You Are The One!

The homecoming festivities began hours before the game time at eight o'clock with McCallie's Blue Tornadoes. Preparations were begun for the spirit link contest, for dress-up days and for the dance. Five girls had been nominated for queen by the senior class, and then the queen had been selected by the student body. Voting was completed in the homerooms and Mrs. Janette Crawley, Central Alumni Representative, was the Homecoming Queen and Court sponsor.

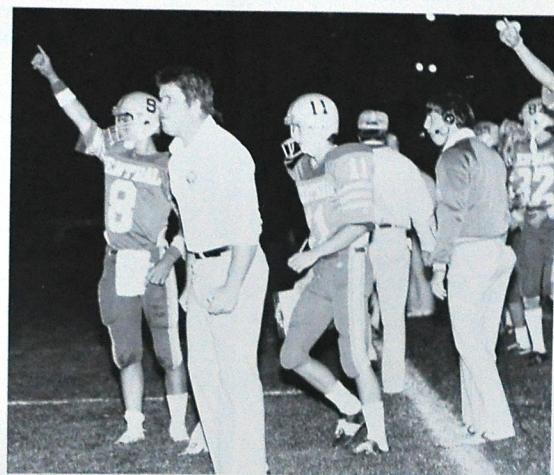

Emily Schaerer, escorted by Mike Brewer, was crowned Queen. Court members and their escorts were: Emily Boyd and Stephan Dupourque; Tracy Kile and Forrest McNair; Kim King and Kevin Rhinehart; and Sally King and Karl Sodergren.

— Seniors

The senior class was the original crowd. Their first task was to elect officers and marshals. Blake Watson was president for the fourth consecutive year, vice-president was Fin King; secretary, Kim King; treasurer, Forrest McNair. Marshals were: Rusty Lowe, Amy Dean, Emily Boyd, Emily Schaerer.

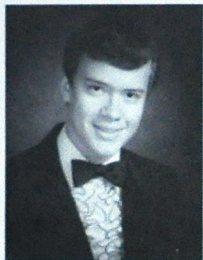

Graduation announcements, superlatives, election of queens and officers, Senior Day, Class Day, Mr. and Miss Central, the ACT, the Dedication were only a few of the highlights.

Seniors were active in clubs and extracurricular activities. Seven were varsity cheerleaders, fifteen, football players; six, basketball players; five, wrestlers; and many more who were actively involved in the band, chorus and other clubs. Soccer, dances, pep rallies, assemblies, class meetings were in the past for the graduated seniors. But, preparing for college, jobs, marriage were foremost in their minds. The original crowd was ready.

The Tasters' Choice

Choosing senior superlatives took hours of discussion and time away from lessons in the English classes. Those teachers stressed the importance of the superlative honor and the characteristics of the superlatives. Each senior had to decide who would be best-suited for the honor.

It was an honor to be chosen by fellow seniors. Tracy Kile said, "I was excited that my peers selected me for that superlative honor 'Best All Round', and I thought it was a great honor."

Being given the superlative honor was a rewarding experience for all as the class itself awarded the honors.

— Underclassmen

"Be a junior," and "Pounders, pounders, we've got more, we're the class of '84!" ... were the cheers that showed junior pride and spirit.

The juniors also showed that their class had spirit by the amount of time and effort spent on the magazine sale. Mrs. Janice Nelms and Mrs. Patricia Williamson were the junior faculty representatives for the sale. The junior homeroom raising the most money was that of Mrs. Darby Smart. On specified "sale turn-in" days, the juniors who turned in from one to three sales were: dismissed to the movie "Ben", received a school mascot, received a UTC or Alabama rug and were rewarded time-off from school! Total junior sales were $4,868.82.

Surpassing past junior class records, this class had many students who took the NMSQT/PSAT.

The officers of the class were: president, Ronnie Lowe; vice-president, Lisa Mossburg; treasurer, Tiki Walker; and secretary, Pam Chilton. Sponsors were Mrs. Janette Crawley and Miss Brenda Chauncey. These officers and sponsors and other junior homeroom teachers organized the class ring sale and the prom.

Mrs. Virginia Summerour was the representative for the ring sale. The prices ranged from $80.00 to $200.00, excluding the extras such as cut stones and emblems.

The prom was held in the Silver Ball Room at the Chattanooga Read House. The juniors were the hosts and hostesses. Mrs. Darby Smart and Mrs. Gloria Grier were faculty representatives for the decoration committee; Mrs. Judy Reich planned the music and booked the band. All juniors and their homeroom teachers planned and participated in this biggest dance of the year.

Yeah!
The juniors and their faculty representatives knew how to show the others spirit in participation ... Be a junior, Yeah!

The Smoothest SOPH Drink Around!

The sophomores had a smooth transition from freshmen to sophomores. The faculty in charge of this move were: Mrs. Clarone Hughes, Mrs. Margaret Hammack, Miss Janis Johnson, Mr. James Rogers, Mrs. Dorothy Stone, Mr. Ralph Hixson, Mr. Bill Nelms and Mr. John Crawford.

Officers for this "soph" class were: president, Terri Lowery; vice-president, Jason Parton; treasurer, Deonne Henley; and secretary, Tonja Johnson. These officers and their faculty representatives organized their class magazine sale. This was the first year that a school-wide sale had been held. The objective of such a sale was that classes such as the sophomore class would have more funds available for their junior and senior years by beginning their fund-drives early. The sophomores were third in sales. Their total sales were $4,839.61. Miss Janis Johnson's homeroom was the top seller for the sophomores.

The sophomores participated in the yearbook's survey to the underclassmen. Their favorite classes were: first, health; second, Algebra II; and third, chorus. They also presented their views about the sports programs, lunch, movies and hobbies.

The Class of '85, was the smoothest "sophs" around campus.

Wouldn't You Like To Be A Freshmen Too?

The freshmen were "booed" by the seniors, but this class had spirit when they yelled back. "Wouldn't you like to be one too?" Also, their class yell was, "Pounders, pounders spirit that sticks, we're the class of '86!"

The freshmen were literally "walking in circles" as they found their classes. Many were tardy and some even attended classes they did not have, but the faculty were understanding and appreciated the attention. "A", "B" and "C" took other forms than on the grade sheet. These freshmen discovered that these were also names of "pods." The first pod discovered was that of the Language Arts — Pod B and its "one-way" traffic.

The officers were: president, Kathy Haley; vice-president, Tracy Collier; secretary, Traci Brown; and treasurer, Kelly Turner. These officers and faculty representatives were also involved in the school's magazine sale. The freshmen's total sales were $4,049.44. The top-selling homeroom was that of Mrs. Betty Lee. Mrs. Lee's total sells were $788.14. As with all the other classes, the funds from this sale were to be deposited for activities occurring in the junior and senior years.

The musical members of the freshmen class were honored. Nine freshmen were chosen for membership in the All-East Tennessee Junior High Band. This was held at Central, December 3-5. Chosen were: Eric Light, baritone; Bart Thau, tuba; Jennifer Martin, flute; Melody Braley, clarinet; Jennifer Lorimer, clarinet; Laura Kaley, trumpet; Cris Shelton, French horn; Kay Rogers, French horn; and Jim Henry, trombone.

These active freshmen were very convincing at making all the others wish that they could be "one" too!

Friends Drink Coke

Cinde Owens takes a message for Mr. Preston during her sixth period office staff.

Cheryl Pittman and Karen Hughes answer the phone and take messages for faculty and students.

Mrs. Shamblin, the school secretary and sponsor of the staff, checks the calendar for school activities.

Phone calls, receipts, overdue notices, money, and school supplies were numerous topics for these "friendly" staffs. The five clubs were: Latin Club, Guidance Staff, Library Staff, Office Staff, and Bank Staff.

The members of the Office Staff helped teachers with their copying materials and took messages. In addition to such duties, they circulated the daily announcement sheets. The staff was sponsored by Mrs. Frances Shamblin. Donna Carter said, "I enjoy working in the office because I like answering the phone and helping people."

Keeping schedules and students organized were great tasks for the Guidance Staff. The club was sponsored by Mrs. Betty Smith and Mrs. Mirvine Okrasinski. Mrs. Smith stated, "You can always depend on the girls any time you need their help." The Guidance Staff gave information on colleges and financial aid for colleges.

The most frequently heard sentence in the library was "Could you help me find a book?" The staff, sponsored by Mrs. Pansy Allison, was responsible for checking out books, films, cassettes, movies, and audio-visual equipment; and they also reshelfed books.

The Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Janis Johnson, helped the students understand and enjoy the culture of the Roman citizens. The club celebrated Julius Caesar's day and the birthday of Rome. The club had a Roman banquet at which members dressed in togas.

The Bank Staff, sponsored by Mrs. Joy Quinn, was busy all year with purchase orders, tickets, books and supplies, and parking spaces. The staff had a luncheon banquet to honor their senior staff members.

By assisting the faculty and students, these clubs performed a "friendly" service to Central.

Making The Most Of Your Day

The FCA made the most of the day with club meetings and school service activities. These Christian athletes were led by Mr. John Bonner. Mr. Bonner said that the group was one of the most active groups that had been at Central in a long time.

Officers Kevin Bradshaw and Darren Hulgan thought that the group was great and headed in the "right" direction. The group cleaned the football stadium after home games and held bi-monthly supper meetings. Special guests attending these meetings were Albert Long and Miss America First Runner-Up Desiree Daniels.

Unique to most of the clubs was FCA's involvement with area schools' FCA groups. FCA found that the best way to make the most of the day was through involvement and fellowship.

Mr. John Bonner, sponsor, and FCA president, Darren Hulgan.

Vicki Evan, Leesa Long, Pat Sherrill and Kim Harper respond to roll call.

Mr. Bonner and Melanie Tipton take notes about the area FCA groups' supper meeting.

Tri-Hi-Y members made the most of their day with their secret brothers. They also composed the "Hello Central." These girls were active in fellowship with their classmates and even helped each other financially if there was a need. They were spirited in the fellowships and showed it by decorating the basketball players' lockers.

The officers were: president, Alta McPherson; vice-president, Emily Boyd; secretary, Mary Bryan; treasurer, Kim Lewis; sergeant-at-arms, Karen Salisbury; chaplain, Allison Adcock. Their sponsor was Mrs. Dorothy Stone. Denise Knowles said that Mrs. Stone was like a really good friend to all of the girls.

The officers and the sponsor worked together to make the most of everyone's day.

Seniors Karen Salisbury and Emily Boyd plan the group's location for the yearbook picture.

Alta McPherson, president, discusses the selling of the "Hello Central."

Tri-Hi-Y meetings are held in Mrs. Dorothy Stone's classroom in C-Pod. Big Brothers are: Bobby Bishop, Jeff Frye, Gene McGee, Forrest McNair, Kevin Bradshaw, Mark Braley, Scott Powell, Gary Camp, Eric Lewis, Rusty Lowe and Kay Steinmetz.

A surprise visit by a clown and a basket of balloons leaves sponsor Mrs. Stone speechless.

The freshman cheerleaders led the way with spirit, spirit, and more spirit. They, like the varsity cheerleaders, helped to boost the spirit of their class. In an interview with Angelique Floyd, she said that she felt like the most spirited freshman cheerleader was Karen Niles and others agreed with her.

They also had strong opinions about their traditional uniforms and cheers. One cheerleader commented by saying, "They're too old looking." They also had very wide-spread opinions on their favorite cheers and chants. Christy McMasters, Cathy McCardell, and Libby Lundgren really did like the cheer. "We've Got Upbeat." They said, "It really got everyone's attention."

The girls really enjoyed their year as cheerleaders and most of them were excited about trying out for the varsity squad. Most of them enjoyed practices although it took a lot of hard work and a lot of free time. The cheerleaders said they really worked hard and were proud of their squad. Therefore, they felt they had a squad that was really "leading the way."

. . . Leads The Way

Enjoying a victory over Soddy Daisy, Kellie Kendrick and Christy McMasters decide to quench their thirst with a coke product.

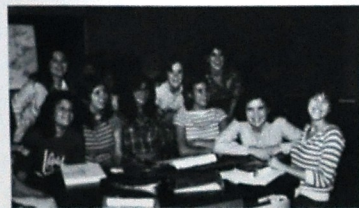

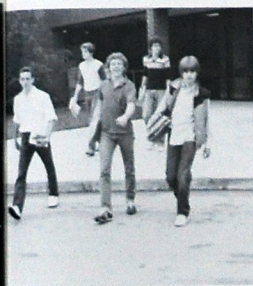

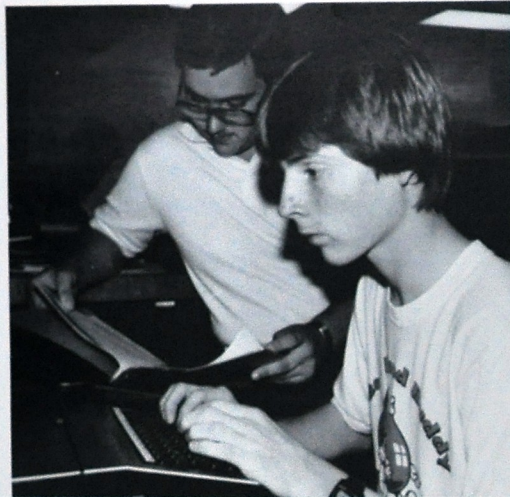

Amber Whittle, Kellie Kendrick, and Cathy McCardell break at half-time at the basketball game against Soddy Daisy.

Cathy McCardell and Angelique Floyd flash a victory smile as the pounders defeated Collewah at home.

Christy McMasters cheers for the freshmen basketball team with "Pounders In Action" against Ooltewah. The Central Pounders win again!

The Freshman Cheerleaders: Amber Whittle, Libby Lundgren, Kellie Kendrick, Angelique Floyd, Cathy McCardell, Annette Stanford, Christy McMasters, and Karen Niles.

VOE Is The Place!

Electronics' students Noland Sharp and David Wright review their computer skills.
Typesetting is fun for Donna Richey, Danny Slabaugh and Lageita Smith.
Health Occupations' students from Central and Ooltewah take a break to have fun with the yearbook photographer, Brett Ferney.
Angie Ford and Cathy Johnson say that Office Education is a big help in preparing them for future job interviews.
After a three hour class, students are happy to get a breath of air.

"VOE was a great place to learn a trade," said Terrel Brown, Office Education student.

Harrison Bay Vocational Center was located on Career Lane in Ooltewah. Some of the classes were: Health Occupations, Horticulture, Welding, Graphic Arts and Auto Body. The faculty were skilled. Ms. Green, Mr. Ramsey and Mr. Castleberry were a few of the faculty who encouraged students to improve their job skills. Kenny Forrester said that he got plenty of practical experience and training in the Machine Shop.

Counselors found jobs for many third-year students through the cooperative programs. Those taking advantage of this opportunity were: Julian Joel, Department Of Education; Kenny Forrester, Concrete Forms Corporation; Brett Ferney, Jimmy's Photo; and Lori Shadden who earned a salary working in the VOE office. "This program sponsored attendance at a regular job four days a week and also paid a salary," said Mr. Bill Brooks, counselor.

Vocational school was the place to be for the on-the-job training.

by — Brett Ferney

Electronics' students return to their home high school for regular afternoon classes.
Danny Gilbride sands for his project in Auto Body Shop.
Tracy Allison has memorized her skills for Office Education.
Former Centralite Troy Orr gives advice to Randy Walker and Mike Hanes in the welding booth.
Horticulture students Robin Lee, Clara Castleberry, Kim Harris, Melinda Reels, Gayle Buckner, Vickie Usher, Pam Ramsey and Katrina Little make preparations for the sale of their Christmas poinsettias.
Dwayne Childs uses a "DA" to sand his automobile project.

Having A Blast

French Club — Front Row: Charlene Porter, Mike Brewer, Felicia Roark, Melanie Tipton. Second Row: Teresa Rack, Shelley Smith, Eva Franklin, Yvette Williams, Sally King, Julie Chandler, Melissa Carpenter, Lisa Murray, Lisa Waters, Donna Tolliver, Sandy Edwards. Third Row: Tom McPherson, Amber Whittle, Laura Kaley, DeAnn Wright, Nancy Raugh, Rhonda Burrell, Susie Starbuck, Tikie Walker, Mari Kay Bridges, Meloney Rogers, Robin Holder, Greg Mann. Fourth Row: Tony Kuka, Kelly Gots, Greg Rankston, Greg Watkins. Tuesday Rense, Pam Pruitt, Donna Tiry, Ray Lewis. Not Pictured: Marcus Smith, Karen Hughes, Karen Rockey, Diane Jones, Steven Hughes, Laura Smith, Diane Beckner, Kelly Duke, Karen Jones, Mark Braley, John Linder, Lauren Vandergriff, Jeff Walker, Tina Hickman and Miss Brenda Chauncey, sponsor.

First Place winners in the road rally are Karen Hughes, Karen Rockey, Steven Hughes and Walton Kaley. They represent French II.

Third Place winners in the rally are Brian Millard, Sandy Edwards and Theresa Rack who represent French I.

Second Place winners in the rally are Nancy Raugh, Melanie Tipton and Mike Brewer.

Checkpoints are covered by Charlene Porter, Sheryl Moyer, Laura Kaley, Eva Franklin, Lisa Waters and DeAnn Wright.

Sign painting, sales projects, French fairs, pastries, road rallies were examples of "Having A Blast." The club was sponsored by Miss Brenda Chauncey. Forty-six members displayed their fun with the language and culture at the cheese-tasting parties and French picnics and the scavenger hunts.

Elected officers were: Charlene Porter, president; Mike Brewer, vice-president; Felicia Roark, secretary; and Melanie Tipton, treasurer.

Karen Hughes said "I really like being in the French Club because it gives me an opportunity to learn a new culture and at the same time gives me the opportunity of service to my school." This was the goal of the French Club. The club showed its members that language wasn't all academic — but a whole new world to explore and "Have A Blast."

Charlene Porter and Felicia Roark create a French Cafe atmosphere in B109 for the welcoming of new French members to a continental breakfast.

Donna Tiry and Sheryl Moyer are some of the first members to arrive at the quaint cafe.

French Honor Society Inductees — Front Row: Diana Beckner, Susie Starbuck, Shelley Smith, Felicia Roark and Mari Kay Bridges. Back Row: Walton Kaley, John Linder, Chris Gordon and Eric Farris.

Chris Gordon, Robin Holder and Julie Chandler arrive at the final line of the road rally. They bring news of lost cars and speeding tickets for some of the drivers who passed their checkpoint.

Your Family And Friends

F.H.A. Members — Front Row: Karen Neely, president; Lisa Cruse, vice president; Debbie Pickard, secretary; Helen Miller, treasurer; Becky Slikko, chaplain; Lisa Bettis, historian; Lisa Watkins, social chairman; Kim Brady, program chairman; Shelley Smith, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Williamson, sponsor. Second Row: Tina Rini, Sally Durrall, Lori Lim, Tammy Stephens, Kathy Fellan, Jeannie Cowart, Denise Knowles, Becky Scoggins, Sherry Browning, Debbie King, Third Row: Felicia Roark, Donna Smith, Michelle Oliver, Tawanda Clayton, Melissa Carpenter, Cindy Owens, Donna Carter, Kim Waters, Jamie Duggan, Rick Row, Robin Holder, Teresa Holder, Sheryl Moya, Lisa Waters, Andi Hains, Becky Byerly, Donna Tiney, Stacey Bennett, Stephanie Lyles, Dana Bice.

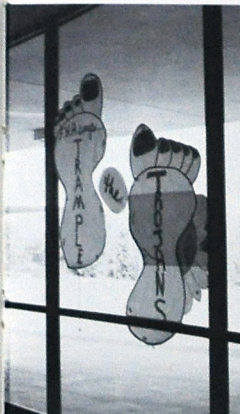

Sponsor Mrs. Williamson checks the china before the moc-wedding. F.H.A. officers relax in dining room for a few minutes before a meeting with the club.

With family and friends in mind, F.H.A. sponsored many projects. Some were a family banquet for all officers and their family members, hayrides, sockhops, and "Best Legs" for the football team. Every football player entered his legs in the contest. The winner of "Best Legs" was junior James Walker. First runner-up was senior Scott Powell, second runner-up, senior Tom Cole; and third runner-up, sophomore Rick Curvin.

Each month the group had a supper meeting at different member's houses. Names were drawn for pen pals at a chili supper at Denise Knowles' house. Mrs. Williamson said that the pen pal idea was a big success. In October F.H.A. hosted a sub-regional meeting at Central. Two hundred and fifty-three students from Tennessee Southern schools attended the meeting. The officers prepared and served the food.

F.H.A. also hosted a sock-hop in October after the Central vs. City game. The decorations consisted of owls, streamers, cats and witches. In February F.H.A. sponsored a "Kiss" sale. The members sold paper hearts with Hershey Kisses attached. These sold to the student body for a quarter on Valentine's Day.

by — Karen Neely and Tammy Stephens

Before the prom, the members announced the "Computer Data" sale. Questionnaires were filled out in homeroom and returned to the computer. The results arrived four weeks later and everyone was matched with ten members of the opposite sex who were compatible with his or her personality.

In the summer five officers attended camp in Doyle, Tennessee. The members who participated were Lisa Cruse, Helen Miller, Karen Neely, Becky Slikko, and Lisa Watkins. Awards were given in all activities.

Annually, a bride from fourth year Home Ec. was chosen. The class itself voted for this honor. This year the class decided to have a double wedding. The brides were fourth year student Donna Carter and third year student Shelly Smith. Grooms respectively were Rusty Lowe and Bryan Pritchard. The maids of honor were Berlinda Hughes and Karen Neely. The best men were Brian Hughes and Darren Hulan. Bridesmaids were Mary Bryan and Debbie Gallagher. Groomsmen were Jerry Stroupes and Trey Chase. Helen Miller was in charge of the cake. Bridget Hughes was in charge of the music. Sherry Williams was in charge of decorations. The maids of honors prepared a shower for the brides. Although the wedding was make believe, it was well planned and was a success. Television station WDEF filmed the wedding and reception.

For the F.H.A. group, looking back in the years' activities made it impossible to forget the importance of "Family and Friends".

Kim King calls the club to order to plan the Hawaiian Dance set for April 15.

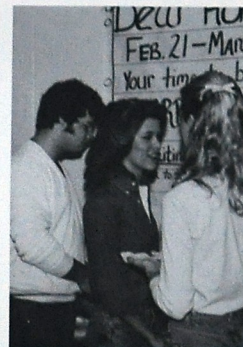

Popping the top off, the art club started with plans full of excitement. Fund raising ideas included selling painted barrettes and buttons. The club displayed lots of talent and leadership. Officers were: Kim King and John Gilbert, presidents; Mike White, vice-president; Selena Helton, secretary and treasurer; Karen Dill, art representatives; Denise Adams, program chairman; and Mrs. Christina Campbell, sponsor. With all their activities, it was difficult to keep the "lid" on the Art Club's bottle.

John Gilbert checks roll and art fees, one of his many duties as president.

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Susan Campbell, began its new term with a new sponsor and officers. Officers elected were: Lisa Lloyd, president; Chuck Lewis, vice-president; Sandra Morse, secretary; and Beverly Thomas, treasurer.

The first item of business was the welcome breakfast. The officers planned the "Desayona" and each member contributed baked fruit pies and pastries. Second, the club's officers and members organized the selling of prom corsages to juniors and seniors. Profits from the sale were used to pay for yearbook coverage, banquet expenses and any other expense the club had.

The club only met twice a month; however, all the Spanish members joined in a fiesta that lasted the year long.

President Lisa Lloyd calls the club to order to discuss the menu for the welcoming breakfast.

Officers Chuck Lewis, Lisa Lloyd, Sandra Morse and Beverly Thomas review the membership list and collection log for club dues.

We're All Peppers

The Digest Staff were "All Peppers" this year when they were in charge of publications of the newspaper. The Digest Staff was very busy; besides putting out the paper, they sponsored a candy sale in February. Every month they featured a "Super Senior", and Athlete of the Month."

The Digest was published monthly. To keep the Digest "on the go" they elected: Editor-In-Chief, Blake Watson; Page 1 News Editor, Ronnie Lowe; Page 2 Editors, Tracy Baker and Pat Sherill; Page 3 Editors, Lisa Sprayberry and Jeff Fyre; Page 4 Sports Editor, Ray Steinmetz and Kevin Bradshaw; Business Manager, Ronnie Lowe; Exchange Editor, Rebecca McDaniel; Photographers, Jeff Parker and Blake Watson. A taste-test was not conducted in B-106, but a test of grades; and the Beta Club members passed.

A minimum average of 3.5 was required of the members for induction and was also required to maintain their membership in the Beta Club.

Some basic goals of the club were high academic and social standards. Students were encouraged to learn from each other and be respectful of their peers and teachers.

The Beta Club was also a service club. Some projects were: a talent show, a sign painting party, and the induction ceremony. The talent show winner was Robert Jones. First Place, who performed magic.

A Refreshing Change

Wes Carter and Mike Brewer enjoy their senior year as NHS members.

Gina Moyers, Amy White, Tracy Kile, Mary Bryan, Karen Salisbury, and Kim Lewis serve the new junior members in the NHS induction held in the spring.

Some of the fall inductees are: Elizabeth Geraldson, Ann Johnson, Regina McDonald, Karen Salisbury, Mike Brewer, Kim Lewis and Erin Gibson.

Attending a National Honor Society meeting was a refreshing way for students to start the day. The club met every Tuesday morning in Mrs. Betty Lee's room. The club's sponsor, Mrs. Lee, said, "It is refreshing to work with students who excel in all areas of the school." The officers of the club were: president, Alison Adcock; vice-president, Blake Watson; secretary, Gina Moyers; treasurer, Rodney Walker; chaplain, Alta McPherson; and sergeant-at-arms, Paul Perry. Alta McPherson, said, "It is a privilege to be part of this club. It has meant a lot to me."

During the football season, the club sold pep stickers to promote school spirit and also to make money. One thousand five-hundred and seventy-eight stickers were sold. The Central vs. McCallie game sticker was the most popular since it was the Homecoming game. Alison Adcock said that it was a profitable way to encourage school spirit and get the students involved in the school's activities. Jeff Parker said, "The spirit ribbons were easy to sell — especially to the freshmen."

The club held an induction ceremony in October. In order to become a member in the club, a person had to have a 3.5 grade point average, be nominated by a teacher that was a member of the honors board, and be involved in extra-curricular activities. Sixteen people were admitted into the club. This made a total of thirty-three seniors. Amy White was "thrilled to be a member," she said.

This club encouraged students to make good grades and become involved in the school so that they could have a refreshing change.

Pi Delta Sigma made the most of their days. The club became "school-sponsored" with Miss Patty Lane as their faculty advisor. The new members were initiated after the football game against Kirkman. They met every Tuesday after school to discuss upcoming activities and projects. Some of the projects of Pi Delta Sigma were: decorating baseball players' lockers, sponsoring sock hops, and for their school service project they painted the baseball bleachers.

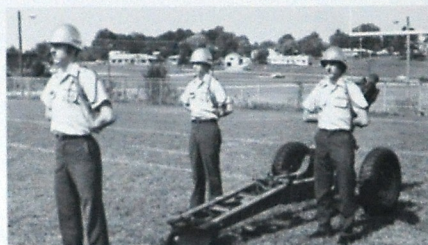

All of the thirty-three girls in Pi Delta Sigma picked a guy to be their big brother. Throughout the year big brothers got their lockers decorated, received candy and gifts, and were invited to all club activities. Chuckie Nabors said, "I like being a big brother because I get my locker decorated and I get to become better friends with my little sister." This was how Pi Delta Sigma made the most of their days.

The Military Generation

Students, parents and faculty attended the presentation of the sponsors. The boom of the cannon set the program off. Cadets became involved with uniform handouts, marching, and even a few push-ups. Cadet Colonel Amy Dean was selected by the ROTC department to lead the troops. The sponsors for the year were: Kim King, Tracy Kile, Traci Hawkins, Karen Planchard, Sally King, Kim Lewis, Emily Schaefer, Karen Neely and Alison Adcock. Company D was selected nearest at the presentation.

The instructors for the ROTC department were Colonel Morris, Sergeant major Hall and Sergeant major Jones. They taught courses such as leadership, etiquette, first aid, and marksmanship. The ROTC took a trip to Catawba County to learn about field training. Ribbons and achievement awards exploded around this generation of cadets.

Perfect Harmony . . .

Mrs. Judy Reich, Director

While the girls practice their harmonies in "Please, Mr. Postman", the male chorus enjoys their own arrangement. They enjoy their music as well as their audience does.

Erin Gibson is the Senior Day Soloist. She brings out the tears with "Somewhere down the road, our roads are going to cross again."

Sharon Bailey adjusts the mic for the lead altos during the spring concert, May 10, in the gym.

Reenda Rock almost loses her harmony as the varsity chorus girls practice "Pilot Of The Airways."

The Concert Chorus

Vibrations of "perfect harmony" rang out when the chorus performed. There were many activities that the chorus attended both at school and in the community. The chorus was under the direction of Mrs. Judy Reich. They were featured guests at many school functions such as the faculty's Christmas banquet, the orientation of the eighth graders to Central and musical expositions at local malls.

Preparation for competition in the ETEA Clinic Chorus, the All State Chorus, the District Festival all required many hours of practice until Mrs. Reich thought the music was perfect! And, it was perfect! Central returned from competition with honors.

Concerts at Northgate Mall and Oakwood Baptist Church earned Mrs. Reich and her chorus much praise and admiration. Not only did they sing, but also the group had several fund raising sales to finance the group's expenses.

The chorus was in perfect harmony as these members travelled throughout the community as Central's musical ambassadors.

The Freshmen Chorus sings "We Wish You A Merry Christmas" at the Christmas concert held at Oakwood Baptist Church.

All East Chorus members receiving honors are Charles Harvill, Mike Daughtery, Powell Reich, D.J. Risenhoover, Becky Bentley, Darren Hulgian.

Mrs. Judy Reich, chorus director, directs the concert at the Oakwood Church.

Becky Bentley and John Lescher entertain the spring concert audience with fancy tux and dance steps.

Jamie Bishop dances and sings to "They're Playing My Song" at the spring concert.

Bass Henry Williams fills the Oakwood Baptist Church with his voice in the song "Bless You Lord" at the Christmas concert.

The Varsity Chorus sings "My Wish For You" and "American — Our Heritage" at the graduation exercises June 2, at the Memorial Auditorium.

Members of the Freshmen Chorus sing "Whenever I See Your Smiling Face" and "Gonna Rise Up Singin'" at the spring concert, May 10.

The choral department under the direction of Mrs. Judy Reich wins First and Superior Awards at the concerts and festivals held during the year.

Jason Parton, Margaret Farmer, Becky Bentley, Vincent McKenzie, Tina Hickman and Selena Helton perform for the senior class, faculty, friends and guests on Senior Day. They dance and sing the program's theme song, "I Love Paris In The Springtime."

Practice Makes

Practice made perfect scores for those who made the cheerleading squad. The select group of twelve girls were: Stacey Croft, Elizabeth Geraldson, co-head; Tracy Kile, co-head; Karen Neely, Karen Salisbury, Emily Schaerer, Michelle Mann, Dottie Mockbee, Wendy Brown, Deonne Henley and Tonja Johnson.

During the summer, they all prepared for the year and cheerleading camp. At camp, which was held at Vanderbilt University, the girls won various types of ribbons including three superior. The first day Emily Schaerer won an individual spirit award. "The Coog," while the squad won "The Most Spirited Squad Award," Michelle Mann said, "I feel that we all really worked hard together for this award and we deserved it." The last day of camp the cheerleaders were one of five nominated for the "Award of Excellence" and won the "Most Improved Squad Award."

Standing in awe of the temporary lead over McCallie, Dottie Mockbee, Traci Hawkins, Michelle Mann and Tonja Johnson hope that their team will have a victory.

Student Council Has Class

Fin King, Emily Boyd and John Gilbert listen for directions to deliver Thanksgiving baskets to the needy.

Allison Adecock and Tonja Johnson decorate the gazebo for the Homecoming Dance.

Officer Joe Nabors advises the underclassmen on where to put the decorations.

New officers Laura Kaley, Mari Kay Bridges, Denise Pearson, and Lisa Mossburg set up refreshments for the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Ann Landers definition of class is, "Class is sure-footed, confident and never runs scared. It takes its lumps and learns from its past mistakes. Class is considerate of others, and it knows that good manners is nothing more than a series of petty sacrifices. Class never tries to build itself up by tearing others down; it is already up and does not need to strive to look better by making others look worse. If one has class, he is set for life."

Annette Stanford, and Cathy Haley listen to rules for the voting of officers.

Secretary Traci Hawkins discusses the finances for the Christmas Dance with Tiki Walker and Vondar Daniels.

The "class" of the Student Council were: president, Stacey Croft; vice-president, Tracy Kile; secretary, Karen Salisbury; program chairman, Traci Hawkins; social chairman, Mari Kay Bridges; sergeant-at-arms, Joe Nabors; chaplain, Lisa Mossburg; and sponsor, Mrs. Janice Nelms.

The "classy" Student Council sponsored the Homecoming Dance, Christmas Dance, Sadie Hawkins Dance, and a football sock-hop. They also sponsored a movie, a teacher's breakfast, the Mr. Teen Angel contest, the spirit link sale, and the singing valentine sale.

One of the "classy" members Tiki Walker said, "I think Student Council is a great organization, and I believe we have accomplished a lot this year for Central." Yes, the Student Council had "class" — also, grades nine thru twelve.

While the Key Club was picking up some good vibrations, they also participated in many social and fun activities. Initiations, bon-fires, painting signs and sock-hops were a few of the activities.

Key Club was a service club consisting of male students in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades, and the officers were chosen by fellow members. The president was Kevin Bradshaw; vice president, Pat Sherrill, treasurer, Mike Daugherty; secretary, Stephen Dupourque; and sergeant-at-arms, Blake Watson.

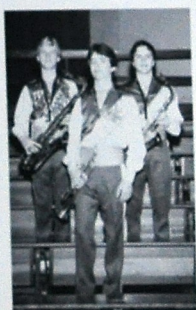

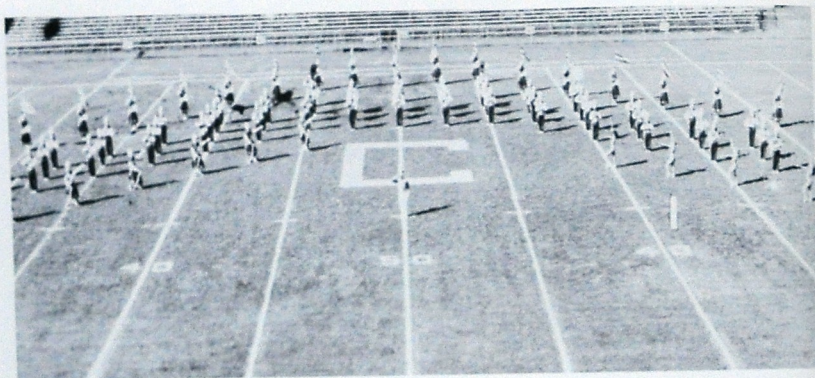

Social activities were community and school functions. They took part in the painting of the baseball bleachers and also helped in a service project for the special education class at school. Mr. Gary Rundles was the club sponsor, and the meetings usually took place in his classroom. Some meetings were held throughout the Chattanooga area, and other specific meeting places would not be revealed so as to protect the member's innocence.

Key Club member Gary Camp said that he was glad to be a part of the club and had fun in the picking up of good vibrations. The rest of the Key Club agreed that they had fun picking up trash on the school's campus.

The 1982-83 "Central Sounders"

Central's band was hotter than ever and moving those vibrations across state lines. This musical team proved that the football team was not the only winning team around by competing with six other bands in the medium class division at the Heart Of Tennessee Marching Band Contest in Lynchburg. Central's marching band received trophies for the best field commander, the best majorettes, the best solo and third place field show.

"Macarena" was the preview song. Moving from this Spanish musical selection to the jazzier songs of "Sophisticated Ladies," the band's solo drummers and flag units entertained the crowds. "Georgia On My Mind" was the finale to the show. The flag, rifle and majorette corps truly excited the crowd as the spectators stood to applaud the band as its units marched from the field to end another great show!

The band was hotter than ever with awards for its units, solos and field shows. The band also was hotter than ever with the number of students placed in All-East and All-State positions. With leadership and talent, the band made great vibrations.

The Flag Corps showed their colors of purple and gold at pep rallies, half-time shows, competitions and parades.

During the haltime shows at the football games, they flashed their colors in a floating diamond drill during the drum break. They excited the audience during "Sophisticated Ladies" with their dance routine and colorful garters of red, green, blue, purple, white, black and yellow.

Seniors were: Vondar Daniel, Debbie Gallagher, Melissa Hall, Bridget Hughes and Christine Murphy. The co-heads were chosen according to the number of years they had participated in the corps. The seniors showed the remaining thirteen underclassmen leadership and patience. They made-up the routines using many techniques learned in summer camp.

Majorette Denise Knowles entertains the Central Homecoming fans. The favorite tune is "Macarena."

Head Majorette Kim Lewis has a special routine for the last game of the season. The routine is to the music "Sophisticated Ladies."

Nothing was dull about the majorettes or their routines as they put a "spark" in the pep rallies and the halftime shows. The majorettes were only a twirl away and gave spirit to the pep rallies for the football and basketball games.

The majorettes were honored with a First Place Trophy in the competition held at Lynchburg, Tennessee. Head majorette, Kim Lewis, said that winning the contest was an award well-deserved by the girls because of the hard work and time which finally paid-off!

The majorettes twirled in several parades including a Christmas parade and the Armed Forces parade.

The senior member was Kim Lewis. Juniors were: Cindy Perry, Rhonda Beasley, and sophomore, Denise Knowles.

Whether in competition or on the home field, there was nothing dull about these majorettes.

Majorettes wear their "pep" suits and top hats to the tune of "Georgia" and perform for the seniors at the homecoming pep rally.

Feeling the spirit vibrations, Y-teens held many activities throughout the year. Some were: Mr. Football, "Ugly" Bachelors, Best Window and the Sweetheart Dance. Jerry Stroupes was named "Mr. Football." Included in the winners of Bachelors of Ugliness were: senior, Tom Cole; junior, Ray Steinmetz; sophomore, Robby Croxall, and freshman, David Boyd. Coach Gary Rundles was the Bachelor of Ugliness for the teachers. Sponsoring the "Best Window" contest, Y-teens had all of the classes and many clubs participating and decorating their assigned window in the school's hallways. The theme was the Central vs. City football game and the winner was the senior class. Their window stated "Pounders, Pounders, Great Are We; City Will Be History."

February consisted of two events: the carnation sale and the Sweetheart Dance. The carnation sale was the fund raising project. Each carnation sold for $1.00 and was delivered during each class period on Valentine's Day. Tammye Yarbrough said, "It was fun delivering them and discovering who got what from whom."

The officers of Y-teens were very dependable and outstanding: president, Mary Bryan; vice-president, Marian Davis; treasurer, Emily Boyd; secretary, Tracy Kile; social chairman, Kim Lewis; chaplain, Elizabeth Geraldson; sgt.-at-arms, Karen Neely. The sponsor, Mrs. Crawley, said, "It is a great club. Everyone participates and does her duties." With all of Y-teen's activities, the members' spirit vibrations were felt by all.

Keeping The Fun Alive

FBLA members kept their fun alive with initiations and Tom-Wat projects.

As to the initiation of the new members, Julie Trapp said, "I thought it was so funny. My costume consisted of combat boots, a painted mustache, a hat and a flannel shirt. I felt like such a fool!"

The Tom-Wat sale was the only money-making project, and the funds were used by the Business Department and the club. The money was put in a reserve account for the Business Department's future purchase of a ditto machine. Also, a $100.00 scholarship was awarded to a senior FBLA member. Convention expenses, supper meetings and any other expenses were covered by these funds from the sale.

The FBLA kept their fun alive.

Frequent supper meetings were held at the members' houses. At their first meeting, they chose secret buddies and voted on their FBLA sweatshirt design. Regular meetings were held every other Tuesday morning at 7:15 in D-102.

The sponsor, Mrs. Virginia Summerour, said that Central had the distinction of being the eleventh school in the nation to have a FBLA Club. Furthermore, she said, "I wish we could get more participation of students who are interested in areas of business."

A first year member, Melissa Shipley, told how she felt about the club. "I feel that FBLA is a good experience for anyone interested in business and who wants to participate in business activities."

FBLA was busy socially and academically to keep the fun alive.

Mu Alpha Theta and the Photojournalism Staffs shared mutual feelings about their groups. Mu Alpha Theta held meetings in C-107, 7:00 a.m. every other Thursday. The sponsor was Mr. William Walton. Mr. Walton acquired for the members log books, certificates, pins and work sheets to complete at the meetings. Mr. Walton said, "There is a lot more interest in the club this year, and I believe the leadership is stronger." The officers were: Rodney Walker, president; Emily Boyd, vice-president; Gina Moyers, secretary-treasurer; David Higney, program coordinator; and Jeff Parker, chaplain. Gina Moyers said, "It is an honor to be in this math club, and I feel it is doing real good!" Blake Watson said that there was nothing like getting up early in the morning before the sun shines to do math problems. Mutual feelings of friendship and academics surrounded this club.

Pounder Jargon

by Kevin Bradshaw
Digest

Central had a definite upward swing in athletics in the last two years. Some credit for the improvement went to the change from AAA to AA. The football team, however, could have beaten any AAA team. The baseball team got a chance to play all the AAA teams and lost only once (in which Central won the second game in a double header). The change actually hurt the basketball team's season because their new division was much tougher with the teams of City and Kirkman.

The teams had improved not because of better athletes but because of the coaches. Coach Collier had turned the football program around with his positive influence on the players. His strong discipline was demanding but showed favorably on and off the playing field. Coach Runder had an advanced program. He instilled a sense of teamwork due to the long hours spent practicing and otherwise preparing for the season. With the strong showing by the sophomores, he would have excellent prospects for the state title he so richly deserved.

Track

"We defeated Kirkman, Riverside, Ooltewah, Notre Dame and Boyd Buchanan. We lost to Cleveland. We also participated in the Raylor Relays, Tullahoma Invitational, Optimist City League Invitational and the region Meet in Knoxville. We also had perhaps Central's First Entry in the Regional Decathlon — Tom Moss. Steve Smith's Third Place finish in the state meet had to be the highlight of the year. David Bush also finished in the top eight in the state. Their events were the high jump and 300 intermediate hurdles, respectively. The team had a super group of sophomores."

Ninth Grade Freshmen Football

"The freshmen football team suffered through a disappointing season. The team started off with a tough loss to City 8-6 and evened their record at 1-1 with an 8-0 defeat of Chattanooga Valley. Soddy-Daisy, McMinn County, Signal Mountain, Ooltewah, and McCallie dominated in weak Pounder efforts. The team had some talent but never put together two good halves in one game. The future should be bright, however, as these young men mature and learn from their mistakes."

The Central High golf team brought home another district championship trophy. The season standings weren't spectacular with a record of 5-6 slate, but tourney time brought out the best in Balthrop, Bankston, Luttrell, and Shipley; and District laurels were theirs. The regional tourney produced a finish in the top ten.

"Becoming Champions of District 14 in '82 had its trying times in getting there . . . but, we got there. Being in that position for the '83 season made every match more difficult this year, since most teams delighted in knocking off a winner. My admiration went out to each young man and young lady for sticking in there and rising to the top once again."

Best That You Can Be

The Central High Track Team completed a successful campaign with a 5-1 record. The senior members of the team were: Kevin Bradshaw, Vincent Moon, Chris Hook, Amy Dean, Bernard Hughes, Tom Moss, Rusty Lowe, and David Bush. The outstanding performances were turned in by David Bush who went to the State Tournament in the 300 meter hurdles, Steve Smith who finished Third in the high jump at the State meet, Joey Fenstermaker who had a Third place regional finish and Rodney Wilson who placed Fourth in the regional competition. More participation was the key to continuing success in this the most ancient of games.

"This team advanced to the state semi-finals. That was the farthest that any girl's sports team in the history of Central High School had advanced. This team was truly an outstanding group of young ladies. Kelly Daniels, the only senior, was the team captain and provided the excellent leadership. "I felt it was enjoyable for me to watch them perform the way they did. In practice, we overlooked the good qualities that they brought out in the games. Most of all, it was definitely fun! All the players played as a team and nobody was out for himself — being competitive. I believe our record speaks for how well we played this season, 30-4. The boys were very proud of themselves, and I believe they should be — they definitely deserved it!"

An Unbeatable Challenge

A challenge is what it definitely was when other schools scheduled against the Central "grapplers". The Pounders unfortunately didn't have an unbeatable record according to their dual meets but brought home 3rd, 4th, 5th and other places for tournaments. Coach John Crawford worked with these wrestlers very pleased with the season's outcome. Having four wrestlers go to the State was a great opportunity for the Pounders to be State Champions. Seniors Forrest McNair, Noland Sharp and Bobby Richardson and junior Gene McGee all had the State opportunity. Forrest McNair won the title State Champ for the 1982-1983 season. Gene McGee also placed second in the State. During the Central Invitational, Noland Sharp, Forrest McNair, and Gene McGee all won first place in their weight division.

Coach Crawford believed Dave Williams, Tim Nabors, Chris Richardson, Darren Kirvan, and Andy Bell along with Gene McGee would be great prospects to make up the State bound team for next year. The wrestlers hoped to have more school support next year. They believed it was important to have those extra students along with the cheerleaders and parents there to cheer. Forrest McNair commented, "Towards the end of the season Coach Crawford gave us a lot more inspiration which influenced our willingness to work harder." Next year's team looked for great challenges towards an unbeatable season.

"Working with this group of wrestlers, I was very pleased with the season's outcome. They all seemed very positive and worked with a great attitude. We had four young men go to the State which I was very impressed by their turn out. We have been in the top ten for the past ten years (excluding last year, 13th). Wrestling is a great sport and I feel that if we had more student support it would improve our team. I am also looking forward in having a freshmen team next year so that my varsity will have a couple years of experience."

The "Fearsome Foursome" looks awesome just before State competition. Junior Gene McGee takes definite control over his opponent. Todd Jones pulls a reverse against Tyner. "Take him down for two!" is what sophomore Rick Curvin tries to manipulate. Senior Noland Sharp receives honors for first place in the Carter Invitational. In the District, senior Forrest McNair tangles his opponent for a pin. Sophomore Chris Richardson struggles for a reverse. A victory for Bob Richardson places him in the District.

The Points Begin To Pour

With the points just pouring right through the hoop, the Pounders started their season by beating Grundy County 66-43. Seniors Vincent McKenzie and Chuckie Nabors were elected as captains to lead the Pounders through their season. There were four other seniors on varsity; they were: Eric Lewis, Mike Daugherty, David Johnson, and Gary Camp. Coach Woolsey, who worked with these young men in practice and scrimmage games, wasn't disappointed with them in the least. The players always gave 100% and were always willing to use new plays. The Pounders would be losing four out of five starters next season.

but the future looked brighter for the better. The B-team had a very successful season. They finished with a 16-8 record which would be very prominent for next year. Next year the Pounders have a lot of height — a good sign for a winning season. Coach Woolsey also thought that next year's players would be very coachable and work well as a unit. Last summer when the Pounders started practicing for the season, they attended Smith and Labert Basketball Camp in Maryville. They placed second in their division. So, as the season began, the Pounders had the points pour right through for a winning season.

"Even though our record was 12-16, I believe we had a very successful season. We beat everyone we were capable of beating. I think our biggest wins were over Riverside, Red Bank and beating East Ridge in the Christmas tournament. We weren't as successful as we should have been because we were competing in the toughest district in the state. At one point our record was 6-13 and we won six out of our next seven games, which was a big highlight. Even though we didn't win as many as we lost, we were very competitive and gave a good account of ourselves."

Coach's Corner

We've Got What It Takes

Coach Patty Lane's girls had what it took to play team ball. The Lady Pounders ended up with a 10-17 record, but that didn't stop them from playing with a great attitude throughout the season. Captains Kelly Daniels and Emily Boyd led the team with fantastic leadership. Kelly and Emily were the only two seniors on the team, so Coach Lane was looking forward to a promising '84 season with all the underclassmen having so much experience. One of the biggest highlights for the Pounders was beating Riverside 53-51. Central's defense played very aggressive and they knew just what to do on offense. The girls were very young but worked hard at practice and never gave a bad impression to their coach and fans. The five starters were freshmen Cindy

Green, juniors Michelle Potteet, Melanie Rogers and seniors Kelly Daniels and Emily Boyd. Cindy Green made second team All-City and was fourth leading scorer in the city. Coach Lane believed Green was a good prospect for next year's team. Senior Kelly Daniels received honorable mention for her aggressive offense. They also had what it took to play team ball and set a good foundation for next year's team. The Lady Pounders always said, "We've got what it takes," and next year's season was going to prove it more positive than this year.

"I realize that we didn't have a winning record this year, but I feel that it was more of a foundation for next year's team. Since we're only losing two seniors, a lot of underclassmen have some good experience. Our team was very young, but by the end of the season we were all definitely playing team ball. Their attitude was great and they were willing to work hard. With this year's freshmen team placing second in the District, I am looking forward to a great team next season."

Junior Pam Chilton goes in for a left hand lay up. Good for two points, senior Kelly Daniels sends it soaring.

A Taste Of Number One . . .

The team had the feeling of Number One. It had been a long time since Central had such a dominating season. Coach Mike Collier lost fifteen seniors, but these boys had set a firm foundation for the team.

They began the season with a win over Lenoir City, 13-0. Having lost to Ooltewah the past two years, Central retaliated with a 29-6 victory. Senior Tom Cole and Junior Mike Collier had two touchdowns each. The Pounders blanked Kirkman 35-0 in its third win. The Riverside Trojans were outmaneuvered by Central's defense led by Bobby Richardson, Scott Powell, Rusty Lowe and Chuckie Nabors. Central whipped Soddy-Daisy 17-14 in overtime, and on a wet, soggy field the Pounders splashed by Grundy County, 27-0 for the sixth straight victory and fourth shut out.

The McCallie game was a deciding district game. Both teams were unbeaten in the Chattanooga area. The emotions of the coaches and players were at a high. McCallie barely edged Central, 10-7 and Tom Cole received the Associated Press Player Of The Week for his efforts against the Tornadoes . . .

Sophomore Mark Frizzell says the Pounders are number one after the victory over Riverside, 34-0.

Over the last two years the attitude of the student body and the athletic department has improved greatly! The only touchdown for the Pounders was scored by senior Greg Smith. Rusty Lowe scored the longest touchdown pass of the night against Sequatchie County. Rusty ran 88 yards. Arch rival City handed Central its only shut out, 15-0, but the final game against Notre Dame was a victory, 13-0. This game was the sixth shut out victory of the year.

Following the season, awards were received by senior Tom Cole, Captains Award and Most Valuable Player. Tom also received awards throughout the year from the newspapers and radio stations. He was chosen for All-State and received KZ106 Player Of The Year. Senior Scott Powell, Co-Captains Award and the Alumni Scholastic Award; Bobby Richardson, Co-Captain, also received the Mike Perkins Award. The Stanley Farmer Award was presented to Tom Moss. Most Improved were Rusty Lowe and Darren Hulgán. Sophomore Ronnie Baker received the underclassman Purple Pride Award.

Aggressive Tom Cole is ready to take-down McCallie's quarterback. Sophomore Billy King keeps the stats during the games. Senior Greg Smith takes a waterbreak after the third quarter. Not twins, but juniors Paul Hammonds and Andy Bell have a lot of pride as pounders.

Sophomore John Linder suffers a pulled muscle but does continue the fight against City. Seniors Jerry Stroupes and Scott Powell combine their skills for the deflection of a City pass. Quarterback Mike Collier gets ready to hand off to running back Tom Cole for the extra yardage against McCallie. Gregg Watkins, Greg Helton and Ronnie Baker anticipate the outcome of the play as the pounders win 13-0 over Notre Dame.

To Her

Your love is all I ask for.
Your smile is all I see.
And just to know you're happy.
Means the world to me.

If he can make you happy
Then to him I gladly lend
All chances that I ever had
To be your best boy friend.

Teachers

My teachers are my greatest menace
They're mean as they can be
They have tough luck in their affairs
And blame it all on me.

References are their delight —
Denisions nothing new —
They put you in the hardest spots
Then they laugh at you.

Some teachers are as sour as pickles.
And some so nice, but dumb
They don't know nouns from adverbs
I bet their brains are numb.

Exams are their greatest pleasure
Such things you never saw —
But the teachers at Central High —
We love them one and all!

by — Violet Manier
Class of 1940

Philosophy

LTC Dannie Morris: "If the student fails to learn, the teacher fails to teach; and that, not all classrooms are classrooms."

Mrs. Clarone Hughes: "Students are to be encouraged to develop their abilities to the fullest."

Mr. Sam Stoner: "He who understands the American way of life is the one who practices patriotism."

Miss Janis Johnson: "Be consistent in your work."

Mrs. Judy Reich: "Hard work and a beautiful performance are worth the struggle."

Mrs. Mirvine Okrasinski: "OKRA" — The Vegetable

Memories

When I was a CHS student:

Miss Ogle: "I remember my social club, my membership in NHS and my four year honors."

Mrs. Crawley: "I remember giving Coach Crawford his only reference to the office."

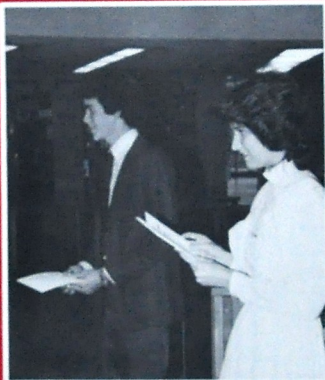

Mr. Mayfield: "I remember when there were no interruptions except for the basketball games played at noon."

Mr. Preston: "I remember being the fullback for the football team, treasurer of the Student Council, Disc and Diamond, Football State Champions my junior year and State Runner-Up my senior year, my membership in the NHS, and being a C Club Letterman."

The Four Year Honor Students popped their tops to keep an outstanding grade point average. Their averages ranged from 3.5 to 4.2.

At the top of her class with a 4.2 average was Alison Adcock, the class valedictorian. Not far behind was Rodney Walker, the class salutatorian, with an average of 4.1.

Being a four year honor student made Gina Moyers try harder in her studies. She said that she became more disciplined and responsible in her classwork.

These students were not only disciplined in their studies but also in their extra-curricular activities. There were musicians, soloists, tennis champs and other athletic stand-outs.

The honor that came with the straight A average had been an individual honor. Each student had determined and maintained and fulfilled his or her goals to attain high scholastic ratings. No one student met his goal so well as Alison Adcock who became a Presidential Scholar, a National Merit Scholar and Woodruff Scholar. Other seniors to receive recognition were Wes Carter who received a four-year National Merit Scholarship from Georgia Tech; Amy Dean and Alta McPherson who both received a $1,200 Tennessee Eika Nursing Scholarship. These students were awarded for their outstanding academic achievement and leadership skills.

Parents, faculty, and friends all "popped their tops" with pride and gratitude for the achievements of these twenty-eight students.

News From The Reunion of 2003

Entering Tomorrow

Our final days together are slowly dwindling down, soon in our hearts and minds — Only memories will be found.

So many questions need answers right away! The decisions we make will affect our future everyday. Now we are filled with happiness, yet there is sorrow. Together we'll soon be entering tomorrow.

Sometimes, our world will be difficult, and we'll need some encouragement. It's then we will recall with fondness our twelve years of splendid achievements.

And here we stand — together hand in hand wondering what the future has in store. Pausing for just a moment at life's open door to remember All the wonderful learning experiences we've shared, also, to thank you.

The friendly teachers who cared. Thanks to you each of us can survive even our best doesn't seem to be enough, because the strength we gained help us when the going gets tough.

We came here as freshmen as could be, but now we are entering tomorrow we proved we are the class of '81!

The Will Of The Class Of 1983

I, Charity Taylor, will my good luck, looks and attitude to upcoming seniors. I, Eric Totzke, will Kelly Dove my strong right arm and Devo collection.

I, Alta McPherson, will Jennifer Deane the ability to pick up McCallie guys. I, Pam Ramsey, will Danny Gilbride another buddy.

I, Leroy Stradshaw, will Annette McGinnis, three packs of M & M's.

We — Tracy, Lisa, Robin, Tracy, Teresa, Dawn and the Cat Women — will the Daytonas guys a round trip ticket to Illinois, Indiana and Daytona.

I, Cary Newman, will to the underclassmen the helpful hint. Don't eat the cafeteria food.

I, Kim King, will my brother a new car so he can take-out Tammy.

I, Tracy Kile, will all my love to Richie Balphor.

We, Miss Ogle's second period English class, will Vincent Moon's ability to be the #1 problem child to any daring senior-to-be.

We, Sherrie Hicks and Debbie Nenny, will Tim Stafford the ability not to ignore people as they scream at him.

I, David Carter, will Mr. Stoner a new lunch bag.

We, Benji, Diane, Erin and LaGetta, will Lewis Hundley to the school as the permanent substitute.

I, Donna Carter, will a can of spray paint to Terry Lowery to write her name in her parking space.

We, Angie Ford and Lori Shadden, will Starla Posey the ability to make it to all classes for one week.

I, Cindy Owens, will my ability to gossip to Karen Fann and Pam Chilton.

I, Robert Anderson, will Lyn Bendall and Wayne Alexander total access to Kim Folburn's car for another excursion to Florida.

I, David Manley, will my uncanny ability to stop oncoming cars with my body to whoever is graceful enough to do it.

I, Brian Hughes, will Willie Truett the Carmen Truett Fashion Fair Cosmetics Kit to lighten his frightened face.

We, the senior cheerleaders, will the basketball benches a megaphone so they can yell at next year's cheerleaders.

I, Blake Watson, will never be seen or heard from again.

I, Rebecca McDaniel, will the freshmen some good manners.

I, Elizabeth Geraldson will Tonia Johnson's parking place and the Hardies bags.

To Remember

I, Kevin Bradshaw, will a half baked Angel Food cake to Leonard since his letters implied that he liked cake.

I, Pat Sherrill, will my mustache to Gregg Watkins to help his half grown, cheery mustache look presentable.

We, the senior flag girls, will Mr. Chandler a life-time supply of extra strength Tylenol for the headaches that go along with being a "better band director."

I, Stephan Dupourque, will to someone on next year's tennis team the chance to hit it big in a very easy district.

I, David Giles, wish to leave a year supply of hawker to Mr. Stoner for his bright ties.

I, Joe Payne, wish to leave Mr. Preston a walking cane to get around the school faster.

I, Marcus Smith, will the ability to build a fast car and the fastest GTO to Rodney Wright.

We, Mary Case and Rebecca McDaniel, will to Rita Hall the ability to be serious.

I, Scott Williams, will my ability to make "A's" to Steve Whitaker.

I, Julianne Joel, will my "yanker" accent to Tammy Forrester.

I, Tarrell Brown, will the length of my hair to any up-coming senior girl who can put up with it.

I, Kevin Wright, will my hair to Mr. Mayfield and my left flip-flop to Miss Ogle.

I, Vince Sutton, will my brother Will the ability to stay out of trouble and to get to class on time.

I, Bernard Hughes, will to any up-coming senior my mouth to talk Mrs. Brown to death.

I, Mike Burnum, will the job of Pod Monster to Coach Bonner next year.

I, Bobby Chandler, will — if I can without being caught by my father.

I, Karl Sodegren, will the E.Y. Chapin statue to Mike Hicks in the hopes that E.Y. will patiently listen to Mike's endless problems and gripes.

I, Debbie Barbee, wish to leave all my bad luck to someone who has no luck at all.

The Senior wrestlers will Gene McGee, David Thoni's diploma so he may win state next year.

I, Jeff Gann, wish to leave Mr. Jolliffe a can of turtle wax to keep the sparkling shine on his head.

I, Jeff Dickson, will Coach Summers a red light and a siren for his luncheon duty.

We, the homecoming Class of Coach Collier, will him the abilities to keep his next year's homecoming in class for fifteen minutes.

I, Travis Smith, will to Ray Lewis B-108 and a Marine Corps hat brass.

I, Brett Ferney Jr., will my brother Mike my bookreport abilities that he may pass English.

We, the senior Flags, will to Pam Humphreys her own flag corps since she did such a good job this year.

I, Vincent McKenzie, will my coordination and outstanding basketball abilities to all underclassmen.

I, Doug Jeter, will to my little brother Fritz the right to grow.

I, Kenny Forrester, will my cowboy hat to any freshman needing a little class.

I, Donna Kichey, will Sherri Mulkey the ability to back into her parking space.

I, Karen Bearfield, will my senior spirit to Arlene Sims.

I, Barry Farham, will my ability to charge Stool to the school's account to Tancy Coker if he is brave enough.

I, Kim Adams, will Lisa Sprayberry a full year's scholarship to Hammond Driving School.

I, Charlene Essary, will Rita Hall my ability to drive to school.

I, Kelly Duke, will to the upcoming B-Team Basketball the gullability to believe there will really be some B-Team games.

I, Karen Dill, will Timothy Allen White to Mary Beatrice Case from this day forward.

We, Alice Hart and Lee Ann Green, will Jill Rogers and Kathy Shoemaker matching punching bags so that they will stop using us.

We, the Art IV seniors, will to Will Sutton the Presidential Merit Scholarship so he can be Mrs. Campbell's best artist by far.

I, Marva Smith, being of sound mind and beautiful body, will my ability to carry myself as a lady to the black underclassmen girls whom I know need it.

I, Fin King, will my 1985 Corvair to any underclassmen who can find it.

I, Elizabeth Geraldson, will Jackie Shannon to all the upcoming sophomores.

We, Stacy Croft and Karen Salisbury, will Paul Hammond's time to Denise Knowles.

We, Tracie Hawkins and Stacy Croft, will Michelle Mann the ability to win senior awards as we did.

We, Suzanne Johnson, Sherrie Hicks and Cheryl Pittman, will to up-coming seniors the skill to go to Taco Bell for lunch and not get caught.

I, Kenny Vaughn, will my tennis ability to Steve Wilson.

What a wonderful school is ours to love
With its ups and its downs and its joy.
What a wonderful banner of purple and gold
As it floats o'er her girls and boys.
What a wonderful school that we love so well
With its wonderful rep so high.
So you've heard of a school that's true as blue
What a wonderful school, Central High.

The Junior Class Presents

Friday evening, April 29, approximately 240 couples arrived at the Read House Silver Ballroom. They were welcomed by senior class officers and sponsors Miss Marjorie Ogle and Mr. Sam Stoner and the junior class officers and sponsors Mrs. Janette Crawley and Miss Brenda Chauncey.

The theme and theme song for this beautiful evening was "Up Where We Belong." Memory Books were printed by Vaughn Williams and Hewett Studios. The books were silver with an embossed purple C and purple cord and tassel.

Hundreds of dollars had been spent on lux rental and hallgowns with matching shoes and accessories — but when the music began, bowties, shoes, hats and canes, shirt ruffles and expensive floral bouquets were thrown aside. The slow dances were particularly cherished and memories of the promises made that evening were noted in the diary section of the memory book.

The evening began very early for some with dinner reservations before the dance, and the evening never ended for some sons and daughters, fathers and mothers who paid the bills! The hours of planning and the money spent were worth the hours of enjoyment as everyone — faculty and student — was up where he felt he belonged.

"Up Where We Belong"

Welcome

"We would like to welcome each and everyone of you to the 1983 Central High Junior-Senior Prom. Tonight is a very special night for all of us, especially for the Senior Class. We hope you will have an enjoyable evening and that the memories of this special event will be cherished forever."

"My Wish For You"

Loving, Living, Hoping, Giving

Early in the year, the faculty members were asked to respond to a yearbook survey. One of the responses was "If I had a wish, I would wish that students would have their homework on time, would be dependable and more considerate." Above all the academic material taught in the classroom, a teacher also must convey to the students a sense of love, hope and sharing. It was to be this year that some of those lessons would be reciprocated to very well-deserving faculty members.

Congratulations to you, Mrs. Maxine Williams. Your students have honored you as their Dedicatory For The Class Of 1983.

Congratulations to you, Mrs. Clarone Hughes, Mr. Hillman Mayfield and Mrs. Mirvine Okrasinski for your twenty years of love, service and devotion to Central.

Congratulations to you, Mrs. Virginia Summerour from your peers because they believed your honesty, sincerity and professionalism as a teacher should be recognized.

The Varsity Chorus sang "My Wish For You" and in this song the composer wrote that he wished that all could love and live and hope and give. Mr. Charles Preston has recognized these staff members for their love of life that they gave to their students; hope for the future of the world; and their giving completely of themselves. Keep these wishes in your hearts ... "until we meet again."

Mrs. Maxine Williams delivers her address to the senior class as their dedicatory.

The Champion Staff honors Mrs. Williams at a reception in her honor with faculty and student guests.

Mr. Charles Preston, principal, recognizes his faculty and students for their dreams to be "great and aspiring."

Senior homeroom teachers Mrs. Mary Brown and Coach Mike Collier check their class rolls for the last time.

Mrs. Virginia Summerour is congratulated by principal Mr. Charles Preston for receiving the Evans Award For Excellence In Teaching.

Mrs. Maxine Williams supervises the graduation practice held at 11:00 at the Memorial Auditorium.

Mrs. Clarone Hughes, Mr. Hillman Mayfield and Mrs. Mirvine Okrasinski (not pictured) receive recognition for their twenty years of service and devotion to Central and its students.

Champion Supporters

During the year, the Champion Staff received a great deal of support from patrons. With their support, the staff was able to make many improvements in the 1983 Champion.

The Champion Staff would like to especially dedicate these pages to the senior parents, the administrative staff, the faculty and friends who gave support and encouragement.

Central High School Alumni Association

To The Graduates Of The Class Of 1983

The officers of Central High School Alumni Association are happy to extend greeting to the graduates of the Class Of 1983. They are aware of your attainments and your ambitions. They wish for your success in proportion to your ability, ambition and application. These are crucial days and we urge you to continue your progress in education by attending the college of your choice.

The Alumni Association seeks to serve Central High School. Our projects are too many to list here. We constantly are looking for ways to improve our school. In order to serve the maximum, we need each graduate to join our association. When you are in a position to assist us, we ask you to join in this cooperative movement for the assistance of our school.

We wish for you the best in the future and we ask you to, at all times, elevate the name of our school, community and nation.

COMPUTER AGE — Increasing the influence of computers in the world has now become a major news item. A computer virus.

1982-1983 News Events

FOOTBALL STORM — National Football League players went on strike, causing a large part of the football season to go unplayed. Players who died of cancer, and players who died of AIDS, were in the line of duty.

"YOGISIE" ROLLS — The movie "Yogis" starring Easton Mollins was a major performance at the box office.

FUTURE KING — British royalty continued to make headlines around the world, this year with the birth of Prince William to Charles and Diana, the Prince and Princess of Wales.

CELEBRATION — St. Louis Cardinals players raced on to the field to celebrate their World Series championship over the Milwaukee Brewers.

FALKLANDS WAR — Great Britain and Argentina went to war in the South Atlantic over the Falkland Islands, and Great Britain prevented the conflict. One of the casualties of the war was an Argentine cruiser, victim of a British torpedo.

1982-1983 News Events

FREED — Lech Walesa, right, leader of the banned Solidarity Trade Union, was released from a lengthy imprisonment by Polish authorities.
