"THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH,

THE KNIGHT OF OLD, CLAD IN SHINING ARMOR, WEL-COMED A QUEST TO PROTECT THE WEAK OR TO RIGHT
A WRONG. HIS WAS A STRUGGLE AGAINST THE HEATHEN, THE DRAGON, THE WILD BEAST.

THE KNIGHT-ERRANT OF TODAY FACES FOES MORE
DEADLY AND PROBLEMS MORE PERILOUS—ENEMIES
WHICH THREATEN CIVILIZATION ITSELF.

AS KNIGHTS OF A NEW ORDER, MAY WE TOO GO FORTH
"BEARING THE WATCHWORD OF RELIGION, HONOR AND COURTESY." MAY WE, CLAD WITH THE HELMET OF KNOWLEDGE, THE SWORD OF COURAGE, THE SPUR OF DETERMINATION AND THE BREASTPLATE OF HIGH IDEALS
OF OUR ALMA MATER, FARE FORTH TO JOIN THAT BAND
OF PIONEERS ON A NEW FRONTIER, TO ESTABLISH A NEW
FREEDOM AND A NEW OPPORTUNITY AND THUS MEET
THE CHALLENGE OF A CHANGING WORLD.

IF THE CHAMPION OF '35 TAKES YOU ON A HAPPY QUEST
OF COMPANIONSHIPS AND EXPERIENCES THROUGH THE STAGES FROM "THE PAGE TO THE ACCOLADE," WE SHALL BE PLEASED.

THE ROUND TABLE

Alma Mater

*What a wonderful school 'tis ours to love,
With its ups and its downs and its joys;
What a wonderful banner the Purple and Gold,
As it floats o'er our girls and boys.
And this wonderful school that I love the best
Has a wonderful "rep" so high;
So you've heard of the school that's true as blue,
Oh, that wonderful school, Central High.*

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

ALL events, whether great or small, must necessarily become history. We have now passed through our four memorable years at Central and are known in the annals of that great school as the "Class of '35." When, on that never-to-be-forgotten day in 1931, we entered Central's halls as "Fris," the hundred strong, we started upon a four-year course as potential knights, with our eyes ever set on the goal we wished to reach four years hence—worthy knights of dear old Central, with a diploma as our reward for years of studying and service rendered.

Very busily we followed the sphere around in what seemed a great maze of ghost societies and long halls. "Don't waste your time!" we were advised by mighty seniors. "And please use the elevators." Here, ever, we organized in time and chose Jerry Perry as our class president, with Martha Kenna as vice-president, Evelyn Collins as secretary, and Ernest Owsley as treasurer. We were greatly assisted by the cooperation of the upper classes. The faculty was also very tolerant and patient in helping us to become acquainted with our new environment. Even at the end of that first year, we found the old Central spirit had found its way into our hearts.

We returned as "Sophes" in the fall of 1932, with the newness and uncertainty of our freshman year behind us. Never again, we hoped, would we ask Coach Peterson for a "part of scrimmage line!" nor would we again ask Miss Beulah Parker to "sign up for Agriculture." Jerry Perry was again elected to lead us as class president. Other class officers were: Robert Carter, vice-president; Betty Sue Bowman, secretary; and Walter Pankney, treasurer. Gradually were our members beginning to take part in social affairs and no one will doubt that the sophomore class really made its presence known at every cheer meeting.

Then started our junior year with its ever-changing round of activities. We chose our officers as follows: Walter Pankney, president; Jerry Perry, vice-president; Betty Sue Bowman, secretary; and Robert Carter, treasurer. The junior play, "It Pays to Advertise," directed by Miss Dorothy Hackitt and starring Earl Shaw and Edith Godley, was a production of which we were justly proud. Proud, too, were we when Walter Pankney, Mary Dora Byrd, and Ernest Owsley had important roles in the end of the Senate play, "The Youngest." Members of our class were now in every social organization. The varsity cheer staff was headed by Walter Pankney and Ella Margaret Lister, both Freshers. We were truly coming to the front as school leaders.

All too soon our last year at dear old Central began. Her faculty had wound their lives around our heart strings and her high ideals were firmly planted within us. When the limelight was turned on our class election, our officers were: Ellis Pope, president; Robert Carter, vice-president; Walter Pankney, secretary; and Garnett Browne, treasurer.

Leaders in the extra-curricular activities were: Ernest Owsley, president of the Senate and Grady Literary Societies; Ellis Pope, president of the National Honor Society; Walter Pankney, president of the Boys' Hi-Y, and Mary Godfrey, president of the Girls' Hi-Y.

Looking over our lists, we find such names as Park Stout, football captain; Hub Anderson, John Bretbeck, Walter Kima, and Frank Bowman, as well as Bennett Hodges, basketball captain, leading in the field of athletics. It was with much yelling but also a tinge of regret that we saw our last sports season at Central draw to a close.

As the year progressed, our senior play, "Lilies of the Field," became the center of interest. This play, a comedy starring Martha Connolly and Charles Outiger, was presented under the able direction of Miss Laveta Epperson.

Not were we lacking in honor students. The names of Ernest Owsley, Edith Godley, Maude Lewis, Lella Welch, Ann Edwards, Thelma Harden, Tommy Henry, and Lottie Bates, the Four-Year Honor Students, had become familiar to all of us for their application to all branches of study.

An excellent staff was chosen for our annual, the "Champion." Ernest Owsley was elected editor-in-chief; Robert Carter, business manager; Esther Stamps, senior section editor; Alton Long, photographic editor; Jerry Perry, athletic editor; Winfred Blevins, military editor; Maude Lewis, risk editor; Louis Wallace, advertising manager; Katherine Rawlings, typist; Lella Welch, feature editor; J. P. Brown, junior editor; Gene Nelson, sophomore editor, and Percy Maury, freshman editor.

Then came the last round of busy, exciting days which would mark the close of our training at dear old Central. Class Day representatives and Commencement Speakers were:

Ernest Owsley, Valedictorian,
Edith Godley, Salutatorian,
William Lewers, Class Representative,
Ellis Pope, Faculty Representative,
Maude Lewis, Class Historian,
Lella Welch, Class Poet,
Louis Wallace, Reader of the W.R.L.
Christie Smith, Class Prophet.

In a whirl of activity we came through Class Day, Baccalaureate Services and Really Commencement, when we received our Badge of Knighthood, our diploma.

Farewells have been made and we, the knights of Central's 1935 class, have gone our varied ways to fill our respective missions and to serve our fellowman to the best of our ability, in every way and at all times reflecting, we hope, glory to the school of schools that trained us.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

THE history of this class begins in September, 1933, when we came as third freshmen to Central. We were lost in the tumult of 1200 students, but eventually located our home room, where in our loneliness we tried to understand what it was all about. At the end of the school year, we had learned at least two things—the way to the cafeteria and the route to the street car after school. Most of us passed to the sophomore year. We wonder if it could have been that the teachers did not care to worry with us any longer.

On returning to Central for our sophomore year, 1933-1934, we were surprised to find that we did remember the first names of some of our classmates. We had also learned to know Mr. Miller, better known as "Pop," by eight lessons our mothers and fathers had told us of wonderful grades they had made under him. Most of them failed in past, but that was in the good old days of having the rest of the rank of spelling the right word, as they tell us, children really learned. As Sophomores, H. O. T. O. boys learned to recognize under Sergeant Harris' watchful eye when we were in step and all the others were out, as well as to salute Colonel Lively and to call a few of the girls "Cutie."

This year, 1934-1935, we full fledged Juniors, still strong we have "stepped out" in Central's big family, and have made class history of which we are justly proud.

Of course there have been "billy dogs," such as tripping up reasons for tardiness and explaining to Professor Brown just why we didn't work that problem in Physics. There have been passionate moments on the carpet in Professor Brown's office. Professor Tompkins has "cracked down" on us occasionally with such grace, and we have had to explain in our parents why we had some it's on the report cards when we could see no reason for our not doing A's.

Those things are written in the report cards, and this history has nothing to do with them. They are the teacher's troubles. From the standpoint of opinion as students, the big event of the year was the Junior party. All advance was the best in many years, and it was a great party. The teachers, we believe, enjoyed themselves, too, and some of them could hardly be distinguished from the Juniors. Twenty years from now when we are much more advanced in years, we shall like to stroll down the "Long Long Trail" winding into the Land of My Dreams and recall the Junior party in the Gymnasium at good old Central, and wish we could live over those moments again.

As the year advanced the splendid work of Colonel Ballard Lively and Sergeant Harris was exhibited at Fort Oglethorpe on November 11, when, in connection with the fact that could be brought out by City High and McClellan, our Crack Platoon won the All-City Championship for 1934-1935. How those boys did know their best of all—"Ten-shuns!" salute Lieutenant J. T. Robinson, our own penny Junior who led the Platoon to its greatest victory, aided by Sergeants Miller, Brown, and Howers who kept the lines straight and saw that the brass buttons were shining.

In the Junior class a variety of talent has been demonstrated. This talent has been found in different organizations.

Juniors who possess the IT which is required to be a Senator at Central and who deserve credit for having made a record worthy of this selection are: Anna Kemper, Frances Deskins, Bertha Malstrom, Marie Moore, Doris Thompson, Rosabelle Keown, Ed Rice, Louis Eldridge, Margaret Crawford, J. T. Cry, Helen Gross, Virginia Carlton, Ed Bowen, Gene Carr, Mary Wilbanks, Homer Frazier, Dorothy Ganaway, and Virginia McCay.

The Glee Club not only makes sweet music, but they're a sweet club—well, at any rate, the girls are. Of course the rest of us get a good deal of glow out of the beam when the boys speak in. These are the "singing birds": Virginia Carlton, H. P. Davis, Rachel Powell, Dorothy Ganaway, F. Gay Beaphin, Phyllis Jordan, Jean Lowery, Thomas McEwen, Sara McCoy, Mildred McGee, Hampton Parker, Katherine Rankin, Thelma Hicks, Dorothy Sparkman, Nancy Womack, Virginia Wilbanks, Lucille White and Fannie Hows.

The following have shown characteristics as leaders and have served the class as officers since its beginning:

Freshman—Edgar T. Rice, president; Edgar Black, vice-president; Mary Grace Card, secretary; Jack Heard, treasurer.

Junior—J. T. Cry, president; Doris Thompson, vice-president; Virginia McCay, secretary; Agnes Brown, treasurer.

We are sorry that the limited space allowed us will not permit us to comment on the splendid record of every Junior. There are a few who for some reason have stamped themselves on our memory. Some of them are wise, and possibly some are otherwise, but in the future, when we remember our Junior year, we have these faces will appear.

Allen, Mary Frances—You know her, who in the class doesn't?

Bowen, Edward—Cut teeth on Webster's Unabridged. Has had "A" grades since Kindergarten.

Brown, J. P.—"Red."

Brown, Agnes—Class treasurer, did you pay your dues?

Carlton, Ann—Gilt with the golden hair?

Cry, J. T. (Shorty)—Catherine Pratt can tell you about him.

Edin, Edna—Three Year Honor student.

Gross, Helen—Little girl with big record, Honor student.

Howard, Thomas—But nobody ever calls him that!

Keown, Rosabelle—Honor student. Feature editor of "Opal," and one who has a "nose for news."

McCay, Virginia—Secretary of the class, and a good one!

McClellan, Frances (Bangbang)—Boy, she's a knockout!

McCay, Sara—Song Leader and one that can't be beaten.

O'Daniel, Leon—Football, can think with his feet.

Pierre, Tom—"Major."

Rankin, Katherine—Popular and happy.

Rice, Ed—E-President, "Rice, Leader of World Club."

Robertson, J. T.—He commanded the winning platoon.

Rutledge, Lucille—Editor and columnist.

Sparkman, Doris—Member of Painters' Union, or is he?

Smith, Walter—Member of Painters' Union, or is he?

Sparkman, Doris—Can she play the piano?

Stiles, Thelma—Honor student! How they do it we don't know.

Thompson, Doris—Best singer south of Mason and Dixon Line.

Underwood, Opal—The well known "Babe."

Vandiver, Desmond—Football—Captain another year!

Wharton, Marion—Honor Roll.

Wilbanks, Mildred—Honored and deserves it.

Wood, Martha—Another Honor Roll member—try it if you think it's easy!

Yumerwald, Robert—The luckiest boy in class, the holder of No. 14814 and winner of Ford V-8 on November 23.

Thus ends the history of a Junior class which bids fair to be one of the best Senior classes Central has ever had. Au Revoir '36 '36.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

TWO years have passed since we gathered in the halls of Central High, a very bewildered group of freshmen. Today we can look back with pleasure when we think of the warm welcome accorded us by Mr. Nelson and the friendly greetings of the faculty and students.

We soon became used to the rules and schedules of Central and became as fond of it as the older students.

At the election of class officers which was the next problem to be settled the following were selected: president, Carl Johnston; vice-president, Billy Daggett; secretary, Kathryn Brown, and treasurer, Fred Hetzler.

Carl Johnston, the president, was selected to represent the Freshman class on the CHAMPION staff. Six Freshmen, because of their meritorious work in junior high school, were elected to the Senate.

With all the activity and excitement of joining a new school, the year passed swiftly.

In the fall of 1934 the former freshmen, who were now sophisticated sophomores, entered Central with renewed confidence and interest. Carl Johnston and Billy Daggett were again elected president and vice-president respectively. Virginia Dearing was elected secretary, and Roy Baskette, treasurer.

Other sophomores were outstanding in athletic and scholastic events.

Dick Bates, Emmett Mallett, Jack Pinion and Roy Baskette made the first team in football. Dixie Smith was elected cheer leader and Virginia Dearing and Ruby Lee Rose were elected song leaders.

Gene Nelson was chosen to represent the class on the CHAMPION staff. The sophomores who made the honor roll for the first quarter were Howard Pratt, Joyce Mulkey, Callie Lee Ott, Myrtle Mae Erwin, Beryl Healey, Dorothy Davis, La Verne Roberts, Dorothy Talley, Anna Marie Peckinpugh, Mary Ann Buck, Virginia Hennessee, Ellis Butler, Hannah Marlow, and Russell Tarver.

Among the musician of the Sophomore Class who made the Glee club were Robert Barger, Dorothy Bowen, Ed Butler, Bob Cooper, and Mildred Weller. Those in the orchestra were William Ashworth, Nick Ballinger, Dorothy Bowen, Ellis Butler, Ellsworth Tarriss, Lovell Gannaway, Alma Robinson, Ophelia Setliffe, Rose Jane Verhey and Thelma Wilboite.

With such a promising beginning this Class of '37 will surely go far and make an enviable record before leaving Central.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

*"Freshmen, Freshmen, everywhere
But not a thot to think."*

THE first line of the above couplet describes the situation at Central High School, September 4, 1934.

The new Freshman Class was thronging the school and grounds. They were arriving by the hundreds from all parts of Hamilton County and suburbs of Chatauque from which boys and girls are entitled to come to Central High school.

For one day the entire school belonged to the Freshmen. According to custom the new first year class was given this additional time for enrollment in advance of the three upper classes.

The second line of the parody on the famous couplet from Samuel Coleridge's "Rime of the Ancient Mariner," describes the mental condition of those Freshmen on that first day—not that they were not an ambitious, intelligent army of young students. Grade cards, which they carried in their pockets showed that they had finished at their last school with good records.

But all was so new and strange that first day! There seemed to be so many teachers, so many new books, and so many long stairways and so many strange faces. Would one ever get acquainted and be at home in this huge place? This question crowded every other idea out of the poor Freshmen's minds.

Gradually, however, the charm of Central High school overcame each Freshman's fears and homesickness for his or her old school.

Being a part of such a great student body thrilled the Freshmen as they saw the Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors take their places. The band, orchestra, and R. O. T. C., added to their new interest. The variety of the studies offered soon absorbed all of their attention.

When all the names had been listed, the total number of Freshmen proved to be 324 members.

Principal S. E. Nelson and the Assistant Principal, Mr. W. H. Templeton, and Mother Mary Callis were kind and helpful in their directions.

Freshman Class sponsors were Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. W. G. Stephenson, and Mr. J. Pope Dyer.

Freshmen honor students were Valgene Kelly, Peggy Mahry, John Meyer, Elizabeth Usmiller, Anna Laura Van Zanett, Powellene Walker, and William Zimmerman.

Freshmen class officers were: president, William Zimmerman; vice-president, Valgene Kelly; secretary, Peggy Mahry; treasurer, J. T. Rose.

As the school year moved on, the Freshman class settled down to serious work. They are enthusiastically looking forward to the successive years which will bring them to their own graduation.

Watch for this ambitious class and its record by commencement, 1938.

PEGGY MAHRY.

MILITARY HISTORY

The khaki of today's R. O. T. C. would present a striking contrast to the coats of mail of King Arthur's Round Table. Imagine Lancelot and Gareth clad in the R. O. T. C. uniform and a Sam Brown! Yet just as the knights of old went out in quest of the Holy Grail so do the khaki clad knights of today go out in search of loving cups and other marks of distinction. This year the knights of King Nelson's Round Table have been particularly successful.

Lieutenant-Colonel Ballard Lyerly and Sergeant George M. Harris have been instrumental in the success which the R. O. T. C. has enjoyed.

Lieutenant-Colonel Lyerly, prior to assuming his duties as Professor of Military Science and Tactics at Central, was stationed at Alcatraz Island, San Francisco Bay, California. He has had twenty-eight years of military experience, entering the army in 1907. His service has carried him to various garrisons throughout the United States and Foreign possessions. He also saw service in France during the World War.

Sergeant Harris, Instructor of Military Science and Tactics, has had a very colorful military career, which covers a period of over sixteen years. He is an honor graduate of the 29th Infantry N. C. O. school at Fort Benning, Georgia. During his period of service he has been stationed at various posts in the United States. His military career has carried him to the Mexican border, the Philippine Islands and China.

We feel justly proud of our R. O. T. C. because of the fact that they have brought to us many honors. Last year we were chosen as one of the honor schools of the fourth corps area as a result of the high grade we obtained on the Corps area inspection. In this inspection we competed with the best schools of the South. In other fields also we have won distinction. In '34 the rifle team won the City Championship. Last year a platoon commanded by Lieutenant Hugh Moser won over a platoon from Chattanooga High School and this year a platoon commanded by Lieutenant J. T. Robertson received even more distinction by winning over platoons from both Chattanooga High School and McCallie.

The R. O. T. C. is fortunate this year in having as its commanding officer, Cadet Major Garnett Broome, who by his loyalty and tireless efforts has brought distinction to the Central Battalion.

COACH MCCOY COACH PETERSEN

LEUES HENSON (Lawson) Quarterback

Tramping a uniform for the first time this year, Henson made a valuable mark for Central. During the passing, kicking, and a great deal of running with the ball. He will be back again next year.

MIKEY WILLIAN (Hill) Fullback

Although this was his first year to try for the team, Willian made quite a name for himself as a hard fighting, up and coming player that will truly do his part when called on. He will be on the team next year.

RICHARD RATER (Duck) Fullback

This was Dick's first year at Central. He was assigned the task of filling the shoes of more experienced and older boys, and when he was called on he really showed his ability. Dick has weight which may be used to an advantage.

VICTOR O'NEAL (Vic) Fullback

Coming from Cappelhill to Central, Victor was somewhat puzzled by Central's style of playing, but he shows much promise as a running ball carrier and much to be expected of him next year. Vic has speed and vision made well.

DE FOREST KILLINGWORTH (Dennisworth) Fullback or End

Lack of experience was the only handicap of this speed demon, and he shows much promise for the coming year at Central. Dennisworth was better in team work than in individual playing.

CAMP HAMILTON (Bandy) Quarterback

Hamilton, although handicapped by weight, was a quick thinker and pulled the team out of a hole more than once. Since Bandy was always confident and self-assured, he could handle the team well.

NEWELL HENRY (Seldom Fed) Right Tackle

Henry is a hard fighter and is improving all the time. He will be back next year "ready to go." He is a power house on offense and hard to move on defense.

LENN O'DANIELS (Frog Eyes) End

O'Daniels is a fighting Irishman, full of the old Central spirit and willing to learn more about the great game of football. He has been chosen as Alternate Captain for next year and is a great fighter.

BOY SCRUGGS (Big Ted) Tackle

Scruggs has made quite a name for himself in playing tackle, and is expected to step into Park Sims' place next year and give all centers something to remember. It is not an easy thing to move Big Ted on defense.

JACK PINION (Fat Boy) Center

Jack is another good prospect for next year, and all Central backers are hoping that he will forget to be good injured on the field and really use his weight to advantage.

J. T. SMITH (Jay Bird) End

Although he is the lightest man on the team, J. T. is one of the hardest tacklers. He is expected to show some real skill next year. J. T. is good at blocking and looks after the men back in the line.

BOY BASKETTE (Curly) Guard

Boy is a good prospect for guard. He is said to be another Jimmie Dunn. At any rate, he will be back for two or three more years.

PARK SIMS Captain and Left Tackle

Park made All-City this year. He will be remembered for his hard tackling and offensive work. He served three years on the squad (two years as a regular) and played every minute of every game. His share will be hard to fill. Park was always full of pep, and even though losing he was a good fighter.

WALTER SIMS (Walt) Guard

"Walt" has been a real scrapper on the squad for two years and has played a good steady game when called on. He will leave the squad knowing he did his best.

ROBERT ANDERSON (Andy) Alternate Captain and Guard

"Andy" will be remembered as a hard smashing, fair-blocking line man who played good, steady football. He will be sorely missed in the line.

BOONEY DENNY Center

Denny was a real scrapper at all times. He was good at blocking the line and blocking punts. He sometimes tackled so hard that he knocked himself groggy. This is his last year. Though somewhat small Booney was powerful on defense.

WALTER PANKEY CHARLTON SMITH
Chief Leader Manager

JOHN BROTHACK Guard

Although John was not a regular, he received much praise as a substitute. He rose to his height in the City-Central game both this year and last. Brothack was a good puppy scrapper.

DESMOND VANDIVER (Vandy) Guard

Vandy, next year's captain, is a boy with a fighting spirit and a love for the game. Although a mite in weight, he makes up for it in spirit. Though not a man of much speaking, Vandy is one of the hardest fighters on the team.

JOHN McQUEEN Center

Although McQueen has not been so much in the limelight this past season, much credit is due him for his untiring efforts in afternoon practice and for filling in for O'Daniels when called upon. It is the regret of the student body that Central loses him this year.

BOBBY DICKS Forward

Being a new comer this year, Dicks was given a heavy load to carry when he was made a regular forward. This was quite a jump from last year when he played with the midget team of Brainerd Junior High. Dicks has three more years at Central, where it is believed he will make a name for himself.

BEN HODGES Captain and Guard

This year will find Ben leaving Central by way of graduation. Although he will be sorely missed in next season's lineup, he will continue to live in the hearts of those who knew him for a real captain and a scrapper.

CHARLES STEWART Manager

The difficult job of serving as manager for Central's '34 basketballers fell to Charles Stewart, a junior, whose faithful service to the squad has been appreciated. Charles has performed his duties well, assisting Coach Bales and the team to the best of his ability.

WINSTON LEE Forward

Winston Lee entered from Boys' High of Atlanta in '33. He showed his athletic ability by becoming first baseman on the '34 baseball squad. Although a substitute, Lee served the basketball team by participating in several important games.

NATHAN SMITH Forward

"Little Sonitty," as he was known, was just a mite too small to do much good against big men this past year, yet he could drop them in if he had the chance. He will have an opportunity to show his skill again next year.

VICTOR O'NEAL Forward or Guard

Victor will be back again next fall pounding away, waiting for a chance to fill a regular berth, which, if he continues to improve, he may get.

FLETCHER JOLLY (Smead) Guard

Always one of the mainstays of the team, Jolly was one of the most impressive men of the Central squad this year. Next year he will be back in the line, and much is expected of him.

LEON O'DANIELS Center

Leon (or Frog) is another who will be missing next season because of the age limit. Much could be said about O'Daniels in the way of spirit, but his name speaks for itself. He is a real fighting Irishman full of the old Central pep.

W. C. WHEAT Guard

This was Wheat's first year on the squad, yet he performed his duties as guard with a skillful eye and shows much promise for the remaining two years that he has to serve. Wheat, with his experience of this year, will be a strong man on next year's team.

LUCIUS HENSON Forward or Guard

Although this was Henson's first year to try out for the team, he showed that he had natural ability from the start and, at the close of the season, he was fighting for a regular position. Next season he is expected to show his real worth.

BILLY O'BRIEN Forward

O'Brien was slow to get started but ended up strong. Next year will find him fighting as ever with that "never-die" spirit. He has two more years to make his mark on Central's team.

Central Lights

*Many colors make the prism,
Each one separate, each alone;
Each one blending, softening, shading
Goes to make the perfect tone.
Yet the sun rays softly slanting
Pick each color from its place,
Showing it to all beholders
In its trueness and its grace.
So the Senior Class of Central
Like a prism glowing bright
At a certain angle slanting
Brings its qualities to light.*

*Some of them are best as scholars;
Some athletic, witty are,
Some most courteous, others friendly,
Some in leadership go far.
Personalities noteworthy,
Natural charm, and service too;
Some outstanding but all blending
In the flawless prism hue.
So the colors shine together
None outglowing all the rest
Go to make the perfect ideal
Which each Centralite loves best.*
