Is this his childhood's end?"
And then I saw that I'd just met,
My son and my best friend.

Success lies not in being the best but in doing your best. Robble, all of your dreams are within your reach. We wish everything that brings warmth and happiness to your heart.

Proverbs 27: 11, 12

My son, how happy I will be if you turn out to be sensible! It will be public honor to me.

A sensible man warches for problems ahead and prepares to meet them. The simpleton never looks, and suffers the consequences.

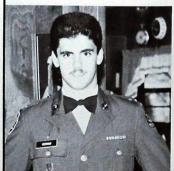

We are proud of you, Robble.

HIGH FLIGHT

Ohl I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth,
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through fooless halls of air. . . .
Up, up the long delirious, burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace,
Where never lark or even eagle flow—
And while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand and touched the face of God.

To My Grown-Up Son

For life is short, the years rush past ... A litrle boy grows up so fast. No longer is he ar your side, His preclous secrets to confide. The picture books are put away, There are no longer games to play, No good-night lists, no prayers to hear ... They all belong to yesteryear.

Good Luck Mark, We all love you! Mom, Dad, and Kristi

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR DEAR KAREN

You have reached one of the milestones of your young life; and you have done it superbly. Fortunarely, God has led you into a world filled with opportunties. As you go forth following His reachings and example, we pray the vistas before you will overflow with love, fulfillment, achievement and good health. May you possess the wisdom to recognize true love, the courage to adapt to change, the strength to endure hardship, and a heart filled with an unending love with which to share with those who surround you.

With Deep Pride And Unfailing Love,
Mom. Dad and Sheree
