Life between alarms

Keepin' it real!

Devi Davis, Jossami Jones, and Steve Todd are just keeping it real while trying to make some lunch money the best way they know how.

Lunch Ladies

These ladies are hanging out at lunch sporting their new attires. With love written all over their faces and those cute smiles, they will be picking up all the bottles, so ladies watch out!

Life Between alarms is:
At CHS, Spirit Week is a fun tradition. There is an assortment of outfits and outrageous costumes. On PJ and Tacky Day, you will see it all. So don't get fixed up, you'll be all alone. Just leave all the makeup and hair brushes at home!

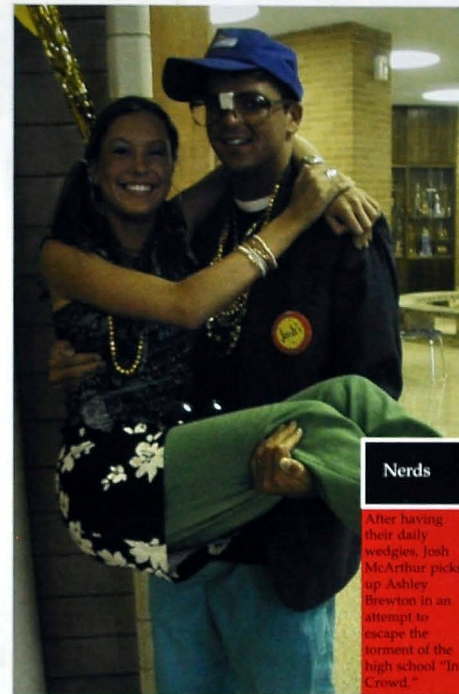

Whiiiiii...
Ashley Roark, Nicole Holder, Jennifer Cathchings, Ashley Johnson, and Rebecca Casey show us a glimpse of what they put on for bed time. As they prepare for a day of hard work, these girls come to school dressed for comfort.

Work It

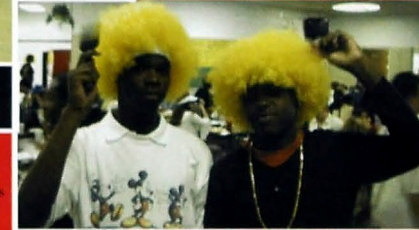

With a girl on each arm, our Richard Simmons wannabe in his hot neon shorts shows off that tight booty!

The In Crowd

Everyone is dying to be in this crowd! No one knows style better than they do. If ever in doubt of what to wear to school in the morning, the "In Crowd" sets the trend.

Nerds

After having their daily wedgies, Josh McArthur picks up Ashley Brewton in an attempt to escape the torment of the high school "In Crowd."

Fro-Don't

showing off one of Central's school colors with their new do, they are making a BIG fashion no-no. They may think they are cute, but let's just say that these guys have nothing on Bozoi! :)

Central's Cutest

DIVAS

New fashion divas, Courtney Dawson & Kristen Wickert, show off their unique styles as they flash those nearly whites toward the camera. You go girls!

Pounder Spirit

Life is all about your spirit:

"Life is just a mirror, and what you see out there, you must first see inside of you"- Wally 'Famous' Amos. At CHS our pride has everything to do with our spirit. Purple and Gold day couldn't be more of an example!

Hula Chicks

These three juniors (From left: Lindsey Parker, Heather White, and Holly Thee) pose for the camera and say "Aloha!" while decked out in their Hawaiian wear.

From Above: The freshman are doin' the Hawaiian thang! What else could you need going Hawaiian to show your school spirit? They've got the shirts, the leis, and even the cute smiles! "ALOHA to all the fine guys!" Tequilla Johnson

We're Ready!

The Pounder football players get pumped up at the homecoming pep rally for the big game.

Happy Hawaiians

David Ruiz, along with Ronnie Parker, takes a bite out of Deshayla Walker while goofing around in the halls on Hawaiian day.

Homecoming King & Queen

This year's homecoming king and queen were chosen by the student body and were crowned on Friday, October 4th.

"I felt that it was an honor to be selected onto the Homecoming Court. Having my fellow classmates choose me as king was overwhelming! I would like to thank God for allowing me to see this day and my family and friends for trusting in everything I attempt."

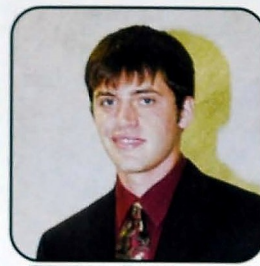

Ronald Taylor

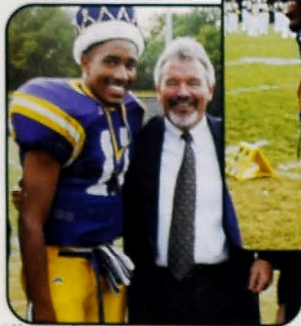

Ashley Johnson

"Homecoming was so exciting! I am so grateful that I was given the opportunity to participate in this once in a lifetime event. I thank God along with my friends who believed in me and helped to create such a memorable moment in my life!"

Mr. Cowan, faculty, students, honored guests, and Class of 2003:

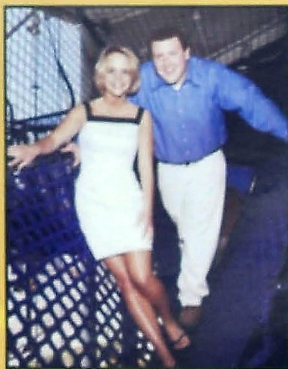

Let me begin by saying congratulations to Shenika Shackelford and Montes Shackelford, our 2003 Mr. and Miss Central and thank you, class of 2003, for this honor.

It was a shock, as well as an honor, to think that you would consider me as your yearbook dedicatory. In the past this honor always went to a teacher or principal.

Students, my words to you are to aim high as you journey into society because you can be anything that you want to be. Remember, put God first and the rest will fall into place.

I say to you once again, thank you for selecting me to be your senior class yearbook dedicatory.

Senior Class Poem

The Greatest Tale Ever Told

A story told, words known quite well
Our parents wrote the prologues to our various tales

The greatest thoughts, ever written down

Our first moments of life: the sights,
the smells, the sounds

At a very tender age, the quill was handed to us

We now have control of the pen, the words: our own universe

As one chapter closes another begins Words of our triumphs and of our personal sins

We are the authors, the story ours to tell

We have unpunctuated dreams and goals left misspelled

Friends come and go, through success and even when we fail

Some emerge for one chapter, others go on to complete the tale

We hold the pen, we write our own destinies

We've loved, we've lost, experienced both joys and miseries

Though the ink runs dry, we press on to write

For we're a work in progress, we are all full of life

Judge not our covers for what is inside

Is the very essence of all our young lives

Though some stories are longer than others, length is not our intent

For one page can hold a lifetime's worth of content

A story told, words known quite well
The greatest tale of all is ours to tell.

Senior Class History

by Melissa Conn

Once upon a time in the nearby lands of Harrison, Tennessee, a class of 316 freshmen embarked on their long journey through the circular hallways of Central High School. The class of 2003 instantly became a part of their purple and gold surroundings, participating in sports and clubs across the school. Holly Cross, Nadia Barrows, Chrissy Whitener, and Amanda Rogers were elected as our president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, and set to work planning fundraisers for our class. Fifty-two of us suffered through Mr. Houghton and Mrs. Taylor's Cultural Studies class. Matt Curvin was the only freshman in the Art Club, and Jacqueline Adams, Amber Glaze, and Brittany Peavy were in the French Club. We had 11 guys play JV football, and 9 play varsity. Marques Toliver played tennis, and 6 joined the boys' soccer team. Veronica Florence and Laurel Rozema worked with Mrs. Appleton on the Web Team and Student Council had 2 of our freshmen. We had 16 boys on the freshman baseball team, 6 on the JV baseball team, and 5 girls on the softball team. Four freshman girls served for the volleyball team, 4 played soccer, and 3 were on the girls' varsity basketball team. The junior varsity cheerleading squad had five freshmen, including Courtney Pyle and Michelle Dickey. Mark Shavers played golf, and 4 boys were on the wrestling team. Nicole Smith and Shea Thorne were our Future Business Leaders of America and 15 freshman participated in FCCLA. Lindsey Bamburg was on the Central High Flag Auxiliary, and 16 freshmen were in band. Tamara Madison and Ian Fowler tied as best all around on Underclassmen Awards Day.

Returning as sophomores the following year, we had a little over 50 students from our class participate in athletics: 11 in football, 4 in volleyball, 5 boys played soccer, 6 played girls' soccer. Mark Shavers again played golf, 2 girls were on the basketball team, 4 guys were on the JV boys' basketball team, and 3 were on the varsity. Seven sophomore boys wrestled, 10 played JV baseball, 4 played varsity baseball, and 2 ran track. Five girls were on the softball team and Ian Fowler played tennis. One sophomore cheered for our sports teams, and 6 girls from our class supported the baseball team as Diamond Dolls. Jami Harder took over as our class president, with Ashley Johnson as vice president, Courtney Pyle as our secretary, and Amanda Rogers remained our treasurer. Forty-five of us took World Studies with Mrs. Hooper, Mrs. Huffnuttler, and our student teacher Mr. Collins. Seventeen played for us in the band. Eight girls were inducted into Y-Teens, 11 into Tri-Hi-Y, and 14 sophomores made spirit signs in Leadership. Six sophomores were in Student Council, and Chase Manning and Ronald Taylor were in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Four sophomores were in the Art Club, 3 were on the Web Team, and Brian Mickey was in the Spanish Club. Several of us were in ROTC, our class placed first in the hall decorations, and we ended the year with Amanda Rogers as our best all around.

As we passed the halfway mark into our junior year, we kept all of the same officers, with the exception of Jami Smallen as our new vice president. Five boys played on our soccer team with Josh Caraccio getting the awards for M.V.P. and Offense, Colin Spaulding taking the Team Award, and Devin Frederick getting the Defense Award. Chris Snyder was on the golf team, and Chase Manning ran cross country. Only one girl played soccer, 10 juniors ran track, 5 wrestled, and Aliene Reviere played for the girls' basketball team. The guys' varsity basketball team had 4 from our class and baseball had 6. Four girls played softball and volleyball. Amanda Rogers and Courtney Pyle were on our varsity cheerleading squad. Nineteen juniors worked on the office, library, or clinic staffs, 27 were inducted into the National Honor Society, and 24 were inducted in the Beta Club. We had 47 in FCCLA with Mrs. Leroy and Mrs. Carter, 13 girls in Y-Teens, and 9 in Tri-Hi-Y with Courtney Lawrence and Melissa Conn as the chaplain and sergeant-at-arms. FBPA had 18 juniors, 8 of which were officers. There were 17 in Student Council, 16 in S.T.A.R.S., 5 in Mu Alpha Theta, and Brian Mickey, Will Pitt and David Ward participated in the regional Envirothon where they placed second and third place. To us sang in choir, 4 were in FCA, 5 were in the Art Club, and 4 were on the Web Team. David Ward participated in Model UN, and 6 juniors took part in Mock Trial. Thirteen girls played Powder Puff for our grade, with Andrew Shaver, Matt Evans, and Josh McArthur as their coaches.

As our story neared its end the class of 2003, now containing 236 students, began its last and most important year of all. We started off our year with a completely new set of officers. Bryce Wynn became our president, Ashley Williams was our vice president, Shemika Shackelford was our secretary, and Montez Shackelford was our new treasurer. Our class marshals were Josh Caraccio, Jennifer Catchings, Ashley Johnson, and Ronald Taylor, and their alternates were Nick Bateman, Veronica Florence, Missy Hart, and Jennifer Manning. Nine seniors played on our varsity football team, taking us to the play-offs, and Amanda Rogers was the only senior on the girls' soccer team. Jennifer Catchings, Ashley Roark, Lindsey Hilliard, and Nicole Holder all continued to play volleyball and also softball along with Blair Cooper, Lewis Jones, Jamal Hairston, Courtney Benton, and Michael Shirk were all on the boys' basketball team. Ian Fowler played tennis, and Mark Shavers, Andrew Shaver, Matt Evans, and Jeremy Griffin played baseball. Amanda Rogers and Courtney Pyle were captains on our varsity cheerleading squad. The seniors who ran track were Joey Cope, Ronald Taylor, Kevin Haygood, and Kenneth Fraley. Brandon McDonald, Chase Manning, Joey Cope, Matt Curvin, and Marques Toliver were the seniors on the wrestling team. An amazing 50 seniors were in the Beta Club. A total of 17 girls from our class were in Y-Teens and 9 were in Tri-Hi-Y. Nick Bateman was the president of FCA, with Chase Manning, Joey Cope, Lori Morris, and Courtney Howard also participating. Thirteen students out of our class took part in ROTC, 18 were in the band, and 7 were in the Future Teachers of America. Ian Fowler led the 19 seniors in Student Council through all of the school projects. S.T.A.R.S. had 46 seniors, and FCCLA had 65. In October, Ronald Taylor and Ashley Johnson were crowned our Homecoming King and Queen. Montez and Shemika Shackelford were our 2003 Mr. and Miss Central. Kenneth Crockett and David Ward were our two valedictorians and Nicole Holder was our Salutatorian. Nick Bateman and Andrew Shaver spoke at our graduation on May 16, and the graduating class went on to choose their own destinies and live happily ever after. The End

Last Will and Testament

Reader: Tamara Madison

Having been appointed chief executor of this fairytale come true of the Central High School Class of 2003, I, Tamara Madison, do hereby make, publish, and declare the following to be the last will and testament of the Senior Class of 2003.

I, Nicole Smith, do hereby will Amy Cole the continuous gift of soul to fill her music with feeling, and a shot at being the next American Idol.

I, Matthew Priest, a true American at heart and soul, will to Michael Alvey the abilities to be loyal and patriotic to his family, country, and God.

I, Keith Richardson, will my creativity and friendliness to the first semester leadership class for the 2002 year. I hope you all never stop reaching your goals, and never limit yourself. Keep God in your hearts, and all things are possible.

I, Lindsey Sowder, being of wishy-washy mind and lazy body, will Lindsey Cheruk loser-repellant. I also will Ms. Karen O'Brien the flat-chested torch.

I, Keandra Bass, strong-hearted and very outgoing, will LaNisha Allen the ability to follow in my footsteps without tripping or falling.

I, Rebecca Casey, being of a very opinionated mind and an oompaloompa-like body, will every first period class at Central High School the pride to stand up every morning to say the pledge to our American flag.

I, Chase Manning, being of a focused mind, skinny body, and zero athletic ability, will my heart to Brian Kjeldgaard and the rest of the wrestling team to press on, keep your mind focused on what you really want, and to never quit; never give up.

I, Tamara Madison, being of the most highest intelligence and outgoing personality, do will Miss Whitney Parks the strength to hold out through the hard times and become my mini-me.

We, Ashley Roark, Lindsey Hilliard, and Jennifer Catchings, being of athletic bodies and brilliant minds, will Coach Bray a lifetime supply of duct tape and all the summer practices she could ever dream of! We Love You!

I, Allison Denham, will to Ami Hall the ability to stick in there through it all and enjoy the next three years as it goes by faster than you think.

I, Katie Rawlston, being of happy mind and extroverted self, will Caprill Hacker the patience to tutor someone else as goofy as me; also to Caprill and Courtney Dawson, unlimited first-aid for all of their athletic endeavors.

I, Christina O'Brien, being of frazzled mind and body, will my beautiful sister, Karen, my ability to think before speaking and all the support and love she needs to make it through two more years!

I, Sarah Poland, being of extremely confused mind and beautiful body, will Thomas Currie the tolerance to complete his senior year.

I, Jill Hager, will my concededness and sense of humor to my little brother Jake, so he will be able to go through life.

I, Jimmy Lane, being of a questionable intelligence, leave to Mark Thomas... ABSOLUTELY NOTHING!!!

I, Ryan Taylor Lowery, being the best cymbal player in band, will my cymbals to Martin Wheeler so he can use them for the rest of the marching season. He can share them with Brandon Westfield and Misty Hickman.

I, Michelle Dickey, will to the upcoming seniors all of my laughter, creativity, and sense of humor. Have a great senior year!

I, Melissa Greene, being of musical mind and clumsy body, do hereby will the Snack club...well...snack! I love you all: Kyle, my cousin, Arol Cashby, Amy and the members of the Eye-Gouging Tribe. SNACK!

We, the Senior Girls of 2003, being of sophisticated and charming minds and beautiful, seductive and voluptuous bodies, will the junior girls, class of 2004: push-up bras, eye make-up remover, a lifetime supply of Midol until you are "woman enough" to cope with the pain, a towel to wipe those dirty looks off your face, and muzzles to keep your big mouths shut!!

The aforesaid will and testament of the Central High Class of 2003 will become effective immediately upon the stroke of midnight of May 16, 2003, when we fly away to make our next fairytale come true.

Senior Class Prophecy

Eg: Jennifer Manning

It seemed like any other ordinary day. I woke up, threw on some cranky pants, and headed to Central High School. However, this time I had an appointment with Mrs. Foster at 7:00 a.m. for another eyebrow piercing, so I was in a bit of a rush. When I walked into her room, she was holding up a rusty needle and viciously said, "Have a seat, my pretty!" Trustingly, I sat in one of her low, spinning chairs, closed my eyes, and thought long and hard about cardboard boxes. Then suddenly, she roughly placed the clamp upon me and as the whole left side of my face went numb, I had a dream...

So, there I was in a deep, dark petrified forest surrounded by pygmies and Monty Python characters. Then a sassy tour guide wearing a blue shirt and khakis, named LaToya Sims, also known as Ms. Attitude, approached me while dragging along a big fish and blurring out random words. She grabbed my hand and led the fish and I through the forest to a strange and delicious town called Othree. There she began to tell me about the former citizens who became famous, and here's what she had to say. Amber Glaze becomes the host of a talk show called Completely Oblivious to the World, with Katie McSharry as a regular guest after hurting herself building a bear while thinking of some guy she was playing. Shortly after, Ronald Taylor's hit show Big Papa comes on featuring episodes such as "Tips on Dating" and "How to be a Player," causing the show to be cancelled and replaced by Myriah Gilbert's show, How to Make Anything from Anything. CNN reporter, Katie Rawlston, gets fired for being overly dramatic; however, one year later, she receives an Oscar from the movie Arsenic and Old Lace. Also starring in a hit film, Tamara Madison, carries on the Sister Act series playing the role of a nun teaching a young singer. Chris Snyder, how to grow up. Speaking of growing up, Dusty Rudd becomes the model for Osh Kosh, but suddenly reaches an amazing six foot overnight; now he and Nicole Smith do magazine photos for Dell Computers. After finally giving in to buy one of these, Matt Curvin makes a video game of the "Rocky Horror Picture Show" starring Joey Cope as The Extra. Jarvis Harrison starts a heavy metal band consisting of a clarinet and nothing else. When he realizes how much he has failed to sell records, he teams up with Zach Ames, Brittany Spears' boyfriend, to start a producing company for singers. Their first client to sign, LaMara Bryson, becomes the American Idol, but is revoked of this privilege when she runs over three innocent people with a golf cart at Six Flags. Josh Ingle and Josh Sewell create the fastest and hottest car on the market called the Ritalin 2000, fully loaded with an exhaust system, turbos, and all that other stuff we listen to them about. Sadly, Josh McArthur's jeep burns to microscopic pieces for having too many entertainment systems put in. Nice girls, Jennifer Catchings and Ashley Roark, become the WWF Tag Team Division champions named The Underestimated. Boondock Saint and professional tennis player, Ian Fowler, becomes the first random outburst victim whose matches are allowed to be televised on ESPN. Josh Caraccio moves back home to play soccer for team Milan and starts the Pretty Boy of Italy Foundation, something to which Amanda Rogers will never donate. Keith Richardson finally fulfills his dream of becoming a model, too bad his car never got him to his first photo shoot. NBA all-star, David Malone, marries Stephanie Garrett but later divorces her for having too many tattoos; she moves to the Philippines to become a phone operator for Coca-Cola.

In business, Nick Bateman finally gives in and sells his hair for money; sadly, Johnathan Underwood sells his chest hair for mamatoes. Melissa Conn and Missy Hart move to Mongolia to start an Old Navy franchise, but close the stores when Thanksgiving and Christmas arrive. Steven Hill moves up in the construction world and becomes a builder of dams; he dedicates his first one to Mrs. Donna Sellers. Trista Watters opens a store next to Central High School where she sells noisy things, like chimes and medals, to annoy people; students go there mostly on test-taking days. Right next door, Ashley Williams owns her nail salon specializing in twelve to thirty-six inch nails; however, she later loses her ownership for not having a license to sell weapons. People Magazine's "Most Creative Kid on the Planet", David Ruiz, is featured in the Guinness Book of World Records for making the most things out of tape. Rebecca Casey starts up a night club called Oompaloompas with Big Boots; Tempest Jackson is a V.I.P. member.

Locally, Lilly Kraft graduates from college, becomes a child development teacher, and writes a self-help book, How to Raise the Child; this book can be found in the same section as Andrew Shaver's One Million Ways to Annoy Someone, complete with questions, comments, and lame jokes. Another writer, Kenneth Crockett, famous for his novel on individualistic conformity, suddenly turns into a clairvoyant dog named Canto. His doctor, Will Pitt, who was kicked out of medical school for arguing with his professors over everything, but later discovered the cure for the common cold, treats him at the mental hospital. After closely studying Kenneth, pianist Melissa Greene writes her book on how Darwin's evolutionary theory could be right. Meg Reynolds changes her favorite color to black after being admitted to the same hospital for slapping people on the streets, claiming to be the human slap bracelet.

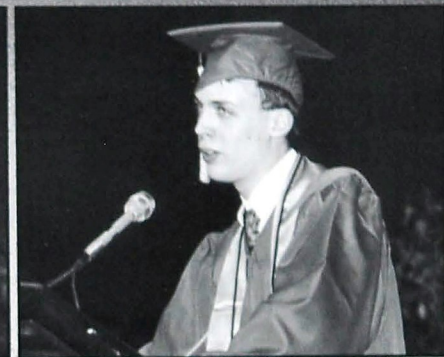

LaToya then went on to tell me a few sad stories. Tyler Bush was never allowed to graduate because he was mistaken as a fourth grade student; so, he later joins the circus and becomes the youngest-looking human cannonball. However, when David Ward graduates, he is given a pager, two cell phones, a fax machine, and four email addresses so he can be notified and obligated to fix every single problem at Central High School. Nicole Holder, instantaneously dies in a tanning bed; her last words were, "Just five more minutes!" Michael Clementson and Lindsey Hilliard finally got hitched, but she soon divorced him when he sold their house for a herd of donkeys; he now shares a yak farm with Kali Wilson. Kevin Thomas moves to Iraq to preach to young citizens, but when he constantly refuses to eat their food, he dies of starvation. Also sharing the ground, Victor Parks falls on his face one day due to wearing too much "bling bling" around his neck. Jill Hagar runs for President, Vice President, secretary, and treasurer. After receiving none of the above, she becomes the ward at the local jail where Lindsey Sowder resides for cutting up things outside of a science lab. In the cell next door, the other Boondock Saint, Brian Mickey, is placed for going AWOL on the National Guard for going to China to rescue pandas from the bear farms. Devin Fredrick hitchhiked all the way to Florida because he spent so much money on the interior of his car and forgot to buy a new engine. Brad Eaton spontaneously grew two feet of hair one night, and was horribly mistaken as an ape in the forest; he will be missed. While at a hard rock concert, Jana Smullen was unwillingly thrown into a mosh pit by Andrew Goodner, causing her to have a panic attack; Andrew is still paying off her hospital bill.

Then unexpectedly, I heard sounds of violence coming from the dark, cloudy sky. I looked up and there was the town's super hero, Chris Ball, fighting the chicken-finger stealing villain, Bryce Wynn. As I glanced in the corner of my eye, I saw Colin Spaulding, the emperor of the world, running up to me holding a large, golden staff. I tried getting away, but I was rapidly sinking into quick sand. When he struck me, I woke up and was told by Mrs. Foster to wipe my face, get in my car, and come here tonight to play the role of a prophet. So, here I am telling you my vision, my dream, my fairytale...have a happy ending!

LOUNGE

At the sophomore picnic, this group of kids lounge around the agora and take a break from their stressful classes. From the smiles on these kids faces, we know that this free time is just what they need to get them through the rest of the year.

Jammin'

These sophomores are jammin'! They're picking their songs and getting their groove on! As they are bumpin' to the bass, we got them all to stop dancing to take a picture of them having a fly time at their picnic. These kids definitely have some moves.

Cheerleaders

The sophomore cheerleaders catch their breath from the hard core cheering at camp and show off their new staff shirts. Brielle, Lindsay, Brittany, Abby, and Ashley spent their time teaching girls as small as little elementary munchkins and served as great role models. Their hard work is greatly appreciated by the girls and parents! Way to go! :D

FUN TIMES

Chit Chat

These girls, Maryanne Mabry and Vanessa Petty, spend their sophomore picnic chit-chatting and catching up on the past. With two more years of fun and friends, these girls will definitely have something to talk about.

CHEERS

While enjoying the sophomore picnic, this group of peeps quench their thirst, and say cheers to the rest of the school year. These kids are ready for whatever their teachers have in store for them. The 10th graders are striving for success! :)

FLEX

During the sophomore picnic, Shane, Corderius, and Reggie flex their muscles for the yearbook staff camera. These guys know they are buff. With all the ladies around, these guys are sure to break some hearts this year. With fly style and killer hair, these guys are on top of the world.

This years freshmen spent their time in The World Famous 9th Grade Academy. While exploring the campus, freshman made new friends, as well as experiencing a whole new way of learning.

This group of CHS's freshmen seems to be having a wonderful time. With 3 more years of highschool ahead of them, they know they have more moments like this to look forward too. Although highschool can be strenuous, fun -days like this do come around and are well worth the wait.

President - Ashley Harden
Vice President - Stacy Richardson
Secretary - Kristen McGill
Treasurer - Kailyn Mckeown

Before playing fun game of ultimate frisbee, Megan Ottinger and Chris Newby take a moment to pose for the camera. When it comes to ultimate sports, these freshmen have it down to an art. Its great to see these kids enjoying a free day off from school.

Zacala Davenport has some definite hula-hoop skill. As she shows off her hula-hooping talent, the yearbook staff photographer gets a great shot for the fans. GO ZACALA!!!!!!!

Stacy Richardson, freshmen class vice president, does her duty by getting her fellow classmates involved in the games at the picnic. Can't you almost hear her class mates yelling

Jennifer and Katie Wells look ready to hit the road. They both are definitely looking forward to their next years of high school. It will be full of tons of laughs and fun. Jennifer and Katie can't wait to see what CHS has in store for them.

The freshmen at CHS are so cute. Awww! Just look at those faces. Hannah Trejo and Amara Terrell are two of the cutest 9th graders that Central has to offer. If you wanna meet some cool people, these two chics definitely fit that description.

At the freshmen picnic, Sophia Jones, Jennifer Lawson, and Heather Keith, are trying their hardest to win this game. From the look on Couch Houghton's face, we can tell that this is a close race. Hopefully, these ladies can pull through and get a win.

Jake Hagar and Amy Goodner, patiently wait for another game to start. These kids have definitely got some school spirts. Way to go freshmen!!!!

Keys to Choir Success

Be a team.

Show your passion.

Pay attention to the director.

Keep good posture.

Sing loud.

Sing strong.

Choir

Practice makes perfect.

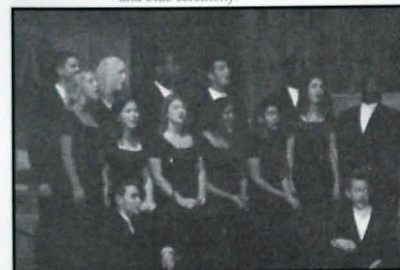

Choir members are singing tunes from The Phantom of the Opera.

Brandon, Chris, and other choir members are getting into the zone for their next performance at the red, white, and blue ceremony.

The holiday spirit was in the air at our choir's Christmas performance.

The ensemble brought down the house with their powerful song.

Choir members tune up before getting into the daily groove of the music.

Get On Board...

...with the fastest, easiest and most efficient way to transfer funds electronically. Welcome to the world of ACH Commerce. Our experienced professionals focus solely on ACH transactions, providing your company with the latest portfolio of funds transfer tools. Plus, our direct link to the Federal Reserve Bank offers you more solutions, more options and more flexibility.

Just look at the advantages of using ACH COMMERCE funds transfer solutions:

- CHECK CONVERSION – your company can convert paper checks received "by mail" or "in person" into electronic items. Remittance data can also be captured to support automated posting into accounts receivable systems.
- CASH CONCENTRATION – if your company has multiple locations, utilizing ACH instead of wire services saves money and time.
- INTERNET AND PHONE CHECKS – your customers can pay by electronic check via the World Wide Web or over the telephone.
- DIRECT DEPOSIT – permits direct pay to employee bank accounts for their payroll, expense reimbursement, pensions, etc.
- ELECTRONIC CHECK RE-PRESENTMENT – convert returned check items into electronic items to be resubmitted for payment.
- DIRECT DEBIT – debit customers for recurring charges directly from their bank account. This allows you to save on operational costs and improve cash flow.

You've Heard It All Before: "Save time and money;" "Easiest and fastest way to increase cash flow." But while others only make promises, ACH Commerce uses its experience, expertise and proven ability to deliver results. The key to their (and your) success? Taking advantage of the ACH network and electronic funds transfer.

- Save trips to the bank and automate the posting process. After converting the paper checks into electronic items, simply upload the data to ACH Commerce for processing. Funds will be deposited into your account and available the next morning. If your accounts receivable system will accept an import file, send us the specifications and we will send you an electronic file for posting.
- Electronic items are paid before paper. It's like being at the head of the line. Your customer's bank will post electronic transactions before paper ones, giving you top priority.
- Timely notification of returned items in two days. Knowing about NSF's in 2 days, versus 7 to 10 for paper, you'll be able to comfortably fulfill orders faster.
- Less expensive than credit card discount fees. Why pay anywhere from 2-4% on each credit card transaction? Electronic checks are a flat fee, and are therefore much less expensive.

ACH Commerce offers a variety of processing tools to create your transactions, requiring no software investment or learning curve for your company.

- Two check conversion tools to convert paper checks received in the mail or in person. One converts 350 checks per hour and one converts 60-90 items per minute. Both support imaging and capturing of check and remittance data.
- Internet Gateway Entry for keying of transaction information, downloading of return information, plus custom data for importing into your receivables system.
- Real-time gateway for server-to-server posting with powerful authentication and verification capabilities.
- If you can export data from your existing system, send it to us via our secure, web-delivery interface, and we will convert the data and process it through the ACH network.

So what are you waiting for? Get on board with the fastest and most efficient way to transfer funds electronically — call ACH Commerce at 800-724-8780
